

A.E.A. 67
 "Alabama Day", 46
 Alumnae, 4, 23, 25, 26, 27, 30, 36,
 39, 70, 76, 77, 78
 Artists-Lecture Course, 31, 34, 52, 74
 Athletics, 75
 Babb, Mrs. Mary Morrison, 35
 Beard, Prof. J.B. 89
 Baptists, 1, 44
 Basketball, 4, 8, 15, 29, 45, 48, 50,
 52, 53
 Birmingham Southern Glee Club, 85
 Black, Judge Hugo, 8
 Bloch, Solomon D. 21, 22, 25, 76
 Brownfield, Lelah, 83
 Buildings, 36, 66, 71, 94
 Campaign Drive, 24, 37, 38
 Carlton, Clare, 92
 Carmichael, Dean, 74
 Celebration, 51
 Chapman, Mrs. Katherine H. 43, 47
 Clifford Devereux, 45
 Club Institute, 84
 College Catalog, 34
 College Night, 66
 Commencement, 28, 30, 31, 32, 56, 69, 77
 Concert, 27, 43, 45, 47, 53, 61, 72
 Cummings, O. 92
 Dairy, 23, 93
 Derby, Mary, 68
 Donations to College, 24
 Dozier, Minnie Lee, 18
 Dramatic Club, 43, 44
 Enrollment, 41, 74, 88
 Exchange Club, 16, 67, 89, 92
 Exhibit, 69, 70
 Expression, 2, 10, 35, 46
 Extension Dept. 22
 Faculty, 39, 42, 88, 94
 Founders Day, 42
 Fourth of July, 34
 Fowlkes, Helen, 29
 French Play, 72
 French Relic, 45
 Girls at Work, 2
 Glee Club, 22, 23, 24, 30
 Graduates, 22, 29, 35, 78, 79
 Graham, Dr. and Mrs. J.Y. 87, 88, 90
 Griffin, Ila Deane, 25
 Halloween, 44
 Harris, Dr. Seale, 91
 Health Inspection, 92
 Henshaw, Opera Co. 51
 Heyward, DuBose, 52
 Hike of College Girls, 46
 History of College, 35
 Home Economics Contest, 16
 Home Economics Department, 33, 44, 75
 Honor Roll, 1, 35, 47, 68, 74, 85
 Inter-High School Meet, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9,
 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 17, 19, 20, 21,
 44, 46, 50, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58,
 59, 60, 61, 63
 Irvin, Anna, 39
 Jones, Ann, 91
 Judson Club, 39
 Juvenile Court, 73
 Kelly, Bledsoe, 41
 Kent, Nellie, 90
 Letz Quartet, 766
 Life Saving, 71
 Lindsay, Vachel, 22, 25
 Losey, Dr. Frederick D, 3, 50
 Mahler, Alice, 51
 Martin, Gladys, 78
 May Day, 30, 72, 80, 81
 McCready, J.D. 93
 Memorial Day, 70
 Modern Languages, 96
 Monk, M.T. 72
 Montgomery, Edith, 40
 Mothers Day, 3
 Motto of College, 76
 Music Department, 15, 25, 29, 31, 32, 33, 34, 45, 72, 78, 82.
 Negro Employee, 72
 Nelson, Lucile, 32
 O'Connell, Mary Frances, 27
 Operetta, 26
 Pagent, 2
 Palmer, Dr. T.W. 29, 39, 46, 63, 75
 Palmer, Mrs. T.W. 44, 72, 73, 74, 95
 Palmer, T.W. Jr. 26, 33
 Palmer, Mrs. T.W. Jr. 28, 87
 Palmer, Stella, 46
 Palmer-"Three Tom's", 28
 Pardue, Jewel, 23
 Patterson, A.G. 38
 Peck, Dr. Wilena A. 46
 Pennington, Dr. Julian, 34
 Phillips, Dr. John W. 50
 Practice Home, 1, 36
 Prizes of High School, 50
 Program, 50
 Putnam, Beulah, 29
 Radio Bible Course, 17
 Ramsay Hall, 61, 66
 Reaves Home Burns, 51
 Recitals, 23, 30, 45
 Richmond, Colin B. 88
 Robertson, Annie Laurie, 75
 Sale, Annie E. 43
 Scholarships, 18, 35, 42, 47, 62, 83,
 87, 89, 94, 96
 Sellers, Minnie, 55
 Senior High School Class, 23
 Sharpe, Mrs. Joanna LaRue, 18, 26
 Shawhan, Mrs. 76
 Social Clubs, 3
 Sociology Dept. 64
 Spry, Walter, 86, 87
 Stafanson, Vilhjalmer, 53, 54
 Stallworth, Mrs. Olivia, 91
 Stakley, Dr. Charles A. 79

MONTEVALLO HONOR ROLL IS ANNOUNCED

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The full reports of the students for the first quarter, Alabama college, Montevallo, have been completed. Two honor rolls are made public first, the list of those who have attained grade "A" in all subjects, and, second, those who have made all "As" and "Bs."

The following students' names appear upon the first honor roll: Josephine Kilgore, Birmingham; Fay Turner, Vinegar Bend; Virginia Kockritz, Birmingham; Elsie Mahaffey, Montevallo.

The following are on the second honor roll:

Robbie Andrews, Florida; Kathleen Arnold, Goodwater; Lucile Bell, Ashland; Ernestine Bonner, Camden; Era Boyd, Gadsden; Ola Mae Breedlove, Gantt's Quarry; Ethel Brown, Cromwell; Lillie Burleson, Guin; Annie Carmichael, Hollins; Winifred Castleman, Greensboro; Joy Cawthon, Florida; Lola Alice Croll, Linden; Frances Crump, Steele; Ethel Drake, Butler; Mamie Eakens, Selma; Janice Fuquay, Alexander City; Helen George, Mobile; Mildred Gilchrist, Brantley; Imogene Gilder, Mt. Meigs; Ellen Hagood, Selma; Mary Hill, Benton; Elizabeth Horsley, Columbiana; Mary Hungerford, Selma; Sara Jeter, Montevallo; Helen Johnson, Bessemer; Dionetta Kroell, Montevallo; Mayme Kroell, Montevallo; Mamie Love, Greensboro; Gladys Lumpkin, Albertville; Abbotte McKinnon, Talladega Springs; Ruth Parker, Birmingham; Alice Quarles, Mobile; Margaret Randle, Birmingham; Callie Roan, Thomasville; Frances Rosenblum, Gadsden; Joanne LaRue Sharpe, Montevallo; Helen Townsend, Russellville; Mildred Walker, Newbern; Eleanor Wallace, Baker Hill; Dorothy Williams, Uniontown.

Montevallo Baptists Ordain New Deacons

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—At the Baptist Church Sunday morning an interesting ordination service was held. The following new deacons, who were recently elected, were formally ordained; J. R. Lewis, R. A. Reid and P. C. Wilson.

Two other deacons were elected at the same time, but they had been previously ordained in other churches: R. L. Griffin and J. S. Ward.

The ordination sermon was preached by Rev. R. L. Duran, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Columbiana.

Delegates Report At Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 11.—(Special.)—At the Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday evening, two of the students, Miss Margaret Butler, of Montgomery, and Miss Lida Allen of Cromwell, who attended the International Conference of Volunteer Workers at Indianapolis during the Christmas holidays, made a report to the association. Miss Butler spoke on "The Plan and Organization of the National Student Volunteer Movement," and Miss Allen told of the discussions at the meeting in Indianapolis concerning war. The audience was greatly pleased with their reports. Reports will be made at future meetings by the other members who attended. Among those are Miss Lulu Palmer; Miss Bess Fowler, York; Miss Helen Davis, Fort Davis; Miss Margaret Embry, Ashville.

VAN GUARD APPEARS

Montevallo Students Pleased With First Number of Publication.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—The Van Guard, Vol. 1, No. 1, the new student publication, appeared Monday. It is having a warm reception from the faculty and students. The following compose the editorial staff: Editor-in-chief, Abbotte McKinnon, Talladega Springs; associate editor, Helen Johnson, Bessemer; athletics, Frances McGee, Montgomery, and Lillie Burleson, Guin; social editor, Marguerite Carlin, Mobile; business managers, Elma O'Neil, Gainesville, and Mary Emma Taylor, Gadsden; advertising managers, Theresa Conoway, Montgomery, and Elizabeth Horsely, Columbiana; music, Genevieve Turberville, Century, Fla.; jokes, Frances Selton, Greensboro; art editors, Catherine Shepard, Mt. Vernon, and Dutch Watts, Alexander City; circulation manager, Annie Laurie Dunn, Mobile; clubs, Annie Mae Skinner, Montgomery; Lillie Burleson, Guin; Hettie Hinson, Abbeville; Crooks Steele, Clinton; Ruth Cunningham, Furman.

Students Report On Volunteer Meeting

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 15.—(Special.)—The students from Alabama College who attended the student volunteer convention at Indianapolis during the Christmas holidays had charge of the college Y. W. C. A. service and the services at the Baptist and Methodist churches on Sunday evening. At the Y. W. C. A. service, Miss Bess Fowler, of York, spoke on "Racial Conditions," which was one of the live subjects at Indianapolis.

Miss Helen Davis, of Fort Davis, gave an analysis of the great speeches of Cannon S. Woods, of England.

At the Methodist Church, Miss Lida Allen, of Cromwell, presented the convention's discussion of the great war problem. Miss Bess Fowler spoke on the organization of the convention, and Miss Helen Davis gave another report of Cannon Woods' great address.

At the Baptist Church, Miss Margaret Butler, of Montgomery, presided. She prefaced her remarks by extending thanks to the church for the assistance that they gave to the girls in helping to pay their way to attend that great meeting. She spoke on the organization of the convention and upon the racial problem. Miss Margaret Embry, of Ashville, spoke concerning the four great speakers who represented the Far East, China, Japan, India and Persia. Miss Lulu Palmer closed by making a report on the eight speakers who represented Canada, England and America.

Altogether, the pupils of the school and the citizens of Montevallo were very much impressed by the reports that have been made. There will be other speakers to talk at many of the missionary societies, which will be held from time to time in the town of Montevallo.

STUDENT PRACTICE AT MONTEVALLO

President and Family Entertained at Dinner in Demonstration Home of College

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Jan. 21.—(Special to The Advertiser.)—The students of the "Practice Home" of Alabama College entertained at dinner on Saturday evening, President and Mrs. T. W. Palmer and Miss Lulu Palmer. The following menu was served:

Fruit cocktail
Salted Pecans
Lobster a la Newburg
Pressed chicken
Buttered carrots, creamed asparagus
Celery
Hearts of lettuce, French dressing
Dinner rolls
Angel parfalt, coffee

The decorations were carnations and ferns.

This practice home for teaching girls the real art of housekeeping was begun in 1916 by the lamented Miss Martha Patterson, head of the home economics department at that time. So much interested was she in the establishment of a home that, in addition to her full work in other lines, she volunteered to live in the home and serve as its general director. She had high ideals of what home life should be, and impressed most forcibly and favorably upon the young women of those years those ideals that have always been so dear to the best types of southern people. Hundreds of young women have been trained in this home, and they are now engaged in making homes or teaching home-making in various parts of Alabama.

The residence used is an attractive place for such a purpose. It was built in 1816, before Alabama was admitted into the Union, by Edmond King, one of the wealthiest and most progressive citizens of the territory, and of the young state. It was the first brick house erected in central Alabama, and probably one of the first in the state. It was known far and wide as the King Mansion, where hospitality was extended in true southern style to all passing this way.

Such a home is an excellent place for the young women of today to learn housekeeping. The fine traditions of those early days mingled with the arts and sciences of today are turning out the best trained and educated women for today and tomorrow. The demand for this source of study is so great that one or two more residences must be secured by next session.

Interior decorating is an important feature of the homemakers' course. As a practical problem demonstrating their skill, the students have recently renovated and redecorated the interior of the home, giving it a most attractive appearance.

Those living in the home at this time are Miss Annie J. Smith, director; Mildred Walker, Newbern; Lula Hawkins, Birmingham; Lorene Hughes, Birmingham; Lucile Bell, Ashland.

"Y" FIELD WORKER TALKS TO STUDENTS AT MONTEVALLO

Advises Them to Fit Themselves for Work

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Jan. 21.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Charlotte Jackson, a former Y. W. C. A. secretary and now educational field worker for the Southern Presbyterian church, is spending two or three days at Alabama College as the guest of the student-body. She addressed the Y. W. C. A. at Sunday evening service, drawing her lessons from the fourth chapter of the Book of Esther. She made a strong appeal to the students to prepare themselves for some useful service. "This," she said, "is the greatest time in all the history of the world for women. Until recently, there were only three occupations for girls, but now they can engage in anything for which they may be prepared." With telling effect, she advised, "Fit yourselves for your work, for it may be you were 'brought to court' for such a time as this."

Miss Jackson is an Alabama girl. Her home is in Tuscumbia. She is engaged in visiting all colleges for women in the south.

GIRL SHOULD EARN EDUCATION, IS VIEW

Should Work Whether In Need Of Money Or Not, Says Savant.

By International News Service. BERKELEY, Jan. 25.—"Every student in college should make himself economically independent by working, whether he is in need of money or not," said Dr. J. B. Plexotto, head of the social economics department of the University of California, in an interview recently.

She advised a period of five years to be spent in college, working several afternoons a week to the extent of about 50 hours a month. In this way a girl can earn from $20 to $30. If this is done not more than 12 or 13 units of work in school should be taken.

She believes that no girl who works her way through college should take a position of responsibility because it is a severe strain upon the nerves. But any position where a girl is under the direct supervision and direction of another, with a given thing to do and a given time to do it in, will not tend to impair her health through straining the nerves.

"I believe that girls who work their way through school get more out of college than those who do not," said Dr. Plexotto, "provided always that they do not undertake too much. They gain knowledge in an added field of education, the ability to share bigger responsibilities than those of personal experience, the ability to work harmoniously in cooperation with and under the supervision of others. In clerical work there is much valuable business experience acquired, and from work in private homes a girl gains the knowledge of home duties and problems and acquires the happy faculty of living with others in a home environment."

"I think that a girl who does outside work gains much more from college than one who is constantly de-

MONTEVALLO PREPARES

State Federation Of Clubs Will Convene There In Annual Meeting.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 25.—Special.—The Studiosis Club, faculty and students of Alabama College and citizens of Montevallo are looking forward with great interest to the meeting of the State Federation of Clubs in Montevallo during the month of April. Mrs. Val Taylor, of Uniontown, is the president, and in connection with the committee Mrs. John Tilley and Mrs. Brevard Jones, of Montgomery, she is having a splendid program arranged. Montevallo people are expecting representation from every woman's club in the state, and it is hoped that the stay of the visitors will be made most pleasant.

The recital of the great Bavarian violinist, Telmanyi, on Saturday evening promises to be a great event among the music-loving people of Montevallo, and a large number of out-of-town visitors are expected to attend.

Announcement has just been made that Mrs. I. M. Moore (Betsy Hamilton), of Talladega, will give a reading in the college auditorium during the month of February. Mrs. Moore is traveling over the state in the interest of the Orphans' Home at Talladega. She donates all that she makes from her readings to that institution. The college part of the proceeds will be used in the purchase of another grand piano for the use of the music department.

MANY TO ENTER SCHOOL CONTEST

Expression Tournament At Montevallo Is Attracting Interest Over State.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 26.—Special.—The expression contest that is to be held at Alabama College during the week of the basketball tournament, Feb. 21-23, is attracting wide attention throughout the state. Each accredited high school is invited to send two representatives.

The following high schools have already enrolled expression contestants: Ramer High School, Ramer; Autauga County High, Prattville; Alexandria High, Alexandria; Chambers County High, Milltown; Bessemer High, Bessemer; Clay County High, Ashland; John Herbert Phillips High, Birmingham; Ensley High, Ensley; Woodlawn High, Birmingham; Pine Hill High, Pine Hill; Montevallo High, Montevallo; State Secondary Agricultural School, Wetumpka; Alliance High School, Bessemer, Route 5.

The college extends an invitation to the teachers of expression in these high schools to come with their representatives with a view to perfecting a plan for continuing these contests in the future. There will have to be adopted some plan of elimination in future years before coming to the state contest.

pendent upon money from home and who is free to idle away her extra hours. Extra work," she added, "does not preclude any girl from taking part in campus activities."

PORTRAY SEVEN AGES OF WOMEN

Junior Class Of Montevallo Presents Interesting Pageant In Auditorium

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 26.—(Special).—The seven ages of woman were beautifully portrayed in the college auditorium by members of the junior class this week.

First came the baby being rocked across in a buggy. "Rock-a-Bye Baby" was beautifully and pathetically sung by Nancy Caldwell of Scottsboro, a special voice and public school music pupil of that class.

Next was the playful tot well represented by Louise Purfoy of Talladega to the strains of music of "Dolly's Washing Day."

The next scene was a girl graduate. Mary Bradshaw of Beatrice, who crossed the stage with her college diploma, looking as wisely as anyone who has ever appeared for a diploma. In connection with this scene, Nancy Caldwell sang with splendid effect the Alma Mater song.

The fourth scene was the engaged girl by Miss Abbott McKinnon of Talladega Springs. Her beautiful diamond ring, displayed to the audience, produced a thrilling effect. The song for this scene was "I Love You Truly."

Next appeared the bride in the person of Miss Winifred Castleman of Greensboro, who seemed to be as modest and shrinking as the usual bride. Lohengrin's wedding march was played beautifully by Janice Fuquay of Alexander City.

The young mother by Mildred Walker with babe in arms brought forth great applause from the audience. "Sleep, Baby Sleep," by Nancy Caldwell at once gave everyone a profound feeling of love and respect for mother's love.

The scene closed by a tottering grandmother by Clara Ida Williams of Selma. "Silver Threads Among the Gold," sung by Nancy Caldwell, touched every heart in the audience.

The whole program was planned and arranged by Agnes Hary of Newala, president of the class.

Each morning during the contest week, preliminary contests will be held for elimination, and at night before a large audience of students and visitors to the tournament and citizens of Montevallo the final contest for the prize will be held.

Mothers Day Is Kept At Montevallo School

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 2.—Special.—Mothers Day was observed Friday by the Parent-Teachers' Association of the Montevallo-Aldrich Consolidated School. About 50 mothers of Aldrich, Wilton, Spring Creek and other nearby communities were present and participated in the general discussion of plans for the improvement of the school.

All were then invited to the lunch room, where cake and cream were served. Every day lunch for 50 or 60 pupils is given at a cost of from 5 cents to 15 cents a pupil. A decided improvement has been noted in the school work of these children.

The food for these lunches is prepared and served by the institutional class in home economics, under the general direction of Miss Anna Irvin, food supervisor of the college. Miss Irvin has had wide experience in serving large groups of people and in teaching the study of home economics. She has been the supervisor of foods at Alabama College for four years. This is the first time in the history of the institution that she has had a class to study institutional management. These pupils take turn about in serving the children of the public school. Those in charge of the work on Friday were Grace Waters, Birmingham; Eunice Matthews, Scottsboro; Gussie Hagood, Andalusia; Lena Harris, Montgomery; Minnie Rentz, Camden; Bess Fowler, York; Cora Bell Maddox, Union Springs; Ethel Brown, York.

Montevallo Clubs Greet New Members

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 5.—Special.—Saturday evening, the Castalian, Tutwiler and Philomathic Clubs entertained their new and honorary members at the clubrooms. According to the old custom, the new members were dressed to represent a person or group of persons. The new members of the Philomathic Club impersonated the Follies, and were dressed in ballet costumes of rainbow colors. Those of the Castalian Club represented the devil and seven fallen angels. The Tutwilers impersonated famous women.

The members of all the clubs formed in line in the old library room and marched down the broad stairway of the dormitory. They were received at the club house by the honorary members and other invited guests. The presidents of the three clubs who had general charge of the program are, Winifred Castleman, Greensboro, Tutwiler Club; Mamie Kroell, Montevallo, Castalian Club; Julia Turberville, Century, Fla., Philomathic.

DR. LOSEY LECTURES AT MONTEVALLO

Former Alabamian, Now of New York, Delights Large College Audiences

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 5.—Special to The Advertiser.—Dr. Frederick D. Losey, of New York City, a former Alabamian, delivered a most attractive and instructive lecture at 11:00 a. m. on Monday to a packed audience in the college auditorium. His subject was "The Music of Verse." It was a strong appeal for the use of correct English at all times in speech.

At the noon hour he was the guest of President Palmer at the meeting of the Exchange club. After the luncheon he was called on for an after dinner speech, responding with one of the most eloquent talks ever heard in Montevallo. Many members of the club had never heard him before, and they expressed a desire to hear him at every speech that he will deliver in the future in this community.

At 9:30 Tuesday morning, in the college auditorium, Dr. Losey delivered what is believed by many to be the greatest oration that he has ever delivered anywhere, the subject being "The Value of the Individual."

"I thank God," said he, "that I was born in a small town where people were taught to work with their hands and to respect the workers. The lessons that I learned then from the wagon-maker, the harness-maker and other workers of that day have been helpful to me in everything that I have ever done."

He told in a most interesting manner a story of Roosevelt and a Russian laborer, and quoted the ex-president as saying that "no man should ever render a service to another who could not render that same service to that individual, in the event conditions were reversed, without losing his self-respect." In other words, any menial service—however lowly it may be considered—deserves the highest respect and honor from the person who receives that service, and that person should be willing to render the same service without any thought of considering himself an inferior.

On Tuesday afternoon Dr. Losey delivered another lecture on "Julius Caesar," and read the play "Julius Caesar" at 8:00 p. m. Dr. Losey is probably one of the most popular, entertaining and instructive lecturers who has ever appeared in Montevallo.

Dr. Losey Pleases Montevallo Crowds

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 6.—Special.—Dr. Frederick D. Losey, of New York City, a former Alabamian, delivered a lecture Monday to a packed audience in the college auditorium. His subject was, "The Music of Verse." It was a strong appeal for the use of correct English at all times. At the noon hour, he was the guest of President Palmer at the meeting of the Exchange Club. After the luncheon, he was called on for an after-dinner speech, responding with one of the most eloquent talks ever heard in Montevallo.

Tuesday morning, in the college auditorium, he delivered what is believed by many to be the greatest oration that he has ever delivered anywhere, the subject being, "The Value of the Individual."

On Tuesday afternoon, he delivered another lecture on "Julius Caesar," and read the play, "Julius Caesar," at 8 p. m. Dr. Losey is probably one of the most popular, entertaining and instructive lecturers who has ever appeared in Montevallo.

MONTEVALLO CLUBS HOLD RECEPTIONS

Pastors Deliver Sermons on Modern Relations of Parents and Children

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 5.—Special to The Advertiser.—Saturday evening the Castalian, Tutwiler and Philomathic clubs entertained their new and honorary members at the club rooms. According to the old custom, the new members were dressed to represent a person or group of persons. The new members of the Philomathic Club impersonated the Follies, and were dressed in ballet costumes of rainbow colors. Those of the Castalian club represented the Devil and Seven Fallen Angels. The Tutwilers impersonated Famous Women. The costumes of many of the members were very beautiful indeed.

The members of all the clubs formed in line in the old library room and marched down the broad stairway of the dormitory. They were received at the club house by the honorary members and other invited guests. The presidents of the three clubs who had general charge of the program are: Winifred Castleman, Greensboro, Tutwiler club; Mamie Kroell, Montevallo, Castalian club; Julia Turberville, Century, Florida, Philomathic.

Address by Miss Eliasberg.
Miss Emma Eliasberg, of Selma, delivered an interesting and instructive address to the Y. W. C. A. at 2 p. m. on Sunday to a large audience. She has recently spent a year and a half in Germany, where she has visited many times before. In this address, she gave a graphic account of her visit to many parts of Germany, Bavaria, Switzerland, and Italy. She showed many photographs and engravings from each of these countries. The faculty and students greatly appreciated her visit and address and trust that she may come again.

Pastors Preach to Young and Old.
About two weeks ago, the pastors of Montevallo requested the citizens of the town to give them a statement concerning the greatest evils that are prevalent in Montevallo. Many hundreds of notes were handed in, the people generally taking the request seriously. Quite a large number of the young people claimed that the greatest evil was "The intolerance of the older people towards the pleasures of the young."

On Sunday morning, the three pastors of the town preached very strong and helpful sermons on this subject, using as their text two passages of scripture from one of Paul's letters: Fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; children, obey your parents and the Lord, for it is right."

A very profound impression was produced upon both old and young, and it is believed that a more wholesome influence will be exerted hereafter on the pleasures of the young people.

MUCH INTEREST IN GIRLS' CAGE MEET

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 9.—(Special.)—The tournament to be held at Montevallo February 21, 22 and 23 is attracting state-wide interest. In addition to the basketball tournament, there will be contests this year in expression, in art, and in home economics.

The Birmingham Age-Herald has kindly consented to give two valuable gold medals for the first and second prizes in expression. These will be awarded to the pupils excelling in expression during the three days of the tournament. Preliminary contests will be held each morning until the number of contestants is reduced to four or five. Then a final contest will be held on the evening of February 22, when the two medals will be awarded.

Eighteen high schools have already enrolled for the contest in expression. Each school will send two representatives. These thirty-six girls have won the honors at their homes and each one wishes to carry the medal back to her school. There will be an overcrowded house to hear them at the final contest.

ALABAMA GIRLS WIN, 25 TO 21

UNIVERSITY, Ala., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—In a game that kept the crowds on their feet throughout, Alabama's Crimsonettes defeated the quintet of Woman's college here tonight by a score of 25 to 21.

Alabama gave dope a great upset by taking the lead at the start of the first quarter and kept it throughout the first half, ending three points better than the Montgomerians, the second half saw a complete reversal, Woman's college forging ahead and keeping the lead for a couple of minutes until Mary Little started shooting with machine gun rapidity.

Free shots played a prominent part in the game, 'Bama even getting one point through failure of a substitute to report to the scorekeeper. Nuckols made five free ones in the first half, while Colvin made three. In the second, each forward added more free points.

Mary Little simply went wild in the second half after the lead had been taken away from 'Bama and dropped in three field goals to even matters. Nuckols was in there feeding 'em well to the taller player to make her shots.

Nuckols, too, annexed a pair of field goals. The work of Baker, at jumping center, and of Shellbourne, guard, was very good.

For Woman's college, the goal shooting of Jones featured. She tried several long shots, and dropped in some from rather difficult angles. She scored four for the night, one resembling a boy's shot. Branscomb, jumping center, played a remarkable game, while the work of Pullen and Taylor, guards, were praiseworthy.

VALENTINE TEA BY MONTEVALLO ALUMNAE

The Birmingham chapter, Montevallo Alumnae and Students' association, will entertain at a Valentine tea Saturday, February 16, from 3 until 5:30 o'clock at the Blue Triangle club rooms.

A delightful program has been planned. Mrs. D. F. Rucks, the president, extends a cordial invitation to members and friends of the chapter. The following committees are in charge:

Program: Mrs. W. C. Spidle, chairman; Mrs. Fred Perry and Mrs. Frank Chappelle.

Entertainment and refreshment: Mrs. Eugene Henry, chairman; Mesdames Ralph Quinn, H. H. King, Gregory Spinks and Mrs. Farrell.

Reception committee: Miss Kathleen DeShazo, chairman; Misses Marie Perry, Mae Hatcher, Virginia Griffith, Lois Parker, Ethel York, Lockie Posey, Elizabeth Atkins, Gladys and Eugenia Moore, Hattie and Mable Stable, Orlean Randle, Mildred Collins, Amy Phillips, Jean Collins and Elizabeth Cook.

Decoration: Mrs. John B. Cole, chairman; Mrs. Dudley Vaughn, Misses Bertie Allen and Bernice Gay.

The registration for members and visitors on this occasion will be kept by Misses Mildred and Jean Collins, Orlean Randle, Mae Hatcher and Virginia Griffith.

MONTEVALLO IS WINNER IN FAST CONTEST, 25-19

Woman's College Fights Hard But is Outplayed by Visitors' Forward

Probably the fastest and hardest fought basketball game ever played at Woman's College was tagged Saturday night when the Montevallo girls defeated the locals 25 to 19, the final outcome of the game being in doubt until the last few minutes of play.

Both sextets displayed clever team play and showed the advantage of coaching. The game was a hair raiser from the start until the close, and at no time did either club have more than a five point margin.

Although playing against a more experienced team, Woman's College fought a hard battle, only to lose in the end, largely through the excellent playing of Miss Gladys Martin, a flashy forward. She did everything in the way of basketball necessary to win. She scored twenty-three of the points made by her team, eight coming from the field of play. But she was not alone in the luminary role as Misses Albritton and Smith, centers, played probably the best floor game ever seen at the college.

Much credit should be given the locals for their fighting spirit. Although never holding a good margin over their opponents, the Woman's College players fought with the spirit that will make future team champions. Elizabeth Branscomb, captain, and jumping center fought the defense of the visitors and on numerous occasions stopped the passwork. Along with Miss Branscomb probably the work of Ann Taylor, guard and Val Colvin, forward, were the outstanding features for the local's play.

Woman's College jumped away to a two point lead shortly after the game was under way, but at the close of the half, Montevallo lead 13 to 9. In the second period Woman's College tied the score on four points made by Colvin. The visitors flashed another attack and with the ball in their own territory, Miss Martin sent the ball through the loops for several field goals.

In the final minutes of play, Eleanor Dannelly relieved Jones, and made two field goals both coming from difficult angles of the playing court. It was a great basketball game. One that will live with those who witnessed the struggle. However when a team carries a forward like Miss Martin opposing teams are going to have a hard time keeping the score close.

The work of the officials Will Paterson and Miss Minnie Sellers, was of the highest order, and coaches of both teams were pleased with the work of the officials.

Woman's College: Colvin (9) and Jones (6) forwards; Branscomb and Burford centers; Pullen and Taylor, guards.

Montevallo: Martin (23) and Burleton (2) forwards; Albritton and Carmichael centers; Smith and Townsend, guards.

Substitutions: Woman's College: Dannelly for Jones; Montevallo, Thomas for Smith.

Referee Paterson (Auburn); Sellers (Montevallo). Play periods 15 minutes. Timekeeper Miss Erin Davis (W. C.).

5

ACTUAL SIZE SILVER BASKETBALL TO BE GIVEN BY NEWS TO WINNER OF GIRLS' CAGE TOURNAMENT

HERE is the silver basketball, the actual size of the regulation ball, which will be donated by The Birmingham News to the winner of the Girls' Basketball Tournament to be held at Alabama College, Montevallo, on Feb. 21, 22, 23. The big silver trophy is mounted on an ebony pedestal, and is a beautiful prize for the team winning the championship of the state.

The awarding of this beautiful silver basketball to the championship team is creating a renewed amount of interest over the state in the coming tourney at Montevallo, arousing a greater enthusiasm than ever, and a desperate fight will be waged by the 20 contesting teams for the honor of carrying home the trophy.

Selma High won the trophy donated by The News to the winning team last year, and will have another strong entry this year to compete for the big basketball. However, there will be 19 teams entered in the meeting which will contest every step of the way for the trophy.

The basketball is now on exhibit in the show windows of Jaffe Jewelry Company, Nineteenth Street, Birmingham. In a few days, it will be sent to Montevallo and will be placed on exhibit in show windows in that town. The college varsity team will have charge of it until the tournament is held, and then it will be delivered to the committee in charge of the visiting high school teams. Many visitors are planning to come to Montevallo from nearby towns to witness this, the greatest of all contests ever held in the state.

In addition to the basketball tournament, there will also be a contest in home economics, in art, and in expression. The Birmingham News has also given a valuable bronze shield as a trophy for the first prize to be awarded to the school having the best home economics exhibit. It will also give eight $5 gold pieces to be awarded to the pupils making the best individual home economics exhibit. Other valuable prizes will be given for the art and expression.

There are 90 high schools in the state that have entered the contests in their home districts for representation at this tournament. However, only 20 teams will be allowed to come to Montevallo, two from each Congressional District. Local games are being played every week to see who shall have the honor of representing their districts.

The Talladega County team, Lincoln, has been making some excellent scores in the local games, and insists that the ball shall go to that county. That matter, however, will not be decided until Feb. 25, when the prize will be awarded in the presence of 2,000 people.

COLLEGE THROGGED FOR CLASSIC GAME

Montevallo Basketball Team
Is Given Reception
By Students.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 16.—Special.—The Montevallo game, played on the Woman's College court Feb. 9, was the drawing card for a large number of week-end guests. The lady principal's guest register included the following names: Misses Annie Johnson, Clanton; L. Vela Lee and Eloise Lee, Columbia; Norma Park and Josie Park, Palph; Mary Lou Pugh, Birmingham; Mary Hodnette, Notasulga; Evelyn Beck, Glenwood; Mrs. E. C. Work, Jr., Bagdad, Fla.; Addie Lee Farrish, Camden; Mary King McCrary, Selma; Virginia Jones, Montgomery; Wyness Tate, Clanton; Katherine Bell, Prattville; Hope Tait and Ellse Cobb, Camden; Lucille Davis, Fort Payne; Mildred Moore, Selma; Adelaide Flowers, Lois Colquitt, Lena Mae Jones and Julia Mitcham, Montgomery; Ruth Phillips, Mary Akin and Milla Justice, Notasulga; Emma Nell Dickinson, Brundidge; Ethel Williamson, Bessemer. The following students came from Montevallo to the game: Misses Anne Jones, Olive Hightower, Mildred Vardaman, Minnie Holman, Helen Roykin, Sara Robinson, Ruth Jones, Nell White, Thelma Garrison, Eloise Harmon, Grace Evans, Carmelitte Greene, Annie Louise Dannelly, Townsend Taylor, Mildred Johnson, Mary E. Luther, Mildred Gilchrist, Addie Pearl Colquett, Epsie Gilchrist, Gladys Martin, Lily Burleson, Mildred Kahn, Mildred Albritton, Elizabeth Ward, Bill Smith, Helen Townsend, Edith Thomas.

The Montevallo basketball team was honored with a party given by grand council Feb. 9. Pratt reception hall, decorated in purple and gold streamers and colored lights, was the scene of the party. Miss Mayme Thweatt, as "Betty" and Miss Lucille Crawford, as "Dick," reproduced a scene from the senior musical comedy. Misses Mildred Lock and Elizabeth Robertson, in ridiculous costumes, gave a parody on the scene, "Something's Happened." Miss Helen Ford, as "Samanthy Ann," led a charming chorus composed of Misses Helen Watson, Nina Lee Wallace, Frances Kennedy, Floy Boyd, Lillian Crawford, Sadie Ling. Miss Betty Lane, in purple bell-hop costume, sang "Bell Hop Blues," a musical comedy number. Miss Rita Robaina sang a group of Spanish song si ndialect. Maids in French costumes served a salad course in Montevallo colors.

STAGE SET FOR GIRLS' STATE CAGE TOURNEY

Considerable Interest Shown In Meet Which Begins At Montevallo Thursday.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 16.—Special.—Practically all of the sectional championships have been decided and the various girl high school teams throughout the state who have won the right to represent their respective districts are making ready for their journey to Montevallo next Thursday. Interest in the second annual state high school girls basket tourney is running high and the meet is expected to even surpass the highly successful affair of last year.

Untiring work by officials of the association and close cooperation by Alabama College here has left nothing undone to assure the twenty teams of a smooth running tournament. The three local courts are in excellent condition and ready for play to begin.

The three official referees for the meet have been named by Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the association, as follows: Miss Charlotte Busey, of Troy; B. L. Britnell, of Albany, and Paul Gist, of Selma. Miss Busey last year piloted the Selma High girls to the state championship. Britnell will be remembered by those who attended the tourney last year for his excellent officiating in that meet. Gist is physical director of the Selma Y. M. C. A. and is well known throughout the state.

The congressional district championships will occupy the first day's program at Montevallo, with the tournament proper beginning Friday. The winners of the sections will clash Thursday to decide the championships of the districts, the districts having been divided into two sections by the association. All sectional champs, however, are eligible to compete for state honors.

The popularity of basketball has spread over the state the past few years in a remarkable degree. There are few, if any, schools in Alabama at present which do not boast of a cage aggregation. The tournaments held annually create a stimulus to the sport and the popularity is certain to increase in the future.

Official notice has not been given of the teams that are coming, but it is reasonably sure that Selma, the champions of 1923, will be on hand to make a royal battle for the silver ball of 1924. Atmore, who gave Selma all she wanted last year, is coming with the determination to be first this year. Lincoln has stepped into the limelight by winning such glorious victories in the preliminary contests, having defeated even Montevallo's great high school team. Jones' Mill, that made such a splendid record in '23, is coming back. Prattville, Wetumpka, Guin, Pine Hill, Ramer, and practically every team that was present last year is going to come if they can. Then several new teams—one from Ensley—are arranging to enter the contests. Only twenty teams will be allowed to come to Montevallo for the final contest.

The Expression Contest is also arousing very great interest. Already 26 girls have enrolled their names for this entry. Two gold medals are to be awarded to the winners.

The Art Contest will have splendid prizes given by The Montgomery Advertiser. The home economics contest will have a bronze shield, the gift of The Birmingham News, as well as eight five-dollar gold pieces. Every girl will want to get the shield for their school and a five-dollar gold piece for herself.

The program at Montevallo calls for congressional district championship games Thursday. The section winners in each of the 10 districts will clash, the winners going into the tournament proper Friday. It was announced recently that defeat in the district championship games would not bar a team from the state competition, but it has been learned since that only the Thursday winners will be eligible for remainder of the tourney Friday and Saturday.

Following is given the sectional representatives as far as could be learned:

- Section 1—Jones Mill or Demopolis.
- Section 2—Washington County High.
- Section 3—Escambia County High (Atmore runners up in 1923.)
- Section 4—Ramer High.
- Section 5—Newton Institute.
- Section 6—Clayton High or Girard High.
- Section 7—Talladega County High.
- Section 8—Selma High.
- Section 9—Wetumpka High.
- Section 10—Rockford or Goodwater.
- Section 11—Sumpter County High.
- Section 12—Perry County High.
- Section 13—Pell City, Cullman or Odenville.
- Section 14—Cherokee County High.
- Section 15—Town Creek High.
- Section 16—Gurley High.
- Section 17—Ensley High.
- Section 18—Mortimer Jordan High.
- Section 19—Walker County High.
- Section 20—Pickens County High.
- Sections 1 and 2 make up District 1;
- Sections 3 and 4 make up District 2;
- Sections 5 and 6 make up District 3, etc.

Goodwater Girls To Represent District At Montevallo Meet

GOODWATER, Ala., Feb. 18.—Goodwater High School girls basketball team defeated Coosa County High School team here Saturday by a score of 21 to 5, and thus gave local team entry into the tournament which will meet at Montevallo next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The local girls have met defeat only once, and during the season have defeated Lineville in two games, Mignon, Rockford, Fourth District Agricultural School teams and was defeated by Elmore County High School teams at the beginning of the season.

In the Rockford game the girls of the county high school fought bravely until the whistle stopped the game.

The girls who will go on the team to Montevallo and will play during the tournament are Mira Levy, captain; Martha Crew, Martha Darden, Bessie Rodgers, Wynona Rodgers, Elizabeth Crew and Elizabeth Thomas.

MONTEVALLO ASTIR OVER TOURNAMENT

Town Is Decorated For State-Wide Contests At College This Week.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 19.—Special.—This week finds Montevallo astir over the basketball tournament and other contests to be held at Alabama College this week. Each of the 19 congressional districts of the state will send two basketball teams. All names have not yet been sent in, but they are coming daily.

In the home economics contest, the following schools have already sent their exhibits, and they are being placed in position: Centreville, Crossville, Ensley, Florence, Jefferson County, Mobile, Montevallo, John Herbert Phillips, Pine Hill, Plantersville, Ramer, Woodlawn. Other exhibits are expected before Wednesday.

In the art contest, exhibits are here for Ensley, Milltown, Montevallo, Phillips, Woodlawn. Several others will no doubt be sent in the next two days.

The greatest enthusiasm seems to be in expression. Two pupils from each of the following schools have already been enrolled: Alexander City, Alexandria, Albertville, Alliance, Ashland, Bessemer, Eclectic, Ensley, Milltown, Montevallo, Pine Hill, Plantersville, Prattville, Phillips, Powderly, Ramer, Sylacauga, Wetumpka, Woodlawn.

The silver basketball, the trophy for the tournament, is now on display in the city of Montgomery, and will be brought to Montevallo Wednesday morning by Miss Minnie Sellers, of Ramer, president of the State Girls' Basketball Association.

On Thursday evening during the tournament, the faculty will give a tea in the new library to the coaches and teachers from the various schools and to the captains of the basketball teams. The Exchange Club members and their wives, of Montevallo, will also be invited to this tea.

The town of Montevallo is decorating its stores and placing signs of welcome across the streets. The last three days of this week will indeed be a gala day for the college, the town, and many hundreds of visitors who are coming to witness the exercises.

MONTEVALLO IS ASTIR FOR BIG DAYS THIS WEEK

Tournament and Contests to Be Participated in By Many Schools of North Alabama

Montevallo, Ala., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—Montevallo is all astir over the Tournament and other contests to be held at Alabama College this week. Each of the ten congressional districts of the state will send two basketball teams. All names have not yet been sent in, but they are coming daily. In the Home Economics contest, the following schools have already sent their exhibits, and they are being placed in position: Centreville, Crossville, Ensley, Florence, Jefferson County, Mobile, Montevallo, John Herbert Phillips, Pine Hill, Plantersville, Ramer, Woodlawn. Other exhibits are expected before Wednesday.

In the art contest, exhibits are here for Ensley, Milltown, Montevallo, Phillips, Woodlawn. Several others will no doubt be sent in the next two days.

The greatest enthusiasm seems to be in Expression. Two pupils from each of the following schools have already been enrolled: Alexander City, Alexandria, Albertville, Alliance, Ashland, Bessemer, Eclectic, Ensley, Milltown, Montevallo, Pine Hill, Plantersville, Prattville, Phillips, Powderly, Ramer, Sylacauga, Wetumpka, Woodlawn.

The silver basketball, the trophy for the Tournament, is now on display in the city of Montgomery, and will be brought to Montevallo on Wednesday morning by Miss Minnie Sellers, of Ramer, president of the State Girls' Basketball Association.

On Thursday evening during the Tournament, the faculty will give a tea in the new library to the coaches and teachers from the various schools and to the captains of the basketball teams. The Exchange Club members and their wives, of Montevallo, will also be invited to this tea.

The town of Montevallo is decorating its stores and placing signs of welcome across the streets.

CONTESTS OPEN AT MONTEVALLO

Basketball Tournament And Expression Contests To Feature

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—All is now in readiness for the annual basketball tournament and the contests in art, expression and home economics to take place February 21, 22 and 23. The following officers, judges and speakers will be on hand Thursday morning:

Miss Minnie Sellers, Ramer, president of the Alabama Girls' Basketball association; Miss Annie Laurie Robinson of Ramer, secretary of the association, and Frank Willis Barnett of the Birmingham News.

Hugo L. Black of Birmingham has accepted the invitation to deliver the address at 9:30 a. m. Friday. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Black, who will assist in the arrangements for some of the contests.

The umpires for the basketball games are Paul M. Grist, Selma; Ben Britnell, Albany, and Miss Charlotte Busey, Selma.

Judges Appointed

The art judges are: R. W. Sharp, Florence Normal school; Mrs. G. T. Rivers, Woman's college, Montgomery, and Miss Mary E. MacMillan, Alabama college.

The expression judges are Allen G. Loehr, professor of dramatics, Birmingham-Southern; Miss Mary Axford, Selma; Miss Carrie Knox, Anniston.

For home economics, Miss Josephine Eddy, Auburn; Miss Mary C. Davis, Judson college, Marion; Miss Annie E. Sale, Alabama college.

The formal exercises will begin Thursday morning at 9 o'clock with a general mass meeting, President Palmer presiding. Dean O. C. Carmichael and Miss Edith Montgomery, chairman of the student government will deliver addresses of welcome. Miss Minnie Sellers of Ramer will respond to these addresses.

The district games and the preliminary expression contests will begin at 10 o'clock. The art and home economics exhibits will be open for inspection Thursday and Friday. The College Glee club will give a concert Thursday evening, complimentary to the visitors.

SPIRITED CLASHES COME WITH GIRLS' TOURNAMENT

Montevallo Scene Of Series Of Splendid Games Played By School Misses—Thrills Supplied With Opening Feature Of Card

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 21.—(By Sporting Editor.)—Teams from all over the state gathered here today for the opening game of the girls' basketball tournament for the state title. Today's play was opened at 19 o'clock, when Ramer clashed with Atmore in a thrilling encounter. The day's play was closed this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the final whistle sounded for the Simpson-Mortimer Jordan game. Some of the most thrilling girls' games of the season were staged during the day, and indications are that the tournament will be one of the hardest fought ever held here.

The Ensley High school team was not entered in the tournament, although their team was in Montevallo. Last-minute telephone instructions from Birmingham held the Ensley sextette out, and Anna Neese of Simpson brought her Golden Tornado six here as a substitute, losing to Mortimer Jordan, 28 to 4.

Opener Feature

The opening game, Ramer and Atmore, 1923 runner-up for the championship, was one of the feature contests of the day. The Atmore team led until the last few minutes, when the great shooting of Bunah May Sellers brought her team to the fore. The highest honor winners of last season, Selma, was also eliminated, by Lincoln, and a new champion will be crowned as a result. At the end of the day's play, Lincoln, Jones Mill, Ramer and Mortimer Jordan stood out as strong contestants for that title.

Five teams failed to show up for games, and the following teams won by defaults: Perry County from York, Walker from Reform, Pell City from Center, Town Creek from Waverly, Headland from Girard.

Drawing for games Friday was held late Thursday afternoon, and, as a result, the strong Jones Mill team will clash with Ramer, Lincoln will play Wetumpka, Headland is to meet Perry County High of Marion, Pell City will play Mortimer Jordan and Jasper ties up with Town Creek. Of the games Friday, the Jones Mill-Ramer battle is expected to feature. Jones Mill piled up a score of 59 to 3 on Chatom Thursday and will be figured on strongly as a title contender.

Birmingham Eliminated

In the closing game of the day, Mortimer Jordan of Morris put up a great passing game, which, coupled with the sure shooting of Whisenant, eliminated the only Birmingham entrant, Simpson. The score was 28 to 4. The Magic City girls couldn't get their offensive working, but put up a strong defensive game. Whisenant shot 22 points for the Morris combination. For Simpson, Amelia Glenn played a good game at guard, while Nellie Kincaid played best at forward.

The line-up:

Mortimer Jordan (28): P. Hughes (6), Whisenant (22), forwards; A. Guthrie and I. Guthrie, centers; S. Hughes and Garrett, guards. Substitutes: C. Hughes for Garrett.

Simpson (4): Kincaid (2) and Morris (2), forwards; Watts and Cranford, centers; Winters and Glenn, guards. Substitutions: Harris for Cranford, Cranford for Kincaid.

Referee: Grist (Selma "Y.")

Umpire: Miss Bussey (Troy.)

Morning Games

Ramer overcame the lead of the Atmore six late in their game and won out 31 to 24. It was the shooting of Bunah Sellers that gave Ramer points necessary for victory. Margaret Parish played a wonderful game for Atmore, scoring every point.

Line up—Ramer (31)—Sellers (22) and Boyd (9), forwards; Sharpe and Hankey centers; Jones and Mathews, guards. Substitutions: Parsons for Sharpe, Sharpe for Parsons, Parsons for Mathews.

Atmore (24)—Farish (24), and Lynch, forwards; Lee and Melsop, centers; Nettles and Kearley, guards. Substitutions: English for Nettles.

Referee: Grist (Selma Y. M. C. A.), umpire; Miss Bussey (Troy.)

Wetumpka swamped Goodwater 31 to 11. Eugenia Tate was the big star for Wetumpka, shooting 20 points. Myra Levie starred for Goodwater.

Line-up—Wetumpka (31), Tate (20) and Collier (8), forwards; McCaskey and Blackmon, centers; Nickson and Taylor, guards. Substitutions: Beatrice Harris for Collier, Bernice Harris for Blackmon, Rucker for Taylor.

Goodwater (11)—Levie (11) and Rogers, forwards; W. Rogers and Darden, centers; Smith and Crew, guards.

Referee: Miss Bussey (Troy), umpire; Miss Pitts (Atmore).

The 1923 champion team was eliminated by the strong Talladega county High five from Lincoln. The score was 29 to 19. The first half ended 14 to 13 in favor of Lincoln. McHannon and Lackey starred at forward for Lincoln while Powell was the big star for Selma.

Line up—Lincoln (29)—McElhannon (14), and Lackey (15), forwards; Hollingsworth and House, centers; Shaddox and Franklin, guards.

Selma (19)—Powell (12), and Weafer (7), forwards; Prentice and Speed, centers; Tash and Tepper, guards. Substitutions: Anchors for Prentice, Austin for Weafer.

Referee: Britnell.

The Jones Mill sextette ran roughshod over the Washington county team from Chatom; winning 59 to 3. Jones and W. B. Simmons, Jones Mill, forwards went on a big shooting spree. Martin and Granada played best for Chatom.

Lineup: Jones Mill (59), W. B. Simmons (27), and Jones (32), forwards; C. Simmons and Jones centers; Blackburn and King guards.

Chatom (3)—Smith (1), Granada (2), forwards; Martin and I. V. Wilkins, centers; T. Wilkins and Bertram, guards.

Referee: Britnell.

Judge Hugo Black Is College Speaker

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23.—Special.—Student and faculty members of Alabama College assembled in the auditorium in celebration of the birthday of the father of our country Friday.

The speaker for the occasion was Judge Hugo Black, of Birmingham, who made an inspiring address touching upon the great debt owed to those who have made the great opportunities enjoyed as a people and as a nation. The address was enthusiastically applauded by the audience.

The meeting adjourned to the basketball courts and to the auditorium of the music hall for the purpose of seeing the basketball games and of hearing the students in the expression contest.

Alabama College Beats University Co-Ed Quint 27-12

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23.—Special.—The Alabama College sextette of Montevallo defeated the University of Alabama co-eds here Saturday afternoon, following the completion of girls' high school cage meet.

The final count was 27 to 12. The Montevallo girls ran up a big early lead, this carrying them through to victory, as they were outscored by the Crimson lassies in the second half.

With Martin ringing field and foul goals in quick succession in the first half, and Burleson chipping in with three two-pointers, the Montevallo girls piled up a 22-to-5 lead before the intermission. After a rest the Alabama sextette showed a decided improvement and outplayed and outscored Montevallo for the last 15 minutes.

The work of Carmichael, Smith and Martin stood out for the local team, while Donovan, Brinskelle and Robertson starred for the Crimson team. Nuckols' foul shooting was a big feature of the second half.

Line-ups follow:

Montevallo (27)—Martin (21) and Burleson (6), forwards; Albritton and Carmichael, centers; Townsend and Smith, guards. Substitutions: Thomas for Smith.

Alabama (12)—Brinskelle (5) and Nuckols (7), forwards; Little and Donovan, centers; Hammitt and Shelbourne, guards. Substitutions: Baker for Little, Robertson for Hammitt.

Referee: Britnell. Umpire: Grist.

The line-up:

FAST SELMA LASSIES LOSE IN FIRST ROUND

Lincoln Girls Beat 1923 Champions; Good Play Marks Opening Of Meet.

BY HOWARD E. FILL,
Sports Editor of The Montgomery Advertiser.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 21.—With the 10 district championships decided, Friday will see the second annual high school girls' basketball tournament here swinging into the second round. Five contests are on tap for the second day, with a possibility of one of the semi-final struggles being played also.

The opening day saw some excellent basketball, with the victory of Ramer over Atmore, the elimination of the 1923 champions of Selma High, and the victory of Wetumpka over Goodwater featuring the quintet of contests. Lincoln flashed a beautiful offense to triumph over the Chatom lassies, 59 to 3, while Mortimer Jordan displayed a fine passing sextette in defeating their fellow countians of Simpson.

Some of the stars who flashed brightly on the opening day were Sellers, an agile forward of the strong Ramer team; Whisenant, forward of Mortimer Jordan; Farish, of Atmore; A. Guthrie and S. Guthrie, also of Mortimer Jordan; Farish, of Atmore; Lackey, of Lincoln; Jones, Blackburn and King, of Jones Mill; Powell, of Selma, and quite a number of others.

Five defaults Thursday cut the number of games in half.

However, the 10 congressional district representatives are on hand for Friday's battles and several feature games stand out. Probably the chief scrap of Friday will be the meeting between Ramer and Jones Mills. It was freely predicted here Thursday that one of these teams would reach the finals, or probably both. It was not known at that time that they would class in the opener of Friday.

Another interesting affair will be the tilt between the touted Talladega County High sextette of Lincoln and the Wetumpka Misses. Both showed to excellent advantage in their first games of Thursday and the contest is expected to bring out some great basketball. Pell City and Mortimer Jordan will fight it out in another of the second round skirmishes.

There were five defaults Thursday, as follows: Girard defaulted to Headland in District 2; York defaulted to Perry High of Marion in District 6; Cherokee County defaulted to Pell City in District 7; Gurley defaulted to Town Creek in District 8; Reform defaulted to Walker County High in District 10.

Following is Friday's schedules, the first contest being slated to get away at 9 o'clock:

Jones Mill vs. Ramer.
Lincoln vs. Wetumpka.
Headland vs. Marion.
Pell City vs. Mortimer Jordan.
Jasper vs. Town Creek.
Mortimer Jordan easily downed the scrappy Simpson.

Simpson Falls.

Sextette in the afternoon Class 28 to 4. The Mortimer Jordan girls exhibited the best pass work of the tourney thus far. The centers of the winning team kept the ball almost continually. On the fly towards the Simpson goal where, with Whisenant and Polly Hughes very much on the job, the passes were converted into field goals. Kincaid, Cranford and Glenn stood out for the losers. Simpson substituted for Easley High when it was found Wednesday night that the Easley team would not participate in the tourney.

Lineups:
Mortimer Jordan (28)—P. Hughes (6) and Whisenant (22), forwards; A. Guthrie and S. Guthrie, centers; S. Hughes and Garrett, guards; substitutions, C. Hughes for Garrett.
Simpson (4)—Kincaid (2) and Morris (2), forwards; Watts and Cranford, centers; Winters and Glenn, guards.

substitutions, Harris for Cranford
Cranford for Kincaid

Referee: Grist.

Jones Mill Wins.

JONES MILLS HIGH met little opposition from the Washington County High lassies, of Chatom, and ran up an overwhelming victory, 59 to 3. Although the Chatom team fought until the final whistle, the net pass work and accurate shooting of the Jones Mills forwards proved too big an obstacle. Jones and W. B. Simmons, Jones Mills forwards, registered field goals almost at will, while the entire team showed to advantage. Martin and Granade stood out for Chatom.

Line-ups:
Jones Mills (59)—W. B. Simmons (27) and Jones (32), forwards; C. Simmons and Jones, centers; Blackburn and King, guards.

Chatom (3)—Smith (1) and Granade (2), forwards; Martin and I. V. Wilkins, centers; T. Wilkins and Bertram, guards.

Referee, Britnell.

Selma Eliminated.

THE STRONG Selma sextette, 1923 champions, were eliminated in one of the opening battles by the flashy Talladega County High team, of Lincoln, the final count being 29 to 19. The game was a hard fought affair throughout, the opening half ending with Lincoln leading by a single point, 14 to 13. Only the substitutes of the 1923 title winning sextette are members of the present team, the champions of a year ago having been lost by graduation.

In Powell, Selma presented a sure-shooting forward, while Tash, at guard, and Speed, at center, both played well. McElhannon and Lackey, a star pair of forwards, shown brightly for Lincoln. The Lincoln team is being picked as a strong contender for final honors by their great showing today.

Line-ups:

Selma (19)—Powell (12) and Weafer (7), forwards; Prentice and Speed, centers; Tash and Tepper, guards. Substitutions: Anchors for Prentice, Austin for Weafer.

Lincoln (29)—McElhannon (14) and Lackey (15), forwards; Hollingsworth and House, centers; Shaddox and Franklin, guards.

Referee, Britnell.

Ramer Is Victor.

Ramer came through a hard test in her first day's work, trouncing the aggressive Atmore misses, 31 to 24. The contest was slated to feature the opening games and it certainly filled the bill. Both teams showed excellent coaching and the pass work of both sextettes was well nigh perfect.

Bunah Mae Sellers was the main cog in the Ramer machine, ramming down 23 points. Margaret Farish counted all of her team's markers and showed a keen eye for the netting. Every member of both teams battled every minute of the struggle.

Line-ups:

Ramer (31)—Sellers (22) and Boyd (9), forwards; Sharpe and Hankey, centers; Jones and Matthews, guards. Substitutions: Parsons for Sharpe, Sharpe for Parsons, Parsons for Matthews.

Atmore (24)—Farish (24) and Lynch, forwards; Lee and Melsep, centers; Nettles and Kearley, guards. Substitutions: English for Nettles.

Referee, Grist.

Goodwater Loses.

Wetumpka downed Goodwater in a fast clash, 31 to 11. Eugenia Tate, star forward of the Wetumpka sextette, was the big star of the contest. This lassie displayed a rare show of marksmanship and contributed 20 points of her team's total.

W. Rogers, Levie and Crew played well for the losers. Levie counted all of Goodwater's points.

Line-ups:

Wetumpka (31)—Tate (20) and Collier (8), forwards; McCaskay and Blackmon, centers; Nickerson and Taylor, guards. Substitutions: Harris for Collier, Harris for Blackmon, Rucker for Taylor.

Goodwater (11)—Levie (21) and B. Rogers, forwards; W. Rogers and Darden, centers; Smith and Crew, guards.

Referee: Miss Bussey.

GIRLS' CAGE FINALS AT MONTEVALLO SATURDAY

Field Narrows As Second Day's Play Ends; Games Are Close.

BY HOWARD E. PILL.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 23.—Four teams were left Friday night to battle it out Saturday for the premier high school girl basketball honor of the state. Friday saw several fierce clashes, one tie causing an extra game that set back the schedule somewhat. The quartet of teams from which championship aggregation will be selected through elimination process Saturday is comprised of Ramer High, Mortimer Jordan High, Talladega County High, of Lincoln, and Walker County High, of Jasper.

Kramer was confronted with a huge task in conquering the strong Jones Mill team. The contest was a terrific struggle from the start and spectators were treated to some of the finest basketball ever displayed in a game between two high school teams here. Jones Mill's lack of substitutes probably cost them a few points in the last five minutes. They were forced to finish out the contest with only four players when fouls claimed two stars in the closing half.

The scheduled Wetumpka-Lincoln battle ended 12 to 12. As girls' rules make no provision for the games it was agreed to rest an hour and play a game, the game being abbreviated to two 10-minute halves.

In another fast tilt the Lincoln sextette showed a marked improvement and led by a brilliant forward, Lackey, copped the decision and won its way into the semi-finals.

Saturday morning the Ramer lassies clash with Lincoln in what is sure to prove the feature game of the day, despite the fact that it is only a semi-final tilt. Both Lincoln and Ramer came to the tourney with fine records and have showed all sorts of class here.

Walker County, winning the first game by default Thursday goes to the semi-finals with having played only one game, that a victory over Town Creek in the only clash of Friday morning. The finals for the state championship will be played Saturday afternoon.

The Friday morning games were postponed until afternoon due to the muddy condition of the courts. The heavy freeze of Thursday night left the clay playing field about an inch deep in mud. Cinders were applied and with a crew of men working double time, both courts were resurfaced and put in shape to play upon by early afternoon. The Walker County-Town Creek game was staged on the Alabama College indoor court.

In one of the hardest fought games of the meet Perry County High, of Marion, eliminated the Headland sextette 18 to 17. The contest was a furious struggle from the opening whistle.

Suttle Stewart and Carothers played well for the winning team while Shelly and Oates turned in neat performances for Headland.

Line-ups:

Marion (18)—Suttle (16) and Howe (2), forwards; Yarborough and Solnick, centers; Carothers and Stewart, guards. Headland (17)—Shelly (12) and Oates (5), forwards; Roberts and Lovington, centers; Johnson and Sharpe, guards. Referee, Britnell.

Lincoln Beats Wetumpka.

After playing to a 12-12 deadlock in one of the big clashes of the day, Lincoln and Wetumpka resumed the struggle after an hour's rest, Lincoln winning out by a 22-13 count in two periods of 10 minutes each. Both contests were stubbornly contested with Wetumpka having the edge through practically all of the first tilt and Lincoln showing a decided improvement and easily taking the abbreviated second game.

Lackey's excellent work in the play-off battle was decidedly the outstanding feature of both contests. She registered 24 of the 34 points counted by Lincoln during the afternoon's play. Ably assisted by McElhannon, Miss Lackey was chiefly responsible for Wetumpka's downfall.

Wetumpka sprung a brilliant little forward in Tate, as Lackey's was ringing up points in rapid succession for Lincoln. Tate was performing in like manner for Wetumpka. Both teams fought their hearts out and the two battles were interesting and well played from whistle to whistle.

Line-ups—First game:

Wetumpka (12)—Tate (8) and Collier (4), forward; McCaskey and Blackmon, centers; Nixon and Taylor, guards. Substitute—Rucker for Taylor.

Lincoln (12)—McElhannon (4) and Lackey (8), forwards; Hollingsworth and House, centers; Shaddox and Franklin, guards.

Second game:

Lincoln (22)—McElhannon (6) and Lackey (16), forwards; Hollingsworth and House, centers; Shaddox and Franklin, guards.

Wetumpka (13)—Tate (13) and Collier, forwards; McCaskey and Blackmon, centers; Nixon and Taylor, guards. Sub: Harris for Collier.

Locals Stage Comeback.

Mortimer Jordan High came back strong in the second half to win over Perry County High, of Marion, 13 to 17. At the end of the first half the Perry County lassies were hanging grimly to a one-point advantage, the count at the half way mark being 11 to 10. Opening up with an effective offense early in the second half, the Jefferson County misses quickly took the lead and never relinquished it.

Whisenant and Polly Hughes turned in a beautiful second half performance while Harris and S. Hughes guarded in great style. Suttle's foul shooting was easily the best seen in the tournament and she, with Yarborough and Solnick stood out for Marion.

The strain of two hard games in a single afternoon told on the Perry County misses. They met Mortimer Jordan within little more than an hour's rest, following the tie game with Headland. Line-ups:

Perry County (17)—Suttle (15) and Howze (2), forwards; Woodfin and Yarborough, centers; Carothers and Solnick, guards.

Mortimer Jordan (31)—Whisenant (23) and P. Hughes (8), forwards; J. Guthrie and C. Guthrie, centers; S. Hughes and Garrett, guards. Sub: C. Hughes for Garrett.

Ramer Victor.

The flashy Ramer High sextette marched one notch further toward the finals, overcoming strong opposition furnished by the Jones Mills lassies and winning 21 to 16. The contest was easily the hardest fought and the best played of the tournament thus far. Jones Mills was handicapped during the last five minutes of play due to lack of substitutes. With only seven members of the squad here, two of these went out by the foul route. The Jones Mills girls were game, however, and scrapped through the remainder of the clash with only five players. After a slow start Ramer found herself and played great basketball to win.

L. Jones, R. Jones and Sims were easily the Jones Mills stars, while the foul shooting of Boyd, a pair of sensational field goals by Sellers and the pass work of the entire team featured for the winners.

Line-ups:

Ramer (21)—Sellers (6) and Boyd (15), forwards; Sharpe and Sankey, center; Matthews and Jones, guards.

Jones Mill (16)—R. Jones (5) and W. B. Sims (9), forwards; E. Sims and L. Jones, centers; Kings and Blackburn, guards. Substitutions: Bass (2) for R. Jones, R. Jones for Blackburn.

Walker Wins.

Walker County High triumphed over Town Creek in the only game of Friday morning, 19 to 15. Due to the muddy condition of the courts the contest was played in the Alabama College gym.

The great shooting of Brown for Walker County stood out throughout the battle. She counted all of her team's points and proved to be one of the best shots in the tourney. The work of Agee and Lovette featured the Town Creek play. Town Creek rallied in the closing moments, but were never able to overcome the Jasper girls' lead.

Line-ups:

Walker County (19)—Brown (19) and E. Deason, forwards; King and Maxwell, centers; Brown and O. Deason, guards. Substitutions: Brockin for Lovette, Lovette for Agee. Referee, Britnell.

BIRMINGHAM GIRL WINS FIRST PRIZE

Miss Ruth Hill Carr Acclaimed Best In Montevallo Expression Contest.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23.—Special—Miss Ruth Hill Carr, of Phillips High School, was winner of the first prize in Alabama's first high school expression contest held Friday night in the auditorium of the Alabama College. Miss Lilla May instructed Miss Carr in her training, which resulted in her winning of first prize in the contest.

Other Jefferson County girls were also victorious in the contest, among them being Miss Jessie Crum, of Jones Valley High School, winner of second prize, who was instructed by Miss Ernestine Calloway. Miss Helen Veitch, of Bessemer, and Miss Wilma Van Sickle, of Jones Valley, were among the six contesting in the finals. Miss Elizabeth Russell, of Alexander City, and Miss Thelma Pearson, of Chambers County, were the other young women to take part in the finals.

Prof. Allan G. Loehr, professor of English at the Birmingham-Southern College; Miss Carrie Knox, of Anniston, and Miss Sarah Oxford, of Selma, composed the board of judges, who announced at the close of the contest that prizes in the home economics contest would be awarded Sunday afternoon. Prizes awarded to winners in the expression contests were beautiful gold medals.

Eighteen Girls Picked By Sport Critics For Mythical All-State

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23.—Eighteen players are included in the all-state selections made by Jerry Bryan, sports editor of The Birmingham Age-Herald, and Howard E. Pill, sports editor of The Montgomery Advertiser, both of whom attended the Second Annual High School Basketball Association tournament here. Due to the large number of stellar performers, it was decided not to select merely one team of two forwards, two centers and two guards. Instead a selection of six players for each position was made, the various teams being well represented in the selections.

Following is the all-state selection for 1924:

Forwards: Eugenia Tate (Wetumpka), Trudie Whisenant (Mortimer Jordan), Beulah Mae Sellers (Ramer), Margaret Farrish (Atmore), Evelyn Powell (Selma), Leola Lackey (Lincoln).

Guards: Amelia Glenn (Simpson), Oliver Jones (Ramer), Eula Nettles (Atmore), Grace Shaddox (Lincoln), Maud Nixon (Wetumpka), Aline Blackburn (Jones Mill).

Centers: Adrey Guthrie (Mortimer Jordan), Ivora Guthrie (Mortimer Jordan), Letha Mae Jones (Jones Mill), Evelyn Blackmon (Wetumpka), Evelyn Sankey (Ramer), Ethel Lee (Atmore).

MORTIMER JORDAN IS BEATEN IN LAST HALF

Jefferson County Girls Battle Fiercely Only
To Lose Thriller, 26 To 22.

BY HOWARD E. PILL,
Sports Editor The Montgomery Advertiser.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23. — Forced to fight with their backs to the wall during every moment of their play in the tournament, the scintillating sextette of Ramer High School Saturday afternoon emerged from the second annual high school girls' basketball meet with the title of state champions of 1924. The new title holders met a brave aggregation of basketball stars in the final contest. The Mortimer Jordan girls, who went down to defeat before the Ramer sextette offered the most stubborn of opposition every inch of the way before succumbing to a superior team 26 to 22.

The final struggle was a brilliant climax to the three days of play. From the very opening tip-off there was never a let-up in the play. Mortimer Jordan began auspiciously and led throughout almost all of the first half, but Ramer was equal to the task, and by a brilliant display of courage in the second half grabbed the big end of the score and clung to it through 20 minutes of the most exciting basketball that was ever played anywhere.

The Ramer team's march to the championship was over the sternest sort of competition. It is the opinion of critics here that the South Alabama misses conquered the four strongest sextets in the meet to win the 1924 basketball crown. Ramer defeated the flashy Atmore lassies on the opening day, beating down the team that went to the finals a year ago. Next they were faced with the strong Jones Mills aggregation, one of the favorites at the start of the tourney. Saturday morning the Ramer misses overcame another strong favorite in the Talladega County High six of Lincoln in a game that was every bit as gruelling and exciting as the final.

It is a coincidence that Ramer won her semi-final and final victories by the same count, 26 to 22.

Mortimer Jordan deserves a huge amount of praise for the splendid showing. The Jefferson County girls took Walker County High into camp Saturday morning with little trouble. Opening up with everything in store in the final battle. The gritty Jordan lassies fought their very hearts out to win. Led by their brilliant forward, Whisenant, they put forth a determined effort only to fall short of victory by a margin of four points. Their play brought applause from all who witnessed their attempt to stem the tide of Ramer and they could find solace in the fact that they never once stopped scrapping. The Jefferson girls downed Simpson, Marion and Walker County High to reach the final round.

Following the final game, The Birmingham News trophy, a life size silver basketball, was awarded to the Ramer girls. Miss Minnie Sellers, coach of the Ramer team, accepted the trophy on behalf of the winners. The beautiful award was presented by Dr. Frank Willis Barnett, of The Birmingham News staff. Dr. Barnett commented upon the fact that it was most fitting that the championship should be won by the team coached by Miss Sellers, for it was she who first originated the idea of a state high school girls' basketball tournament. Miss Sellers is at present president of the state association, which has as members 87 of the high schools of Alabama. Miss Sellers is due a great deal of credit for the play of her charges, for the championship team showed true effects of excellent coaching and displayed beautiful team play at all times.

The final game started off at a rush, Mortimer Jordan stepping out in front a few minutes after the opening whistle. The Jefferson County team held a three-point advantage until just before the close of the half, when Ramer spurted and brought the score up to 15 all, just as the period closed.

The last 20 minutes saw both teams struggling furiously for an advantage. First one team would grab the advantage and then the other, the score in the final period being knotted three times. With 10 minutes to go, Ramer forged ahead with two foul goals counted by Boyd, stellar little forward. A moment later Whisenant rammed down a foul goal and Ramer led by a single point. A beautiful field goal by Sellers was followed by another foul flip by Whisenant and the margin remained at two points with Ramer on top. Just a few seconds before the last blast Sellers dribbled away from the two Jordan guards and dropped in a beauty from close range and the final count stood 26 to 22.

Guthries Stand Out.

Whisenant and the two Guthries stood out for Jordan, although every member of the team is due much praise. Whisenant counted all of her team's points but was very ably assisted in passwork by Polly Hughes. There were no stars for Ramer, Sellers, Boyd, Sharp, Sankey, Jones and Matthews all performing with equal skill. The championship sextette functioned with the ability of real champions and they deserved to win.

Line-up — Mortimer Jordan (22): Whisenant (22), P. Hughes, forwards; A. Guthrie and I. Guthrie, centers; C. Hughes and S. Hughes, guards.

Ramer (26): Sellers (14) and Boyd (1), forwards; Sharp and Sankey, centers; Jones and Matthews, guards. Referee, Brittnell; umpire, Grist.

SEMI-FINALS:

Ramer Beats Lincoln.

IN WHAT PROVED to be the fastest, best played and most exciting game of tournament, Ramer continued her winning streak and downed the smooth working Lincoln sextette 26 to 22. The four-point margin is a very fair estimate of the difference in the teams, both aggregations displaying basketball of championship calibre at all times. The passwork of Ramer was the finest yet displayed by any team here and it was in this department of game only five winners outshone the losers.

Sellers and Boyd, Ramer forwards, and McElhannon and Lackey, Lincoln goal tossers, performed in beautiful style throughout. The number of open shots missed by this quartet of deadly marksmen could be counted on the fingers of one hand. Both teams went out to cop this semi-final scrap and were making every advantage count. To name a star for either team would be doing the other members an injustice, for every girl of both sextettes fought every inch of way.

Ramer jumped away to a quick lead and although Lincoln was right on her heels throughout, the yellow clad Ramer misses held grimly to their slight advantage. The margin was from two to four points all the way through, with both teams fighting desperately. The half ended with Ramer three points to the good, the count being 11 to 8.

The last half brought out the prettiest basketball of meet. Ramer's passwork more than matched the great shooting of McElhannon and Lackey, however, and the South Alabama lassies held their early lead to win a place in the finals. The largest crowd of the three days witnessed the contest.

Line-ups:

Ramer (26)—Sellers (10) and Boyd (16), forwards; Sharp and Sankey, centers; Jones and Matthews, guards.

Lincoln (22)—McElhannon (10) and Lackey (12), forwards; Hollingsworth and House, centers; Shaddock and Franklin, guard.

Substitution: Merkle for Shaddock. Referee: Grist.

Mortimer Jordan Wins.

Mortimer Jordan easily trounced Walker County High in the second of semi-final battles Saturday morning. The final score was 36 to 7. Whisenant, brilliant Mortimer Jordan forward, again displayed a brand of shooting that is sure to win her all-state honors for the second consecutive year. She registered 33 of Jordan's 36 points and in addition dribbled especially well and passed in neat fashion.

While Whisenant was the big shooting star, too much praise cannot be bestowed upon I. Guthrie and A. Guthrie, brilliant Jordan forwards. As in all previous games, this pair of sisters passed over and around their opponents, keeping the leather on a continual journey towards their forwards. There is little to choose between the two girls, both showing much class throughout the tourney.

B. Brown and King played well for Walker County. The Jasper forwards were closely guarded at all times and were never given a chance to break away. The netire team scrapped furiously throughout, but could not stop the almost perfect Jordan passwork.

Line-ups:

Mortimer Jordan (36)—Whisenant (33) and P. Hughes (3), forward; I. Guthrie and A. Guthrie, centers; S. Hughes and Garrett, guards.

Substitutions—C. Hughes for P. Hughes, Hodges for Garrett, Garrett for S. Hughes.

Walker County (7)—B. Brown (4) and E. Deason (3), forwards; King and Maxwell, centers; W. T. Brown and O. Deason, guards.

Substitutions—Smith for E. Deason, E. Deason for O. Deason. Referee, Miss Busey.

GIRLS OF MONTEVALLO CAPTURE STATE TITLE

University Team Goes Down Before Aggressive Rivals, Although Second Half Is Featured by Rather Tardy Scoring.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—The Montevallo sextet Saturday afternoon won the Alabama collegiate girls' basketball championship by defeating the University of Alabama team here 27 to 12. The work of the two Montevallo forwards, Martin and Burleson, was too good for the visiting Crimsonettes. Martin was the offensive star for the local girls, shooting 21 points, 11 of which were from free throws. Montevallo has a clean record for the season.

Although the Montevallo combination outplayed the University girls by a wide margin in the first half, the "Bama" six came back in the second half strong and counted 7 points against Montevallo's five.

The work of Mary Brinskelle at forward featured. She played the court well and rang up a couple of pretty goals. Nuckols' foul shooting was good, six of her free throws she counted and one goal from the field brought her scoring total to 8 points.

Townsend at guard and Albritton at center for Montevallo, played well, while Hammitt at guard and Donovan at center were Alabama's best court players.

Lineup:

Montevallo (27)—Martin (21) and Burleson (6), forwards; Albritton and Carmichael, centers; Townsend and Smith, guards.

Substitution—Thomas for Smith. Alabama (12)—Nuckols (8) and Brinskelle (4), forwards; Little and Donovan, centers; Hammitt and Shelbourne, guards.

Substitutions—Baker for Little; Robertson for Shelbourne.

Referee, Brittnell (Albany); umpire, wGrist (Selma Y.). Time of quarters, 8 minutes.

RAMER HIGH SCHOOL LASSIES BATTLE WAY TO GIRLS' CAGE CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE STATE

RAMER GIRLS TEAM.

Above is shown the flashy Ramer High Sextet, which successfully copped the highest honors in the state high school girls' basketball meet at Montevallo and won the beautiful Birmingham News trophy. In battling their way to the crest of the state cage fame the Ramer misses downed four of the strongest high school teams in Alabama. They were as follows: Atmore, Jones Mills, Lincoln and Mortimer Jordan. The Ramer girls supplant the Selma High girls as state champions, Selma having copped the tourney last year. Selma, however, was eliminated in the opening round of the meet just over.

Fast Talladega County High School Girls Team

This sextet made a good showing in the state high school girls' basketball tournament staged at Montevallo last week. The team was one of the four strongest in the meet, and was eliminated by the champion Ramer five in the semi-finals. Wetumpka was one of the strong teams to fall before the attack of the girls from Lincoln. This was the most sensational game of the contest, as a new game had to be played to a tie at the end of playing time in the first affair. The team placed two or three stars on the all-state list. The girl in the extreme left of the picture is Shaddox, all-state guard. The girl directly behind the ball in the center is McElhannon, all-state forward last year, but who failed to get going this year. Lackey was another star of this combination that shone brilliantly, and she won a place in the all-state selections. Hollingsworth also won a place at center.

Strong Contender In Girl's State Cage Meet

The scrappy little Jones Mill team was one of the best in the recent basketball tournament staged at Montevallo by the Alabama High School Girls' Athletic association. The Mill sextet went through all opposition until it ran across the trail of the brilliant Ramer six, state champions, and was beaten 21 to 16. However, the losers were forced to play the latter part of the game with only five players, as sickness held two players out and fouls forced two others to retire. However, the team did not quit and played to the last, making one of the best showings of any team against Ramer. The team placed two stars on the all-state list, Letha Mae Jones, the young lady directly in the center of the semi-circle, and Elizabeth Blackburn. On the extreme left is Miss Simmons, coach of the team. Next is Ruth Jones, crack forward. On the extreme right is W. B. Simms, the other 'varsity forward.

RAMER GIRLS VICTORS OF HIGH TOURNAMENT

Team Coached by Miss Sellers Playing Hardest Schedule of Others Comes Through Triumphant Over Mortimer Jordan.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Ramer High school, Montgomery county, was crowned queen of girls' basketball teams in Alabama here this afternoon following their sensational victory over Mortimer Jordan, Jefferson county's entrant from Morris. The score was: Ramer, 26; Mortimer Jordan, 22.

It seems only fittingly appropriate that the team coached by Miss Minnie Sellers should win the second annual basketball tournament for the state championship. It was Miss Sellers who perfected the present organization of state high school girls' team, and she is now president of that organization. Her team showed the handiwork of a skilled coach in their play, and through the final games the teamwork of the six girls from Ramer was above reproach.

Ramer is not a fluke winner, either, for this team played the hardest schedule of any combination in the meet. By eliminating Jones Mill, Atmore, Lincoln and Mortimer Jordan, it defeated the four outstanding teams in the tournament, outside of itself. The team played a steady game, and the break that often comes to wreck the hope of a girls' basketball team, during which the team goes to pieces, did not occur with them.

Ramer All Stars

The Ramer team placed more stars on the all-state list than any other team. Sporting writers at the tournament selected an all-state list, comprising six players for each team, as follows: Eugenia Tate (Wetumpka), Trudie Whisenant (Mortimer Jordan), Buenah Mae Sellers (Ramer), Margaret Parish (Atmore), Evelyn Powell (Selma), Leola Lackey (Lincoln), as forwards. For centers: Adrey Guthrie (Mortimer Jordan), Ivora Guthrie (Mortimer Jordan), Letha Mae Jones (Jones Mill), Evelyn Blackmon (Wetumpka), Evelyn Sankey (Ramer), Ethel Lee (Atmore) were selected. For guards, the selections were: Amella Jackson (Simpson), Olivia Jones (Ramer), Eula Nettles (Atmore), Grace Shaddox (Lincoln), Maud Nixon (Wetumpka) and Aline Blackburn (Jones Mill.)

In the final game, the great goal shooting of Trudie Whisenant, for Mortimer Jordan, stood out. She was the individual star forward of the entire tournament. She shot every point for Mortimer Jordan. Sellers played a great game for Ramer at forward.

The entire Ramer team played as a unit, and passing, shooting and passing, shooting and guarding, were all equally strong. The first half ended with the score tied, 15-15, but Ramer forged ahead soon after the first half started, but was never more than three or four points in the lead.

The line-up:

Ramer (26)—Sellers (14) and Boyd (12), forwards; Sharpe and Sankey, centers; Jones and Mathews, guards.

Mortimer Jordan (22)—Whisenant (22) and P. Hughes, forward; A. Guthrie and I. Guthrie, centers; C. Hughes and S. Hughes, guards. Substitute: Garrett for S. Hughes.

Referee—Britnell.

Well-Trained Team

The semi-finals brought out the feature game of the Alabama girls' high school basketball tournament Saturday in the Ramer-Lincoln contest. The Ramer girls showed the most skilled type of play of any team in the tournament in winning, 26 to 22. The pass-work of the entire Ramer team was a masterpiece of machine play. Though the Lincoln team put up a good scrap, it could not cope with the great playing of its opponent. At center, Sharpe and Sankey were getting the ball over to the forwards consistently, while great team-play by the forwards, Sellers and Boyd, and accurate shooting, were accounting for goal after goal. The Ramer guards, Jones and Mathews, allowed the Lincoln forwards no free shots, and only the sensational goal shooting of McElhannon and Lackey accounted for Lincoln's showing. The Ramer team was an all-star combination Saturday morning. Shaddox played a good game at guard for Lincoln.

The line-up:

Ramer (26)—Sellers (10) and Boyd (16), forwards; Sharpe and Sankey, centers; Jones and Mathews, guards.

Lincoln (22)—McElhannon (10) and Lackey (12), forwards; Hollingsworth and House, centers; Shaddox and Franklin, guards. Substitutes: Merkl for Shaddox.

Referee—Grist.

Mortimer In Finals

Mortimer Jordan, sole Jefferson county entrant, swept into the finals in a tidal wave of goals Saturday morning over Walker County High, 36 to 7. The brilliant Gertrude Whisenant was in the vanguard from Mortimer Jordan onslaughts and counted for 33 of the Morris team's 36 points. But it was not alone to Whisenant that credit is due, for at center the Guthrie sisters, Ivora and Adrey, played wonderful ball.

For Walker county, B. Brown and King played well. The Mortimer Jordan guards gave the Jasper forwards little chance at the goal, and the shots counted were difficult ones. The Walker sextet fought hard but were outclassed.

The line-up:

Mortimer Jordan (36)—Whisenant (33) and P. Hughes (3), forwards; I. Guthrie and A. Guthrie, centers; S. Hughes and Garrett, guards. Substitutes: C. Hughes for P. Hughes, Hodges for Garrett, Garrett for S. Hughes.

Walker (7)—B. Brown (4) and E. Deason (3), forwards; King and Maxwell, centers; W. T. Brown and O. Deason, guards. Substitutes: Smith for E. Deason; E. Deason for O. Deason. Referee—Miss Bussey.

Montevallo Turns To Club Meeting

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 26.—Special.—Now that the tournament and other contests at Alabama College have been held, the town and the college are looking forward with great interest to the coming of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs. The meeting will be held here April 8-11, inclusive. There will, in all probability, be 300 delegates from the various clubs of the state.

The Studiosis and the Tutwiler clubs are the two federated clubs in Montevallo. They will take the lead in providing for the entertainment, but they will be assisted by the many other student clubs and societies in the college and by the various civic and religious organizations in the town of Montevallo. The Exchange Club will take a very prominent part in providing entertainment for the visiting delegates. An elaborate program is being prepared, and will be announced very soon.

FEDERATION MEET IN MONTEVALLO

Mrs. John Tilley, Mrs. J. Brevard Jones and Mrs. T. W. Palmer
Have Prepared Program

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 27.—Special To The Advertiser.—Mrs. John Tilley and Mrs. J. Brevard Jones, of Montgomery, and Mrs. T. W. Palmer, Montevallo, have prepared the tentative program for the 29th annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's clubs, which is to be held in Montevallo April 8-11. Mrs. Palmer, with the aid of local representatives, is busy preparing suggestions for the completion of the program.

Among some of the distinguishing features will be the annual address of the president, Mrs. Val Taylor, of Uniontown. During her administration, the federation of clubs has made wonderful progress not only in the organizing of new clubs but in broadening the scope of the work in every line of endeavor. Mrs. Taylor has served as president for one year and will no doubt be unanimously re-elected for a second term.

Elaborate and comprehensive reports will be submitted for the following departments:

Large Number Of Reports.

American Citizenship: by Mrs. Louis A. Neill, Albany; Citizenship Training and International Relations: by Mrs. B. B. Glasgow, Athens; Community Service: Mrs. Albert Moulthrop, Eucla; Friends Cooperation with Ex-service Men: Mrs. Paul Smith, Montgomery; Motion pictures: Miss Alice Pettus, Anniston; Applied Education Department: Miss Hattie Morton; Birmingham; Conservation: Mrs. S. J. Starke, Troy; Miss Janet Simpson, Florence; Home Demonstration: Mrs. Charles J. Bricken, Montgomery; Home Economics: Mrs. W. C. Vail; Literature:

Library Extension: Mrs. L. D. McCollum, Bessemer; Scholarships: Mrs. T. D. Parke, Birmingham; Fine Arts: Mrs. J. Carroll Long, Selma; Art: Mrs. H. Y. Toner, Selma; Music: Mrs. C. B. Yandle, Birmingham; Literature: Mrs. Jack Montgomery, Tuscaloosa; Writers' Club: Mrs. A. J. Gilmore, Sicard; Public Welfare: Mrs. J. E. Frazier, Birmingham; Child Welfare: Mrs. G. B. Michael, Mobile; Public Health: Mrs. Sidney Hart, Birmingham; Social and Industrial Condition: Mrs. W. A. Hill, Montgomery; Publicity: Mrs. C. Mitchell Birmingham; Bulletin: Mrs. J. Brevard Jones, Montgomery, editor; Legislation: Mrs. Bibb Graves, Montgomery.

Among the distinguished out-of-state visitors will be Mrs. J. E. Hays the corresponding secretary of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

Alabama College faculty is preparing a musical program, to be followed by a reception on one evening.

The Tutwiler club, one of the student organizations, is a federated club and while it has been a member for several years this is its first experience in helping to entertain the State Federation. Miss Winifred Castleman, of Greensboro, is president and will deliver one of the addresses of welcome. Other welcome addresses will be given by Mayor J. A. Brown, for the town; President Palmer, for Alabama College. Charleton G. Smith, president Exchange club, Mrs. T. W. Palmer, president of the Studiosis club, Mrs. George DeShazo, worthy matron, Eastern Star, and by representatives of other organizations in the town of Montevallo.

Twenty-four years ago, the Federation of clubs held its annual meeting in Montevallo. Since then the federation the town and the college have greatly enlarged their field of activities. This meeting is anxiously awaited by the entire community. The coming of these distinguished women promises much in social, civic and educational uplift for college and town.

ALABAMA COLLEGE LOOPERS HAVE DEFEATED OUTSTANDING GIRL BASKET TEAMS IN STATE

ALABAMA COLLEGE BASKETBALL TEAM

Back Row—Left to right: Mildred Allbritton, Lillie Burleson, Miss Funk (coach), Helen Townsend, Bill Smith.
Front Row—Left to right: Edith Thomas, Odelle Carmichael, Billie James, Gladys Martin, Middred Keahey.

The Alabama College Girls Basketball Team have made a great record on the court during the 1923-24 season. Many of the outstanding girl teams of the state have fallen victim to the skill of these misses from the Montevallo school. Prominent in cage circles of the state and losers to the Alabama College Six are Women's College of Montgomery who were beaten twice and the strong University of Alabama girls team.

The team which is coached by Miss Funk is a great passing machine with a good supply of expert goal tossers, leechlike guards and adept centers. They pass the ball well, shoot whenever given the slightest opening and play all around good basketball.

Gladys (Tad) Martin, captain and star forward of the team, is one of the best shots in the state. She handles herself with ease while playing and has been able to elude the most capable of guards during the year.

Helen Townsend and Bill Smith are a fine guarding pair of guards, while the performances of the other members of the team speak for their fine ability and good training. Alabama College is putting forth a legitimate claim for state honors among the teams that play strictly girls rules.

SCHOOL ORGANIZED

Department Of Music At Alabama College Becomes Independent.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 1.—Special—The school of music at Alabama College has grown so extensively that it has been found necessary to give it a separate organization from the remainder of the college. Other schools will be organized from time to time as each one is sufficiently developed for that purpose.

Director Frank E. Marsh, Jr., has been placed in control of the Music School. His Summer School announcement has just come from the press. Among the faculty is found the name of Miss May Andrus, graduate of Yale University, as director of public school music and history of music. She offers a special course to meet the needs of supervisors who are engaged during the school year and who wish to take advanced study, also for those musicians who are desirous of becoming supervisors of public school music.

The teaching of public school music has recently been fully recognized by the State Department of Education. This school of music will meet the demands for teachers to make the preparation necessary for teaching this subject in the Alabama schools.

Miss Elizabeth Frances Young will give a normal course for training teachers of piano. A splendid course of lectures is offered on pianoforte pedagogy, teaching material and physiology in its relation to pianoforte playing. Observation classes will be held every day.

Miss Rebecca Stoy, a graduate and post-graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and pupil in voice of Charles Bennett, has been added to the music faculty for the Summer months.

During the Summer months there will be several public lectures, recitals, and community singing, conducted by the faculty and other visiting artists.

SCHOOL PLANNING SUMMER SESSION

Alabama College, At Montevallo, Will Offer Professional Training.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 1.—Special.—Frank E. Marsh, Jr., director of the School of Music of the Alabama College, announces a Summer session to begin June 10 and to close July 19, offering six weeks of professional training for music teachers, as well as an intensive session of normal instruction in public school music.

The pianoforte normal department, under Miss Elizabeth Young, supervisor, will include among its subjects the keyboard, notation, ear-training, sight-singing, rhythmic work and hand culture.

The courses in public school music department, with Miss May Andrus as supervisor, for the Summer session are designed to meet the needs of supervisors who are engaged during the school year, and who wish to take advanced study; also for those musicians who are desirous of becoming supervisors of public school music.

Courses will be offered for grade and high school teachers that embrace sight-seeing, elementary theory and methods for teaching music in the class-room from the standpoint of the grade teacher. Special attention will be given to the departmental teachers of music in the high school.

The object of the course in public school music is to develop a well-rounded musical education, together with the necessary training in methods of presentation of the subject to insure proficiency in the art of teaching.

Entrance requirements for those taking the supervisor's course:

A general academic education, representing a four-year high school course or its equivalent.

Possession of an acceptable singing voice. Ability to play on the piano, at sight, music of hymn tune grade and compositions of the grade of Bach two and three part inventions and Haydn sonatas.

RECTOR TO LECTURE.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 4.—Special.—Rev. Dr. C. B. Wilber, rector of St. Luke's Church, Atlanta, will deliver a series of four lectures on Christian fundamentals before the Y. W. C. A., of Alabama College, beginning Wednesday, March 6. Dr. Wilber is one of the most eloquent speakers of Georgia, and will no doubt attract large audience at the college.

TRUSTEES CHANGE MEETING.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 4.—Special.—Governor Brandon, acting upon the advice of the executive committee of the Board of Trustees of Alabama College, has changed the time of the annual meeting from May 16 to March 20.

FLORENCE WINS ECONOMICS PRIZE

Coffee High School Gets Birmingham News Award At Montevallo.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 4.—Special.—All of the home economics exhibits of the various high schools that were represented in the contest at Montevallo have been carefully examined and prizes have been awarded. The prize for the best general exhibit was given to the Coffee High School at Florence, Ala. This prize was a beautiful bronze shield, presented by The Birmingham News.

Cash prizes of $5 each were awarded to the seven best individual exhibits for the various entries. The following girls received these prizes:

Entry No. 1—First prize, $5, given to Nettie Marshall, of the Jefferson County High School.

Entry No. 2—Mary Sanders, of the Montevallo High School.

Entry No. 3—Gladys Bachellor, of Eclectic High.

Entry No. 4—To a pupil from Coffee High School, Florence—name unknown.

Entry No. 5—Willie Larimore, Pine Hill High School.

Entry No. 6—Eunice Evans, Wetumpka.

Entry No. 7—Harriet Acree, Mobile High.

A check for $5 is being sent to each one of these young women. These $5 prizes were presented by The Birmingham News.

Alabama College Opens New Quarter

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 4.—Special.—The final examinations for the second quarter have just closed and students are busy arranging their schedules for the last quarter of the year. About 15 new students have enrolled. Miss Ruth Sanford, of Talladega, completed the course for graduation at the end of the second quarter. She left at once to begin teaching in the high school at Oxford.

Announcement has been made that on March 15, the books will be opened for the registration of students for the session of 1924-25. The students now in attendance will be allowed one week for the selection of rooms, and then new applicants may choose their rooms. A number of applications have already been filed.

Montevallo Students Honor Benefactors

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 5.—Special.—The Exchange Club of Montevallo sponsored the erection of a temporary dormitory last Summer to help care for the overflow of applicants for admission to Alabama College. In three weeks after it was ascertained that the additional room was needed, a one-story cottage with accommodations for 60 girls was ready for use. Tuesday the occupants of "Exchange Cottage" invited the members of the club to dine with them in the college dining room.

After the other students had marched in for dinner, one or two girls escorted an Exchangeite through a solid line of college girls to tables reserved for the visitors and their special hostesses. Long and enthusiastic applause greeted the men with their fair escorts. A six-course dinner was served.

President Palmer extended a few words of welcome to the visitors and requested Charleton G. Smith, president of the club, to take charge of the meeting. He replied in a most happy manner, and gave a brief history of the conception of the idea of constructing the building, the trials that confronted the population of the small town of Montevallo, with only 500 white people, to raise $4,000 for this purpose. Comparing it with Birmingham would mean the collection of $1,600,000.

Miss Sale, the chaperon for the Exchange Cottage, and Miss Mildred Martin, for the girls, extended a cordial invitation to the Exchangeites to visit and inspect "Exchange Cottage." After several interesting talks, the club with the girls repaired to the Exchange Cottage and inspected the building.

PRIZES AWARDED

Florence High School Wins Bronze Shield

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 5.—(Special).—All of the home economics exhibits of the various high schools that were represented in the contest at Montevallo have been carefully examined and prizes have been awarded. The prize for the best general exhibit was given to the Coffee High School at Florence, Ala. This prize was a beautiful bronze shield, presented by the Birmingham News.

STANDARD COLLEGE DEFINITION GIVEN

Must Require 14 Units And Have 100 Students

ATLANTA, Ga., March 2.—The executive committee of the Southern Conference colleges has defined a college as an institution of learning which requires 14 Carnegie units for entrance and has an enrollment of 100 male students, according to a story published here today.

The committee has voted also to enforce the letter of the migratory law until the next annual meeting of the conference, at which time the intention of the law could be threshed out.

The members of the executive committee of the conference are: Dr. S. V. Sanford, University of Georgia; Prof. C. L. Hare, Auburn; N. W. Dougherty, University of Tennessee; D. H. Henry, Clemson, and Dr. J. B. Crenshaw, Georgia Tech.

RADIO BIBLE COURSE

Given Under the Auspices of the Extension Division of Alabama College, Montevallo, Ala.

LECTURE XLVI

Assigned Reading: Matt. 26:1-5, 14-16

OF all the mysteries of Holy Writ, surely there are none more baffling than this story of Judas, conspiracy. It was only two days before the Passover and the chief priests and elders of the people were gathered together in the hope that they might arrive at some method by which they could have Jesus put to death, but they feared the people.

At an opportune moment there appeared to them one of the Twelve, Judas Iscariot, who said; "What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you?" The record suggests that Judas made the advance and that he was not urged into this hideous crime. He asked that they set a price and when they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver, the price of a slave, "He sought opportunity to deliver him (Christ) unto them."

A glance at the life of Judas may suggest to us some helpful thoughts in connection with the tragedy of his mis-spent life. As a mere incident which perhaps bears no relation to his life, we note that he was the only one of the Twelve who came from Judea. Judas was entrusted with the care of the finances of this early missionary party and on another occasion Christ rebuked him for his hypocrisy and said that he had been stealing from the treasury. The proposal of his to deliver his Lord for the consideration of a price, and the actual execution of this contract, further reveals to us Judas' proclivities for the material things of this world.

Two questions arise here; How can one who has been so closely associated with the Master turn at the very end and betray him; Why did Christ, whose knowledge projects itself into the future, choose Judas among the Twelve?

Even Judas was used to accomplish many mighty works in the name of the Christ; he companied with Christ for three years and was under the influence of his mighty teachings; he had every opportunity that the others had. One conclusion may be drawn; Judas harbored one secret sin—greed—in his heart which excluded the Master and in the end drove Judas to the extreme of the betrayal.

We may never know in this life, why it was that Christ selected Judas as one among the number of the Twelve. Of this we may be sure;—he did extend to Judas the same mercies extended to others and he rejected them. Judas was given the office of trust as treasurer of the company. At the Passover feast he dipped into the same bowl with the Master and was dealt with in greatest tenderness, but he spurned Christ's mercies and betrayed him.

RUNNERS-UP AT STATE TOURNEY

This team from Mortimer Jordan High school of Morris swept through all opposition during the early games of the recent girls' basketball tournament for the state championship at Montevallo. Its rush was finally checked by the brilliant Ramer team in the finals. The offensive was based around Trudie Whisenant, star forward, who was an all-state selection. This young lady looped 33 out of 36 of her team's points in one game and in the final game against Ramer shot all the goals for her sextet, ringing up 24 points. She was one of the outstanding forwards of the tourney. Two other girls of the Mortimer Jordan team won all-state berths, Ivera and Addre Guthrie, sister centers. The team has made a splendid record for the season. Under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Riley the sextet defeated all opponents before going to the tournament. In the picture above, the first young lady on the left, back row, is Miss Riley. Directly in the center of the picture, with head and shoulders above those around her, is Miss Whisenant, forward. Directly in front of her is one of the Guthrie sisters, while on her left is the other one. Other members of the squad are Captain Susie Hughes and Thelma Garrett, guards; Polly Hughes, forward, and Challie Hughes, Clarice Hughes and Kathleen Rogers, substitutes.

VOTED ALABAMA'S PRETTIEST

Save for Nat. Hall.

Miss Minnie Lee Dozier, of Marion, Ala., who was voted the prettiest girl at the Alabama college, Montevallo, Ala., in a recent contest held at the college.—Photo by Tresslar.

Life-Saving Medal Given To Student

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 8.—Special.—Mrs. Joanna La Rue Sharpe, a student at Alabama College, has been awarded a medal by the national headquarters of the American Red Cross for meritorious work performed. This medal represents two years' membership with 200 hours of volunteer service.

It is the first medal given at Alabama College, and probably the first given at any college in the state. There is much interest taken in life saving service at Alabama College. Fifteen young women have already passed the life-saving test and are in line for service for this medal. Special courses will be given during the third quarter, beginning this week, and a large class will be organized during the Summer school.

President Palmer, in presenting the medal to Mrs. Sharpe in behalf of the American Red Cross, complimented her for her excellent work and faithful service, and expressed the hope that the 15 young women who have passed the examinations may now render the service that is required.

SCHOLARSHIPS ARE GIVEN MONTEVALLO

College Also Gets Valuable Curio Collection; To Re- build Pottery Kiln.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 8.—Special.—The Joycrofters Club of Birmingham, has within the last few days presented Alabama College with a scholarship. This has been awarded to Miss Lillian Stewart, of Daphne, Ala., a member of the present senior class. Miss Stewart is one of the brightest members of the class, and her friends are delighted that she has received a scholarship.

Dr. David G. Lyon, of Harvard University, will visit Alabama next week, and will deliver his first lecture in the state at Alabama College. He is a native of Lowndes County, Ala., and a graduate of Howard College, when it was located at Marion, Ala. Since his graduation at Howard, he has been continuously connected with Harvard University. He is recognized as one of the great American scholars. From Alabama College he goes to Howard College at Birmingham to deliver a series of lectures.

Mrs. J. B. Hall, of Chicago, a member of Stonewall Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of that city, has recently presented to the Stonewall Chapter a gift of $2,000 for a scholarship to aid a worthy girl, a descendant of a Confederate soldier, to pursue a college course. Alabama College has been selected as the institution in which the award will be made. For some years this chapter has been presenting to the college $50 to help a pupil. This gift on the part of Mrs. Hall makes the scholarship a permanent one, and a larger amount will be available than has theretofore been given. This is the first substantial gift that has come to Alabama College from an individual living outside of the state. The scholarship will be known as the Lucy Harper Hall Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Thomas F. Bottomley, of Chicago, has been the chairman of the committee on this scholarship fund for a number of years, and will continue to serve in this capacity, endeavoring to raise larger funds for this purpose.

Following close upon the establishment of the Lucy Harper Hall Scholarship, another gift comes to Alabama College in the will of the late lamented Miss Elizabeth Benagh, of Nashville, Tenn. Miss Benagh passed away last Fall, and in her last will and testament she gave to Alabama College all of her curios gathered from an extensive travel in Europe and countries in the Far East. Her brother, Henry C. Benagh, has recently sent these various curios by express to the college. There are many hundreds of them. It is indeed a very interesting collection, and will serve as the foundation of a museum for the institution.

Miss Benagh formerly lived in Tuscaloosa. Her father was professor of mathematics at the University of Alabama for several years. He was drowned in the Warrior River, and was succeeded in the department of mathematics by Dr. William G. Vaughn, who after serving for 15 or 20 years, was followed in that position by Dr. Thomas W. Palmer, now president of Alabama College. President Palmer and the Benagh family were close personal friends, also Mrs. J. W. Heatfield, who is now the very worthy matron at Alabama College. It was not known until the collection arrived that Miss Benagh had left these curios to Alabama College but it is presumed that she did so on account of her personal friends connected with the institution.

These curios will be placed in the library of the college, and will no doubt be much admired by all visitors to the library.

Interest in the study of art at Alabama College has so greatly increased that the institution has decided to rebuild the kiln for pottery and have students begin that work again. About 10 years ago, a kiln was brought and much interest was developed in that work. Some clays were sent to the college from Autaugaaville, in Autauga County, and were found to be most excellent for pottery. No doubt there are many others counties in the state having equally as good clays as Autauga County. Some experiments were also made with clays from the campus of the college, which, while excellent, were probably not as good as those from Autauga.

A few years ago, the kiln was badly damaged, and on account of the stringencies of war time, it was not rebuilt. After the war, there were so many things claiming the attention of the authorities this matter could not be attended to. Recently, this kiln has been put into good order, and students will begin this work at once. A number of pieces are now ready to be placed in the kiln and can be shown before the close of the present session.

Sophie Newcombe College at New Orleans has done a wonderful work in this line, and has served to advertise the clays of Louisiana extensively, though its kiln was not built for that purpose. The kiln at Alabama College is for educational purposes, but it will also serve the additional purpose of advertising the excellent clays which Alabama possesses. The beginning of this type of work will no doubt open up a great field for development in this state.

PARTICIPANTS IN BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Fifteen Alabama teams participated in the Second Annual High School Girls' Basketball Tournament, Feb. 21, 22 and 23, at Alabama College, Montevallo. The members of the teams follow:

Ramer High School Team—Miss Minnie Sellers, coach; centers, Ruby Sharpe, Evelyn Sankey and Mary Pearle Parsons; guards, Olivia Jones, Helen Mathews and Willie Murrell; forwards, Bunah Mae Sellers, Sadie Mae Boyd and Francis Lipford.

Goodwater Team—Miss Elizabeth Haynes, coach; guards, Ruth Smith and Martha Crew; centers, Wynon Rogers, Martha Darden and Elizabeth Thomas; Elizabeth Crew, manager; Bess Rogers, forward; Myra Levie, captain.

Selma High School Team—Mr. Sharpe, coach; Bessie Thrash, captain; Kathleen Weaver, forward; Ruby Tepper, guard; Mary Gleen Anchors, sub guard; Adeline Smith, sub forward; Catherine Prentiss, center; Annie Laurie Speed, center; Mr. Grist, official referee; Beth Wallace, sub guard; Evelyn Powell, forward.

Talladega County High Team (Lincoln)—J. J. Hammack, coach; Leota Lackey, forward; Mildred McElhannon, forward; Annie Mae Hollingsworth, jumping center; Mary Franklin, sub forward; Bertie Shaddox, guard; Les-sie Reynolds, chaperon; Evelyn Henderson, sub guard; Agnes Franklin, guard; J. J. Hammack, coach; Lorene Merkle, sub guard; Elizabeth Moore, sub center, and Dollie Bell House, running center.

Jones Mill Team—Miss V. Simmons, coach; Willie Belle Sims, Ruth Jones, Lathamal Jones, Earline Sims, Lola King, Clarice Baas and Aline Blackburn.

Town Creek Team—Mrs. W. G. Cameron, coach; forwards, Myrtle Ether-edge, Edna Agee; centers, Kathleen Lee (substitute), Effie Waldrop, Earline Lovette, captain; guards, Mildred Carter, Ruby Brocken (substitute), Maude Copeland.

Ensley High School Team—Miss Katherine Smith, coach; captain, Florence Quigley; forwards, Augusta Graves and Maude Fallon; guards, Grace Whitten, Katherine McGlathery, (substitute); centers, Louise Rowland, (substitute), Gladys Fallen and Cecelia Philips.

Mortimer Jordan Team—Miss Elizabeth Riley, coach; captain, Susie Hughes; forwards, Polly and Trudie Whisenant; centers, Ivora Guthrie and Addre Guthrie; guards, Susie Hughes and Thelma Garrett; substitutes, Charlie Hughes, Clarice Hughes and Kathleen Rogers.

Henry County High Team (Headland)—Mrs. E. V. Stowitts, coach; Gladys Shelley, captain; Roslyn Covington, Alice Oates, Lizzie Oates, Marie Roberts, Louise Roberts, Martiel Sharp and Gladys Johnson.

Simpson High School Team—Mrs. Anna Neese, coach; Louise Cranford, captain; Nellie Kincaid, Elizabeth Morris, Thelma Watts, Gertrude Harris, Blanche Winters, Amelia Glenn, Peggy Elberti and Alvis Cash.

Atmore Team—Miss Nannie Pitts, coach; Temple Millsap, Francis Lynch, Margaret Farish, Nell Kearley, Eula Nettles, Alice Wainwright, Clara L. Horn, Ethel Lee and Rosa English.

Walker County High Team (Jasper)—J. P. Deason, coach; Estelle Deason, Blanche Brown and Gladys Smith, forwards; Ila Dean King and Mae Maxwell, centers; Osella Deason, Eva Musgrove and Will Lacy Brown, guards.

Perry County High (Marion)—Miss Bessie Jones, coach; forwards, Martha Suttles, captain; Mary Hawze and Fern Stewart; centers, Kathryn Woodfin, Anne Yarbrough and Ruth Moore; guards, Lena Solnick, Sara Carothers and Rose Lane Gass.

Washington County High Team (Chatom)—Winifred Bertram, coach; forwards, Earline Smith, Mary Catherine Granade and Dorothy Schell; centers, Mary Ella Martin, Fobia Locke and Eleanor Onderdout; guards, I. V. Wilkins, Tom Wilkins and Raymonia Bertram.

Wetumpka Team—J. R. Clements, coach; forwards, Eugenia Tate, captain; Luvenia Collier and Bertrice Harris; centers, Elizabeth McCaskey, Evelyn Blackmon and Bernice Harris; guards, Maude Nixon, Francis Taylor and Jeanette Rucker.

REYNOLDS, LANCE D. 1964
STATE COLLEGE OF MISSISSIPPI

© 1997 by The American Psychological Association
0893-3200/97/$12.00 DOI: 10.1037/0893-3200.11.4.475

— 3 N

MEMORIAL TO BLOCH, FOUNDER OF STATE COLLEGE AT MONTEVALLO

Late Trustee Was Legislative Pioneer in Higher Education of Women of Alabama and Long the Warm Friend and Adviser of Institution He Helped to Create in the Nineties

MONTEVALLO, ALA., March 29.—Special to The Advertiser.—An impressive memorial service was held in the chapel of Alabama College on last Sunday night for the late Solomon D. Bloch, through whose influence in the state legislature this college was founded and who was for twenty-six years a valued member of its board of trustees. It was fitting that a student from his native city of Camden in Wilcox county, should represent the student body in the memorial service and Miss Minnie Holman of Camden, a member of the senior class, was so chosen. Miss Holman delivered the following short eulogy of the deceased trustee:

"Sol D. Bloch, more familiarly known as 'Colonel Bloch' was born in Camden, January 16, 1855. He received his early education here and later attended Barton Academy in Mobile. He afterwards studied law and was admitted to the bar, but his business interests required his time so completely that he was compelled to relinquish the law for an active business career, in which he was very successful.

"Those who knew Colonel Bloch, best loved him best—it is in his home town that we find the people most loyal to his name. It is here that he tried to pass on to others his ideals of citizenship and helpfulness. He did this through the Wilcox Progressive Era a paper that he owned and edited for a number of years. However it is in his patriotic aspect that Col. Bloch will be remembered. He was always a good citizen, a good citizen of his town, of which he was twice mayor, of his county, in which he was commissioner; of his state, being connected both with its military organization as a member of the staff of the state troops and with its legislative body as a senator; a good citizen of his nation, for he was always foremost in any movement of national importance, whether geographical, educational or political.

"Colonel Bloch had a busy and varied life, but through it all he never forgot the girls of Alabama College. When we, the Camden girls of Alabama College, would return home for Christmas or summer holidays, Col. Bloch always remembered us with a banquet or an oyster dinner, and as we were leaving in the fall for school, he frequently gave us candy, with the remark, 'this is for my Montevallo girls.'

"Not only do the people of Camden grieve for Colonel Bloch, but the people of the entire state feel that a noble citizen has passed away."

Personal Reminiscences

Miss Stallworth was the second speaker. Her address was as follows:

"When our friends leave us, when they cross the great divide, our clearest memories of them are of a personal nature. It is thus that I have been thinking of Colonel Bloch today. I have been thinking of his keen personal interest in this student body, of his thoughtfulness of the faculty and of his unparalleled devotion to this school as a whole. Others may come and others may go, but I believe none can have a greater love for Montevallo than Colonel Bloch.

"When I first met him many years ago, thoughts of this school were uppermost in his mind. I shall never forget the circumstances of this first meeting. I had just finished high school and was making my first attempt at teaching in a one-room, cross-roads school in Wilcox county. Colonel Bloch's county. I had been employed, I believe, to fill out the unexpired term of a teacher who had resigned at Christmas. On this freezing January day, one of the boys had succeeded in knocking the stove pipe down but was not tall enough to put it up again. While I was vainly striving to get the unruly stove pipe in place, a man driving two splendid black horses dashed up to the school-room door.

"He was dressed in a new black suit and wore a tall beaver hat, such as politicians of that used. I wondered if this was the governor, the state superintendent of education, or the head of the county board. In a minute he had introduced himself and had set the stove pipe in order. This was Colonel Bloch in his younger days, genial, cordial and every ready to help those in trouble. He enjoyed his splendid black horses and was proud of his political beaver, and had a warm heart for the whole world on this January day.

Evolved College for Women

"He explained to me that he was on his way to Montgomery to a meeting of the legislature; that he was a member of the senate; and that he was beginning the service of his third year. He had thrown his weight in the balance for education, he said, and had already introduced a bill to establish a new college for the young women of the state. He had in mind a kind of industrial school where, in addition to a general education, a girl could be trained for some gainful employment, where a girl could be taught to make a living for herself. In traveling about over the state he said, he fully understood the meagerness of the educational opportunities for women, that he saw hundreds of girls growing up in ignorance, in unemployment and in discontent. He hoped he said, to locate this new school at Camden, Ala. Then he talked on and on of the advantages of such a school to the girls of the state and to the girls of South Alabama, especially, and of what such a school would mean to the little town of Camden. I was convinced that he was a man with a vision and I hoped that his bill would become a law.

"The next time I met Colonel Bloch he had achieved his purpose. His school had been established and had begun a great work. Camden had lost in the fight for the location but Montevallo had won. Colonel Bloch, however, was a good loser. All the love that had grown up in his heart for the imaginary school at Camden he lavished on the real school at Montevallo. Colonel Bloch was appointed the first trustee of the new school—the Alabama Girls' Industrial school, as it was then known.

Solicitous for Students

"Colonel Bloch was always present at the opening of the school and at commencement, and often he made visits during the regular session. It was interesting to watch him in the fall when he came to school with the South Alabama girls. The train was always full of them. No parent could have been more solicitous or indulgent than Colonel Bloch. He usually began by purchasing the entire lot of the butcher's wares, just to please the girls. There were oranges and candy for all, and even a toy candy pistol for any who wanted one. To be a Montevallo girl was to hold the Colonel's purse string.

"Once I heard one of these girls make a remark which pleased Colonel Bloch more than anything that was ever said of him. Some one had been teasing her about being so fond of the Colonel, and she said: 'Oh, don't worry, we are all chips off the old Bloch.'

"On account of ill health during the last few years, Colonel Bloch's visits to Montevallo have been less frequent. The folwers, however, which always came to Alabama College on October 12, (Founder's day), on Valentine day, and at Easter have ever brought cordial greetings and best wishes from him.

"In the passing of Colonel Bloch, Alabama College loses a most loyal, devoted and valued friend, which loss it shall mourn for many, many days."

Fine Tribute From Palmer

President T. W. Palmer was the last speaker. He spoke in part as follows: "In order that you may understand and more fully appreciate the many encomiums paid to the memory of Mr. Bloch, I shall briefly refer to his childhood period and local surroundings, for these shed much light upon all of his after life.

"By way of parenthesis, I might add that I have the honor of being a native son of his county. As a small boy, I knew him when he was a young man, and saw and heard much at first hand about his early efforts in life.

"He was an Israelite, a member of a refined, cultured, Jewish family, trained in all of the fine traditions of that noble race. He was about six years of age when the great conflict between the states began. His father entered the army at the beginning of the war, and was a brave and gallant Confederate soldier. Sol was too young to participate himself, but was old enough to suffer as all children have to suffer in such times. At the close of hostilities, the reconstruction period began. The mere mention of that period causes a shudder, for it was far worse upon men, women and children than was war itself. The schools in the country were practically destroyed. His father sent him as a lad to the high school in Mobile. Graduating from Barton Academy, he studied law and was admitted to the bar. However, he never practiced law, but chose a business career. He returned to his home in Camden, and found his people thoroughly aroused and determined to throw off the yoke of misrule fastened upon them by the scalawags and carpet-baggers who had gotten possession of all offices, as many of the best citizens had been disfranchised.

Gives Himself to Church

"The message went out for a general rally, for all good people—men, women and children—to stand up for their rights and overthrow the aliens and traducers who had possession of the land. The old men planned, counseled and advised. The young men, under their leadership, worked and fought with the desperation of mad men. Sol Bloch was a young man. He gave himself mind, soul and body to this cause. Wilcox county was the heart and center of the Black Belt, and therefore suffered most. Finally, after fifteen years of oppression, the county was redeemed.

"This was not the end, because there was for a number of years a contest to keep the monster down. With such an experience and training, Mr. Bloch naturally took an active interest in political life. He served one term as mayor of Camden, a term or two as county commissioner. He then aspired to the office of senator from his county.

"While canvassing among his constituents, he received the inspiration for the act that afterwards made his name famous throughout this state and other states. Among those he called to see seeking their votes and council was a highly respected citizen with a large family. The conversation was begun by asking:

"Well, how are you getting along, my friend?"

"In some respects, very well, I suppose, Sol, but there is a heavy burden upon my heart that is weighing me down, and there seems to be no relief, whatever."

"What is the trouble?"

"The education of my children. My two older children are boys. Considering the desperate financial condition of the whole country, our state has made fair provision for the boys, and my sons are being given the opportunity to get an education and training that I hope will fit them in a measure for the duties of life; but the condition of my girls is truly distressing. The state has made no provision for them. My friend, the day has arrived, when a girl must be educated and trained for her work as well as a boy. It is a shame to let them grow up and not be prepared for useful service. I am not able to send them to distant states. What am I and the parents of other girls to do? Simply let our daughters grow up in ignorance? This is enough to break the heart of any parent. I am an older man than you. I have a larger experience with the past and for that reason I can probably see farther into the future. Something should be done for the girls."

Fought Consistently for School

"This was an arrow that went straight to the heart of Sol Bloch. On the first day of the senate, a bill to establish the Girls' Industrial school was introduced. The cry of poverty of the state at once arose and opposition was developed. Mr. Bloch never faltered, but fought in season and out of season to the close of that legislature; but his bill was lost. Greatly disappointed, but not discouraged, he reintroduced the measure at the next session. Poverty of the state was still the cry, but his heart was in the passage of this bill; near the close of the session, his efforts were crowned with success. He was appointed a member of the first board of trustees, and served in that capacity for twenty-six years, when he resigned. In 1897-98, he was elected land commissioner and served in that office until the day of his death.

"His love and devotion to this institution is known not only to you but to every citizen of this commonwealth. Mr. Wills, who attended his funeral in Mobile, truly stated in his brief remarks that Mr. Bloch was the best known and the best loved of any trustee among the thousands of students who have attended this college. The students as well as the officers and faculty were ever on his mind. On every great occasion, as Founders' day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's, Valentine Day, Easter and commencement, he remembered the students with appropriate gifts for those occasions. It is said that on bended knee each night before retiring he appealed to our Heavenly Father in behalf of this school, thanking Him for the many blessings He had bestowed, and asked for His continued care and protection for all connected with it. I think I can truthfully state that the school was ever upon his mind and heart when he was awake, and in his dreams when asleep. I have never seen such devotion to any cause as was shown by him for this institution.

"Mr. Bloch had many good traits, but there was one that permeated his whole life, and I trust that all of us may learn well the lesson from him. His whole life was a struggle, a game, a battle. He was the best loser and the best winner I ever saw. He considered membership on the board of trustees as his highest honor. He was thoroughly loyal to the board. He advocated many measures before that body. In some he carried his point; in others he lost. He never unduly gloried in his victories, but was always very considerate of those who lost. In his own defeats, he never sulked, but rallied at once and supported unhesitatingly the decision of the board. A valuable lesson is this to all, especially to the students in their athletic and other contests.

"In his honor, the board of trustees some years ago named the home economics building 'Bloch hall'. It will forever stand as a monument to him—in fact, Alabama College will ever be regarded as his monument.

"For a third of a century, he has labored for this school. Some say that his labors are ended and he is gone, but such is not the case. His spirit abides, and will ever be heard in the councils of the state for the institution that was so near and dear to him. Truly shall we, who were long associated with him, ever revere his memory."

NEW BULLETIN OUT

Tells Of Montevallo Extension Division
MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 12.—(Special).—A new bulletin from Alabama college has just come from the press giving the announcements for the extension division of this institution. The extension service was begun in the session of 1922-23, with five groups of teachers. This year there were eleven groups in six counties, all under the direction of Dr. H. W. James, director of Extension. Courses of study are offered in various subjects for teachers.

WOMEN TO MEET

Federated Clubs Hold Convention At Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 12.—Plans for the annual convention of the federated woman's clubs of the state, to meet here April 8-11, are being prepared at present, according to announcement by officials in charge of local arrangements.

Tentative program has been prepared by a committee consisting of Mrs. John Tilley, and Mrs. Brevard Jones of Montgomery and Mrs. T. W. Palmer of Montevallo.

Large number of reports covering work coming under the scope of the varied membership will be delivered, it is said.

ALABAMA COLLEGE
GLEE CLUB COMING

Singers And Instrumentalists Will Be Heard At Howard College.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 14.—Club will make its first trip of the season the week of March 21. They will sing at Howard College, Birmingham, Friday evening, March 21, and at the University of Alabama Saturday evening March 22. The glee club will be assisted by the following soloists: Miss Janice Fuquay, pianist; Miss Abbotte McKinnon, soprano; Miss Alice Lyman, violinist and Mrs. Clara Browning Evans accompanist. Mr. Frank E. Marsh, Jr., director of Alabama College School of Music, will direct. The club will present the following program in Birmingham:

- (a) "Distant Chimes" (Glover), (b) "Pretty Primrose" (Pinsuti)—Glee Club.
- (a) "Spanish Serenade" (Kreisler), (b) "Romance" (Wienlawski), (c) "Serenade" (Drdla)—Miss Lyman.
- "Wyffken, Blynken and Nod" (Nevins)—Glee Club and Miss McKinnon.
- (a) "A Rose Rhyme" (Alfred H. Hyatt), (b) "Were I A Star" (H. T. Burleigh), (c) "I Bring You Heartsease" (Gene Branscombe), (d) "Little Damsel" (Ivor Novello)—Miss McKinnon.
- "A Mother Goose Arabesque (Jessie Tukey)—Incidental solos: Miss Winifred Castleman, soprano; Miss Ethel Thompson, contralto.
- (a) "Fantasie Impromptu" (Chopin), (b) "Nocturne Op. 15, No. 2" (Chopin); (c) "Concert Etude" (Dennee)—Miss Fuquay.

College Songs—Glee Club.

College To Print
Graduates' Roster

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 15.—Special.—Alabama college authorities are preparing for publication a complete bulletin of all former students. The greatest difficulty is experienced in securing the correct addresses, as a very large per cent have married. A prize was offered in December to the student handing in by March 1 the largest number of names with present addresses. A large number entered the contest.

After discarding all duplicates, there was a net result of 1,024. Of these, Miss Ruth Sanford, of Talladega, furnished 605. Miss Sylvia Owen, a new student for this year, from the state of Connecticut, came next with 135.

A comparison was made two years ago by educational experts concerning the marriage of former college women, and it was stated that a larger per cent of those from Alabama College had married than those from any other institution in the whole country.

Of the many thousand who have married, only six widows and one divorcee have been reported. This would indicate that Alabama college women are making good wives and are taking good care of their husbands.

University To Hear
Girls' Glee Club

UNIVERSITY, Ala., March 15.—Special.—The Alabama College Glee Club of Montevallo, will make its first appearance at Morgan Hall Saturday, March 22. It will be accompanied by Mrs. T. W. Palmer, wife of the President of Montevallo, and Mrs. F. E. Marsh, wife of the director of the club.

The club roster represents almost every part of the state. The young women who will make the trip are: Misses Elma O'Neil, Gainsville; Cornelia Gaillard, Perdue Hill; Abbotte McKinnon, Talladega Springs, Mildred Thompson, Bessemer; Wanda Burks, Cullman; Nora Warren, Montgomery; Agnes Nichols, Childersburg; Josephine Kilgore, Birmingham; Pauline Curry, Montevallo; Mary Reilly, Sylvania; Venera Strickland, Montgomery; Teresa Conway, Montgomery; Janice Fuquay, Alexander City; Winfred Castleman, Greensboro; Margaret Butler, Montgomery; Alice Mahler, Loxley; Lucile Clay, Fulton; Nancy Caldwell, Scottsboro; Helen Bishop, Guntersville; Anna Mae Skinner, Montgomery; Hixon Conway, Montgomery; Mable Keller, Union Springs; Anna Jones, Lineville; Lida Allen, Cromwell; Ethel Thompson, Bessemer; Ione Malone and Lucile Williams.

The artists who accompany club are Miss Alice Lyman, Montevallo, violinist;

Miss Ernestine Bonner, Camden, pianist; and Mrs. Clara Browning Evans, pianist and accompanist. The club will be under the personal direction of Frank E. Marsh, Jr., the director.

BLOCH FUNERAL
HELD IN MOBILE

Legislator And Montevallo School Founder Is Mourned Over Alabama.

MOBILE, Ala., March 18.—Special.—Funeral services for Sol D. Bloch, of Camden, who died at the family home here Monday, took place Tuesday with Rabbi Moses, of Government Street Temple officiating. Mr. Bloch's death followed a short illness.

Solomon Daniel Bloch was the son of Daniel W. and Jannetta Bloch and was born in Camden, Wilcox County, Jan. 16, 1855. Mr. Bloch had an eventful career and was a public spirited citizen and recognized leader, the whole of his life having been spent in his native county, Wilcox, with the exception of a few years in Mobile at school and in business here. Early in his life, Mr. Bloch took an active interest in politics and served the people in his home county as county commissioner, as mayor of Camden, chairman of the Democratic committee, member of the state Democratic executive committee and was in both houses of the state legislature. Before he reached manhood, his county was in the throes of reconstruction days, following the Civil War and Sol Bloch was an active figure and leader in redeeming Wilcox County from the misrule incident to that period.

While serving in the Alabama Senate, 1890-94, Mr. Bloch introduced and fathered the bill which provided for the establishment of the Girls' Industrial School at Montevallo. For many years he was trustee of this school, and at the time of his death, was land commissioner for the school. In recognition of his work in behalf of this Alabama College for women one of the buildings erected at Montevallo was named Bloch Hall and in it there hangs a life-size portrait of him.

Mr. Bloch established the Wilcox Progress, a county weekly at Camden, and was its publisher and editor until it was merged with the Wilcox Era, the paper now known as The Wilcox Progressive Era. He assisted in the organization of the Wilcox Mounted Rifles and was an officer for several years in that organization which was a valuable unit in the old Alabama National Guard.

Mr. Bloch was a Mason, having been identified with Dale Lodge, of Camden, since his early manhood and was past grand master of the Royal and Select Master Masons of Alabama. He was also a Knight of Pythias. He retired from active business life a few years ago.

Mr. Bloch is survived by his brothers, Jacob D. Bloch and Monroe D. Bloch; one sister, Miss Bertha Bloch; his nieces, Miss Julia B. Herzfeld and Miss Flossie D. Herzfeld and Mrs. Leon Schwarz; a nephew, Montrose B. Herzfeld and other relatives in Selma, Montgomery and Birmingham. The interment was to be in Mobile.

Alabama College Is To Entertain Women

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 18.—Special.—Alabama College and Montevallo are preparing many social features for the meeting of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs, April 8 to 11.

The Studiosis Club will entertain the officers at luncheon immediately upon their arrival on Tuesday noon, April 8. After the luncheon, the Montevallo Exchange Club will take the officials for a drive, visiting points of interest, among them the mines at Aldrich.

On Tuesday evening, after the close of the first general program, the faculty will hold a reception in the college drawing-room in honor of all the delegates in attendance.

Wednesday at noon, a luncheon by the home economics department will be served to the Writers' Club.

Thursday evening has been given over by the program committee to the college for special features. The students will serve a stunt dinner in the large dining hall, and later in the evening the music, art and eurhythmic departments will present an operetta, "Egyptian Princess."

POET WILL LECTURE.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 18.—Special.—Vachel Lindsay, poet and lecturer, will deliver a lecture at Alabama College March 29, under the auspices of the English department. In addition to the public lecture, he will make one or more talks to classes in literature and will be the guest of honor at tea served by the English faculty and students. More than usual interest in his coming is being taken by students of all department and the citizens of Montevallo.

BRIDE OF WINTER SEASON

—Photo J. F. Knox.

MRS. KENNETH L. HAMMOND.

Until her marriage, Jan. 24, Mrs. Hammond was Miss Jewell Pardue. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Pardue, of Saginaw, and a graduate of Alabama College, Montevallo.

SCHOOL STAGES PLAY

"The Charm School" Presented To Big Audience At Montevallo.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 19.—Special.—"The Charm School" was given in the college auditorium Monday evening by members of the senior class of the Montevallo High School. Those taking part in the play were Lance Hubbard, Wilton, Newbern Vandiver, Montevallo; Grady Garner, Montevallo; Aubrey White, Montevallo; Milton Jeter, Montevallo; Eunice Chism, Montevallo; Bobby Lipscombe, Demopolis; Sara Head, Montevallo; Virginia Cameron, Birmingham; Mae Nabors, Helena; Mabel McElroy, Woodstock; Margaret Reaves, Montevallo; Aimee Jack, Greensboro; Dorothy Baer, Calera; Charlotte Hilton, Birmingham; Susan Mabry, Birmingham; Lucile Martin, Dothan.

The play was exceptionally well presented, and many who heard it said the work of the students compared very favorably indeed with that of college students. A large audience greeted the presentation of the play.

Monster Calf Born To Famous Holstein

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 14.—Special.—Joanna, the famous young Holstein of the Alabama College herd that produced 11 gallons, 2 quarts and 1 pint of milk per day for several days in 1923, presented to the college yesterday a new male calf that weighed 115 pounds. The reports show that only one other calf has ever reached this weight at birth. Alabama College dairy therefore comes up to the world's record in the weight of a calf. The youngster on his second day showed himself the equal in activities with other calves weeks old. He drank one and a half gallons of milk for his breakfast, and probably will want that amount at every meal.

The college dairy has several of the finest bred Holstein cattle in the state. The beginning of this herd was purchased three years ago from Peabody College of Nashville, Tenn.

Montevallo Alumnae to Have Luncheon During A. E. A.

RAMER, ALA., March 28.—Very definite plans are being made for the Montevallo luncheon to be held in Montgomery during the A. E. A. It is to be at the Tangerine Tea Room Friday, April 4 at one o'clock. Miss Minnie Sellers, state president of the alumnae association, is general chairman. She and her various committees are making plans for the largest crowd ever gathered at a Montevallo A. E. A. meeting. All former and present students, officers and faculty members of the college are most cordially invited to be present. Though not necessary, those who expect to attend this luncheon are urged to notify Miss Sellers.

First Of Series Of Recitals By Mrs. Nabors

MRS. BURR NABORS will give the first of a series of mid-year student recitals at her studio, 2144 Highland avenue, on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited. Among the students participating in these recitals are: Emelyn

Pearson, Helen Nice, A. nette Hatcher, Lazelle Roberts, Grace Harris, Clara Pritchett Rogers, Nell Hawkins, Jane Ross, Ettie Bee Rogers, Sara May Padlock, Mary Elizabeth Thomas, Edith Shaw, Evelyn Thomas, Bessie Lester, Ruth Miller, Marion Brown, Irene Snead, Lucy Hanby, Margaret Boynton, Mary Elizabeth Willis, Harriet Doster, Martha Hood, Dorothy Thomas, Florence Stevens, Lucy Stevens.

ALABAMA COLLEGE GLEE CLUB COMING

Singers And Instrumentalists Will Be Heard At Howard College.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 14.—Club will make its first trip of the season the week of March 21. They will sing at Howard College, Birmingham, Friday evening, March 21, and at the University of Alabama Saturday evening March 22. The glee club will be assisted by the following soloists: Miss Janice Fuquay, pianist; Miss Abbotte McKinnon, soprano; Miss Alice Lyman, violinist and Mrs. Clara Browning Evans accompanist. Mr. Frank E. Marsh, Jr., director of Alabama College School of Music, will direct. The club will present the following program in Birmingham:

- (a) "Distant Chimes" (Glover), (b) "Pretty Primrose" (Pinsuti) — Glee Club.
- (a) "Spanish Serenade" (Kreisler), (b) "Romance" (Wieniawski), (c) "Serenade" (Drda) — Miss Lyman.
- "Wynken, Blynken and Nod" (Nevins) — Glee Club and Miss McKinnon.
- (a) "A Rose Rhyme" (Alfred H. Hyatt), (b) "Were I A Star" (H. T. Burleigh), (c) "I Bring You Heartsease" (Gene Branscombe), (d) "Little Damsel" (Ivor Novello) — Miss McKinnon.
- "A Mother Goose Arabesque (Jessie Tukey) — Incidental solos: Miss Winifred Castleman, soprano; Miss Ethel Thompson, contralto.
- (a) "Fantasie Impromptu" (Chopin), (b) "Nocturne Op. 15, No. 2" (Chopin), (c) "Concert Etude" (Dennee) — Miss Fuquay.

College Songs — Glee Club.

MONTEVALLO CLUB SINGS AT HOWARD

Alabama College Students Are In Birmingham For Program Friday Night.

Approximately 35 students and officials of Alabama College, Montevallo, were in Birmingham Friday in connection with a glee club program to be presented by that institution during the evening at Howard College. Rousing enthusiasm marked the attitude of the Howard students in welcoming the Montevallo songsters, and local alumnae of the former Alabama Technical Institute and College for Women are understood to be rallying to the support of their alma mater's first glee club program in Birmingham during recent years.

The Montevallo club is presented under the auspices of the Howard varsity glee club, and will render a similar program in Tuscaloosa Saturday at the University of Alabama. The Montevallo Dramatic Club has been a regular visitor to Howard and a spirit of friendly interest has grown between the two schools.

There are 28 trained voices in the club and four instrumental assistants. The club is under the direction of Frank E. Marsh, Jr., head of the music school, and the program will include several popular and humorous songs, but nothing of the rag or jazz type, it is announced. Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. T. W. Palmer are accompanying the club as chaperones. Alice Lyman is making the tour as violinist and Mrs. Clara Browning Evans is acting as accompanist. Other soloists are Miss Abbotte McKinnon, soprano, and Miss Janie Fuquay, pianist.

Members of the club are as follows:
First sopranos: Mildred Thompson, Josephine Kilgore, Abbotte McKinnon, Margaret Butler, Nora Warren, Rosina Haygood, Lucile Clay, Cornelia Gailard, Agnes Nichols, Elma O'Neill, Lucille Williams, Mae Malone.

Second sopranos: Nancy Caldwell, Winifred Castleman, Alice Mahler, Helen Bishop, Pauline Curry, Anna Mae Skinner, Mary Carney Chapman.

First altos: Janice Fuquay, Mary Reilly, Mildred Vardeman, Theresa Conway, Cerena Strickland.

Second altos: Ethel Thompson, Ann Jones, Mabel Keller, Hixon Conway, Lida Allene.

The program scheduled for presentation at Howard is:

(a) "Distant Chimes" (Glover); (b) "Pretty Primrose" (Pinsuti); by glee club.

(a) "Spanish Serenade" (Kreisler); (b) "Romance" (Wieniawski); "Serenade" (Dräla), by Miss Lyman; "Wynken, Blynken and Nod" (Nevins), by glee club and Miss McKinnon.

(a) "A Rose Rhyme" (Alfred H. Hyatt); (b) "Were I a Star" (H. T. Burleigh); (c) "I Bring You Heart-ease" (Gene Branscomb); (d) "Little Damsel" (Ivor Novello), Miss McKinnon.

"A Mother Goose Arabesque" (Jesse Tukey); incidental solos, Miss Winifred Castleman, soprano; Miss Ethel Thompson, contralto.

(a) "Fantasie Impromptu" (Chopin); (b) "Nocturne Op. 15, No. 2" (Chopin); (c) "Concert Etude" (Dennee), by Miss Fuquay.

College songs by the club.

Numerous Donations To Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, March 21.—Special.—In President Palmer's report to the board of trustees of Alabama College the following gifts to the college were mentioned:

First, "Exchange Cottage," a new temporary dormitory of 22 rooms, presented by the citizens of Montevallo. It was sponsored by the Montevallo Exchange Club, which organization assumed the responsibility for the payment of all bills. The total cost was about $4,100. The Exchange Club also gave to the library $50 in order that a similar amount might be obtained from the county and the state for a circulating library among the public schools of Shelby County. The librarian of the college and a class in education receive and send out the books each week.

A gift of furniture, valued at $700, was made by the firm of Loveman, Joseph & Loeb, of Birmingham, for the rest-room in the dormitory. President Palmer, in his report, states that "no gift could have been made to the college that would be more helpful to or more appreciated by the students."

Mrs. J. B. Hall, of Chicago, gave $2,000 to the scholarship fund of the Stonewall Chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy of that city for maintaining a scholarship at Alabama College. The chapter named the scholarship the Lucy Harper Hall Scholarship, in honor of the donor. For 11 years this chapter has been maintaining a small scholarship at Montevallo. This was done largely through the influence of Mrs. J. W. Heatfield, who was at that time a resident of Chicago and a member of the Stonewall Chapter. She is a native of Tuscaloosa, and is now matron of the college.

Recently a splendid collection of curios came to the college as a bequest from Miss Elizabeth R. Benagh, of Nashville, Tenn. She was a native of Tuscaloosa and for several years before her death was deeply interested in Alabama College. These curios were collected by her in her travels through China, Japan, Palestine, Italy and some other European countries. The collection will serve as a basis for a museum.

ALABAMA COLLEGE TO RAISE MILLION

Campaign For Funds To Be Launched By Trustees
Without Delay.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 22.—Special.—A campaign to raise $1,000,000 for Alabama College was launched here Thursday at the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the institution.

The campaign, which according to present plans, will get under way in the near future will be under the general supervision of Dean Carmichael, who will be relieved of all duty at the college for the time being.

The board of trustees not only agreed to assist in the campaign as a body, but the members will act as a district chairman throughout the drive. They headed the list of subscribers with sums which totalled $3,100. Special appeals for contributions will be made during the drive, it is planned, to former students of the college, women's clubs, civic organizations, and to chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy throughout the state.

President Palmer was unanimously reelected at this meeting, as was Dean Carmichael.

All members of the board were present except Judge M. A. Graham, of Prattville, and Mrs. W. B. Peebles, of Aliceville.

SHEEHAN IS CHAIRMAN

Montgomery Member Of Alabama College Trustees Is Made Chairman.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 22.—Special.—At the meeting of the board of trustees of Alabama College Thursday, Governor Brandon appointed W. T. Sheehan, Montgomery, chairman of the executive committee. The other members of the committee are J. B. Ellis, of Selma, and R. B. Evins, of Greensboro.

Messrs. Sheehan and Ellis are hold-over appointments. Mr. Evins is the new member of the committee, and will serve for three years. It has been the rule of the college for a number of years for one member of the committee to retire each year and then a new member appointed to serve for three years. Mr. L. Sevier, of Birmingham, retires this year after three years.

SUMMER SCHOOL BULLETIN IS OUT

Dean O. C. Carmichael Will Continue As Director

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 22.—(Special).—The summer school bulletin of Alabama college has just come from the press and shows many interesting features for teachers, college and high school students. Dean O. C. Carmichael continues as director and the following are some of the faculty: Dr. H. W. James of the regular session staff is in charge of education, Dr. D. H. Bacot will direct the English work, Dr. A. W. Calhoun, who was the popular teacher of history in the summer school of 1923, will return to his old position. In addition to this work, he will deliver some interesting lectures.

Miss Myrtle Brooke, who has just returned from a three months' leave of absence, visiting other colleges in the south, north and east, will be in charge of the sociology work.

The home economics department, which is always a strong feature in the summer school, will have all of its teachers from the regular college faculty, namely Misses Sale, Kemp, Johnson and Neely.

The art classes will be conducted by Miss Genella McGhee of Marvin college, Missouri. She was a member of the staff of 1923 and there was a general desire for her return this year.

Miss Mary G. Stallworth will head the department of mathematics and will be assisted by Mr. J. L. Appleton, principal of the training school.

J. S. Ward, head of the modern language department of last summer and of the regular session 1923-24, will teach the French and Spanish classes.

Additional courses in Bible study and Sunday school methods by Rev. P. H. Carmichael, will be a part of the regular course for all teacher-training courses, as well as for college credit.

Prof. W. J. Kennerly, who has been on a year's leave of absence, studying at Emory university, returns and resumes his old place as head of the chemistry department. He and Mrs. Kennerly will be warmly welcomed at the college and in Montevallo.

HONOR SOL D. BLOCH
MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 25.—
(Special).—At the Y. W. C. A. meeting of Sunday evening, a memorial service was held in honor of the memory of the lamented Sol. D. Bloch, the founder of the school and for 26 years a member of the board of trustees.
Mr. Bloch was a citizen of Camden, for that reason a student from Camden presided and another spoke for the student body.

MONTEVALLO NAMES STUDENT OFFICERS

Birmingham Girl Elected President Of Y. W. C. A.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 22.—
At a meeting today of the student body of Alabama college the following officers were elected for the next year, beginning April 1:
Student Government Association—
Lillian Prout, Demopolis, president;
Annie Laurie Dunn, Mobile, vice president.
Y. W. C. A.—Lula Hawkins, Birmingham, president; Mildred Walker,
Newbern, vice president.
Technala—Winifred Castleman,
Greensboro, editor in chief; Frances Seldon, Greensboro, assistant editor.
Athlete Board—Odelle Carmichael,
Hollins, president.
School Paper, the Alabamian—Anny May Skinner, Montgomery, editor; Alice Mahler, Loxley, assistant editor.
At the meeting of the board of trustees yesterday Governor Brandon appointed W. T. Sheehan, Montgomery chairman of the executive committee.
The other members of the committee are J. B. Ellis of Selma and R.
Evins of Greensboro.

ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN

Primary Grades Of Alabama College Stage Musical Performance
MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 29.—
Special.—On Thursday evening, a very unique program was presented by Miss May Andrus, professor of public school music of Alabama College, with pupils of the several grades of the training school. There was a group of songs by pupils of the first grade, followed by a toy symphony, directed by William Kroell, a first grade boy. The instruments used in this symphony were made by the pupils of the fifth grade.
The second grade pupils gave a group of action songs, and the third grade, in costume, sang a series of bedtime numbers.
The wooden shoe dance by four of the fourth grade girls attracted much attention, and they had to respond to a vigorous encore. Members of the fifth grade presented a Japanese operetta. The final number consisted of a group of songs by pupils of all the grades.

1905 GRADUATE TO ATTEND MONTEVALLO LUNCHEON

Mrs. J. D. Garren, formerly Hill
Beech, a 1905 graduate of Montevallo and vice president of the Montevallo Alumnae association, will come to Montgomery for the A. E. A. and for the Montevallo luncheon on Friday.

History Of Hostess Clubs For Alabama Federation.

AS the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs is to meet in Montevallo April 8 to 11, a brief statement concerning the two hostess clubs, the Studiosis and the Tutwiler will be of interest to many women of the state and particularly in Birmingham where Mrs. McConaughy (Conra Skaggs) is delightfully remembered and other club women are well known.
The Studiosis was first organized, under the name, Ladies Literary Society, on Oct. 11, 1895, a year and a day before the opening of the Alabama Girls' Industrial School, now known as Alabama College. In this same year 1895, the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs was organized.
At the first meeting for the organization of the Ladies Literary Society, the following officers were elected: Mrs.
James L. McConaughy, president;
Miss Bertie Allen, vice president; Miss
Pauline Acker, secretary and treasurer.
A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and bylaws to be read at the first regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. L. H. Lyman. At that meeting, the constitution reported by the committee was adopted.
The president, Mrs. McConaughy, proposed that the name of the society be changed to Studiosis Club, and this suggestion was promptly adopted.
The following were the charter members: Mesdames James L. McConaughy,
E. S. Lyman, W. B. Reynolds, J. D.
Trammell, C. W. Cary, George Morgan;

Misses Hattie Lyman, Bertie Allen Bessie Allen, Pauline Acker.
During the first year, the following new members were elected: Mrs. J. W.
Pratt, Mrs. Frank Crow, Mrs. Gussie
Nelson; Misses Anne Kennedy, Bessie
Haley, Etta McCombs, Della Latham, Ethel McMath.
Interesting literary programs were arranged for each meeting.
On Feb. 13, 1896, the club unanimously voted in favor of joining the Alabama Federation. Mrs. W. B. Reynolds and Mrs. E. S. Lyman were elected as delegates to the second annual meeting of the state federation.
There was no library in Montevallo, so the question of establishing a library was a live one at every meeting. In 1897, the library was begun by gifts of books from members of the club and from other friends. Mrs. J. L. McConaughy was elected the first librarian.
The Baptist Church offered the use of a room in the rear of the church, which offer was accepted. Afterwards, the club gave its collection of books to the Alabama Girls' Industrial School, which was the beginning of the splendid library now owned by Alabama College.
Mrs. J. L. McConaughy, who took such an active part in organizing the Studiosis, soon became one of the most prominent leaders in Alabama Federation Club work. In her honor, the Federation of Clubs named one of its scholarships the Conra McConaughy Scholarship.
The Tutwiler Club is next to the oldest college club, having been organized in 1907. It was named in honor of Miss Julia Tutwiler. It maintains a loan scholarship to be awarded preferably to one of its own members needing help. The membership is limited to 35 regular members and 15 honorary members. It became a federated club in 1922.

MISS GRIFFIN TALKS

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 1.—Special.—Miss Ila Deane Griffin, home demonstrator for Limestone County and a former graduate of Alabama College, was a visitor to the college on Sunday evening and Monday morning. She was called on for an impromptu talk at the Y. W. C. A. service and responded by giving an account of her work in her county. She urged the students to make the most thorough preparation for useful service after leaving college.

LINDSAY SPEAKS

Poet And Lecturer Appears Twice For Alabama College Students.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 1.—Special.—Nicholas Vachel Lindsay, poet,
lecturer and reader, appeared at Alabama College on Saturday. He came under the auspices of the English department. At 3 o'clock he lectured before the senior class on modern poetry, and at 5 o'clock was entertained at a reception in the new library where the faculty, advanced students and others
met him.
Mr. Lindsay was accompanied by Dr.
Richard G. Cox, president of Gulf Park
College of Mississippi, where he is spending the Winter in study and writing.
At 8 o'clock a large audience assembled in the college auditorium to hear Mr. Lindsay. There was much difference of opinion as to which feature of the exercise was the most pronounced. Some said that he was strongest as an artist, or a musician,
or a poet, or a dramatic interpreter.
One critic said he was a happy combination of all of these features.

MONTEVALLO ALUMNAE
LUNCHEON IN MONTGOMERY

Very definite plans are being made for the Montevallo luncheon to be held in Montgomery during the A. E. A. It is to be at the Tangerine Tea Room, Friday, April 4, at 1 o'clock. Miss Minnie Sellers, state president of the Alumnae association, is general chairman.
She and her various committees are making plans for the largest crowd ever gathered at a Montevallo A. E. A. meeting. All former and present students, officers and faculty members of the college are most cordially invited to be present. Though not necessary, those who expect to attend this luncheon are urged to notify Miss Sellers.

LINDSAY SPEAKS

Poet And Lecturer Appears Twice For Alabama College Students.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 1.—Special.—Nicholas Vachel Lindsay, poet,
lecturer and reader, appeared at Alabama College on Saturday. He came under the auspices of the English department. At 3 o'clock he lectured before the senior class on modern poetry,
and at 5 o'clock was entertained at a reception in the new library where the faculty, advanced students and others
met him.
Mr. Lindsay was accompanied by Dr.
Richard G. Cox, president of Gulf Park
College of Mississippi, where he is spending the Winter in study and writing.
At 8 o'clock a large audience assembled in the college auditorium to hear Mr. Lindsay. There was much difference of opinion as to which feature of the exercise was the most pronounced. Some said that he was strongest as an artist, or a musician,
or a poet, or a dramatic interpreter.
One critic said he was a happy combination of all of these features.

MONTEVALLO BUREAU AT EXCHANGE

During the A. E. A. there will be a Montevallo bureau at the Exchange hotel. Miss Nell Browder, executive secretary of the Montevallo Alumnae association, will be in charge. It shall be the purpose of this bureau to help Montevallo people in any way possible and to serve as a meeting place for them.

On Friday at 1 o'clock the present and former students and teachers of Montevallo are invited to gather together at the Tangerine Tea room for luncheon.

FINDS ARGENTINE PROGRESSIVE LAND

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 15.—(Special.)—T. W. Palmer, Jr., of New York city, who is now visiting his parents at Alabama college, delivered an address before the student body Tuesday morning on "Some Impressions of Argentina." Before entering upon his subject, he spoke pleasantly of the great progress made by Alabama college since he first became acquainted with the institution.

"Of all the countries," said Mrs. Palmer, "Argentina has made the greatest progress in finance, laws and law enforcement, modern business methods, immigration, railways, etc. Its people feel that it is superior to other South American republics, and one noted that they have a little jealousy towards our country."

An interesting account was given of his trip from LaPaz, in Bolivia, on muleback to Argentine.

Buenos Aires, the capital, is about the size of Philadelphia, with modern buildings, streets, hotels and a subway. All forms of high class entertainments are given there. He attended an American Methodist church and a Scotch Presbyterian church with services in English, a Y. M. C. A. and a Y. W. C. A. and a beautiful Catholic cathedral.

New Council Goes In At Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 4.—Special.—Installation of the new officers of the Student Government Association at Alabama College took place Wednesday evening.

After brief talks by the president and dean, the new executive members of the freshman class were called to the platform and were vested by the old members of the sophomore class with the insignia of office. The pledge of office was then administered. The same plan was followed with each higher class. Miss Edith Montgomery, of Warrior, the retiring president, and her successor, Miss Lillian Prout, of Demopolis, addressed the students. The new executive board follows: Lillian Prout, Demopolis, president; Anna Laura Dunn, Mobile, vice president; Hazel Black, Ashland; Alice Mahler, Loxley, freshman members; Helen Davis, Fort Davis; Alice Barganier, Montgomery; Minnie Jewel Rice, Montgomery, sophomore members; Mildred Walker, Newbern; Lula Hawkins, Birmingham, junior members.

MONTEVALLO GIVES OPERETTA AGAIN

Fine Performance for Federation of Clubs Repeated for Town and Students

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 12.—Special to The Advertiser.—The Egyptian Princess," a romantic operetta by Charles Vincent, was repeated at Alabama College on Friday evening for the benefit of the town people and those students who were unable to gain admission to the first performance. A very large audience was present, and the few who were present at both presentations said the second was even better than the first.

The following composed the cast of characters:

Queen of Egypt—Ethel Thompson, Bessemer.

Princess Aida, her daughter—Nancy Caldwell, Scottsboro.

Princess Tabubu—Alice Mahler, Loxley.

Nyssa, companions to princess—Winifred Castleman, Greensboro.

Phila—Aida—Helen Bishop, Guntersville.

Alva, a favorite slave girl—Abbotte McKinnon, Talladega Springs.

Queen Grania (captive queen)—Mabel Kellar, Union Springs.

Herub (daughter of Wizard)—Mary Riley, Sylacauga.

Dancing girl—Anita Grover, Sylacauga.

This operetta was the result of the combined efforts of several departments of the college—music, art, home economics, English and eurhythmics.

Requests have been made for a presentation in Birmingham and Montgomery.

T. W. Palmer, Jr., wife and little son, Tom the third, are welcomed visitors to their parents and grandparents, President and Mrs. T. W. Palmer, at Alabama College. This is their first visit to Alabama in two years.

The meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs adjourned Friday afternoon. Ten or twelve officials remained over until Saturday to inspect more closely the college plant, especially the dairy. They were anxious to see the Holstein cow that gives twelve gallons of milk per day and the Jersey cow that produces six gallons with seven per cent. butterfat.

Montevallo Girls Please Visitors With 'Stunt Night'

Thursday evening was devoted to the entertainment of the visitors by the students of Alabama College.

An elaborate six o'clock dinner was served in the dining room, after which "stunt night" was celebrated in a sort of de luxe style.

Four different clubs gave spectacular stunts. The Tutwiler club presented "Famous Women," ranging all the way from Joan de Arc to Dolly Madison. The girls were exquisitely costumed and the lighting effects and music artistic.

The characters were:

Helen of Troy, Lucile Nelson; Cleopatra, Helen Gray McNeill; Florence Nightengale, Ina Mae Malone; Dollie Madison, Mable Keller; Catherine of Prussia, Pauline Curry; Marie Antoinette club that gave that stunt. The cast: Ruth Little; Mary Queen of Scott, Alice Mahler; Joan of Arc, Ruth Pardue; Pocahuntas, Alleen Slade.

"The Chorus Girls" in ballet costumes, clever dancing and singing made a big hit. It was the Philomathic club that gave that stunt. The Catholics were enthusiastically received in their "Fishing" performance.

Philomathic as Charles Gells; Julia Aberville, Jewel Jeffrey, Mary Cola Hungerford, Clarence Long, Roberta Northup, Edith Edmondson.

Castalian club, fishing: Boys: Rella Rudolph, Dorothy McLeod, Elizabeth Ward, Anna Murphee; girls Lucy McCally; Mary Watson, Alene Elsey, Gage Morton.

It was the Zeta Pi Delta who presented the Chinese wedding in true royal Chinese fashion.

Zeta Pi Delta, Chinese wedding Birds, Josephine Kilgore, groom Ellarve Ingram, priest, Ann Long.

Mrs. P. L. Matthews of Montgomery was asked to speak to the girls. She responded with original verses the first called "Even Eve". As an encore she gave "Little Gal Ways" and responded to other encores with "Spring Tonic" and "The Writer Blues."

ALABAMA COLLEGE WILL HEAR ROSEN

Roumanian Violinist To Give Concert In Montevallo

April 26.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 19.—Special.—Considerable interest is being manifested here in musical circles in the announcement that Max Rosen, famous violinist will appear here in concert on April 26, at the Alabama College.

Mr. Rosen is a native of Roumania, but came to this country at an early age and received his first musical education in New York City. His first teacher was his father, who, although a professional musician, was, and still is a musical enthusiast. The talent of the boy was obvious, it is said, and it was not long before it came to the attention of a group of men who believed that young Rosen ought to have every advantage in pursuing his musical studies. The young violinist went abroad to study, becoming a pupil of Leopold Auer.

On his return to America, Rosen made his debut in Carnegie Hall, New York. It was a year for great violinists, and Rosen proved to be one of the greatest reports show. He was heard subsequently with orchestras and in recitals in many parts of the country.

Three years ago Mr. Rosen went on the road for a concert tour, and his engagements are said to have been so numerous that it was only recently that he was able to return to this country. His experiences in Europe have ripened an art which already was high perfect, it is claimed, and today Max Rosen may be counted with the half-dozen really great violinists of the time.

Personally, Rosen is described as a good-looking, blond young man, with large blue eyes and an attractive smile, with a free demeanor but a serious student of his art, while his charming and straightforward personality is reflected in his playing, which combines virility with poetic insight.

Left: Mrs. G. C. Sharp receiving the Red Cross Life Saving Medal from Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Alabama College. The presentation was made recently at Montevallo.

—Photo by Yeager Studio.

Left: The beautiful dormitory of Alabama College at Montevallo, where delegates to the annual meeting of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs will be entertained during the coming week. The meeting will bring together many of the state's most prominent women.
—Photo by Yeager Studio.

ALABAMA COLLEGE TRUSTEES GATHER AT MONTEVALLO

—Photo by Yeagers' Studio.

This group was taken when the board of trustees of Alabama College met recently at Montevallo. The board, all of the members of which appear in the photograph, is composed of L. M. Moseley, Union Springs, Alabama; C. L. Meroney, Montevallo, Alabama (Secretary of the board); W. J. Dansby, Butler, Alabama; Alto V. Lee, Gadsden, Alabama; T. W. Palmer, Montevallo (President, Alabama College); Virgil Bouldin, Scottsboro, Alabama; Robert B. Evans, Greensboro, Alabama; W. T. Sheehan, Montgomery, Alabama (chairman executive committee); L. Sevier, Birmingham, Alabama; Governor W. W. Brandon, J. B. Ellis, Selma, Alabama; Superintendent J. W. Abercrombie, Montgomery, Alabama; W. H. Tayloe, Uniontown, Alabama; O. C. Carmichael, Montevallo, (Dean of Alabama College); M. V. Joseph, Birmingham, Alabama.

MONTEVALLO ALUMNAE HAS SPECIAL MEETING.

There will be a special meeting, called by the president, Mrs. D. F. Rucks, of the Birmingham Chapter Montevallo Alumnae and Student Association Saturday, at 1 o'clock at the Business and Professional Women's Club rooms. All members, women who have ever attended Alabama College, and others interested in this splendid college, are invited to be present. Luncheon will be served promptly at 1 o'clock. Dean Carmichael will be the speaker on this occasion. A pleasant surprise is in store for all who attended.

MISS O'CONNELL TO SING

Young Montgomery Woman Will Appear in Concert At Montevallo.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 26.—Special.—Miss Mary Frances O'Connell, of Montgomery, will give a concert in the college auditorium on the evening of May 8. Miss O'Connell is a lyric soprano, and is the Alabama winner of the musical scholarship awarded by the Juilliard Foundation of New York.

Her voice has been pronounced by the musical authorities of New York "the finest that the South has produced in a generation" ranging to E above the octave.

Miss O'Connell is qualifying for grand opera, and while at Montevallo will sing arias from "Carmen," "La Boheme" and "Herodiade," in addition to other songs in English, French and German.

CONCERT IS GIVEN

cial.)—Alabama college gave the last in a MONTEVALLO, April 28.—(Special.)—A series of concerts Saturday evening, April 26. A large audience greeted Max Rosen, the young Rumanian violinist, who has won for himself an enviable reputation in the large cities, and especially in New York.

Rooms Going Rapidly At Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 26.—Special.—Each mail at Alabama College brings applications from students who wish to attend the 1924-1925 session. There are already more students who have made room reservations than on Aug. 1, last year.

The enrollment for 1923-1924 exceeded by 232 that of the previous year, and still some had to be turned away. Except for the people of Montevallo, 60 young women, who are now in attendance, would have been denied entrance last year.

THREE GENERATIONS AT MONTEVALLO

"Three Toms" of the Palmer Family at Montevallo, Dr. Thomas W. Palmer, president of Alabama College; Thomas W. Palmer, Jr., an attorney of New York City who is in the forefront of his profession; Thomas W. Palmer 3rd, who in the opinion of his grandfather is the "greatest Tom of all."

BEGIN ON MAY 16

Jubilee Occasion Arranged for First Celebration Under Standard College Basis.

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 8 — Alabama College makes official announcement today concerning its commencement program. As this is the first commencement since the institution was placed upon the standard college basis, it is proposed to make of it a jubilee occasion. All of the luncheon clubs, all educational institutions, boards of education, fraternal orders and religious bodies in the state are invited to send representatives to be present on Monday, May 19. On that day, a picnic dinner will be served on the campus to all of the out-of-town visitors.

The closing exercises will begin on Friday, May 16, with an address before the Training School by Dr. P. W. Hodges, of the State Department of Education at Montgomery. At 8 p. m. on Friday, President and Mrs. Palmer will give a public reception in the college parlors in honor of the graduating classes, of which there are about one hundred members.

On Saturday morning, the alumnae will have a special meeting. An elaborate program for that occasion is being arranged by Miss Minnie Sellers, of Ramer, Ala., president of the association. At 1 p. m. the alumnae banquet will be given in the college dining room. At 3:30 p. m. exhibits will be made by the technical departments in Bloch Hall. At 8 p. m. the "Egyptian Princess," an operetta given by the College Glee Club, which attracted so much attention during the Federation of Women's Clubs, will be repeated.

On Sunday, the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rt. Rev. William G. McDowell, bishop coadjutor of the diocese of Alabama. At 6:30 p. m., the address before the Y. W. C. A. will be given by Miss Kathleen Mallory, of Selma, Ala.

On Monday, May 19, Hon. Ray Rushton, of Montgomery, will deliver the baccalaureate address before the graduating classes. After the address, the president will award the degrees and diplomas. This is decidedly the largest class in the history of the college, and this is the first year in which there has been an organized class with degree courses.

President Palmer on behalf of the college, extends an invitation to the friends of the college everywhere to come and rejoice with the institution on this jubilee occasion.

110 GRADUATED AT MONTEVALLO

Ray Rushton In Address Urges Support For College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 19.—(Special.)—Commencement day is always a great day in Montevallo, and it was especially so today. This is the first anniversary of the college as a standard institution. The stores in town closed their doors in honor of the event. Scores of parents and relatives of trustees Monday, expressed the conviction that all other problems which the state has to meet are secondary, when compared with the problem that faces her of financing her educational agencies in such a way as to enable her to graduate this class.

President Palmer then presented Ray Rushton of Montgomery, who delivered a masterful baccalaureate address. He appealed to the graduates to foster, encourage and help their Alma Mater; that the future success of any college depends largely upon the co-operation of its alumnae. The duties of citizenship were now devolving upon every woman, and the intelligent, well-trained women should not in any way shirk these responsibilities, he said.

President Palmer then awarded diplomas to 110 girls, by far the largest class ever gone from these walls.

A general luncheon was served to

NEW YORKER VISITING MONTEVALLO AFTER TRIP THROUGH SOUTH AMERICA

Mrs. T. W. Palmer, Jr., of New York, now visiting President and Mrs. Palmer at Alabama College, Montevallo, Mrs. Palmer, Jr., has recently returned from a tour of South America with her husband. She has charming children who have met her in Alabama, possessing many talents and delightful personality.

ALABAMA COLLEGE ENDS TERM MAY 16

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 11.—Commencement week at Alabama is the week of May 16 to May 24. The program for the week is as follows: May 16—8:30 p. m., president's reception to the graduating classes. May 17—10 a. m., meeting of the Alumnae Association. 11:30 a. m., class day exercises. 1 p. m., Alumnae banquet; 3 p. m., exhibits by the technical departments; 8:30 p. m., "The Egyptian Princess," an operetta by Charles Vincent, given by the College Glee Club. May 18—11 a. m., Baccalaureate sermon by the Right Reverend William G. McDowell, Bishop Coadjutor of the diocese of Alabama; 6:30 p. m., Y. W. C. A. service, conducted by the graduating classes; addresses by Miss Margaret Chenoweth, Birmingham, Ala.

May 19—10 a. m., Baccalaureate address by Honorable Ray Rushton, Montgomery; 11 a. m., awarding of degrees and diplomas by the president.

Also, a picnic dinner will be served on the campus to all luncheon club and state visitors on May, May 19.

The graduating exercises of the training school are at 10:30 a. m., May 24 with an address by P. W. Hodges, secretary of certification and placement Montgomery.

Diplomas Awarded Alabama College Graduates Monday

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 19.—Special.—The big events of the twenty-eighth annual commencement of Alabama College in Montevallo took place Monday.

Degrees and diplomas were awarded by President T. W. Palmer. Special music included solos by Miss Ernestine Bonner and Miss Abbott McKinnon, as well as "Alma Mater," the class song, with words by Mary Goode Stallworth, and music by the late Charles R. Calkins.

Ray Rushton, of Montgomery, delivered the baccalaureate address. A picnic lunch on the campus was served to students and state visitors.

This year's commencement is a sort of jubilee in that it is the first since the school became a standard college.

On Sunday morning the graduating class, in caps and gowns or in white dresses, filed into the chapel while the big chorus sang the processional. Rev. Treadway and Rev. John May read the scriptures and led the prayer. Bishop William G. McDowell delivered the baccalaureate sermon. He preached from the text, "This Is the Victory That Overcometh the World Even Your Faith In the Everlasting Christ." A solo by Miss Mary Melissa Snyder and a violin selection by Miss Mildred Vause were the special musical numbers of the service. Mrs. Guy Chamberlain was pianist.

In the evening a Y. W. C. A. service was held in the assembly hall of the dormitory. The graduating class came down the winding stairs and stood while they sang the hymns and later a cantata.

Miss Ethel Harrington sang the solo parts of the cantata, "Hear My Prayer." Miss Margaret Tate Chenoweth, of Birmingham, made a talk in which she told of the girl reserve work she directs in Birmingham. She suggested ways in which Montevallo girls may take up this work whose fourfold object is health, knowledge, spirit and service. "Being friends with your family" was stressed.

GUY SMITH TALKS ON VOICE PRODUCTION

Tells Department Music Directors Incidents Concerning Development of Child Voice

At the department meeting of the music directors of the schools held at the Lanier High School on Friday, C. Guy Smith, gave an interesting talk on the child voice production and the care of it. Mr. Smith explained the mechanism of the vocal apparatus and told of a number of incidents, taken from his experience, concerning the child voice.

Miss Elizabeth Young, Technical Institute and College, Montevallo, presented a concise history of the rapid advancement of music in the public schools of America. Miss Young made a plea for a higher place for music in the school curriculum.

Mrs. G. C. Moore of Gadsden read a paper in which she described an ideal music supervisor and what he should be able to do. A discussion followed the paper, general problems being the prevailing subject of the hour. A paper "Music Credits in the School" which was to have been read by Mrs. James R. Hagan of Mobile was read by Miss

★ THE BIRMINGHAM NEWS

NEWS AND ACTI

LOVELY COLLEGE GRADUATE

MISS HELEN FOWLKES

Miss Fowlkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Fowlkes, was graduated from Alabama College, Montevallo Saturday. She is an attractive member of the young college set of Birmingham.

Montevallo Students Awarded Emblems By President Palmer

MONTVALLO, Ala., May 8.—Special.—Nine basketball players at Alabama College were awarded letters recently, for their work in helping make the past season the most successful in the history of the sport at Alabama's largest woman's college. First year letters were presented to Elizabeth Ward and Edith Thomas, while second year honors went to Bill Smith, Mildred Keahey and Mildred Allbritton.

Gold basketballs emblematic of three years service on the squared court were given to Odelle Carmichael, Gladys Martin and Lillie Burleson, captain of the 1923 team.

A silver loving cup will be presented to the class making the highest number of points in class basketball at the end of the season.

Martha Gusman, Mrs. Hagan classes music with mathematics and physics in requiring quick thinking, concentration and in cultural results, it is second only to reading and writing. If these results may be obtained from the study of music she said, they should be encouraged and rewarded by credits toward graduation. She gave a fine outline for the standardization of applied music in the Mobile public schools, talked on the Victrola as a foundation for the teaching of appreciation in public school music. She said the child must be acquainted with good music in order that he be interested in reading and studying music. Miss Gusman showed how the talking machine served as the motive force. The music supervisor, with the assistance of a Victrola gave a demonstration of an appreciative lesson.

Miss Kitts of Birmingham was elected chairman of music supervisors of the Alabama Educational Association for the coming year.

2 COLLEGE HEADS 29 VISIT BIRMINGHAM

Dr. Spright Dowell And Dr. F.
W. Palmer Discuss Conditions

Two out-of-town college presidents met by chance in Birmingham Tuesday. They were Dr. Spright Dowell of the Alabama Polytechnic institute at Auburn and Dr. F. W. Palmer, of the Alabama College for Women, at Montevallo.

Dr. Dowell announced the passing of a trouble that has handicapped Auburn for many years, namely, the lack of telegraph facilities during commencement week. In the past years big newspapers of many states have sent staff men to cover the Auburn exercises, but have nearly abandoned the practice because the small telegraph station could not handle the great volume of copy. Dr. Dowell stated he had made arrangements with the Western Union Telegraph company to install extra wires and sent extra operators for commencement week.

Dr. Palmer, who came to Birmingham in the interest of the $1,000,000 fund being raised for Alabama college, said May 19 had been set aside at the institution as "Jubilee Day" when the first anniversary of the admission of the college to the ratings of the Southern Association of Colleges will be celebrated. Alabama college now awards three degrees, bachelor of science, bachelor of arts and a new degree, bachelor of music.

Dr. Palmer stated that Miss Margaret Chenoweth, girl reserve secretary of the Birmingham Y. W. C. A. had been chosen to deliver an address before the Alabama College Y. W. C. A., Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

K PEARL

(FICTION)

A RUCK

"I am not attempting to pretend." "Not now, because you have been placed in the department of Alabama college, has just come from the press. There are altogether twenty-six poems, arranged in four divisions, first "Needles from a Pine Grove," second, "The Heart of America in the War," third, "In Memory," fourth, "The Scrap Bag."

The first poem in the first division is entitled "The Road." There are seven verses, all of which are very beautiful indeed and well worth the reading. In the second division, "Next Door" is an attractive poem of ten lines which reads as follows:

"There's nobody next door!
Yes, the man and woman
Live there still.
The cat laps her milk,
And sits contented in the sun.
The dog—meroy! how he howls!
The banjo and the cornet sound no more,
Cheerful calls and whistles are dead—

There are no daughters—
The boys have gone to war."
In the third division, there are only three poems. In the second poem, "The Hours" the first and last stanzas are very beautiful:

"That morning when, alone beside your bed,
I pressed your still warm hand and
said goodbye,
I knew there'd be no pressure in reply
Then, or ever—that dear hand was dead.

And thru the evergreen that binds
my brow
A third Hour wrought to bring me calm content.
We parted once for all; that's over now;

ALABAMA COLLEGE GLEE CLUB GIVES OPERAETTA

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 6.—Special to The Advertiser.—A scene of rare beauty greeted the large audience which assembled at Alabama College on Saturday evening when the public school music department presented the high school glee club under the direction of Miss May Andrus, in the charming operaetta "In India" by Paul Bliss.

When the curtain rose on the first act, the chorus in the gay and picturesque attire of the maidens of India made a delightful picture in its floral setting. The stage was a bower of beauty with decorations of laurel and roses and other blossoming plants, built in an artistic manner around the latticed arch at the back of the stage while Chinese lanterns lent a quaint Oriental air to the out of doors scene.

The excellent training of the chorus and principals was apparent at once, and with perfect poise of voice and manner, the young women performed their parts so gracefully that they were applauded again and again.

Cast: Miss Minnie Peebles Johnson, in the leading role, sang her solos with a depth of feeling and her clear soprano voice of sweet quality was a joy to all. Miss Alice Lyman as Vee-rah displayed remarkable histrionic ability in addition to her skill as a musician. Miss Lois Elliott as Simla was captivating in her manner and became a great favorite with the audience. Miss Elizabeth Cox as How-Now was clever and vivacious.

Altogether a most delightful evening was enjoyed and much credit is due Miss Andrus and her efficient accompanist Miss Ernestine Browne, for the success of the operaetta.

MONTEVALLO ALUMNAE AT MONTHLY LUNCHEON.

The Birmingham Chapter, Montevallo Alumnae, will have its monthly luncheon Saturday at 1 o'clock at the Business and Professional Women's club-rooms. This is the last luncheon before commencement takes place, and all members and others interested in the success of the Alabama College operaetta, entitled, "The Egyptian Princess," which will be presented by the Birmingham chapter and the club women of the third district of Alabama Federated Women's Clubs, at the Masonic Auditorium, May 22 and 23, are invited to be present at this luncheon. Dr. O. C. Carmichael will be the speaker for this occasion and will urge all alumnae to take an active part in the presentation of this beautiful operaetta in the interest of the $1,000,000 drive. Mrs. D. F. Rucks is general chairman of this undertaking and Mrs. Seale Harris is co-chairman. Mrs. P. Eubank, president of the clubs of the third district of the Alabama Federated Women's Clubs, is assisting Mrs. Rucks in appointing the various committees, chairmen of which are as follows:

Mrs. Seale Harris, chairman ticket committee; Mrs. Scudder Ryall, chairman advertising committee; Mrs. Martha Lyman Shillito, chairman publicity committee; Mrs. C. C. Adams, chairman hospitality committee; Mrs. W. C. Spidle, chairman program committee; Mrs. E. B. Henry, chairman special committee third district.

The American Legion, various men's luncheon clubs and individuals interested in the success of this drive will be called upon to assist in making this affair a success.

It is hoped that there will be representatives from every club of the third district of the Alabama Federated Women's Clubs present at this luncheon Saturday.

COMMENCEMENT AT MONTEVALLO MAY 1

Bishop McDowell to Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon and Ray Rushton Main Address

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 6.—Special to The Advertiser.—The 1924 commencement of Alabama College promises to be the most interesting in the history of the institution. This is the first commencement since the full college standard has been attained and it has been proposed to make of it a jubilee occasion. Invitations have been sent to all of the luncheon clubs in the state, all educational institutions, boards of education and fraternal orders to attend May 19 and join with the college in a picnic dinner on the campus and help to make this an occasion of rejoicing.

The exercises proper begin at ten a. m. Friday, May 16, with an address before the training school by Dr. P. M. Hodges, of the department of education at Montgomery. On Friday evening President and Mrs. Palmer will give a general reception in honor of the graduating classes in the assembly hall of the dormitory.

The baccalaureate sermon on Sunday will be given by the Bishop coadjutor of the diocese of Alabama, Dr. William G. McDowell. The Y. W. C. A. service in the evening will be under the auspices of the graduating class. Miss Kathleen Mallory, of Selma, who has just returned from a trip to China and Japan, will deliver the address.

Monday, May 19, is known as commencement day, when one hundred young women will receive their diplomas, the largest class in the history of the college. The baccalaureate address will be delivered by Ray Rushton of Montgomery.

ENTERTAIN MRS. PALMER

Alabama College Class Provides May Day Party

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 6.—Special to The Advertiser.—The home economics faculty of Alabama College entertained Saturday afternoon with a lawn party in front of Block hall. The members of the senior home economics class and the sophomore class served refreshments. The table was decorated with a May pole made of roses and dancing cupids.

The invited guests were President and Mrs. Palmer of the college and Mrs. T. W. Palmer, Jr., of New York. The members of the class were Kathleen Arnold, Ethel Blake, Lillie Burleson, Annie Carmichael, Bessie Copeland, Mamie Eakens, Elizabeth Gailiard, Gussie Hagood, Helen Johnson, Leacy Newell, Vernelle Ray, Carolyn Rembaugh, Minnie Rentz, Craig Shelton, Lillian Stewart, Mary Emma Taylor.

COLLEGE STUDENTS GIVE JOINT RECITAL

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 13.—A joint recital was given by two senior students of the Alabama College School of Music in Calkins Hall, Friday evening, May 9. Miss Ernestine Tatum, pianist, of Calvert, and Miss Julia Turberville, violinist, of Century, Fla. Both young women are completing the course in instrumental music for the Bachelor of Music with a teacher's diploma. Miss Tatum showed splendid skill in producing varying shades of tone, but she handled each number with ease and assurance.

Miss Turberville was artistic in her playing. Two numbers on her program, Morning Mood and Pierre's Serenade, were so well suited to her temperament that they were especially delightful.

LEADERS IN MUSIC AT MONTEVALLO

ALABAMA COLLEGE IS BUSY WITH EXAMS

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 10.—Miss Mary Frances O'Connell's concert was greatly enjoyed by her audience at Alabama College. She is the Alabama winner of the Juilliard scholarship, and is a pupil of Estelle Lieblich, New York. Her accompanist was Mrs. James C. Hagood.

On account of the senior final exams next week and undergraduate exams, the following week, the dormitory lights will remain on an hour later every night until the end of the term, Lillian Prout, student government president, has announced.

Undergraduate exams are scheduled for May 20 through the 24, and students may leave for home during that time as soon as they finish.

The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Vivian Marsh, presented two unusual plays, the proceeds for the benefit of the million dollar drive. Elsie Mahaffey, Edith Montgomery and Alice Mahlor distinguished themselves in acting Max Mosely's play "Rosalie." Ermie Rivers and Kate Rainer were the most realistic actors in the play "Neighbors."

MISS "BILL" SMITH OF OPP, ALABAMA

Miss "Bill" Smith is the beautiful daughter of Mrs. W. M. Rye, of Opp, Alabama. She will be a Junior next year at Alabama College in Montevallo, where she is one of the stars in all athletic activities.

She won the life-savers' belt at the college in the swimming contest.

ALABAMA COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT ON

Year End Exercises Launched
With Grand Reception in Home of President Palmer

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 16.—Special to The Advertiser.—The twenty-eighth annual commencement exercises of Alabama College were ushered in this evening with a brilliant reception by President and Mrs. Palmer for the graduating class, of which there are one hundred and ten members, the largest class in the history of the institution.

President and Mrs. Palmer were assisted by every member of the faculty, both of the college and of the training school. The long line was formed in the assembly hall which was beautifully decorated with ferns, vines and plants. Music was furnished by the college orchestra stationed on the broad stairway.

The class formed in line upstairs at the students' recreation room, formerly used as the library and marched down in column of twos. They made a pretty picture arrayed in their many colored evening gowns.

At the foot of the stairway, they were met on either side by two little fairies, Phebe Ann Wills and Lilla Elliott, bearing a million dollar banner, who led them to the line where they were first congratulated by President and Mrs. Palmer, Dean and Mrs. Carmichael and Acting Dean and Mrs. Ward.

A salad course was served by the junior institutional class in home economics. Coffee and cheese straws were served in the parlors which were elaborately decorated with Crimson Ramblers where the married members of the faculty received. The younger members of the faculty dispensed trappes on the beautifully decorated Gothic porch.

Many hundreds of friends and relatives of the young ladies called during the evening to extend their congratulations.

Many alumnae have arrived in time for the reception this evening. They will also attend the alumnae meeting Saturday morning and the banquet at one o'clock.

College Announces Course Of Artists

It is seldom that a college offers so many distinguished lecturers and artists, with such a wide range of genius, as the Alabama College course for next season.

Beginning with a recital by Sascha Jacobsen, genius of the violin, then continuing with John Powell, eminent Southern composer-pianist, who is hailed as one of the phenomenal artists of this generation, passing to Luella Melius, international soprano, who has been proclaimed by the critics as being one of the greatest living coloratura sopranos, barring no nationality, it includes the famous Mozart impresario company, headed by Henri Scott, who stands without question as the greatest American operatic basso of today. Closing the musical numbers with the Letz Quartette, acknowledged to be the direct and worthy successors of the original Kneisel Quartette.

Among the lecturers will be found such names as Vilhjamur Stefansson, explorer, and Charles Crawford Gorst, famous bird man.

One Hundred and Seven Will Receive Diplomas at Montevallo College

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 17.—Special to The Advertiser.—At the graduating exercises of Alabama College, there will be 107 to receive diplomas on Monday, May 19. The following is the complete list:

The baccalaureate address will be delivered by Ray Rushton of Montgomery. Bishop William G. McDowell of Birmingham will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, May 18, and Miss Margaret Chenoweth Girl Reserve secretary of the Birmingham Y. W. C. A., will give the address before the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock.

The following students have completed the prescribed academic course and technical work required for graduation:

Bachelor of science in home economics: Kathleen Kimbrough Arnold, Goodwater; Ethel Blake, Blocton; Lillie Burleson, Guin; Annie Carmichael, Hollins; Bessie Copeland, Bessemer; Mamie Eakens, Selma; Elizabeth Gaillard, Evergreen; Gussie Haygood, Andalusia; Helen Johnson, Bessemer; Leacy Newell, Coy; Minnie Rentz, Camden; Craig Shelton, Guin; Lillian Stewart, Daphne; Mary Emma Taylor, Gadsden.

Bachelor of science in physical education: Elsie Mahaffey, Montevallo.

Bachelor of science in art: Catherine Shepard, (March 1, 1924) Mt. Vernon.

Bachelor of music: Ernestine Bonner, Camden; Janice Fuquay, Alexander City; Josephine Kilgore, Birmingham; Ernestine Tatum, Calvert; Julia Turberville, Century, Fla.

Bachelor of arts: Lida Allen, Cromwell; Ruth Cunningham, Furman; Minnie Holman, Camden; Julia Kimbrough Thomasville; Edith Montgomery, Warrior; Rebekah Winifred Pruett, Hurtsboro; Annie Laurie Robertson, Clayton; Ruth Sanford (March 1, 1924) Talladega; Volena Whaley, Opp.

Three year college course with education: Natalie Eleanor Capell, Camden; Annie Laurie Clay, Fulton; Caudine Elizabeth Leonard, Dora; Abbotte McKinnon, Talladega Springs; Ruby Mayo Pardue, Sagnaw; Ida Richards, Opp; Janie Crooks Steele Clinton; Mae Maye Sullivan, Orrville; Carolyn Mae Thrash, Stanton; Carolyn Wall, Forest Home.

Three year college course with physical education: Ruth Dunklin Culpepper, Selma; Anna Laura Dunn, Mobile; and Edith Thomas, Ashby.

Two year college course with home economics: Mildred Allbritton, Warrior; Annie Crossley, Brewton; Irene Denson, Bessemer; Dorothy Victoria Griffith, Hartselle; Leone Hagwood, Leeds; Linnie Johnson, Hamilton; Dionetta Kroell, Montevallo; Mary Larkin, Brewton; Katherine Miller, Gadsden; Cora Dean Savage, Piedmont; Charlotte Smith, Sylacauga; Mayme Todd, Huntsville; Mabel Louise Whitten, Dothan, and Bessie Rebecca Williams, Montgomery.

Two year supervisor's course in public school music: Nancy Caldwell, Scottsboro.

Two year college course with education: Vera Boyd, New Brocton; Sadie Florence Bradford, Dothan; Ola Mae Breedlove, Gantt's Quarry; Eunice Burkett, Dothan; Kathleen Coates Jackson; Louise Connor, Catherine; Sara Kathleen Cottingham, Wilton; Charlie Mae Elliott, Leeds; Epsie Eliza Gilchrist, Brantley; Ellen Salley Hagood, Selma; Edith Earle Hitchcock, Midway; Juantia Houston, Cotton Hill; Olene Johnson, Brundidge; Mabel Keller, Union Springs; Florence Alice Kelley, Eldridge; Lucy Alberta Lee, Gainesville; Manie Love, Greensboro; Frances McGee, Montgomery; Claribel McKinnon, Talladega Springs; Elizabeth McWorther, Collinsville; Lucile Martin, Dothan; Gertrude Morris, Catherine; Sarah Elizabeth Perry, Hurtsboro; Edith Doster Phillips, Florida; Olivet Pitchett; Pell City; Kate Johnson Rainer, Elba J. Leonore Robson, Gainesville Myrtle Eugene Rogers, Sweet Water Gladys Lurline Russell, Somerville Corinne Sealy, Faunsdale; Elizabeth Sheppard, Central Mills; Florence Smith, Demopolis; Susalee Smith, Gainesville; Annie Lou Taylor, Bolling; Mildred Vardaman, Sylacauga; Flossie Vines, Bessemer; Gladys Vines, Bessemer and Elizabeth Williams, Fairfax.

Graduates August 18, 1923. Bachelor of science with home economics: Jean Ford, Hartford; Edna Earle Shelton, Guin and Willice Grace Stewart, Daphne.

Bachelor of arts: Jessie Byrd Fuller, Perryville.

Two year college course with education: Toy Beason, Heflin; Elcie Kennedy, Crosby; Florrie Gertrude Knight, Selma; Evelyn Lacy, Plantersville; Mary Louise Lindsey, Butler; Gladys Menefee, Mobile and Ruth Warren, Birmingham.

The following are candidates for graduation at the close of the summer school of 1924:

Bachelor of arts: Willie Lee Reaves, Montevallo.

Three year college course with art and physical education: Mildred Martin, Bessemer.

Three year college course with education: Nettie Mae Brown, Montevallo; Hattie Mae Holbrook, Akron; Verna Holbrook, Akron.

Two year college course with home economics: Floi Dozier, Thomasville; Dutch Watts, Alexander City.

Two year college course with education: Myrtle Houston, Cotton Hill and Ruth Smith, Opp.

COLLEGE PLANS MUSICAL TREAT

Pianist And Soprano Will Give Program At Montevallo, May 5.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 3.—Special.—Josephine Kilgore, pianiste, pupil of Frank E. Marsh, Jr., assisted by Abbotte McKinnon, soprano, pupil of Ethel Harrington, will be heard in recital Monday evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock at Calkins Hall.

The following program is announced for this musical event:

Sonata, Op. 13—Beethoven.
Grave: Allegro di Molto e con brio—Miss Kilgore.

Aria, "Mon coeur s'ouvre a ta Voix" (Saint Saens)—Miss McKinnon.

(a) Cuba (Albeniz), (b) May-night (Palgren), (c) Rhapsody, Op. 79, No. 2 (Brahams)—Miss Kilgore.

(a) I Know Where a Garden Grows (John H. Densmore), (b) Thou Art So Like a Flower (Dr. Arthur H. Harrington), (c) Down in the Forest (Ronald)—Miss McKinnon.

Concerto No. 4, Op. 25 (Mendelsohn) con fuoco Andan Kilgore.

Miss Florence London (1925) and piano.

On Tuesday evening, May 6, at the same place, Miss Bonner, pianiste, pupil of F. Marsh, Jr., and Alice Lyman, vi pupil of Mildred Vance, will also in recital and render the following program:

Ballade in form of Variation 24 (Greig)—Miss Bonner.

Concerto, No. 6 (Ch. de Beriot) are Moderato; Andante; All grazioso—Miss Lyman.

(a) Ballade, Op. 23, No. 1 (Ch. Nocturne, Op. 27, No. 2 (Chopin); letto Paraphrase (Verdi-Liszt) Bonner.

(a) Pierrot-Serenade (Randelge), (b) Ballade (Bartlett); (c) S. Dance, Op. 22 (Sarasate)—Miss man.

Concerto, Op. 25 (Mendelssohn); to—Miss Bonner.

Miss Grace Mozley (1925) at piano.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC HAS VERY STRONG FACULTY CHOSEN

Alabama College Music Department Will Be Directed By Mr. Frank Earl Marsh, Jr.

Montevallo, Ala., June 28.—(Special)—Dr. Thomas Waverly Palmer, President of Alabama College, announces the faculty of the School of Music for 1924-25, as follows:

Mr. Frank Earl Marsh, Jr., Director of the School of Music and Professor of Music.

Associated with Mr. Marsh on the Pianoforte faculty, will be Miss Elizabeth Frances Young, Associate Professor of Pianoforte and Supervisor of the Pianoforte Normal department.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blair Chamberlain, Associate Professor of Pianoforte.

Miss Katherine Van Deusen Sutphen, Assistant Professor of Pianoforte.

Miss Polly Gibbs, Assistant Professor of Pianoforte.

Miss Rebecca D. Stoy, Associate Professor of Voice, will have charge of the Voice Department.

Miss Stoy will be assisted in the Voice department by Miss Mary Melisso Snyder, Assistant Professor of Voice and Pianoforte.

Miss Mildred Vause, Associate Professor of Violin, will have charge of the Violin department.

A new feature next session will be the opening of a Cello department under the direction of

ALABAMIAN IS PROMINENT BEFORE INTERNATIONAL BAR

Montevallo Learns Of Success Of T. W. Palmer, Jr.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 23.—News has reached Montevallo of the prominent stand that T. W. Palmer, Jr., formerly of Alabama, now of New York City, is taking in the New York Bar Association. He has been engaged in the practice of International law, and six months ago, was admitted to the bar association. He has just been appointed a member of the special committee of private international law and conflict of laws. He is associated with many of the leading international lawyers of the United States. Among names on this committee are: Edward Schuster; Eugene Untermeyer; John P. Walsh; Guy Van Amringe; Robert Szold, all well known members of the New York bar.

Mr. Palmer is also deeply interested in the nomination of Senator Underwood and is urging his New York friends to vote for the Alabama Senator as second choice.

Miss Louise Glover, of Orangeburg, S. C. Miss Glover is a graduate of the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, holding the second Cello Diploma issued from that Institution since 1892.

The Public School Music department will again be under the direction of Miss May Andrus, who has had such great success with this work the past year.

DID CONGRESSMAN GIVE US THE VARNISH TREE?

Montevallo, Ala., May 14, 1924.
Editor The Advertiser:

I am very much interested in your discussion of "The Poor Little Catalpa Tree" near postoffice, in Sunday's issue of The Montgomery Advertiser. I am very fond of both the catalpa and the varnish tree, and am glad to learn the botanical name of the varnish tree. We have quite a number of these trees on the Alabama College grounds which have been grown from seed. We find them beautiful and graceful trees for shade for summer, and as they lose their foliage early in winter they do not keep away the warm sunshine.

I remember distinctly the first varnish tree I ever saw in Alabama, and on asking about it I found that it had been sent out from Washington by our lamented Congressman H. Bankhead. That beautiful tree used to stand just in front of the President's home at the University of Alabama. It was sent from Washington to General Clayton who was then President of the University.

After I came over here, I discovered a similar tree, and very nearly the same size which attracted my attention, of course. On inquiring I found that this tree, too, had been sent from Washington by a friend of the gentleman in whose yard this tree grew. I admired it so much that my new friend finding that he had several young ones which had come up from seeds, gave some to me, and now we have attractive groups on the college campus. Their growth is rapid, their form so slender and graceful, bark so smooth, and foliage and flowers so different from other surrounding trees that I think they lend much to the landscape.

There is only one other place in Alabama where I remember ever seeing these trees. There were two of them—perhaps more—on the grounds of an old Colonial place in Greensboro. I tried to ascertain the history of these but the younger people could not tell me.

I certainly think this tree is worth while, and am glad you are interested in saving it. Could it tell you its history, I am sure it would say, "A Congressman sent me, too, to Alabama."

Now, there is another tree in which I am interested. I knew it as a catalpa, but in searching the nursery books, the descriptions of their catalpa trees do not satisfy me. One question I would like to put to Mr. Paterson—"Is there such a tree as the catawpa or catawba?" These two trees I refer to are similar in habits, but the one I most admire and am anxious to procure for our grounds has in early spring large clusters of purple blossoms before their large leaves develop. The "fish worms" do not like it, and will not stay on it. The other tree has the white flowers and the worms—as a child I had horror of it. But its wood is firm and tough, so it was grown for cross ties, as you know.

This purple flower catalpa, as I always called it, grew wild on the Warrior river near Tuscaloosa. I am wondering if I have the proper name for this tree. Perhaps you can tell me. I have not been able to locate it in any catalog. I shall be so glad to have any information about it. I am trying to preserve Alabama's own trees on these college grounds here, as well as a few "imports."

Thanking you very much for any information, I am, sincerely a lover of trees,
MRS. T. W. PALMER.

Home Economics at Montevallo:

One Of The Tasks Of Alabama College.

Now that the trustees and directors of Alabama College have called upon citizens of the State for financial aid in order to make that educational instrument more effective in shaping our daughters' minds "after the similitude of a palace," it were well to remember that one of the principal features of the Montevallo training is to teach practical home-making.

Not an unimportant thing in this age when the general drift seems to be away from the home—to teach the science and art of housekeeping. In a world where the social state seems almost to be undergoing a revolution, it cannot be regarded exactly as an old-fogey idea that one college in Alabama at least stands for the righteous fundamentals of teaching the young women that the home is more important than all the palaces ever built.

A recent appeal from Montevallo, outlining the broad curricula of the institution, emphasizes the finishing touches to the education of the young women who have taken the home economics course. They spend three weeks in the "practice home" before they can receive their diplomas:

Here they learn how to apply their knowledge of cooking and housekeeping in a practical demonstration of the work as it should come. They keep a chart of their activities and their home is open for the inspection of the instructor in home economics at all times.

Before they are admitted to the home they know how to cook, clean and sew. They are admitted to the home in order that they may map out their work of housekeeping in the regular order and go through the routine, apportioning their time according to the needs of the task and so arranging their work that there is plenty of time for all of it and also plenty of time for their other studies. It is excellent training for the prospective home-maker who must divide her time between the actual housework and the cultural recreation and pursuits that are so necessary a part of the truly successful home.

The home, although it is very old and not really well suited to modern housekeeping, is furnished with up-to-date equipment such as may be found in the average home of modest means. The idea in the furnishings and decorations is to make the house artistic and at the same time not beyond the means which the average girl in the average Alabama home will be able to command after marriage.

The lesson of economy is taught to the students in every phase of the home economics work, from the cooking and cleaning to the making of clothes and household equipment.

Instructors in the home economics departments feel that they can guarantee at the close of the four-year course that they offer to turn out a thoroughly capable and efficient prospective wife and home-maker.

Hundreds of young women graduating this year from Alabama high schools are looking towards Montevallo for broader education, and not least for the elaborate and systematic instruction in home economics. Many of them are themselves planning to be instructors, but probably most of them, expecting one of these days to be mothers of children and heads of households, seek to prepare for these worthy tasks.

Dean Carmichael, of Alabama College, has said that unless the College facilities are improved and expanded with money contributed by friends of the institution, at least 300 young women will have to be denied this training the coming year.

It seems to The News that the million dollars required during the next five years could not be more worthily expended than in answering this appeal for educational service to the young women of Alabama. It should touch the imagination especially of those wealthy citizens who have great fortunes lying idle. Men and women richer in this world's goods than they really need to be, and who may be looking about them to discover some place for investing their money that will yield more interest than the puny three, four, five and six per cent offered in the market place.

It seems to The News that Alabama College offers most precious continuing dividends to those who will invest this year—dividends in the form of young women going forth through all the years with rich minds and hearts ripe for motherhood and for thoughtful citizenship. Could there be larger returns than such as these?

FACULTY FOR SCHOOL OF MUSIC, ALABAMA COLLEGE, IS ANNOUNCED BY DR. PALMER

Brilliant Assembly of Teachers Headed by Frank Earl Marsh to Carry Forward Work for Year

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 28.—Special to The Advertiser.—Dr. Thomas Waverly Thomas, president of Alabama College, announces the faculty of the School of Music for 1924-25.

Mr. Frank Earl Marsh, Jr., director of the School of Music and Professor of Music. Mr. Marsh is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston; pupil in pianoforte of H. S. Wilder and Kurt Fischer, Boston; Senor Alberto Jonas, the great Spanish Virtuoso and Arthur Newstead, the eminent English pianist, New York city; pupil in counterpoint, composition and conducting of Arthur Shepard and F. Stuart Mason, Boston. Mr. Marsh will leave at the close of the first summer quarter to study with Dr. Adolf Frey, professor of pianoforte of Syracuse university.

Associated with Mr. Marsh on the pianoforte faculty will be Miss Elizabeth Frances Young, associate professor of pianoforte and supervisor of the pianoforte normal department. Miss Young is a graduate of New England Conservatory of Music, Boston; pupil in pianoforte of H. S. Wilder and George Proctor, Boston; Arthur Newstead, New York city. She has been a student at Boston university and last summer took post-graduate study in normal teaching under F. Adison Porior, Boston.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blair Chamberlin, associate professor of pianoforte. Mrs. Chamberlin is a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music; pupil in pianoforte of Hans Richard, Cincinnati, and Zurich, Switzerland; post-graduate study with Jean Verd, the eminent French Pianist, Cincinnati, and George F. Boyle, at the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, Md.

Miss Katherine Van Deusen Sutphen, assistant professor of pianoforte. Miss Sutphen is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston; pupil in pianoforte of Dr. J. Albert Jeffrye. She has studied at the University of Nebraska, pupil in Pianoforte of Paul Reuter, University of Illinois, pupil in pianoforte and organ of Dr. J. Lawrence Erb. Miss Sutphen has taught six years at Agnes Scott college and has been organist and choir director of the Keller Memorial church Washington, D. C., one year.

Miss Polly Gibbs, assistant professor of pianoforte. Miss Gibbs has a B. Mus., degree from Henderson-Brown college, Arkadelphia, Ark., and a graduate of music degree from North Western university School of Music, Evanston, Ill. She is a pupil of Dean Peter D. Lutkin in composition and Arne Oldberg. Miss Gibbs has taught successfully at Henderson-Brown, her Alma Mater, and also at Judson college.

To Direct Voices.

Miss Rebecca D. Stoy, associate professor of voice, will have charge of the voice department. Miss Stoy is a graduate and post graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, with honors, Boston; pupil in voice of Charles H. Bennett; pianoforte of Herbert Ringwall, pupil in theory and dramatic interpretation of Dean Wallace Goodrich, Louis C. Elson, Frederick Converse, and Harry Redman. She has had several years in concert and teaching work and comes to Montevallo after a year of post-graduate study under Charles Hayes, in New York city.

Miss Story will be assisted in the voice department by Miss Mary Melissa Snyder, assistant professor of voice and pianoforte. Miss Snyder is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music with honors; pupil in voice of Charles H. Bennett, Boston, pupil in pianoforte of Ella Dyer Devoto, Boston; pupil in theory and dramatic interpretation of Dean Wallace Goodrich, Louis C. Elson, Frederick Converse and Harry Redman.

Miss Mildred Vause, associate professor of violin, will have charge of the violin department. Miss Vause is a graduate with honors of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music under Signor P. A. Tirindelli, the great Italian master; pupil in theory of Dr. George Leighton and Dr. Edgar Stillman Kelley. She has done post graduate study with Leon Sametinn, the great violin virtuoso, at the Chicago Musical college.

New Feature.

A new feature next session will be the opening of a cello department under the direction of Miss Louise Glover, of Orangeburg, S. C. Miss Glover is a graduate of the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, holding the second cello diploma issued from that institution since 1892. She was a pupil in cello of Bart Wirtz, solo cellist of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra and a pupil in counterpoint, orchestration and composition of Howard R. Thatcher, the noted American composer. Miss Glover will have charge of the theoretical department and the ensemble classes in addition to her private teaching in cello.

The public school music department will again be under the direction of Miss May Andrus, who has had such great success with this work the past year. Miss Andrus is a graduate of the music department of Yale university, under such well known musicians as Dr. Horatio Parker, David Stanley Smith, William E. Haesche, and Stanley Knight. She has studied voice under A. D. Woodcock, New York City and public school music with Ralph L. Baldwin, both in Hartford, Conn., and at the Institution of Music Pedagogy, Northampton, Mass. Last summer she did special work with Dr. Hollis Dann, at the West Chester Normal school, West Chester, Pa.

* * *

Artist And Lecture Course Is Announced

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 5.—Special. Director Frank Earl Marsh, Jr., of the Alabama College School of Music, announces the artists and lectures course for the season, 1924-1925, as follows:

October 25, piano recital by John Powell, international piano virtuoso; Oct. 27, lecture by Charles Crawford Gorst, noted naturalist and bird man; Nov. 13, violin recital, by Sascha Jacobsen, distinguished Russian violinist; Jan. 24, song recital, by Luella Melius, international soprano, who has been proclaimed by critics as one of the greatest coloratura sopranos, baring no nationality; Feb. 2, the Hinshaw Opera Company in Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro," with Clytie Hine, Editha Fleisher, Celia Turrill, Pavel Ludikar, Alfredo Valenti, Ralph Brainard and Herman Gelhausen in the cast, Chamber Music Orchestra, Dr. Ernest Knoch, conducting; Feb. 23, lecture by Vilhalmur Stefannsson, explorer; March, Letz quartet, acknowledged to be the direct and worthy successors of the original Kneisel quartet; May 1 and 2, first music festival, chorus of 100 women voices, assisted by a quartet of New York artists, to be announced later.

ALABAMA COLLEGE CATALOG COMPLETE

Publication Shows Gratifying Increases in Student Enrollment and Improvements

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 2.—Special to The Advertiser.—The new catalog of Alabama college has just come from the press. It shows many improvements that have been made in the courses of study during the past year. The increase in enrollment is indeed most gratifying. There were 656, during the regular session. The summer school of 1923 had 253 members; the extension groups 236, making a grand total of 1,466 students. Among the regular students for the session, there were 137 applying for the degree of bachelor of arts; 123 for bachelor of science in home economics; 10 for bachelor of science in physical education; 40 for bachelor of music.

Sixty five counties in the state had representation on the student roll, Shelby county having the largest, 76; Jefferson county ranks next with 53; Talladega third with 27; Wilcox fourth with 22; Dallas fifth with 20; Bibb, Covington, Etowah, Marengo, Mobile and Walker next with 16 each. There were 12 students from other states. The graduating class of 1924 was larger than all of the graduating classes for the first twelve years.

The departments of education, home economics and music are well organized with a large number of teachers in all departments. The home economics course of study takes rank with that of the leading colleges and universities of the whole country. The music department now undoubtedly equals that of any other institution in the southern states.

During the past year, several new scholarships have been added to the list. First among these may be mentioned another $500 scholarship from the Birmingham News, and a similar one from the Alabama Power company.

The Alabama Federation of the fourth district has recently scholarship especially designed to assist in the training of a musician. Application for this ship should be made in July.

Among the faculty, Miss Stallworth, head of the department of mathematics, has secured an absence for 1924-25. During the absence Miss Ellen McMichael, a teacher with wide experience and now a student of University of Chicago, will fill the position.

ALABAMA COLLEGE STUDENTS VISITED HOMES ON FOURTH

Montevallo, Ala., July 5.—(Special)—The Fourth of July was observed as a general holiday at Alabama college. A large number of the students went home on the evening of the 3rd and returned this morning.

The following teachers and friends went for a camp on the farm of Charleton G. Smith, near Ashby, on the Little Cahaba river: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kennerly, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Orr, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. James, Misses Young, Palmer, and Andrus. They have as their guests, Dr. and Mrs. John Y. Graham and Miss Edith Graham, of the University of Alabama. They will spend their time in fishing on the river. A number of friends in the town and from the college will visit them today.

PSYCHO-ANALYST HEARD

Anniston Kiwanians Addressed Interest Of Alabama College Campaign

ANNISTON, ALA., June 27.—Special. Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Alabama College at Montevallo, and Dr. O. C. Carmichael, who is dean at same institution appeared before the Anniston Kiwanis Club Tuesday at the weekly meeting of that organization and delivered addresses in the interest of the million dollar drive being conducted for the school.

A feature of the program was a talk on the work of psycho-analysis by Dr. Julian F. Pennington, director of the Birmingham Psychological Clinic. Dr. Pennington promised to return before the club some date in the future to give a demonstration. Plans are being made for a joint meeting of the clubs at the time of the demonstration in order that a large number may be given an insight into the work of the psychological clinic.

MISS VAUSE APPOINTED

Named to Head Violin Department at Alabama College.

MARION, ALA., July 7.—Miss Mildred Vause, former head of the violin department of Judson College, is named as the head of the violin department at Alabama College for Women at Montevallo for the coming year.

Another former Marion teacher named in the faculty is Miss Polly Gibbs, who will be a member of the piano department next year.

Alabama College Through Extensive Course Proves Institution for All

It has been only a few years since the college was considered an institution for the few. Tucked away in some remote and sheltered place it lived a hermit life, taking the few who knocked at its doors and being content with the old and tried courses of instruction. That conception of a college has passed away. Today it stands forth as a benefactor of all.

The courses of study have been adapted to the needs of the day. Instead of confining itself to campus instruction it is going out to the people through correspondence and extension centers. It's reaching out a helping hand to the high schools to spur them on to greater achievements. It is training through practical courses those who shall develop manly boys and girls in the elementary and high schools. It is training the young women for life service in many different spheres.

Today all people are directly benefited by the live and wide awake college. Alabama may feel the throb of its only state college for women if it will only enable it to expand and develop into full stature. It is seeking to develop an interest in the fine arts, music, painting, etc. It is training home-makers in all the various fields that a home-maker should be trained—sewing, cooking, home management, home nursing, house planning, health, physical education, etc. It is training teachers for the elementary and high schools of the state, is offering to every citizen of Alabama through its correspondence, and extension work, its lecture and entertainment service, an opportunity to benefit by the training which it affords.

Alabama college is for all Alabama. It is reaching out a helping hand to every citizen of Alabama who may desire it. Now in this time of crisis, when growth is throttled, when expansion is impossible without voluntary aid, it is appealing to all the people for just a little help. All that is given to Alabama College comes back a hundred fold, hence we are not begging but asking that you invest.

Montevallo Seniors Get High Positions

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 5.—Special.—News has just reached Montevallo of the election of Miss Janice Fuquay, of Alexander City, a recent graduate of the Alabama College school of music at Montevallo, to the position of teacher of piano in the State Normal College at Hattiesburg, Miss. This institution is noted for a strong music department. Miss Fuquay made one of the highest records in music at Alabama College. The recognition of her by a college in another state is considered a high compliment to her and to the music school at Montevallo.

Another graduate of the class of 1924 has secured high recognition. Miss Annie Carmichael, of Hollins, Clay County, has been appointed teacher of home economics in the State Normal School at Livingston.

Miss Ernestine Bonner, of Camden, has recently been elected to the position of music teacher in the high school at Union Springs. This town has always maintained a high standard in music teaching.

COLLEGE NAMES HONOR STUDENTS

Nineteen Students Maintain High Standard At Montevallo Through Year.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 7.—Special.—The records of the students of Alabama College for the session 1923-24 have just been completed. The registrar announces the following for the honor roll in the third quarter of session 1923-24:

First honor roll (all students who have made grade A in every subject)—Lillie Burleson, Guin; Virginia Kockritz, Birmingham; Mrs. Johanna LaRue Sharp, Montevallo; Fay Turner, Vinegar Bend.

Second honor roll (students who have made no grade below B)—Kathleen Arnold, Goodwater; Lucille Bell, Ashland; Ruth Elizabeth Blanshard, Fayetteville, Ark.; Ernestine Bonner, Camden; Ola Mae Breedlove, Gantt's Quarry; Estelle Broadway, Cecil; Nell Browder, Center; Winifred Castleman, Greensboro; Joy Cawthon, Florida; Patty Cole, Opp; Mabelle Conner, Andalusia; Lola Alice Croll, Linden; Irene Denson, Bessemer; Mamie Eakens, Selma; Carolyn Edwards, Enterprise; Janice Fuquay, Alexander City; Mildred Gilchrist, Brantley; Martha Grantham, Newbern; Melba Griffin, Montevallo; Ellen Hagood, Selma; Agnes Hardy, Newala; Hazel Hendrick, Hurtsboro; Mary Hill, Benton; Verna Holbrook, Akron; Minnie Holman, Camden; Elizabeth Horsley, Columbiana; Lorene Hughes, Birmingham; Mary C. Hungerford, Selma; Hazel Jackson, Glenwood; Carrie Love Jones, Rockford; Mildred Keahey, Plantersville; Josephine Kilgore, Birmingham; Mayme Kroell, Montevallo; Mary McMillan Larkin, Brewton; Manie Grae Love, Greensboro; Katherine McGuire, Notasulga; Abbotte McKinnon, Talladega Springs; Elsie Mahaffey, Montevallo; Alice Mahler, Loxley; Emma Louise Marriott, Uriah; Gladys Martin, Enterprise; Mildred Martin, Bessemer; Lucille Nelson, Birmingham; Rebekah Pruett, Hurtsboro; Alice Quarles, Mobile; Margaret Randle, Birmingham; Collie Roan, Thomasville; Frances Rosenblum, Camden; Lurline Russell, Somerville; Nancy Savage, Scottsboro; Fannie Jo Scott, Verbena; Adelaide Smith, Sheffield; Charlotte Smith, Sylacauga; Ernestine Tatum, Calvert; Helen Townsend, Russellville; Frances Trammell, Five Points; Christine Trevathen, Montgomery; Julia Turberville, Century, Fla.; Mildred Walker, Newberne.

The following students have made the second honor roll for the entire session of 1923-24: Estelle Broadway, Cecil; Lillie Burleson, Guin; Mamie Eakens, Selma; Martha Grantham, Newbern; Melba Griffin, Montevallo; Mary Hill, Benton; Elizabeth Horsley, Columbiana; Josephine Kilgore, Birmingham; Virginia Kockritz, Birmingham; Mayme Kroell, Montevallo; Manie Grae Love, Greensboro; Elsie Mahaffey, Montevallo; Mildred Martin, Bessemer; Collie Roan, Thomasville; Frances Rosenblum, Gadsden; Mrs. Johanna LaRue Sharp, Montevallo; Helen Townsend, Russellville; Fay Turner, Vinegar Bend; Mildred Walker, Newberne.

Seven Ages Of Man Given By Students

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 15.—Special.—On Saturday evening the music students of the Summer school gave in song the "Seven Ages of Man" under the direction of Miss Janie May Eppes, of Dayton, O.

The first age was "Infancy," presented by Miss Ethel Walton.

The second, "Childhood," by Donald Calhoun, Mary Cobb, Sue DeShazo, Martha Ivy, Billy James, Frances, Walter and Will Kroell and Myrtle Johnston.

The third, "School Days," by Lessie Mae Brown, Myrtle Johnston, Martha Ivy, Donald Calhoun, Walter, Will and Francis Kroell, Martha Mahaffey and Dorothy Davies.

The fourth, "College Days," by Mary Brannon, Mattie Fay Dunklin, Jewel Parrish, Irene Grace, Laurilla Kimbrough, Mamie Sparrow, Marie Turner, Myrtle Turberville, Gussie Collins, Aurelia Cruise, Hazel and Mildred Black, Mavis Burns, Louise Campbell, Yula McKensie and Mary Ellis Hall.

The fifth, "The Lovers' Age," by Aurelia Cruise, Irene Grace, Louise Campbell, Elizabeth Wilson, Jewel Parrish and Laurilla Kimbrough.

The sixth, "Maturity," by Nellie Wilson, Aurelia Cruise, Donald and Robert Calhoun.

The seventh, "Old Age," by Fannie Pearl Rentz.

COMEDY PRESENTED.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 15.—Special.—A comedy in one act, "Please Pass the Cream" was presented by students in expression at Alabama College on Saturday evening, directed by Miss Jessie F. Pringle. The characters were: John Clark, Miss Ruby Parks; Mrs. John Clark, Miss Helen Veitch.

Former Instructor At Montevallo Dies

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 22.—Special.—News has just reached Montevallo that Mrs. Mary Morrison Babb, aged 75, died at Kossuth, Miss., on July 18. She was elected to membership in Alabama College faculty at the beginning of the first session in 1896, and served continuously until 1907 when she voluntarily resigned.

She was the widow of James Babb, who lived only six weeks after their marriage. He has been dead 50 years. During this time, she has devoted her life principally to teaching. Besides her long career at Montevallo, she has taught at Corinth, Miss., Memphis Conference Female Institute, and Soule College, Murfreesboro, Tenn., and other places.

At Montevallo she was universally popular with the faculty and students, during the first 11 years of the Alabama College, then known as the girls industrial school.

GIVES GIRLS ADVICE

Don't Conjure Up Ghosts, Says Mrs. Palmer

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 14.—(Special).—At the last meeting of the Y. W. C. A., Alabama college, for the first term of summer school, Mrs. T. W. Palmer made an inspiring and helpful talk on "Ghosts," using as a basis Ellis Parker Butler's story, "Ghosts That Ain't."

"This week is examination week," said Mrs. Palmer, "do not conjure up ghosts that ain't but go to your work with a smile."

COLLEGE OFFERING LOAN SCHOLARSHIP

To Be Given Eligibles Who Intend Making Music Supervision Life Work.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 21.—Special.—Girls of the fourth district, Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs, who desire to compete for the Music Loan Scholarship to the Alabama College, Montevallo, which is offered by fourth district club women, are notified to apply to Miss May Andrus, Montevallo.

This scholarship is offered only to girls who have determined to make supervision of public school music their life work. Only girls whose music teachers can testify in writing that they are prepared to take up a course of study in music supervision are eligible and only girls who can prove that in no other way could they obtain a musical education, save by a scholarship such as this, need apply.

Every applicant must prove both her scholarship, which entitles her to take two years schooling in the musical department of Alabama College and is valued, financially, at $250 per year. Announcement of the award is to be made by Miss Andrus, July 1.

Besides the statement of her inability to otherwise obtain musical training and of her readiness to take up such a course of study as here described, every applicant must have from the principal of the high school from which she graduated, or from the superintendent of the city or county schools, as well as from one other leading citizen of her community, a letter of credentials as to her character and general standing.

The club women of the fourth district are anxious to find the most worthy girl in the district for this scholarship, which offers a tremendous opportunity to a girl who longs to make the most of her talent and to place her life in an effective channel for service and development.

TEAMS FROM ALL BIRMINGHAM CIVIC CLUBS WILL START MONTEVALLO DRIVE TUESDAY

Dining room (top left), at Montevallo, as it looks on high days and holidays. Last year it accommodated 650 students by crowding, and this year was one of the reasons 400 students were turned away. Library (top right), one of the few buildings at Montevallo adequate for the needs. This is one of the newer buildings. Below, left, swimming pool at the college and, right, entrance to the college at the dormitory.

ALUMNAE NEWS OF ALABAMA COLLEGE, MONTEVALLO

Mrs. Mozelle Boyett Smith spent the week-end visiting in Tuscaloosa. Mrs. Smith is of Columbus, Miss., and is a former graduate of Alabama College. She is attending the Summer session in Montevallo and is a very active member of the honor board, acting as a representative for the teachers, matrons and normal graduates.

Miss Blanche Williamson, a former graduate of this institution and a Summer school student, spent the past week-end visiting in Calera.

Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the Alabama College Alumnae Association, is serving as state alumnae chairman for the million-dollar drive. Miss Sellers is a most enthusiastic worker in the cause of the institution. She will more than do her part in getting for Montevallo her million.

Miss Allene Belle had as her guest for the past week Miss Alma Bell and Miss Lucile Johnson, of Birmingham.

Miss Anna Mae Allison spent last week-end out in town as the guest of Miss Allene Bell.

Miss Laureson Forrester, executive secretary of Alabama College for the Summer, spent last week-end visiting in Sylacauga. While there she was the guest of Miss Fannie Mae Norton.

ALUMNAE AT DINNER

Graduates Of Alabama College At Summer School Hold Meeting.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 19.—Special.—A "Pep Supper" was given in the college dining room Thursday evening by the alumnae of Alabama College who are attending Summer School. Mrs. Palmer, Dean and Mrs. Carmichael and Dean Ward were special guests.

Miss Minnie Sellers, state president of the alumnae society, presided. Miss Hazel Black, of Ashland, outlined the work done by the students attending the regular session of 1923-24. Her sister, Miss Mildred Black, told what the Summer School students would do.

A number of Judson girls are attending Summer School. The chairman of the Judson delegation introduced a resolution endorsing the drive and pledging the hearty cooperation of Judson College. Dean Carmichael was called upon to talk on general work of the drive, which he did.

FORMAL TEA AT PRACTICE HOME OF ALABAMA COLLEGE.

The old King mansion in Montevallo was beautifully decorated with pink and white crepe myrtle on an afternoon of last week, when the Practice Home girls of Alabama College entertained at a formal tea from 4 till 5 o'clock.

About 75 guests called during the afternoon. They were met at the door by Misses Mattie Lou Salter and Louise Stephens, who made very charming hostesses.

Refreshments were served by Misses Ruby Simpson, Dutch Watts and Elizabeth Barron.

This is the first summer the practice home has been open. Miss Annie E.

Fale, head of home economics department, is in charge of the home. The five congenial girls living with her are: Misses Rubye Simpson, Elizabeth Barron, of Bessemer; Mattie Lou Salter, of Banks; Louise Stephens, of Clio, and Dutch Watts, Alexander City.

STUDENTS REGISTERING

Second Term At Montevallo Begins July 21

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 14.—(Special.)—Students at Alabama college are registering today for the second term of summer school, which begins July 21. About two-thirds of those in attendance will remain for the second term and many new ones are expected.

ANNUAL APPROPRIATION FOR ALABAMA COLLEGE IS NOT SUFFICIENT TO KEEP PACE WITH GROWTH

In the upper picture is shown the only dormitory for teachers at Alabama College at Montevallo. This building cannot accommodate more than eight or ten teachers, the remaining members of the faculty being compelled to find lodgings in Montevallo or live with students. Lower picture shows all that remains of the president's home, following fire which destroyed it in the Spring of 1921. Since that time the president, with his family, has been compelled to live in the infirmary.

PATTERSON MAKES MONTEVALLO TALK

Public Service Commission Head Delivers Address and Urges Larger Appropriations

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 15.—Special to The Advertiser.—An inspirational address along general educational lines was delivered at Alabama College, Montevallo, Tuesday by A. G. Patterson, president of the Alabama Public Service Commission, upon the occasion of the closing of the first session of the summer school here, and the opening of the Alabama College million dollar campaign.

Mr. Patterson whose address was delivered upon the special invitation of officials of the college, urged the necessity of larger appropriations for all educational institutions in the state. The splendid accomplishment of Alabama College, with the limited funds available in the past, the speaker said, is a recommendation in itself sufficient to justify its claims for larger appropriations, and particularly recommends and forecasts the success of the million dollar campaign.

It is the great duty of the state of Alabama, the speaker declared, to provide adequate educational facilities for the young men and young women. He also recommended the adoption of the budget system for educational appropriations, so that each institution will know what its apportionment will be as soon as all appropriations are made.

GLOWING TRIBUTE BY OFFICIAL OF ALABAMA COLLEGE

President Patterson, of Public Service Commission, Pleased With Woman's School.

Special by Leased Wire to The Register. MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 16.—A strong tribute to the work of Alabama College and the effectiveness of training given here was paid by President A. G. Patterson of the Alabama Public Service Commission, in an address at the close of the first session of the summer school today. Mr. Patterson referred to the results achieved by Alabama College with the meager appropriations and limited facilities which it has so far obtained, and declared that it is entitled to more funds. He predicted success of the million dollars campaign for the Alabama College, not purely in a material sense but in attracting to the college the moral and popular support of the people of the state, as the speaker voiced satisfaction over the fact that the people of Alabama appear to have come to the point where they can place a proper estimate on the vital importance of affording training to the young women of the state, for their home careers and as citizens.

A budget system for education, with an appropriation adequate for the needs of all educational institutions, was advocated by the speaker. His address was heard with much interest and his stand on behalf of education was repeatedly applauded. Providing education for the masses of the people is the great necessity of the country today, Mr. Patterson said.

SUMMER SESSION VERY SUCCESSFUL

Enrollment at Montevallo is Reported as Greatest in History of Institution

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 13.—Alabama College will complete the first term of its summer school on July 19. This is one of the most successful summer sessions in the history of the institution. The enrollment is by far the largest. The officials and faculty are pleased with the quality of the work being done.

The second term will begin July 21. Registration for those who are already here is planned for next week. Quite a large attendance is expected for the second half. Plans have been perfected by the director.

The following will constitute the faculty for the second term: J. S. Ward, A. B. (Howard); A. M. (U. of A.); A. M. (Columbia), director of summer school; modern languages.

J. L. Appleton, A. B. (U. of A.) history.

Mary Alice Boyd, B. S. (Peabody College), education.

Myrtle Brooke, A. B. (Peabody College), A. M. (Columbia), education.

A. W. Calhoun, A. B. (U. of Pittsburgh), A. M. (Wisconsin), Ph. D. (Clark), history.

Mary Johnson, B. S. (U. of Arkansas), home economics.

Annie Kemp, B. S. (Peabody), home economics.

W. J. Kennerly, B. S. (Clemson); S. (Emory University), chemistry. Genella McGhee, graduate Cincinnati Art academy, Teachers' College, art. Lulu Palmer, graduate Alabama College, A. B. (U. of A.), English. Mary Peters, graduate Alabama College, English. Rebecca Stoy, graduate and post graduate New England Conservatory of Music, pupil of Charles Bennett Voice.

Two Members of Alabama College Alumnae on Hike to New York City

39

MONTEVALLO, July 24.—President and Mrs. Palmer of Alabama College, are leaving this week for the Ozark mountains where they will take a two week's vacation. President Palmer will endeavor to take a complete rest from college activities. Mrs. Palmer will spend her time in studying the plant life of the wonderful region.

She is a great believer in the college beautiful. The campus has probably a greater variety of trees, shrubs and other plants than any other college grounds in this country, largely due to her activities in this work.

Dr. H. W. James and family are going by auto to Iowa for a brief period of study in the colleges of that state.

Miss Annie Sale, head of the home economics department has gone for a rest to her home in Danburg, Ga., later she will visit several colleges to investigate their home demonstration equipment.

Miss Mary G. Stallworth will leave next week for her home in Beatrice, Ala., for a month's rest and recreation. She will then go to the University of Chicago where she will spend next year in research work in mathematics. During that time her position as head of the mathematics department will be filled by Miss Ellen MacMichael, a teacher of wide experience and an honor graduate of the University of Chicago.

Miss Mary B. Lewis of the English department has secured a leave of absence until January 1 and will spend the time in study and travel in Europe.

Dr. D. H. Bacot is spending a short vacation in South Carolina and will give the month of August to special research work in southern history.

E. H. Willis is attending Cornell University doing graduate work in history. His family are summering at Waterloo, N. Y.

Miss Helen Blackister of the biology department, is engaged in special laboratory work at Chicago University.

Miss Mary G. Decker is attending the University of Chicago.

Misses Keys, McCelilly, Monk, Neely, Ross, Stone and Vickery are at Columbia University.

Frank Earle Marsh, Jr., director of music, is taking advanced courses at Syracuse University.

JUDSON CLUB FORMED AT SUMMER SCHOOL IN MONTEVALLO.

At a recent meeting of all Judson girls attending the Summer session of Alabama College, Montevallo, a Judson Club was organized with the following officers:

President, Janie May Eppes, Dayton, Ala.; vice president, Mary Brannon, Marion, Ala.; secretary, Myrtle Thompson, Bessemer; musician, Mildred Black, Ashland.

Other members of the club are Mary Ellis Hall, Hallie Oxford and Anne Moore, Marion; Jewel Parrish, Ashland; Verda Mae Helms, Troy; Mrs. T. W. Palmer, wife of President Palmer, of Alabama College, is one of the oldest living graduates of Judson College, and was asked to serve as club mother and to address the club on "Judson of Other Days."

One of the first activities of the club was the sending of a note of greetings and good wishes to the Alabama College Alumnae on the occasion of the launching of the $1,000,000 campaign. Both formal and informal social meetings are planned for the benefit and pleasure of the club members.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 22.—Special to The Advertiser.—Alabama College has two pupils who left today on a hike to Birmingham and from there to New York City, and then take passage to Porto Rica, where they will teach during the coming winter. Their names are Misses Myrtle and Theo Campbell, of Pyriton, Clay county, Alabama.

Miss Theo attended Alabama College three years ago, when she completed the high school course. She then secured a position in Porto Rica and taught in the government schools for one year. Last year she attended the University of Tennessee and has been doing college work at Alabama College this summer.

Miss Myrtle, the older of the two, has been serving in Porto Rica two or three years, has attended Harvard University and other institutions. She also has been doing college work at Alabama College this summer.

These girls have hiked over several states and have had wide experience in various activities. While here in Montevallo, they have been doing dining room service to help defray expenses. They hike from one town to another to save railroad fare.

At the early age of fifteen and a younger age for the other, their father suffered financial reverses. Undaunted and filled with determination, they set out to face the world, and secure an education. They are modest, pretty, attractive and intelligent.

MONTEVALLO ALUMNAE CALLED TO MEET SATURDAY

Will be First Session for 1924-25 Year.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 25.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the Alabama College Alumnae association has called a meeting of the executive board for Saturday afternoon. This will be the first meeting of 1924-1925. The association year begins at its annual meeting in May.

The board is made up of the officers of the association who for this year are: president, Minnie Sellers, 1917, Ramer; first vice-president, Medora Holcombe Rucks, (Mrs. D. F.) '12; second vice-president, Gypsy Smith Hubbard, 1916, Opp; secretary, Elizabeth Spinks, 1846, Ensley; treasurer, Gladys Jones-Williams, 1916, Montevallo; historian, Charlotte Warner Peterson, 1916, Montevallo.

During their stay in Montevallo the members of the board will be the guests of the college, having been invited by Dr. Palmer, the president.

COLLEGE GETS ROADS

State Orders Construction From Calera And Wilton To Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 26.—Special.—Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Alabama College, recently wrote to Chairman John A. Rogers and Chief Engineer W. S. Keller, of the state highway department, concerning the construction of the highway from Montevallo to Wilton and from Montevallo to Calera, urging the beginning of the work soon, in order that students may come to Alabama College without the inconvenience of such road as they had to pass over last year. Saturday he received replies assuring him the plans and specifications were well under way and before a great while advertisements will be made for bids.

ALUMNAE EXECUTIVE IN FIRST MEETING

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 26.—Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the Alabama College Alumnae Association has called a meeting of the executive board for Saturday afternoon of July 26. This will be the first meeting held for the year '24-'25. The association year begins at its annual meeting in May.

The board is made up of the officers of the association who for this year are: President, Minnie Sellers '17, Ramer; first vice president, Medora Holcombe Rucks (Mrs. D. F.) '12, 1430 N. 25th street, Birmingham; second vice president, Gypsy Smith Hubbard (Mrs. T. E.) '16, Opp; secretary, Elizabeth Jackson Spinks (Mrs. Gregory), 1846 Pike avenue, Ensley; historian, Charlotte Warner Peterson (Mrs. F. M.) '16, Montevallo.

During their stay in Montevallo the members of the board will be the guests of the college, having been invited by Dr. Palmer, the president.

MONTEVALLO SUPERVISOR OF FOODS IS IN CHICAGO

Recreation and Study Object of Miss Irvin's Visit

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 24.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Anna Irvin, supervisor of foods and teacher of institutional management, has gone to Chicago for study and recreation. During her absence, Miss Sarah Apperson is in charge of the dining room. At six o'clock dinner Tuesday, Miss Apperson announced that the dessert would be served on the campus. After the meal, all repaired to the appointed place to partake of a watermelon cutting. One hundred luscious melons were cut and all served.

President and Mrs. Palmer will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' vacation among the Ozark mountains. They will be joined there by their daughter, Miss Stella Palmer, of the University of Arkansas.

SUMMER SCHOOL NEWS OF MONTEVALLO ALUMNAE

According to an established custom at Montevallo, the alumnae students of the Summer school of Alabama College have had a special table in the dining room the last week of the term. Summer school graduates were invited to sit with the old girls.

Miss Lillian Mahone, first Summer school alumnae chairman, has presided at this table throughout the week. Miss Mahone, a '21 graduate, has been teaching in Union Springs the past two years, but will be at Lipscomb this Fall.

Monday and Tuesday Mrs. Oscar Simpson, formerly Lillian Jones, was a welcome visitor. During the middle of the week Julia Kimbrough, a '24 graduate, stopped by on her way home after a lengthy eastern tour. Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allgood, of Piedmont, were at the college for a short while. Mrs. Allgood was Ernestine Tatum, a member of the graduating class of this year. Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the Alumnae Association, was at the college for several days last week.

Thursday evening the alumnae had as special guests for the drive pep meeting Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Carmichael, Mr. Ward, Mrs. Palmer, Misses Brooke, Lula Palmer and Mary Willard Hall.

Most of the girls leave after the first term's work to take a short vacation before beginning teaching in the Fall.

Swimming Star To Give Lessons

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 28.—Earl Moore, Southern swimming star and special life saving field representative of the American Red Cross, will arrive here Monday, Aug. 28, for a series of demonstrations and instructions in swimming and life-saving. He will remain two days.

Edith Montgomery Tells Of Needs Of Famous Alabama Institution 40

MISS EDITH MONTGOMERY

TALENTED MUSICIAN

MRS. MABEL POWERS TAYLOR

—Photo by J. F. Knox.

A recent addition to musical and social circles of the city is Mrs. Mabel Powers Taylor, who has come from Greensboro to make her home in Birmingham. She has recently returned from New York where she studies with Arthur Newstead, the noted pianist. She is residing temporarily at 1653 Thirteenth Avenue, South.

STUDENTS CROWD ALABAMA COLLEGE

Need Of More Accommodations At Montevallo Seen

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Sept. 2.—(Special.)—On September 1 there were enrolled on the books of Alabama college 483 students. To this number there were added afterwards 176, making a total enrollment for the year of 659. There are today on the books 603 which takes up all the available space in the college buildings.

GIRLS' COLLEGE IS OVERFLOWING

MONTEVALLO, Sept. 4.—(Special.)—On September 1 there were enrolled on the books of Alabama college 483 students. To this number there were added afterwards 176, making a total enrollment for the year of 659. There are today on the books 603, which takes up all the available space in the college buildings. There are 60 names on the waiting list, making a total of 663, which is 180 more than the number of applicants in 1923.

Presuming that there will be at least 176 more to apply for this year, it is clearly seen that the excess will be 356. These are the exact figures taken from the registrar's books. The number of new applicants coming in average five or six per day.

BIRMINGHAM MAN NAMED ASSISTANT

Bledsoe Kelly Will Teach At Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—At Alabama college the announcement is made today that Bledsoe Kelly of Birmingham has been appointed assistant in the department of modern languages. He is a graduate of Howard college and the University of Alabama and has spent much time in France and in Mexico.

Miss Edna Irvin has resigned the position of social director and Mrs. H. E. Reynolds of Centerville, Ala., has been appointed to fill the position for the coming year.

MONTEVALLO WILL SET HIGH RECORD

Largest Number Of Students In School's History Ex- pected Soon

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Sept. 13.—Record-breaking numbers of students are expected here to enter Alabama College the latter part of this week.

There will be more of these, it is said than the college buildings can accommodate, but arrangements are being made by Montevallans and the school authorities to quarter many of the young women in the town itself. These students will be practically under the same regulations as those in the dormitory. They will take their meals in the college dining room.

Extensive repairs are being made on all of the college buildings. The kitchen and serving room have been repainted and otherwise remodeled. New equipment has been put in the kitchen and additional tables added to the dining room in order to provide for at least 150 more students. Purchasing Agent Wills has bought a carload of furniture to add to the present equipment.

Members of the faculty who have not yet come in will arrive during the week. Students will begin coming in next Saturday and by Monday afternoon,

MRS. CHAPMAN TO TEACH

Selma Woman Will Head "Creative Prose" Department at Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Sept. 23.—Special.—A course of "creative prose" has been established in the English department of Alabama College. Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman, of Selma, will have charge of this work. She will visit Montevallo as often as necessary to conduct this course.

Mrs. Chapman is a graduate of Shorter College, of Rome, Ga., where she has given several courses with original readings. She has also given readings of her own composition at Judson College, Birmingham-Southern and Howard. She has studied in Summer schools at Chautauqua, N. Y.

She is the author of a novel, "The Fusing Force," published by A. C. McClurg, and "Love's Way in Dixie." She has also published 100 short stories in magazines, numerous technical articles in magazines for writers, and a one-act play, which has been bought by the Penn Publishing Company, of Philadelpractically all will be here. Registration and classification will begin Monday afternoon and will be completed Tuesday.

GIRLS' COLLEGE TRUSTEES MEET SEPTEMBER 16

MONTEVALLO, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—The board of trustees of Alabama College will meet in Montevallo on September 16. This meeting was called at the request of President Palmer for them to consider the questions of providing for an increased attendance, for more recitation rooms, to receive a report from the drive and consider plans for its continuation. Many improvements for the building will also be reported by the president.

The following are the members of the board of trustees: Gov. W. W. Brandon, ex-officio chairman; Hon. John W. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education, ex-officio; Judge Wm. H. Taylor, state at large, Uniontown; L. Sevier, state-at-large, Birmingham; Wm. J. Dansby, first district; Butler, W. T. Sheehan, first district, Montgomery; L. M. Moseley, third district, Union Springs; James B. Ellis, fourth district, Selma; Malcolm A. Graham, fifth district, Prattville; Robert B. Evins, sixth district, Greensboro; Alto V. Lee, seventh district, Gadsden; Judge Virgil Bouldin, eighth district, Scottsboro; Moses V. Joseph, ninth district, Birmingham; Mrs. W. B. Peebles, tenth district, Aliceville; C. L. Meroney, of Montevallo, is secretary.

ALABAMA COLLEGE TRUSTEES CALLED FOR CONFERENCE

Governor Brandon Fixes Meeting At Montevallo on Tues- day, Sept. 16.

STATE CAPITAL BUREAU
THE MOBILE REGISTER
Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 6

Governor W. W. Brandon has called a special meeting of the board of trustees of Alabama College, to be held at Montevallo September 16. This action was taken at the request of Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Alabama College.

Matters to come before the board will include the question of taking care of the overflow of students and providing of additional teaching rooms for this fall; receipt of the report of chairmen of the drive for Alabama College; and plans for the future management of the campaign, and the consideration of plans for Ramsay Hall and other buildings.

The board of trustees is composed of Governor Brandon and Dr. John W. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education, ex-officio member; W. H. Taylor, Uniontown, and L. Sevier, Birmingham, members from the state at large; W. J. Dansby, Butler, first district; W. T. Sheehan, Montgomery, second district; L. Moseley, Union Springs, third district; J. B. Ellis, Selma, fourth district; M. A. Graham, Prattville, fifth district; R. B. Evins, Greensboro, sixth district; Alto V. Lee, Gadsden, seventh district; Judge Virgil Bouldin, Scottsboro, eighth district; M. V. Joseph, Birmingham, ninth district; and Mrs. W. B. Peebles, Aliceville, tenth district.

DEMOPOLIS BANK GIVES SCHOLARSHIP TO YOUNG WOMAN

Montevallo, Ala., Sept. 24.—(Special)—The Robertson Banking Company, of Demopolis, has presented a $100 scholarship to Miss Miriam Lamar Gregg to aid her in paying her expenses at Alabama College this year.

Miss Gregg was one of the disappointed applicants for a Birmingham newspaper scholarship. She is a splendid student. Her mother before her was a student at Alabama College.

Teachers Added To Montevallo Faculty

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Sept. 29.—Special.—The classes in some departments of Alabama College have grown so large that it has been found necessary to add two new teachers to the faculty. Miss Margaret Bratten, a distinguished graduate of Randolph-Macon College, Virginia, and a former teacher of Coker College, South Carolina, has been appointed assistant in biology. Miss Anna Nash Alford, A. B., Columbia College, S. C., and Master of Arts degree at Cornell University, and graduate student of Radcliffe and Chicago University, has been appointed assistant in English. She has had wide experience in teaching. The authorities of the college consider themselves fortunate in obtaining such excellent teachers at this late period.

Montevallo Faculty Has Two New Teachers

MONTEVALLO, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The classes in some departments of Alabama College have grown so large that it has been found necessary to add two new teachers to the faculty. Miss Margaret Bratten, a distinguished graduate of Randolph-Macon College, Va., and a former teacher of Coker College, S. C., has been appointed assistant in biology. Miss Anna Nash Alford, A. B., Columbia College, S. C., and master of arts degree at Cornell University, and graduate student of Radcliffe and Chicago University, has been appointed assistant in English. She has had wide experience in teaching. The authorities of the college consider themselves fortunate in obtaining such excellent teachers at this late period.

ALABAMA COLLEGE WILL CELEBRATE

Founders Day Program to Be Rendered Oct. 11

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Oct. 6.—(Special).—Preparations are being made at Alabama College for Founder's Day, Saturday, October 11. An elaborate program has been arranged. Several strong speakers will present different features of college educational life.

Miss Irvin, supervisor of foods, is planning a great barbecue for all the students and out-of-town visitors, who may attend the Founder's Day celebration. Friends of the college are cordially invited to attend.

MONTEVALLO TO HOLD FOUNDER'S DAY FETE

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Oct. 7.—Great preparations are being made at Alabama College for Founder's Day, next Saturday. An elaborate program has been arranged. Several strong speakers will present certain features of college educational life to the great audience expected to greet them.

Miss Anna Irvin, supervisor of foods, is planning a great barbecue for all the students and out-of-town visitors who may attend the Founder's Day celebration.

Alabama College to Entertain On Founders' Day

Well-Known State Institution for Girls to Celebrate Its Natal Day

Twenty-eight years ago, on Sunday, last, Alabama College, located at Montevallo, and already one of the most popular institutions of learning in the State, was founded. Because the natal day falling on the Sabbath, the occasion will be fittingly celebrated on the day previous (Saturday), and an elaborate program of oratory, music and song is to be rendered. The entertainment will be presided over by President Thomas W. Palmer, and the program is as follows:

Address, by Braxton Bragg Comer, former Governor and United States Senator.

College Song—By students.

Presentation of Portrait of Erskine Ramsay—By Victor H. Hanson, of Birmingham.

Acceptance of Portrait—By William T. Sheehan, Montgomery, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees.

Address, "Woman's Opportunities and Alabama College"—Mrs. Val Taylor, Uniontown, president of Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs.

Music—By college orchestra.

Address, "The Alumnae Spirit"—By Miss Minnie Sellers, of Ramer, president of Alumnae Association.

Address, "Progress of the Campaign"—By Dean O. C. Carmichael, director.

Address, "Alabama College of Tomorrow," Alto V. Lee, of Gadsden, trustee from Seventh District.

Announcements by L. Sevier, of Birmingham, trustee from State-at-large.

Address, "The Future Business Women"—By Erskine Ramsay, of Birmingham.

Song, "America, The Beautiful"—By assemblage.

MONTEVALLO TO HONOR FOUNDERS

Alabama College Plans Big Celebration For Saturday,
28th Anniversary

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Oct. 9.—Special.—Alabama College is preparing an unusual program here for the twenty-eighth celebration of Founders' Day, which will take place Saturday. The event is expected to take on added interest because of the campaign to raise 2 million dollars for improvement and expansion.

President Thomas W. Palmer will preside over the program, which will be held at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Music will intersperse the following features of the program:

Address, Braxton Bragg Comer, former governor and United States senator.

Presentation of portrait of Erskine Ramsay, Victor H. Hanson, publisher of The Birmingham News and The Montgomery Advertiser.

Portrait, William T. Sheehan, chairman of 000 000

020 00

Founder's Day Program At Alabama College

Alabama College at Montevallo, will celebrate Founders' Day, Saturday, October 11, though the real founders' day is not until the following Sunday, an announcement from T. W. Palmer, president, states.

Palmer invites everyone to attend the celebration for which an appropriate program has been arranged.

Ex-Gov. B. B. Comer will deliver the principal address. Victor H. Hanson will also speak when he presents a portrait of Erskine Ramsay to the college.

Other speakers include Wm. T. Sheehan, executive committeeman of the board of trustees; Mrs. Val Taylor, of Uniontown; Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the alumnae association; Dean O. C. Carmichael, college director; Alto V. Lee, trustee, of Gadsden; L. Sevier, trustee, Birmingham, and Erskine Ramsay.

COLLEGE AMATEURS IN ANNUAL TRYOUT

Eleven New Members Selected for Dramatic Club.

Special To The Register
MONTEVALLO, Ala., Oct. 14.—The annual tryout for the Alabama College Dramatic Club has occurred under the direction of Hazel Black. Twenty-nine students were entered, and of these, eleven won out. The Dramatic Club, or 'Alabama Players,' as they are called, already has forty members, and these, with the new additions resulting from the tryout, promise some excellent work for this year, according to Hazel Black and Miss Vivian Monk, in charge. Surprising talent was discovered in the piquant recruits from the freshman ranks. Here is the list of those successful in the recent tryout: Nell Burns, Nina Dantzler, Eleanor Hooper, Elorée Ingram, Ann Jones, Ruth Jones, Katharine Leath, Frances Loftin, Vallye Rogers, Made Page and Gladys Waldorp.

Founder's Day, the 28th anniversary of Alabama College, was celebrated at Alabama College Saturday by appropriate exercises held on the front campus, and a barbecue dinner under the competent direction of Miss Anna Irvin, food director. Mr. Erskine Ramsay, the millionaire bachelor of Birmingham, who donated $100,000 for a new dormitory for the college was present, and a portrait of him was unveiled. Various officials from over the state were present, as well as all the college officers and trustees.

Miss Henrich, of the National League of Women Voters, has been at Alabama College for a few days to form a Junior League of Women Voters among the students. The league is strictly non-partisan, and strives to interest women of voting age in questions of the day and to educate girls under voting age so that they will not be politically ignorant on reaching 21.

Joyce Jackson, of Oxford, Calhoun county, has been elected sophomore representative to the Student Government Council. She succeeds Hazel Black, who resigned on the ground that she is now classed as a junior, and so could not be a legitimate sophomore representative.

N. C. Stephens, Presbyterian minister at Huntsville, addressed the Alabama College Y. W. C. A. on life in the Congo district, Africa, where he has lived as a missionary.

Mr. Marsh music director, states that the concert ticket for the season have sold rapidly. Indeed, more than 300 student tickets were sold in a single hour at the bookkeeper's office this week.

CONCERT SEASON OPENED AT MONTEVALLO SATURDAY

Mont. Ad.
Members Of Faculty Render Pleasing Selections At Recital.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Oct. 20.—Special to The Advertiser.—The season of concerts opened Saturday evening, October 18, with a faculty concert given as a joint recital by Miss Rebecca D. Stoy, contralto and Miss Polly Gibbs, pianist.

Miss Stoy is a graduate and post-graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., and is head of the voice department of Alabama college. Her voice is full and rich in quality, and her training gives her the ability to sing with a splendid ease and excellent interpretation. On the program were two groups of songs, which were well selected and varied in style. The "Seguedille" from the Opera Carmen, and the "Voice of Philomel" were among the best numbers.

Miss Gibbs, a graduate from Henderson-Brown college, and from Northwestern University of Music, gave a group of solos in addition to playing the accompaniments for Miss Stoy.

WILL CONDUCT COOKING CLASS AT AUDITORIUM

Miss Annie Sale To Demonstrate Quality of Wofford Oil

Miss Annie E. Sale, director of home economics department of Alabama college at Montevallo, will conduct a free cooking school daily at the housewives exhibit beginning Tuesday, under the auspices of the Wofford Oil company.

The cooking school will be open to the public and will be conducted from 11 to 12:30 each day, local merchants and manufacturers co-operating in furnishing the materials to be used.

The program of the classes in cooking has been arranged by Miss Sale and each lesson will be devoted to one special form of cooking. Beginning on Tuesday with demonstration on beverages and cereals. Miss Sale will be assisted by two young women students of Alabama college.

Miss Sale is considered an authority on cooking, having a wide experience as an instructor since her graduation from the School of Home Economics at Teachers college, Columbia university, New York City. She has acted as instructor in the public schools in Georgia, served two years as supervisor of the practice home department of the Mississippi State College for Women; one year as instructor of home economics at Harrisonburg State Normal college, Harrisonburg, Va., and in 1917-1918 was in charge of a community cannery at Newport News, Va. Before going to Alabama college, Miss Sale was state specialist of home economics of South Carolina with headquarters at Winthrop college, Rock Hill. This is her second year at Alabama college.

The cooking school is being conducted by the Wofford Oil company to introduce its new high grade kerosene, marketed under the trade name of Kleen-Lite Oil. Oil stoves, furnished by the R. B. Broyles Furniture company of this city will be used during the school.

No admission will be charged. Arrangements are being made to hold a special class for negro women on Thursday afternoon and a mens class on camp cooking at a time to be announced later.

SELMA WOMAN DELIVERS PROSE WRITING LECTURES

Mont. Ad.
Mrs. Katherine H. Chapman Instructs
Girls At Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Oct. 29.—Special to The Advertiser.—Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman, of Selma, who is delivering a course of lectures at Alabama college on creative prose writing, is also delivering once a week a general lecture on practical features of prose writing. Tuesday she read an original unpublished story titled "Sanctuaries". It is located in Demopolis and begins with the early French settlers of that town and closes with the story of the Rooster Bridge building. Mrs. Chapman has a charming way of presenting cold facts of every-day life in a very interesting manner. She held a large audience at the closest attention while she read this very interesting story. She will probably have it published this winter.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Mont. Ad.
Representatives From Various Clubs
To Pay Greensboro Visit

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Oct. 29.—Special to The Advertiser.—Mrs. T. W. Palmer, Miss Weimer and Miss Vickery of the Studiosis club will leave Thursday to attend the meeting of the 4th district of Federated clubs at Greensboro, Ala. At the same time, there will be representatives from the student clubs, which have recently been federated. The student representatives are Miss Winifred Castleman, the Scribblers' club; Miss Frances Selden, Tutwiler club; Miss Roberta Northrup, Philomantis club.

MONTEVALLO ADDS TO HERD OF DAIRY CATTLE

Seven Cows Add to Quantity of Milk Available

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Oct. 29.—Special to The Advertiser.—Alabama college has added to its dairy herd seven fine, high bred, registered Holstein cattle, bought from the Waites Lakeview dairy, at Easonville, Alabama. These seven cows are already adding very materially to the quantity of milk produced. This addition was made necessary by the increased number of students in the boarding department. The college now has two of the best dairy herds in the state, one registered jersey herd and the other Holstein-Friesian cattle.

44 Girls' Cage Teams Have Short Time to Enroll for Year

Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the Alabama High School Girls' Basket Ball association, announces that according to the constitution and by-laws of the association that the first day of November is the final date for schools to enroll in the association for this year. Last year, the first of the association, there were 73 schools on the membership list. Many more than this number are expected in this time.

The association is for the promotion of good basket ball activities for the high school girls of the state. According to the organization, championship is first determined in each of the 20 sections of the state, each of these sections being one half of a congressional district. Then the 20 winning teams are invited to Montevallo the last part of February to participate in a tournament to play for state honors.

Miss Margaret Ann Wright, of the Lanier High school of Montgomery is secretary-treasurer. Schools that have not yet enrolled should send their dues to Miss Wright at once.

SEVENTEENTH CENTURY PLAY GIVEN AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

Characters Present in All Their Resplendent Glory

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Oct. 31.—Special to The Advertiser.—Alabama College was carried back to the seventeenth century this morning in spirit at least. The Dramatic Art class, under the direction of Miss Lucyle Hook head of the expression department, presented the seventeenth century Oxfordshire St. George play, famous as one of the folk plays, which constituted an important step in the development of the English drama.

An effort was made to costume the play correctly and great ingenuity was displayed in the costumes worn by Giant Blunderbore, the Dragon, St. George, King Cole, Doctor Ball, Father Christmas and others of the cast. The Morris Men and the Fool were present in all seventeenth century glory.

The Alabama players, the dramatic club of Alabama College, are making an intensive study of the origin and development of the drama and this play was a part of a recent program given by that organization.

MONTEVALLO STUDENTS CONDUCT CHURCH SERVICE

Helen Hagood Presides at Baptist Meeting Sunday

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Nov. 3.—Special to The Advertiser.—At the Baptist church in Montevallo, at the 11 o'clock service, Sunday, the services were conducted by the students of the college, who had attended the First Baptist student conference at the Judson last week.

Helen Hagood, recently appointed student secretary at Alabama College and elected vice-president of the conference at Marion, presided over the meeting. Her introductory talk was well received and she introduced each of the speakers in a very pleasing manner.

ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN Halloween Spirit Is Carried Out At Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 3.—(Special)—Halloween was extremely and most appropriately observed in Montevallo and at Alabama college. On Friday evening, the training school, both grammar and high school, gave an entertainment at the grammar school building. More than three hundred children from the first to the eleventh grade participated.

Saturday evening, the freshman class of the college gave their first entertainment of the season. The true Halloween spirit was carried out.

MRS. PALMER ON VISIT
MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 2.—(Special)—Mrs. T. W. Palmer left this morning to visit her son, T. W. Palmer, Jr., and family at Jackson Heights, Long Island, N. Y. She will then go to Boston to see her two daughters, Misses Stella and Lulu Palmer, the former being a student at the Harvard graduate school of education, and the latter attending Simmons college.

CONDUCTED COOKING CLASS

Above, from left to right, is Miss Lucy McCalley of Birmingham, a sophomore and Miss Mildred Walker of Newbern, a senior in the domestic science department of Alabama college at Montevallo. The center is Miss Sales, who is director of the department. She was assisted by the two young ladies the past week when they conducted a cooking class at the Housewives Exhibit.

TWO PLAYS PRESENTED

Clifford Devereux And Company Appear
MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Clifford Devereux and his company, including Zinita Graff, appeared at Alabama college twice on Saturday, Nov. 2 first in "The Barber of Seville," a play by Beaumarchais. A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the performers. The two leading characters were Zinita Graff as Rosina, and Clifford Devereux as the was "The Mummy's Ear-Ring," by Count Amaviva. The next performance Jose E. Chagaray.

MUSIC SUPERVISORS TO MEET AT WINSTON-SALEM

Miss May Andrus to Attend From Alabama College.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Nov. 10.—Special to The Advertiser.—The Southern Music Supervisors' association will hold its second annual meeting November 17-21 at Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Every southern state will be represented by delegates.

Miss May Andrus, director of public school music at Alabama College, is the only one from Alabama who is on the program. She will preside over the meeting on Thursday, November 20, and will lead in the round table discussion of high school problems.

Among other noted musicians who will take part, are: H. W. Stepher, director of music, state university of Louisiana; Miss Alice M. Bivens, North Carolina College for Women; William Breach, president of the Music Supervisors' National Conference; Edwin N. C. Barnes, Washington, D. C.; Arthur Craft, Chicago; George H. Gartlan, director of music, New York City. Every feature of public school music will be thoroughly considered at this conference.

LARGE AUDIENCES PRESENT AT PLAYS IN MONTEVALLO

Clifford Devereux and Company Appear at College

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Nov. 10.—Clifford Devereux and his company, including Zinita Graff, appeared at Alabama College twice on Saturday, November 8, first in "The Barber of Seville," a play by Beaumarchais, at 3 p. m. A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the performers. The two leading characters were Zinita Graff as Rosina, and Clifford Devereux as the Count Amaviva.

The next performance was at 8 p. m. in "The Mummy's Earring," by Jose E. Chagaray. This is the fourth time this company has appeared at Alabama College. A large audience was enthusiastic from the beginning to the end of each play.

MUSIC SUPERVISORS MEET NEXT WEEK

Alabama College To Preside Over Southern Session

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The Southern Music Supervisors' association will hold its second annual meeting November 17-21 at Winston-Salem, N. C. Every southern state will be represented by delegates. Miss May Andrus, director of public school music at Alabama college, is the only one from Alabama who is on the program. She will preside over the meeting on Thursday, November 20, and will lead in the round table discussion of high school problems.

Among other noted musicians who will take part, are: H. W. Stepher, director of music, State University of Louisiana; Miss Alice M. Bivens, North Carolina College for Women; William Breach, president of the Music Supervisors' National conference; Edwin N. C. Barnes, Washington, D. C.; Arthur Craft, Chicago; George H. Gartlan, director of music, New York City.

ALABAMA COLLEGE IS DELIGHTED AT PLAY

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 11.—Alabama College was delighted with the performance of the plays, "The Barber of Seville," as a matinee, and "The Mummy's Ear-Ring," in the college auditorium. It was given by Clifford Devereux and his company, including Zinita Graff. The afternoon performance was a comedy; at night a tragedy was given.

This same company was at the college two years ago, when they gave "Romeo and Juliet."

At Y. W. C. A. service in the assembly hall recognition was extended to all new members of the organization, in the name of the old members. Lulu Hawkins presided, and the recognition service was very beautiful. Basketball season will soon open with a crash. The various class teams are in process of selection, following daily practice. On Saturday the four sister teams will compete, freshmen playing against junior team and sophomore against senior team. Then, on the Saturday preceding Thanksgiving, the two winning teams will play the finals for class supremacy. Shortly following, the Varsity team will be selected, and games scheduled with other colleges of the state. Basketball has some promising candidates this year, and Alabama College is anticipating some exciting games.

STUDENT'S STATUS FIXED BY BALLOT

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 12.—Votes by secret ballot were taken last night from among the three upper classes on candidates for the "Who's Who" division of the Technola. The results posted early were as follows: Most beautiful, Mary Bradshaw; most popular, Ann Jones; most representative, Lillian Prout (head of student government); cutest, Kate Leath; best athlete, Tad Martin; smartest, Hazel Elack; most capable, Hazel Black; most in love, Alice Mahler; neatest, Florence London; most original, Hazel Black; biggest eater, Alice Barganies; best dancer, Marion Hannan; best actress, Hazel Black; biggest bluff, Agnes Hardy; most stylish, Helen Gray McNeill; biggest flirt, Nell Lyrs; wittiest, Sara Ganzmiller; best cook, Jessie Hobbs Morrison; best musician, Marie Holliday; friendliest, Lulu Hawkins; the perfect flapper Mary Noble.

SASCHA JACOBSEN SCORES SUCCESS AT MONTEVALLO

Large Audience Attends Concert On Thursday Evening

MONTEVALLO, ALA., November 15.—Special to The Advertiser.—A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the talented Russian violinist, Sascha Jacobsen, in his concert at Alabama college, Thursday evening, November 13.

The program was well selected, giving opportunity to display to good advantage his splendid technique, which was equal to the demands of such a varied program. His runs and trills were delicate, and while his tone was not loud, it was very sweet and well suited to the artistic compositions which he played. Encores were demanded and Mr. Jacobsen was generous in responding, delighting the audience with his musicianship which was so apparent in the varied style of his selections.

Mrs. Gussen, the well known pianist, of Birmingham, was accompanist.

DEMOPOLIS WOMAN HAS FRENCH RELIC

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 20.—

(Special.)—A friend, in Demopolis, reading the notice of the lecture of Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman on "Sanctuaries," has written that she has in her possession an old gun that was the property of the wife of Count Lefevre Desnonettes, who was a cousin of Napoleon and a sister of the great La Fitta.

When the French were leaving Demopolis, the great grand-father of this friend, Nathan Lipscomb, bought the gun for his wife as it was very light. This gun is one of the many interesting, ancient relics that were left in Demopolis by the French, who came over after the downfall of Napoleon.

Montevallo Basketball Season Gets Fast Start

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Nov. 17.—Special to The Advertiser.—The basketball season opened with a rush on Saturday afternoon at Alabama college with two fast snappy class games. At the close of the morning assembly exercises a pep meeting was called, the four captains of the teams were introduced and enthusiastic cheers given them. On the toss-up the first game fell to the lot of the Juniors and Freshmen and the second to the Seniors and Sophomores. In the first game the score stood, Freshmen 14, Juniors 6. In the second game Sophomores 59, Seniors 3.

GIVE COLLEGE RECITAL

Alabama College Music Teachers Entertain Students At Event.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Nov. 24.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Louise Glover, cellist and Miss Katherine Van Deusen Sutphen, pianist, members of the music school faculty of the Alabama college, appeared in joint recital at the college auditorium on the evening of November 22, giving a program of classical and modern compositions.

46 College Girls Will Hike To Birmingham

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 26.—Special.—Six Alabama college girls will put in the Thanksgiving holidays by hiking to Birmingham and return.

Class work was suspended Wednesday morning and will not be resumed until Monday. All but 100 girls will go home for the holidays.

The party of hikers were to leave Montevallo Wednesday and planned to spend the first night at the residence of M. S. L. A. McLendon, at Pelham. With an early start the next morning, they expect to reach the Magic City before noon.

Those in the party are Annie Holt Young, Oneonta; Tope Martin, Enterprise; Myrtle Wilson, Roanoke; Hattie Wilson, Roanoke; Bertha Northrop, Attmore; Margaret Butte, Montgomery; Miss Tabor, the college librarian, is the chaperon and director. It is understood that no one will accept a "lift" on the road.

PLAY PRESENTED

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 27.—(Special).—"My Dear," a one-act play by Patricia O'Connor, was presented at Montevallo by a group of expression pupils. The cast of characters were: Felice Anstrutcher, Winifred Castleman, Greensboro; Marjory, Vellie Rogers, Dothan; Phyllis, Mary Crossley, Brewton; Bobby, her brother, Maebelle Conner, Andalusia; her mother, Mildred Walker, Newbern; John Templeton, professor of economy, Lillou Burns, Belle Ellen; Kenneth, her fiancee, Hazel Black, Ashland. Age-Herald

5 ALABAMA WOMEN STUDY MEDICINE

Dr. Peck Honored By Southern Medical Association

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Nov. 29.—(Special).—Dr. William A. Peck, physician of Alabama college, was elected vice president of the woman's section of the Southern Medical association, that met in New Orleans this week.

At the women's banquet there were present forty women physicians and twelve medical students from Tulane Medical school. The number of women physicians is rapidly increasing all over the country, especially in the south, there being more girls in the south studying medicine than in any other section. There are at present five from Alabama.

Miss Lulu Palmer of Alabama college at Montevallo, is taking a pre-medical course in Boston, with a view to entering a regular medical college next year.

NEW BULLETIN ISSUED BY MONTEVALLO COLLEGE

Undertaking Creates Much Interest; Is Annual Event.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Dec. 9.—Special to The Advertiser.—"Inter High school meet, February 26-28, 1925," is the title of a new bulletin just issued by Alabama College. Basket ball declamation, music, art, and home economics, are the features for this state wide contest. This is the third year for the basketball tournament, the second year for Art, declamation, and home economics. Music will be added this year.

Perhaps no educational undertaking has created such great interest as this annual meet for the high schools at Montevallo. The Selma team was the winner of the Silver loving cup in 1923, and the Ramer team won the silver basketball in 1924. Two teams will be selected from each congressional district, or twenty in all to battle for the championship in February, 1925.

The contests in art, home economics and declamation were the most interesting, attracting as much or more attention, than the exciting games of basketball.

Prizes have been offered by the Birmingham News, Birmingham Age-Herald, Montgomery Advertiser, Alabama College, and several private citizens. A copy of the bulletin will be sent free upon application.

Palmer-Hotz Wedding Announced in Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Dec. 6.—Special to The Advertiser.—Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Waverly Palmer, of Montevallo, announce the engagement of their daughter, Stella, to Dr. Henry Gustave Hotz, of Little Rock, Arkansas, the marriage to be solemnized on December 22, 1924, at Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York.

Dr. Palmer Goes to Wedding Of Daughter In New York.

Dr. Thomas W. Palmer, president of Alabama College, Montevallo, will go to New York on Sunday to be present at the wedding of his daughter, Miss Stella Palmer, to Dr. H. G. Hotz, at the Long Island home of Dr. Palmer's son, Thomas W. Palmer, Jr., on December 22.

The bride-to-be is director of home economics in Arkansas and head of the same department in the state university. Dr. Hotz is in charge of secondary education of the department of education in Arkansas.

Dr. Palmer was in Montgomery on Friday and elated over the fact that his family will

Montevallo Stages Historical Paegant

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Dec. 15.—Special.—"Alabama Day" was observed in the auditorium of Alabama College Saturday morning, with the sophomore class in charge.

Five phases of Alabama history were presented. Alabama was impersonated by Miss Anna Murphy, of Gadsden. Miss Ann Jones read an extract from a poem by A. B. Meek on the homes of Alabama.

Presentation of hte scene before the coming of the white man was next given. A large group of girls dressed as Indians with their blankets and tomahawks gave an Indian dance. Then appeared the Spaniards. De Soto, a Spanish cavalier, came with his army of Spanish soldiers, followed by the clinking of castinets and the musical jingle of the tambourines. A scene of the first white settlement at Mobile by the French in 1702 was presented next. Dancers from the court of Louis staged the minuet.

The coming of the English in 1763 from South Carolina and Virginia was celebrated with the "Virginia reel."

The clouds of war were next shown with a scene of the '60's. The house wildly cheered the singing of Dixie and at the display of the Confederate flag.

Peace and happiness were next portrayed, marred by the World war.

hold a reunion at the wedding of his daughter, for the first time in twelve years. Mrs. Palmer is already in New York and other members of the family will be there for the wedding. There will thus be three Thomas W. Palmers in the home at one time, the president of Montevallo, his son and grandson. They are all looking forward with delight to the assembling of the entire family.

ALABAMA COLLEGE TO CLOSE DEC. 20

Term Examinations To Be Held December 17 To 20

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Dec. 14.—(Special).—The first quarter of the session 1924-25 will close at Alabama college December 20. The term examinations will be held December 17 to 20. Each student can leave for home as she finishes her examination.

President Palmer left Sunday for a visit to several colleges in the east. While on this trip he will join the members of his family in attending the marriage of his daughter, Stella, to Dr. Henry G. Hotz of Little Rock, Ark. The marriage will be solemnized in New York, because it is impossible for all of the family to come to Montevallo at this time. The date selected is the anniversary of the marriage of President and Mrs. Palmer.

MONTEVALLO GIRLS WIN HONOR PLACES

Special To The Register.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Dec. 31.—The reports for the first quarter's work at Alabama College, which closed December 20, have just been mailed out. Students who make an all-A record are placed on the first honor roll. Those who make only A's and M's are placed on the second honor roll.

The following students are entitled to first honor roll:

Vivian Cobb, Montevallo, and Mrs. E. E. Marsh, Jr., Montevallo.

The following students are placed on the second honor roll list:

Margaret Neil, Huntsville; Bertha Northrup, Atmore; Flossie Orr, Hartselle; Catharine Ortman, Demopolis; Robbie Andrews, Florida; Mary Armstrong, Columbia; Lucile Bell, Ashland; Annie Ruby Benton, Opp; Jessie Lee Bonner, Camden; Era Boyd, Gadsden; Mary Bradshaw, Beatrice; Jimmie Nell Branyon, Fayette; Estelle Broadway, Cecil; Winifred Castleman, Greensboro; Joy Cawthorn, Florida; Patty Cole, Opp; Lola Alice Croll, Linden; Gella Cumbee, Stroud; Helen Davis, Fort Davis; Edith Delchamps, Mobile; Carolyn Edwards, Enterprise; Una Franklin, Gadsden; Helen George, Mobile; Mildred Gilchrist, Brantley; Alice Harvey Green, Selma; Melba Griffin, Montevallo; Agnes Hardy, Newala; Carrie Head, Montevallo; Verna Helms, Honoraville; Verta Mae Helms, Elba; Hazel Hendrick, Hurtsboro; Mary Hill, Benton; Thelma Holmes, Murray Cross; Lucy Holt, Butler; Elizabeth Horsley, Columbiana; Lorene Hughes, Birmingham; Virginia Kockritz, Birmingham; Mayme Kroell, Montevallo; Aileen LeCroy, Rockford; Myrtle Plant, Boling; Louise Purefoy, Talladega; Alice Quarles, Mobile; Margaret Reaves, Montevallo; Frances Rosenblum, Gadsden; Frances Selden, Greensboro; Mrs. Joanna LaRue Sharpe, Montevallo; Lucile Snellgrove, Boa; Gertrude Snyder, Vandergrift, Pa.; Carolyn Thrash, Stanton; Helen Townsend, Russellville; Julia Turberville, Century, Fla.; Fay Turner, Mobile; Mary Vinson, Roanoke; Nellie White, Ashland; Irene Williams, Gadsden; Annie Laurie Woods, Piedmont.

HONOR SELMA GIRL WITH SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Eleanor Hooper Receives
Award Through Her
Good Record

Mont. Adv., 25
SELMA, ALA., Jan. 1.—An honor and compliment to the high standard of excellence attained at the Alabama Girls College at Montevallo, by Miss Eleanor Hooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hooper of Selma has just been conferred on this young girl in her selection by Dean O. C. Carmichael of that institution, for a scholarship in the college made possible by the generosity of Miss McAlpine, of Talladega in memory of Dr. William Peterson, a former president of the college.

Requirements for the awarding of the scholarship were that the young woman chosen must be of Presbyterian faith, and to have a high record at schools that she had attended, as a student also one of highest ideals and ambitions.

Miss Hooper fulfilled all the most exacting requirements and hundreds of admiring friends are tendering her their earnest congratulations to her during her holiday visit to her home in this city.

In addition to her literary attainments at college Miss Hooper is the possessor of a rare and beautiful voice which she is having trained, under experienced masters. She is also taking a supervisor's course in music at Montevallo preparatory to taking this up as her work after completing her college course.

Miss Hooper is both beautiful and accomplished and Selma is indeed proud to claim her as a daughter. She is the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hooper of this city, one of Dallas county's most prominent families. Mrs. Hooper served twice as president of the Alabama Federation of Women's clubs, and has filled several other state offices at different times, so that the lovely young grand daughter in addition to her own natural gifts and talents has inherited much of her grandmother's brilliant mentality and personal charm.

Mrs. Chapman Returns From Montevallo Trip—

SELMA, ALA., Jan. 7.—Special to The Advertiser.—Mrs. Chapman who is one of Alabama's most noted and successful writers of short stories, novellettes, one act plays and feature articles, returned Wednesday from Montevallo where she conducted her class in the study of the short story at the Alabama Girls College.

This new department of literary work in the college established recently is "The Short Story Class in the Course of Creative Prose" Mrs. Chapman stated that her class was beginning the new year with a splendid enthusiasm and that several new members had been added to the already large number of aspiring and ambitious students of short story writing.

The first chapel meeting of the college for the year 1925 opened auspiciously with every pupil of the large student body present after enjoying the holidays at their homes. A pleasant feature of the chapel program was welcoming Dean O. C. Carmichael back on the active staff of instructors following several months that he has given to the drive for the school.

Mrs. Chapman meets with her class every Tuesday going from Selma Monday afternoon and giving her pupils the full benefit of the time allowed them on Tuesday for instruction.

SUCCESS ATTENDS COLLEGE CONCERTS

Last of Series of Musical Events Draws Large Audience
at Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Jan. 12.—Special to The Advertiser.—The last of the series of faculty concerts of Alabama College, Montevallo was held Saturday night, Jan. 10 in the college auditorium. These concerts have been largely attended and the audiences have been most enthusiastic.

The soloists Saturday night were Miss Mildred Vause, violinist accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Blair Chamberlin, and Miss Lucyle Hook, reader. Miss Vause is a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and has been a student of the Chicago Musical College, Mrs. Chamberlin is also a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory and has been a student at the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, Maryland. Miss Hook graduated from the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, Texas, and has studied at Columbia University, New York.

Miss Vause opened the program with the sonata, Opus 13, by Grieg. This Sonata, with its changing harmonies, delicate modulations, beautiful melodies and varied rhythms is a test of the skill of any violinist, for it calls for well developed technique as well as much feeling. Miss Vause played it superbly.

Other numbers by Miss Vause which the audience greatly enjoyed were Alabama, by Albert Spalding, which is written in new American rhythmic type which is attracting so much attention among modern musicians. This was played with a splendid rhythmic swing which called forth hearty applause. "In a Garden" by Trinidadelli, with its cadenzas was also played brilliantly.

Miss Hook gave her first number "A Chip off the Old Block." With clever handling of the voice, and a charming manner, she won her audience from the start and encores were demanded after each group. Miss Hook, in her selection of numbers on the program gave a variety of moods, displaying to good advantage her ability to be grave or gay. With "Da Little Boy" she brought tears to the eyes of her audience and had them laughing again with "Between Two Loves."

Mrs. Chamberlin proved her worth as an accomplished and artistic accompanist. The Grieg Sonata is a violin and piano number which is as great a tax on the pianist as on the violinist. Mrs. Chamberlin was brilliant in this, as in all the numbers.

48 Montevallo Misses Fall Before Locals

Val Colvin, for Woman's College, and Ward, for Losers, Stand Out

By THOMAS HALL.

Staging a brilliant comeback in the second half, Woman's college basketball team came back and overcame a lead, to defeat Montevallo 26-17, Saturday night in one of the most nerve racking games ever played in the college gymnasium. Every available space in the gymnasium was taxed an hour before the game started, and many were unable to get inside.

The battle itself was a real one, and the result was in doubt until the fourth period opened. The locals scored a one pointer in the first few minutes of play, but Montevallo came back with four rapid field goals. With the visitors getting away to a lead, Woman's college defense grasped the playing attack, and Montevallo's flash was over. After this the visitors were unable to break through the defense, and were forced to try for field goals from long range. However on several occasions, the visiting forwards were within the shadow of the baskets, but due to the close guardian of Pruitt and Lewis, were hurried in their efforts for field goals.

Colvin Leads Attack.

Val Colvin, was easily the outstanding star on the offense. Quick shots by Colvin in the third period marked the turning point of the game for the Methodist, and she sank three field goals in rapid order, and placed her team in the front. Margaret Farrish, made a splendid coworker with Colvin and the pair in the closing stages of the game could not be stopped, although Townsend and Smith played close and put up a fine exhibition of guarding.

The game brought two substitutes into the limelight, who by their work have won varsity positions. They were Pruitt and Boyd, who in the past have played little part in the team's victories. Pruitt starting at guard, responded in spectacular fashion. Sticking close all the way to Gladys Martin, she was held to two field goals. Boyd was rushed into the struggle in the third period, replacing Wallace. It was here the locals pushed out into the front, as Boyd came through with a field goal, and displayed a clever floor game.

Betty Lewis, who has been a main clog in the team's drive this season, played the best game of her college career. Whenever a guard holds a player of Miss Mildred Keabey's type without a field goal, there must be some wonderful defensive work.

The visitors have a smooth team. Their guards played well, but their forwards were unable to get their eyes located on the loops. Miss Ward, a scrappy little player, playing a center position lead the visitors' scoring with ten points, while Martin followed with six.

Montevallo jumped into the lead, due to the work of Miss Ward, who caged four field goals. However towards the close, Woman's college rallied and at the intermission, the visitors lead 11-9. At the start of the third period, Colvin got a field goal and Woman's college went into the lead, and were never overtaken.

Both coaches, Rebecca Funk and Mary Robison deserve considerable credit for the splendid exhibition. Both teams displayed clever floor play, and showed the effects of proper coaching. The game was part of the "Home Coming Day" at the local college. It was reported that hundreds of former students returned to the college and took part in the celebration. Montevallo was well represented more than two hundred students and alumni being present for the game.

Line ups: Montevallo (17)—Martin (6) and Keabey (1), forwards; Ward (10), center; Smith and Townsend, guards.

Woman's college (26)—Colvin (18) and Farrish (6), forwards; Wallace, center; Pruitt and Lewis, guards.

Substitutions, Montevallo, Berryman for Ward; Weatherly for Smith; Ward for Berryman. Woman's college, Boyd for Wallace.

Referee, Jones, (Alabama); Umpire, Thomason (Auburn). Field goals, Woman's college (11); Montevallo (7). Scorers, Sellers (Montevallo) Hall (Barnes). Timekeeper, Davis, (W. C.).

Scoring periods:
Montevallo 8 3 1 5 17
Woman's College 4 5 11 6 26

CO-EDS BATTLE AT MONTEVALLO

Birmingham - Southern Girls Play Alabama Col- lege Saturday

Coach Ben Englebert's Birmingham-Southern college co-eds leave the Magic City Saturday morning and travel over to Montevallo where they meet the Alabama college basketball team at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. This is the first game of importance which the Pantherettes have played this year and followers of the golden-clad girls are anxious to see just what their cagers have in store for them in the way of real basketball this season.

The Montevallo quintet was one of the strongest of the girls' teams in the state last year and, if their losses in players have not been too great, should present a formidable line-up against the girls from the Methodist institution.

Coach Englebert has announced the following starting line-up for this afternoon: Misses Whisenant and Cannon, forwards; Miss Helen Crain, center, and Misses Williams and Quigley, guards. This is a splendid combination, according to Coach "Ben," and he is expecting much from them. However, any one of the following substitutes, who will make the trip, may see service against the Alabamians: Misses Clark, Rosser, Kitchell, Hanes and Julia Manar.

SCHOOLS TO JOIN IN STATE MEET

Age-Herald Offers Prize In Montevallo Contest

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Alabama college is preparing for the inter-high school meet comprising contests in basketball, declamation, music, home economics and art, to be held here February 26-28. All high schools are invited to send teams.

Dean O. C. Carmichael is general chairman of the committee on arrangements and the college has arranged to entertain all of the contestants while here.

Miss Minnie Sellers of Ramer, Ala., president of the Alabama Girls' Basketball association, will have charge of the basketball tournament.

In the declamation contest The Age-Herald has again offered $50 for prizes. The college will also award a prize to one of the best declaimers.

MONTEVALLO PROGRAM GIVEN

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 19.—(Special.)—A program was given at Alabama college, Montevallo, Saturday night, by Miss Laura Huxtable Porter, of Boston, Mass. The subject of the program was "Parallels in Poetry and Music." A brief and interesting talk on the relations of poetry and music, the expression of the same moods in each art, and a comparison of great poets and great musicians, was followed by the reading of poems and playing a musical composition on the piano which would express the thought of the poem just read.

LOSEY PROGRAM RENDERED AT MONTEVALLO TUESDAY

Student Of Shakespeare Delights Audience At College.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Jan. 28.—Special to The Advertiser.—Two very fine programs were given by Dr. Frederick D. Losey, of New York, at Alabama college, Montevallo, Monday, January 26. In the morning he gave an interesting lecture on the Shakespeare play "Othello," and in the evening a dramatic reading of the same play.

Dr. Losey is one of the foremost students of Shakespeare of the day, and his interpretations are original and the results of deep thought. The large audience responded with hearty applause.

Speaks On Drama

DR. FREDERICK D. LOSEY

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Jan. 29.—The last two of the series of lectures by Frederick D. Losey, of New York, were given at Alabama College, Tuesday. In the morning Dr. Losey gave an instructive lecture on the "Modern Drama" and included readings from the play "The Fool," which has created so much comment of late.

In the evening his lecture was on "Organized Humanity." Dr. Losey was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Alabama.

ENDS MONTEVALLO SERIES

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Jan. 29.—Special to The Advertiser.—The last two of the series of lectures by Dr. Frederick D. Losey, of New York, were given at Alabama College, Tuesday, January 27. In the morning, Dr. Losey gave an instructive lecture on the "Modern Drama," and included readings from the play, "The Fool," which has created so much comment of late.

In the evening his lecture was on "Organized Humanity." Dr. Losey is a profound thinker and gives to his audience a very great deal, not only in the subject with which he is dealing, but he touches on many topics during the course of a lecture.

MOBILE MINISTER ADDRESSES ALABAMA COLLEGE STUDENTS

Dr. John W. Phillips Urges Proper Life Development.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Jan. 30.—Special to The Advertiser.—The students of Alabama college have enjoyed two addresses from Dr. John W. Phillips, pastor of the Government Street Memorial church, Mobile.

At the regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday evening, he spoke on "Three-fold Faith in God, in the Son, and in Immortality." At the 12 o'clock assembly service, he spoke on the "Pattern of Life," urging the students to develop themselves in accordance with the pattern given by God to humanity.

MONTEVALLO STUDENTS WIN PRIZES FOR ESSAYS

Training for College Considers Awards Signal Honor.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Jan. 31.—Special to The Advertiser.—The Alabama Power company recently offered three prizes to high school boys and three prizes to high school girls for the best essay on better home lighting. Three girls from the Montevallo High school entered the contest and all three of them were successful. First prize, a white gold wrist watch, was awarded to Frances Lewis; second prize, a silk umbrella, to Edith Dew; and third prize to Minnie L. Smitherman.

This high school is the training school for Alabama College. That three of the contestants from this school should have won over all of the other contestants in other counties speaks well for the training of the pupils of this school.

POPULAR COLLEGE GIRL

—Photo by Turner Studio.

MISS ALICE MAHLER

Miss Mahler is a member of the Junior class at Alabama College. She has been prominent in all the activities of the college, won two honor rolls, served as secretary of the student council and numerous other honors have been hers. She is advertising and business manager of the 1925 Technala, the college annual. Miss Mahler resides in Loxley, Ala.

REAVES RESIDENCE BURNS IN MONTEVALLO SATURDAY

Only Partial Insurance Carried on Handsome Dwelling.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 2.—Special to The Advertiser.—The handsome two-story residence of W. T. Reaves, located on the Centerville road, four miles from Montevallo was totally destroyed by fire about 10 o'clock Saturday morning. It is supposed that a defective flue was the cause. Only partial insurance was carried.

This was one of the most beautiful and popular places in Shelby county. Mrs. Reaves and family had been living there about two years, having purchased the property from Mrs. M. J. Ray. Winston Thompson, son of J. O. Thompson, of Birmingham, lived there for a number of years and frequently entertained many friends from all parts of the state. In ante-bellum days it was known as the country home of J. R. Smith, of Birmingham.

ALABAMA COLLEGE HAS LIVELY TIME AT CELEBRATION

Games, Plays and Initiations Engage Attention of Happy Students.

Special To The Register

ALABAMA COLLEGE, MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 3.—Saturday was a busy and exciting day at Alabama College, what with games, plays, and club initiations. To begin with, Jacksonville State Normal's co-ed Varsity came to play basketball at Alabama College, and were beaten 24-13. Jacksonville's guards and centers were especially good, but Montevallo's pass-work simply couldn't be stopped. The Alabama College Varsity this year includes: Tad Martin and Mildred Coley, forwards; Elizabeth Ward and Grace Baerman, centers; Bill Smith and Helen Townsend, guards.

Montevallo's next game is scheduled for February 13, at Woman's College, Montgomery.

Saturday night the public initiation of the social clubs were beautifully given. Each club, with the second-central hall-landing as the stage, and with the viewing from the assembly hall below, presented a pageant, a pantomime; a review; or a "bachelor's reverie," with a memory of all the lovers he had lost.

The clubs represented were: Zeta Pi Delta; Aleph Sadhe; Castilian; Philaden-droi; Philomathic; Tutwiler.

The social clubs' private initiations were observed at the club house last Saturday night. These private initiations are made very mysterious, scary, and according to the testimony of pledges to the clubs—very much to be dreaded.

Pledges are blindfolded, paddled, fed salt, asafoetida, cold macaroni, and similar delectable eats at unexpected times. However, the affairs were not as strenuous nor so utterly disagreeable as last year, because Dr. Peck this year told the presidents of the social clubs that no pledges could be administered castor oil in any form or manner, nor could ice be slipped down their backs.

After living through a private initiation and playing a part in the public one, a pledge is considered a full-fledged member of her club. However, if her grades average less than "C", she cannot be admitted. The so-called scholastic clubs such as Scribblers' club and Mathematics club, have no specific initiations, as one becomes a member immediately upon accepting a bid, and paying her dues.

For the final event of the day, Alabama College was indebted to the Alabama players, as her dramatic club is called. They presented three one-act plays, the first written by Edmond Rostand; the second by Susan Glasjell, and the last by Gerald Dunn. The plays were under the direction of Miss Lucyle Hook, teacher in expression, and the entire proceeds were for the worthy cause of advancing the chapel building fund.

The unanimous opinion is that the group of Alabama Players is a dramatic company worthy of any college. Good acting, in most cases actually on the border line between talent and genius, is characteristic of all of them—backed up by hard work in preparation.

MONTEVALLO GIRLS HEAR HENSHAW OPERA COMPANY

"The Marriage Of Figaro," Presented By Alabama College Students.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 4.—One of the best attractions of the season was given at Alabama college Monday night. The Henshaw Opera company presented "The Marriage of Figaro." The artists all have very fine voices; the orchestra is excellent, giving splendid support to the singers; the scenery and costumes added a great deal to the charm of the performance, and it was altogether an unusual opportunity to enjoy an opera which is full of lovely music.

52. MONTEVALLO TO MEET WOCOALA

Montgomery Will Be Scene Of Rival's Cage Battle

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 6.—(Special).—Old time cage rivals, Woman's College of Alabama, Montgomery, and Alabama College, Montevallo, will battle here tomorrow night. The outcome of the contest will be an important factor in determining the state championship of female collegians of this state. Tomorrow is home-coming day at Woman's College and scores of alumnae are expected to be here.

Reports from Montevallo are that a large number of the students will accompany the team to Montgomery. The locals are determined to get revenge for their two defeats at the hands of the Shelby county outfit last season. The girls have been working hard all the week for the engagement and are in much better condition than they were for the Howard College coeds a week ago.

COLLEGE TO HEAR ARTISTS' QUARTET

Violinists, 'Celloist And Viola Player To Appear In Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 7.—(Special).—Hans Letz, first violin; Edwin Bachman, second violin; William Schubert, viola, and Horace Britt, 'cello, are the four artists who make up the Letz quartet which will appear before an audience at the Alabama College on Saturday, March 14.

Mr. Letz was for several seasons concert master of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, resigning from it to go to New York and become a member of the Kneisel quartet, with which he remained until it disbanded. Immediately afterward he organized the present quartet which bears his name.

Mr. Bachmann, a pupil of Hubay, was formerly concert master of the state orchestra in Budapest, and on his arrival in America joined the New York Symphony orchestra. Here he has also had much experience in chamber music organizations and for two seasons played with The Little Symphony, led by George Barrere.

Mr. Schubert, viola player, is a recent acquisition. He is an American who studied at the Vienna Royal Academy under Arnold Rose, the first violinist of the famous Rose quartet, perhaps the best known European string quartet.

Mr. Britt is a Belgian and a graduate of the Paris Conservatory. He has been soloist with the foremost French orchestras and with the leading ones in America, and has played under the baton of the following conductors, all of worldwide fame: Edouard Colonne, Theodore Thomas, Gustav Mahler, Alfred Hertz, Arthur Nikisch, Felix Weingartner and Arturo Toscanini.

Famous Pianist Coming

Alabama College has secured Walter Spry, American pianist and teacher of Chicago, Ill., for a five weeks' master class, beginning June 17.

Walter Spry is a name well known, especially in the Middle West, as educator in the musical field. It is unusual for one to achieve such success in his native place as Mr. Spry has, it is pointed out. He was born in Chicago in 1868 and after a thorough training received in pianoforte, playing from August Hyllested, an excellent pianist, and from Clarence Eddy in organ and

Woman's College To Battle Montevallo

Home Coming Day Contest Will Decide Annual Argument Between Two Teams

By THOMAS HALL.

Woman's college and Montevallo basketball teams, will meet Saturday night in the local college gymnasium, an event that promises to be the biggest of its kind, ever staged at the local college. Both teams are claiming the college state honors this season, and are the only girls college teams that have not met defeat this season.

For this game, local college officials have made the day "Home Coming" and it is expected that hundreds of former students will return for the celebration. Miss Ruth Watlington, manager and a member of the local team, announced Thursday night that Sidney Lanier High school band, would furnish music at the game Saturday. This band will carry fifty-two musicians, and will be in charge of Bandmaster William H. Hrabe. Each class at the local college has arranged "stunts" for the basketball game.

Holiday At Montevallo.

Information received from students and officials at Montevallo state more than two hundred students and members of the faculty will accompany Montevallo team here for the contest. With a general holiday being allowed by Dr. Thomas W. Palmer, at Montevallo, it is expected that the visitors will be well represented. Arrangements were made by Miss Watlington Thursday for a special section in the gallery at the gymnasium here to accommodate the Montevallo crowd.

Early Thursday night, former Woman's college students commenced to arrive in Montgomery, and it was reported that by Saturday afternoon, the college would be crowded with former students. Throughout Saturday, entertainments will be conducted at the college.

The two teams have met on six occasions, each team having won three games. Last season the two teams met twice, the Montevallo girls winning both games. When the two teams start Saturday, each will be minus several of last year's stars. The visitors have a brilliant star in Gladys Martin, a former Enterprise High player, and around this player, the visitors will depend upon victory. Coach Miss Funk, has several promising players, who are playing their first year, and in the games played have come through in fine manner.

The local girls went through a long practice Thursday night in preparation for the game. The locals were "off color" in the games against Howard, both in the defense and offensive play, but in the practice last night showed considerable improvement. The locals will probably start the game with Farrish and Colvin, forwards, Wallace or Watlington, center, Pullen and Lewis guards. Irby Jones and Herbert Nation will be the officials for the game.

Woman's College Wins Over Girls From Montevallo

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 7.—(Special).—The Woman's College sextet flashed a brilliant offensive in the second half here Saturday night and rushed through to a 26 to 17 victory over the Alabama College misses from Montevallo. The two schools, arch rivals on the basket ball court, were tied at three victories each up until Saturday, when the locals broke the deadlock and took the lead in the annual basket affairs.

Valera Colvin stood out in the local's victory, ringing up 18 of her team's 26 points. It was Colvin's great shooting in the final half that enabled Woman's College to run up a decisive victory, the score at the half having been but 11 to 9 in the local's favor.

The guarding of Boyd and Pruiett also stood out in the play of the winners.

"Tad" Martin, veteran forward of the Montevallo team, carried the offensive of the visitors, registering a major portion of the loser's points. Townsend and Smith, Montevallo guards, turned in a neat game, holding the flashy local forwards well in check during the opening half.

The contest was the athletic feature of "homecoming day," celebrated at Woman's College Saturday.

Columbiana Puts Montevallo Away

COLUMBIANA, Ala., Feb. 9.—Coach Leonard Lillie's fast team from Shelby High School triumphed over the team from Montevallo on the home grounds Friday afternoon in one of the hardest fought games of the season here. The two teams were very evenly matched and from the time the whistle blew until final score of 19 to 20 in favor of Shelby the fans were wild in their enthusiasm.

The stars of the afternoon for the Columbiana team were Vernon Isbell, captain, and Lewis Coshatt. The team will attend the Alabama High School District Tournament on Feb. 19, in Birmingham.

Coach Lillie has arranged for a basket ball tournament to be held in Columbiana on Feb. 27 and 28, open to all schools in the county, after which series a silver loving cup will be awarded the winning team.

POET VISITS MONTEVALLO

Alabama College Hears Lectures and Readings by Heyward

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 12.—(Special to The Advertiser).—The South Carolina poet, DuBose Heyward, spent the day at Alabama College, and faculty and students heard two lectures and the reading of some of his own poems as well as those of other Southern poets. In the leading magazines are to be found poems by southern poets, and Heyward gave interesting sketches of the lives of some of the most prominent. The last lecture was followed by a reception when the members of the faculty had the pleasure of meeting Heyward.

theory, Mr. Spry went abroad for six years. He studied under the famous pedagogue, Theodore Lexchetzky, in Vienna, who laid the foundation of Mr. Spry's knowledge of piano technic.

Mr. Spry founded his piano school in Chicago in 1905 and is said to have built up a remarkable clientele in the 12 years following. He felt, however, the need of devoting his entire time to musical activities, and so as to relieve himself of all administrative work, merged his school with the Columbia School of Music, of which he is associate director and one of the leading members of the piano faculty.

Stafansson to Lecture at Montevallo Monday—

MONTEVALLO, Feb. 14.—Special to The Advertiser.—Vilhjalmur Stafansson, author and lecturer, will be heard in Montevallo Monday night, February 23.

Stafansson was born of Icelandic parentage in Manitoba, Canada, and came to the United States as a child to live in North Dakota. He was educated at Iowa University, receiving his A. B. degree in 1903, and at Harvard for post graduate work. There he held a scholarship for one year and a fellowship for two years, and during the last of these years he was a member of the teaching staff of the department of anthropology at Harvard.

His first Arctic expedition was made in 1906 as a member of the Lefingwell-Mikkelsen expedition, when they remained through one winter. In 1908 Stafansson took his own first expedition and remained four years. It was during this expedition that he discovered the "Blond Eskimos" which have figured in the newspapers since. His latest expedition was in 1913-18, in which he demonstrated to future explorers that it is possible to live off the country.

MONTEVALLO GIRLS BEATS HOWARD FIVE

Great Shooting Of Alabama College Team Trims Bir- mingham Girls

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 14.—Special.—The Alabama College girls basket ball team defeated Howard College Coed five of Birmingham here Saturday afternoon by the county of 31 to 9. The locals flashed a fast passing attack with some superb shooting on an outdoor court and were successful in their effort to down the visitors.

The Howard team put up a gallant fight but they failed to get acclimated to the outdoor style of play and were lost before the swarm of goals rung up by the locals.

Bentley and Hughes played good basket ball for the visitors, while Ted Martin was the shining light in the Montevallo attack.

Interest Rises In Montevallo Affair

Twenty Teams Will Compete in Annual Girls' Prep Basket- ball Tournament

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 19.—Preparations are about complete for the Alabama Girls High School Basketball association tournament, which will be staged on the three outdoor courts of Alabama college here, February 26, 27 and 28. Twenty teams from as many districts throughout the state are expected to compete in the annual event, interest in which has been rising rapidly the past few weeks.

Thus far only seven district champions have been named. The following list of teams have copped their district titles and have assured association officials they will be on hand for the Montevallo event: Bessemer High, Selma High, Marbury High, Mortimer-Jordan High (runners-up 1924), Ramer High (champions 1924), Jones Mill High and Lee County High.

It is expected that the entire list of teams will be announced within the next few days, according to Miss Minnie Sellers, of Ramer, president of the association. The principals of the various schools members of the association, county managers and section chairmen have been invited to attend the tournament and it is believed that many will accept the invitation to be present for the three days' affair.

Paul Grist, of the Selma Y. M. C. A., G. W. Brittnell of Albany and Miss Lottie Bussey, of Troy High, have been asked to serve as officials at the coming meet. Brittnell and Miss Bussey have served for two years while Grist refereed many of the battles at last year's meet.

College To Have Exhibition Concert

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 21.—Special.—The first student exhibition concert of the Alabama College School of Music will be held next Thursday evening, for which event the following program is announced:

Piano solo, Polonaise, Op. 40, No. 1, (Chopin), Helen Hagood, Evergreen, Alabama.

Soprano solo, I Know Where a Garden Grows (Densmore), Lucile Clay, Fulton, Ala.

Cello solo, Versage Nicht (Weiss), Turberville, Century, Fla.

Piano solo (a) Etude, Op. 25, No. 2, (Chopin); (b) Etude, Op. 25, No. 9, (Chopin); (c) Etude, Op. 10, No. 12, (Chopin), Marie Holladay, Gordonsville, Ala.

Soprano solo, (a) Sylvan (Ronald); (b) A Birthday (Woodman), Winifred Castleman, Greensboro Ala.

Piano solo, Banjo Picker (Powell); Toccata (Jonas), Genevieve Turberville, Century, Fla.

Violin solo, Concerto No. VII, in G, (Ch. de Berliot), Allegro Maestoso, Anne Long, Marion, Ala.

Soprano solo, Song of India (Rimsky-Korsakow), Minnie Peebles Johnson, Montevallo, Ala.

Piano solo, Fantasie Impromptu (Chopin), Alice Mahler, Loxley, Ala.

String quartet, Air (Aubert-Pochon); Gavotte (Handel-Pochon), Mary McCaughy, violin; Alice Lyman, violin; Anne Long, viola; Genevieve Turberville, cello.

Czecho-Slovak folk-songs, (a) Song of Bohemia, (arranged by Deems Taylor); (b) Wake Thee Now, Dearest, (arranged by Deems Taylor); choral class.

CONTEST TO OPEN AT MONTEVALLO

High School Teams To Compete In Many Lines Of Endeavor

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 21.—Interest continues to grow in the several contests that are to be held at Alabama college, February 26, 27, and 28. There will be 20 teams to enter the basketball tournament to compete for the grand trophy, which is a natural size silver basketball. The two old star teams, Selma and Ramer, will be represented. Several new teams in the preliminary contests have shown remarkable strength, and they are visiting with each other to carry off the trophy this year. Among the other contests perhaps the greatest interest is being taken in the declamation contest. More than 20 high schools have indicated that representatives will be sent. The prizes for the best declamations will be two scholarships at Alabama college. The home economics contest will be a feature. The Birmingham schools are not competing for the prize, but will have a large exhibit.

A number of contestants will come for the music contest, in piano, voice, violin and cello. Three distinguished musicians in the state have been selected to act as judges. The prizes offered in each case are scholarship in music at Alabama college.

The art exhibits will be placed on display on Wednesday, February 25, so that they can be seen every day during the festival occasion.

STATE CONTEST FOR GIRLS SET

Leaders In Basket Ball, Art And Music To Com- pete At Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—February 26, 27 and 28 are the days set for the annual tournament in girls's high school basketball, at Montevallo. The first meet was held in February, 1923. The loving cup was won by the team from Selma. The second meet was held in 1924, when the Ramer team was the victor. Two teams from each congressional district have already been selected or will be selected within the next week to come to Montevallo for this year's contest.

The people of Montevallo, and the students and faculty of Alabama college are making great preparations for the entertainment of these visiting basketball teams. Last year contests in declamation, in home economics, and in are were held. The interest in some of these was even greater than was manifested in the basketball games. From the correspondence that the officials of the college are having from many of the schools the interest this year will be even greater than it was last year. Another feature has been added this year—that of music. There will be contests in piano, voice, violin and cello. Already quite a number of names have been enrolled for these subjects.

The officers in charge of the various meetings are Miss Minnie Sellers, president, Alabama High School Athletic association for girls; for declamation, Miss Lucile Hook, state chairman; for home economics, Miss Annie E. Sale; for art, Miss Mary E. MacMillan; and for music Mr. Frank E. Marsh, Jr.

The prize for the athletic contest will be a silver basketball, given by the Birmingham News; for declamation two scholarships in expression at Alabama college, given by the Birmingham Age-Herald; in music one $50 scholarship for each of the four subjects, piano, voice, violin, and cello; in home economics a bronze shield given by the Birmingham News for the best school exhibit. There will also be individual prizes for the best collection of fifty entries. Valuable prizes will also be given in art, by the Montgomery Advertiser.

Explorer Stefansson To Speak At Montevallo

Arctic Expert To Tell Of His Exploits In Far North

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—It is not often that a man of action is at the same time a man of letters, and author and a lecturer Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who will be heard in Montevallo on Monday night, February 23, combine these qualities.

Stefansson was born of Icelandic parents in Manitoba, Canada, and came to the United States as a child to live in North Dakota. He was educated at Iowa university, receiving his A. B. degree in 1903, and at Harvard for post graduate work. There he held a scholarship for one year and a fellowship for two years, and during the last of these years he was a member of the teaching staff of the department of anthropology at Harvard.

His first Arctic expedition was made in 1906 as a member of the Lefingwell-Mikkelson expedition, when they remained through one winter. In 1908 Stefansson took his own first expedition and remained four years. It was during this expedition that he discovered the "Blond Eskimos" which have figured in the newspapers since. His latest expedition was in 1913-18 in which he demonstrated to future explorers that it is possible to live off the country.

The vast fund of experiences, pictures and first-hand knowledge which he has accumulated in these expeditions form the subjects of his books and lectures.

V. STEFANSSON

Seven Quintets Will Compete in Montevallo Meet

Alabama Girls' Tourney To Be Staged Feb. 26 on Courts of Alabama College.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 21.—Seven teams have already been announced as champions of their respective districts to compete in the Alabama girls' high school basket ball association tournament which will be staged here February 26, 27 and 28. The teams already assured of places in the big affair are Mortimer Jordan high, runners up in 1924; Ramer high, 1924 champions; Selma high, Lee county high, Jones Mill high, Bessemer high and Marion high. Thirteen more teams will make up the list of twenty sextettes that will enter the scrap for the state title.

The tournament will be staged on the three outdoor courts of Alabama College here. The coming meet will be the third in the history of the A. G. H. S. B. E. A. The 1923 tourney was won by Selma high school after three days of torrid competition. One year ago, the Ramers high misses, under the tutelage of Miss Minnie Sellers, president and founder of the association, grabbed the state title from a field of strong teams, defeating Mortimer-Jordan high in the finals.

Interest in the 1925 tournament is high and many visitors are expected to supplement the tournament crowd here next week. All principals of association schools, section chairmen and county managers have been invited to attend the meet. Paul Grist, of Selma Y. M. C. A., Miss Lottie Busey of Troy and G. W. Britnell of Albany form the list of tournament officials.

Thursday, February 26, will be elimination day; Friday will see the second round and semi-finals, while Saturday, 28, will witness the finals for the state crown. It is probable that the finals will be staged Saturday morning, or in the early afternoon, to allow the visiting teams opportunities to depart for their homes on the afternoon trains.

The Wetumpka team has been declared ineligible to participate in the tournament.

GIRLS' COMBINES ENTER TOURNEY

Seven Sextettes Listed In State Meet At Mon- tevallo

age - 12.5
MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Seven teams have already been announced as champions of their respective districts to compete in the Alabama Girls' High School Basketball association tournament, which will be staged here February 26, 27 and 28. The teams already assured of places in the big affair are: Mortimer Jordan High, runners up in 1924; Ramer High, 1924 champions; Selma High, Lee County High; Jones Mill High, Bessemer High and Marion High. Thirteen more teams will make up the list of 20 sextettes which will enter the scrap for the state title.

The tournament will be staged on the three outdoor courts of Alabama college here. The coming meet will be the third in the history of the A. G. H. S. B. B. A. The 1923 tourney was won by Selma High after three days of torrid competition. One year ago, the Ramer High misses, under the tutelage of Miss Minnie Sellers, president and founder of the association, grabbed the state title from a field of strong teams, defeating Mortimer Jordan High in the finals.

Interest in the 1925 tournament is high and many visitors are expected to supplement the tournament crowd here next week. All principals of association schools, section chairmen and county managers have been invited to attend the meet. Paul Grist, of Selma Y. M. C. A., Miss Lottie Busey of Troy, and G. W. Britnell of Anbany, form the list of tournament officials.

Thursday, February 26, will be elimination day; Friday will see the second round and semi-finals, while Saturday, February 28, will witness the finals for the state crown. It is probable that the finals will be staged Saturday morning, or in the early afternoon, to allow the visiting teams opportunity to depart for their homes on the afternoon trains.

The Wetumpka team has been declared ineligible to participate in the tournament.

Miss Minnie Sellers Will Direct Girls' Cage Meet at Montevallo

—Photo by Yeager's Studio, Montevallo.

MISS MINNIE SELLERS, president of the Alabama girls' high school basketball association, has held this office since the association was organized. She is a graduate of Alabama College, and for the past three years has directed girls' basketball teams at Ramer, Ala. She will direct the coming tournament at Montevallo.

Under Miss Sellers' coaching, Ramer won the tournament honors at Montevallo last year, and will again be strong contenders at the tournament this week. When this association was organized by Miss Sellers, only a few high schools enrolled, but at present more than one hundred and fifty have joined.

Miss Sellers has received an invitation from President Baird, of the Alabama High School Athletic association, asking the girls' association to affiliate, but Miss Sellers has announced she will vote against accepting the invitation.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TOURNEY TO OPEN AT MONTEVALLO THURSDAY

Mont. Adv. Feb. 22, 1935

Thirteen District Champs Entered Thus Far; Total Expected to Reach Twenty Before Meet Opens; Coming Affair is Third Annual Event Staged by Association

By THOMAS HALL.

Thirteen teams are entered thus far in the Alabama girls high school basketball tournament, which opens at Montevallo Thursday morning, according to announcements made here Saturday night by Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the association. Before the tournament opens however, twenty teams are expected to be ready for the third annual tournament. A number of the high school teams in certain districts expect to complete their district tournaments Monday and the champions from the various districts will go to Montevallo.

Miss Margaret Ann Wright, secretary and treasurer, along with Miss Sellers, were busy until near midnight Saturday, making final preparations for the tournament. Considerable delay in securing district champions has been experienced, due to certain teams playing games, with non-members of the association, and these teams would probably not be permitted to enter the tournament. The teams in question have written Miss Sellers regarding this matter, and a decision is expected shortly.

Tourney Starts Thursday.

The tournament will start promptly at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, three courts at Alabama college being used during the tournament. Drawings will be held Thursday, at which time two brackets will be arranged. The semi-finals will be played Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, while the championship tilt will start at 12 o'clock. The officials for the tournament will be Paul Grist, Selma Y. M. C. A., Miss Lottie Bussy, Troy and G. W. Britnell of Albany. The coaches, players, officials and newspapermen during the days of the tournament will be the guests of Alabama college.

Following is the list of entries thus far: Section 1, Jones Mill; Section 2, undecided; Section 3, Escambia County High (Atmore); Section 4, Ramer High; Section 5, undecided; Section 6; Lee county; Section 7, Ohatchie High; Section 8, Selma High; Section 9, undecided; Section 10, Langdale; Section 11, Cuba High; Section 12, undecided; Section 13, Blount county; Section 14, undecided; Section 15, undecided; Section 16, Decatur High; Section 17, Bessemer High; Section 18, Mortimer-Jordan High; Section 19, undecided; Section 20, Sulligent High.

The coming tournament will be the third staged by the girls association. Selma High copped the first meet, held in 1923, while Ramer High, under the tutorage of Miss Minnie Sellers, annexed the association title a year ago, defeating Mortimer Jordan High in a thrilling finals battle. The Ramer team stands out as a favorite to repeat again this season.

GIRLS' TOURNEY OPEN THURSDAY

Mont. Adv.
District Championships Will Be Decided First Day of Meet; Interest High

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 23.—²⁵The Third Annual Girls' high school basketball association tournament will get under way on the three outdoor courts of Alabama College here Thursday morning, February 26. Twenty girl's teams are expected to compete in the big affair for the state honors.

The Birmingham News will as it has the past two years, award a full-sized silver basketball to the championship aggregation. The News basketball of 1923 was won by the Selma High school team while the 1924 trophy was captured by the Ramer High sextette. Both former tournaments have been highly successful, but increasing interest makes it a certainty that the 1925 meet will surpass the past affairs, both in type of play and enthusiasm.

The schedule of the tournament, as recently announced by Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the association, calls for the congressional district championships to be played off Thursday, February 26. The opening battles will get under way promptly at 10 o'clock, it was stated.

Coaches Meeting.

Miss Sellers has called a meeting of the coaches, school principals, team captains, tournament officials and members of the state board of the association for 8:30 Thursday morning. The meeting will be held in the main dormitory parlor at Alabama College. All of those named above are urged to attend the confab as important announcement concerning the tournament will be made at that time.

Teams entered throughout Monday were: Section 1, Jones Mill High; Section 2, Barton Academy; Section 3, Escambia County High; Section 4, Ramer High; Section 5, Wetumpka High; Section 6, Lee County High; Section 7, Chatchie High; Section 8, Selma High school; Section 10, Langdale, High; Section 11, Cuba High; Section 13, Blount County High; Section 15, Town Creek High; Section 16, Decatur High; Section 17, Bessemer High; Section 18, Mortimer Jordan High; Section 20, Sulligent High. The other section champions are expected to enter, thus bringing the total to the full twenty sextettes eligible to compete for state honors.

COMMENCEMENT NEARS

aggregated
Dr. Stakely To Deliver Baccalaureate Address At Auburn

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—The commencement program for Alabama college is almost completed. The following announcements have been made for the occasion:

Friday, June 5, there will be the annual meeting of the board of trustees, the graduating exercises of the training school, and the president's reception to Governor and Mrs. W. W. Brandon and the graduating class. Saturday, June 6, of commencement week is devoted to the alumnae and class day exercises. The speaker for that day has not yet been selected.

On Sunday morning the commencement sermon will be delivered by Dr. Chas. A. Stakely, pastor of the First Baptist church of Montgomery, and at 6:30 o'clock that evening an address before the Y. W. C. A. will be delivered by Miss Kathleen Mallory of Birmingham, Ala., corresponding secretary of the Southern Baptist Woman's Missionary union.

The graduating exercises will take place Monday, June 8, at 10 a. m. The baccalaureate address will be delivered by Dr. Theodore H. Jack, dean of the graduate school and professor of history at Emory university, Georgia. Dr. Jack is a citizen of Alabama and received his bachelor's degree at the University of Alabama and his doctor's degree from Harvard university.

Montevallo Meet Starts Tomorrow

Interest High in Annual Cage
Tourney; Many Strong
Teams to Compete

125 MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 24.—Final details for the annual high school girls basketball tournament, which opens here Thursday morning, were completed here tonight. The three courts to be used during the tournament have been placed in shape for the tournaments, and will be worked upon, each day following the games.
According to reports, the first advance of the tournament teams will reach here Wednesday at noon.

The tournament will get under way
Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, and will close Saturday at noon. Ramer, champions of the tournament last year, will again contend this season, along with Mortimer Jordan, who fought the championship game with Ramer, are expected to reach here Wednesday night. Jones Mill, and At-more, both strong teams, with good records for the season, are expected to be in the running in this tournament.

Miss Minnie Sellers, president, along with Margaret Ann Wright, secretary of the association, will reach Monte-vallo Wednesday night. With twenty teams entered for the tournament, congressional district championships will be played Thursday. Paul Grist, W.
Britnell and Johnnie Kaminsky will act as officials for the tournament.

CONTESTS OPEN AT MONTEVALLO

Teams To Compete At Alabama College For State Honors

127 MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 25.—(Special).—Besides 20 teams which arrived Wednesday night to take part in the girls' state basketball tournament here tomorrow, a large number of girls from every section of Alabama were in Montevallo tonight ready for the opening contests in expression, piano and violin. The contests will start at 10 o'clock Thursday morning to decide the girls' honors of the state.

According to the announcement of local officials handling the various contests, tournament, etc., there were over 250 girls either in Montevallo or on their way here tonight. Thirty girls will enter the expression contests, with a large number entered for the piano contests and a smaller number for violin and voice.

The art and home economics exhibits already received by the officials in charge of these contests were both numerous and beautiful. A large number of exhibits have been received from all of the Birmingham schools, although these will not enter in the competition for the prizes, as the Birmingham schools are not entering any of the contests. However, Ensley High school has entered for the declamation contest.

The entire assemblage of visiting girls will meet at 9 o'clock Thursday morning in the chapel of Alabama college to hear a welcome address and receive instructions as to the order in which the different contests are to be conducted.

The tryouts in the various contests will be completed Thursday, with the finals coming Friday and Saturday.

20 Girls' Quintets Will Open State Tourney Thursday

Champions Of Sections To Battle For Honors

Third Annual State Tournament Expected To Be Greatest In History

128
MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 25.—
(Special).—Nearly 200 girl athletes had arrived in Montevallo late tonight to take part in the third annual state high school tournament which begins here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock on the three big courts of Alabama college. Practically every one of the 20 teams which will compete for the state crown in basketball had arrived on the scene of action and were ready for the opening whistle on the morrow.
A notable exception was Selma High, winners of the 1923 tourney, a team which will come up early tomorrow morning.

A big assemblage of the visiting girl athletes as well as the contestants in the declamation and music contests will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in the chapel of Alabama college, at which time a welcome address will be given as well as instructions as to the order of the events to be conducted will be made.

Considerable interest in the prospects of other teams as well as enthusiasm for the tournament was expressed by the big throng of visiting girl athletes, who will start the big events of the basketball year off tomorrow.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 25.—
(Special).—With 20 teams, representing the cream of the girl's basketball teams of Alabama, entered, the third annual state cage tournament of the Girls' High School Athletic association will start at Alabama college here Thursday mornnig, the first games were scheduled for 10 o'clock.

The 20 teams which are entered are champions of their respective districts, having won the right to enter the Montevallo tourney by defeating the strongest teams of their sections, and the competition is expected to be strong from the outset.

Thursday's battles will see the section champions battling for the right to represent their congressional districts in the state tournament proper, which will take place Friday and Saturday.

The battles for the congressional championships will get under way at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, with titular honors decided during the day.
Then the drawings for the state tournament will be made, which will start early Friday morning.

Coaches To Meet
A meeting of all coaches, team captains, tournament officials and members of the state board of association will be held at 8:30 o'clock at Alabama college to complete final details and get instructions for the staging of the meet.

Indications on the eve of the tourney point to the greatest which has ever been held at Alabama college, although the first two tournaments in 1923 and 1924 were great successes. With the arrangements for deciding enteries over the entire state in better and more workable form, interest in the various districts in the meets has been unusually great, and hence the interest in the state events will be much greater than ever.

The competition this year, according to officials of the tournament, will undoubtedly be keener than ever and of a higher calibre, due to the greater stress being placed on athletics for girls over the entire state. The great battles staged in many of the districts for the sectional title has shown that the calibre of the competing teams is stronger, and some hectic struggles are expected on the three big outdoor courts
at Montevallo.

Ramer High, at this early stage of the game, is expected to be one of the big favorites to cop the state title again as the girls from South Alabama have another strong team which will give their rivals some great battles before they are defeatd.

Ramer won the crowd last year, while Selma was the state champion the year previous. Both of them will again compete.

Mortimer-Jordan Strong

Mortimer-Jordan, runners-up in 1924, will again represent the Birmingham district, and the Morris girls have a strong aggregation. They are well coached, have an all-state center who is a great passer, and are rated one of the best defensive teams in the state.
They will certainly bear watching again this year, although they have lost several of their scoring aces who kept them in the running so long last year.

The teams entered for the tournament are as follows: Section 1, Jones
Mill High; Section 2, Barton Academy;
Section 3, Escambia County High; Section 4, Ramer High; Section 5, Watumpka High; Section 6, Lee County High; Section 7, Ohatchie High; Section 8, Selma High; Section 10, Langdale High; Section 11, Cuba High; Section 13, Blount County High; Section 15, Town Creek High; Section 16, Decatur High; Section 17, Bessemer High;
Section 18, Mortimer-Jordan High; Section 20, Sulligent High. The six other sectional champions are expected to enter, thus bringing the total to the full 20 sextettes eligible to compete for state honors.

RAMER AND JONES MILL COP TILTS FIRST DAY OF MONTEVALLO MEET

District Titles Settled as State Cage Tournament Gets Under Way;
1924 Champions Strike Tough Opponent in Escambia County High Misses

By VINCENT TOWNSEND.
(Staff Correspondent for The Montgomery Advertiser and Birmingham News.)

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 26.—Ten strong teams remain in the running for the Girls' State High School Basketball title Friday following a day of thrills Thursday when ten games were played on the two outdoor courts of Alabama college, at Montevallo, to decide contestants for the second round of the tournament. Thursday's winners and their scores are as follows:

- First Congressional District—Jones Mill 45, Barton academy 8.
- Second Congressional District—Lee won on forfeit.
- Fourth Congressional District—Ohatchie 22, Selma 16.
- Fifth Congressional District—Wetumpka 53, Langdale 11.
- Sixth Congressional District—Cuba 18, Marion 28.
- Seventh Congressional District—Blount 1, Snead 42.
- Eighth Congressional District—Town Creek 16, Decatur 4.
- Ninth Congressional District—Mortimer Jordan 18, Bessemer 2.
- Tenth Congressional District—Russellville 18, Sulligent 9.

The competition for the congressional titles was close in many cases as the above scores will indicate and in some instances the play was even closer than the score can show. Each of the teams even though some were deluged in points, fought valiantly and scrapped it out with their foes to the bitter end, win or lose.

Friday's Games.
Friday's bracket will be as follows:

At 8:30 Snead vs. Jordan on court one and at 8:30 on court two Auburn vs. Russellville.

The other six teams drew byes for the second round.

In the third round Town Creek will meet Jones Mill at 9:30 on court one while on court 2 at the same hour Ramer will play Wetumpka.

At 2:30 on court one the winner of the Snead-Jordan game will play Ohatchie, while on court 2 at the same hour the winners of the Auburn-Russellville game will play Marion.

Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock the winner of the Snead-Jordan-Ohatchie settees will meet the winner of the court one. While one hour later on the same playing ground the winner of the Auburn-Russellville-Marion contest will encounter the winner of the Ramer-Wetumpka contest. These games will constitute the semi-final round.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the finals will be played with the winners of the above listed games competing for the handsome full sized silver basketball, which was given to the tournament officials by The Birmingham News. There were no upsets in the first round of play, the favorites coming through in fine style. Mortimer Jordan, Ramer, Wetumpka and Jones Mill, the four teams now hoped to be the strongest in the tournament had little trouble disposing of their foes. The fast Atmore team probably giving Ramer more trouble than any of the others, were able to afford Jordan, Wetumpka or Jones Mill.

Ramer To Meet Wetumpka.
Unfortunately Wetumpka must play Ramer in the third round of the tournament and one or the other of these strong combinations will fall. The other three teams are slated to go to the semi-finals with Jones Mill and Mortimer Jordan meeting in the top and either Ramer or Wetumpka playing the winner of the Marion-Auburn-Russellville mix-up.

The high score of the day was set by Wetumpka when it rang up a 53 to 11 victory over Langdale. Langdale took the Booby honors when it counted, but one point, but Bessemer High of Bessemer ran a close second with two foul goals for a total of 2 points.

Miss Eugenia Tate of the Wetumpka team made the highest point total of the day when she looped 41 of her team's 53 in their game with Langdale. Miss Ruth Jones of the Jones Mill team was second with 33 points, while other expert forwards ran around the ten, and twenty mark.

Ramer representing the Montgomery county district played a style of basketball that promised to take them far towards another championship.

All the games were well handled

by Referees John Kaminsky and Ben Britnell.

SNEADS 42; BLOUNT 1

Blount county showed the poorest team in the tournament when they rang up but one point in the face of a storm of goals counted by Snead's Academy six. The Snead lassies looped the loops with regularity after they got started and flashed a style of play that may carry them much further in the tournament. The star of their attack was Louise Singleton who scored twenty-two points.

The lineup and score:
Snead (42): Singleton (22) and Hickson (16) forwards; Garner and Thomas centers; Armstrong, E. and Cunningham guards. Substitutions: Armstrong for Singleton; Osborne for Armstrong; Briscoe for Thomas.

Blount County (1) Weaver (1) and Robinett, forwards; King and Fendley centers; Mills and Pruitt, guards.

OHATCHIE 22; SELMA 16

The Ohatchie high school team pulled the lone surprise of the tournament when it defeated the Selma girl's team who won the first girl's tournament in 1923, by the score of 22 to 16. The Orange and White of the little Alabama high school flashed over and around the Selma girls despite their best efforts to stave off the attack and they went down in defeat.

Ohatchie (22): Hagan (10) and Strippling (12) forwards; Nace and Willis, centers; McCullough and Akridge, guards.

Selma (16) Powell (6) and Anchors, forwards; Powell, M., and Speed, centers; Chappell and Green guards. Substitutions: Davis (10) for Anchors.

CUBA SURRENDERS

The little town of Cuba, Ala., was conquered by proxy Thursday afternoon at the state girl's loop tournament when the brilliant Marion team defeated the girl basketballers 28 to 18. Cuba's brave forces put up a splendid battle but the superior shooting ability of the Marionites pulled over the victory.

Marion (28): Woodfink (21) and Hurt (7) forwards; Gordon and Yarbrough, centers; Solnick and Woodfin, E., guards.

Cuba (18): Atkinson (11) and Smith (7) forwards; Glover and Tate, centers; McDonald and Long, guards.

CONSOLATION MEET

A consolation tournament will be held Friday afternoon for the losing teams of the first round. Eight of the nine teams who lost entered the consolation. A suitable prize will be given the winning team.

AFTERNOON GAMES—FIRST ROUND.

The expert Wetumpka basket tossing combination leisurely walked over the Langdale High school six by the lopsided count of 53 to 11. Eugenia Tate counted 41 of her team's total score with as keen an eye for the basket as has been seen in many a long moon in Montevallo. The Langdalers showed fight at times, but their team was not able to stop the flashing pass-work of Wetumpka.

Wetumpka (53)—Tate (41) and Collier (12), forwards; Coker and Lebow, centers; Proffett and Robinson, guards.

Langdale (11)—Lanier (4) and Reed (7), forwards; Vinson and Trammell, centers; Weldon and Williams, guards.

Elba Forfeits.
Elba High school, winner of the district honors in their section of the state failed to make an appearance on the court at the time scheduled for their game and it was forfeited to Lee County High school of Auburn. This win carried Auburn to the second round of the tournament.

Decatur High Falls.

Town Creek trimmed Decatur High school 16 to 4 in a listless game in which the better team won on its shooting skill. Decatur failed to show any attack at all and the game was easily won after a long period of drawn out play.

Town Creek (16)—Yarborough (7) and Green (9), forwards; Bracken and Waldrip centers; Zimmerman and Green, guards. Substitutions: Streeter for Green.

Decatur (4)—Potthill and Lown (4) forwards; Davis and Hill, centers; Gollman and Hill and Holesapple, guards. Substitutions: Hill for Potthill. Robertson for Hill.

MORNING ROUND

Russellville Girls Win

With a brilliant spurt in the sec-

GALA WEEK IS ON AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

Many High Schools Represented in Various Contests

Montevallo, Ala., February 23.—Interest continues to grow in the several contests that are to be held at Alabama College, February 26, 27, 28. There will be twenty teams to enter the basketball tournament to compete for the grand trophy, which is a natural size silver basket ball. The two old star teams, Selma and Ramer, will be represented. Several new teams in the preliminary contests have shown remarkable strength, and they are vieing with each other to carry off the trophy this year. They are determined that the old teams shall not win.

Among the other contests perhaps the greatest interest is being taken in Declamation. More than twenty high schools have indicated that representatives will be sent. The judges will no doubt have a hard time in selecting the winner. The prizes for the best declamations will be two scholarships at Alabama College. The Home Economics contest will be exceedingly interesting. The Birmingham schools are not competing for the prize, but will have a large exhibit to show what those excellent schools are doing. Many other schools however will compete for the bronze shield and the individual prizes that are to be given.

Quite a number of contestants will come for the music contest, in piano, voice, violin and cello. Three distinguished musicians in the state have been selected to act as judges. The prizes offered in each case are scholarships in music at Alabama College.

The Art contest promises to be a most attractive feature. The exhibits will be placed on display on Starved?

Your Blood

quarter took the lead... basket... me here Thursday... away to an 18... their ve them a victory... walk'sional district and won... this Friday's play... onklidge was the to... daleville with a score... son played w... Baker and P... game, on a wlnes and Bendall...

less... Thompson (7) and... forwards; Metcalf and Tul... Wilson and Young... Substitutions: Morris for...

Bessemer Girls Lose
Bessemer High school girls' looping combination staged a game fight against the fast Mortimer-Jordan sextette Thursday morning, but the fast passing of the Jordan lassies and the great shooting of Polly Hughes was too much for them and they bowed their unwilling heads before a score of 18 to 2.

Guthrie played a splendid game at center for the Jordan team while the Hughes girls, one at forward and the other at guard stood out in the game. Tegue was the star for Bessemer.

This was for the honors of the ninth congressional district.

Bessemer (2)—Godwin (1) and Trammell (1), forwards; Tegue and M. Trammell, centers; Foster and Gleason, forwards. Substitutions: Simson for Trammell; Kemp for Foster; Veach for Kemp.

Mortimer-Jordan (18)—Hughes (10) and Woodward (8), forwards; Guthrie and Obow, centers; Rogers and C. Hughes, guards. Substitutions: Cantts for Rogers.

Jones Mill Counts 45
A fast passing attack with Ruth Jones as the bright shooting star carried the Jones Mill team to the second round of the Alabama girls' state high school basketball tournament Thursday morning, when a total of 45 points were rung up for the high score of the day. Barton Academy put up a good fight but was unable to up a more than eight points in face of the expert guarding of the Millers.

Each player on the Jones Mill team performed well but the Jones sisters, Johnson and Johnson, were outstanding. Lenwerck and Pettus played excellently for Barton, but even their best efforts availed but little against the fine team work of the winners.

The victory gave Jones Mill the title of the first congressional district.

Jones Mill (45)—R. Jones (33) and Sims (12), forwards; Jones and King, centers; Blackburn and Johnson, guards.

Barton (8)—Stollenwerch (7) and Schoeniger (1), forwards; Morgan and Johnston, centers; Farmer and Pettus, guards.

Substitutions: Davis for Schoeniger; Schoeniger for Johnston.

Ramer Cops Thriller

In the fastest game of the morning round the great Ramer High school team, winner of the 1924 tournament, battled its way to a 19 to 12 victory over the Atmore girls from Escambia county. The going was rough for the champions for the red clad lassies flashed a strong attack in the closing half of the game and all but tied the score after Ramer had led for two periods. A flash in the last minutes with Sellers and Boyd dropping them through the loops put the game on the ice wagon for the Ramer high.

This was the best game played in the morning round and swung a large share of the dope toward the golden uniformed lassies of Montgomery county as the finalists in the 1925 meet. Atmore was rated one of the strong teams of the tourney, and they played excellent ball but it failed to overcome the clever shooting and team work of the winners. This was for the title of the second congressional district.

Atmore (12)—Wainwright (3) and Lynch (9), forwards; E. Nettles and Harper, centers; Kearley and English, guards. Substitutions: O. Nettles for Wainwright; Nettles for Harper.

Ramer (19)—Sellers (11) and Boyd (6), forwards; Sharp and Sankey, centers; Mathews and O. Jones, guards. Substitutions: Mills (2) for Boyd; Norris for Sankey.

RAMER AND JONES MILL COP TILTS FIRST DAY OF MONTEVALLO MEET

District Titles Settled as State Cage Tournament Gets Under Way;
1924 Champions Strike Tough Opponent in Escambia County High Misses

By VINCENT TOWNSEND.
(Staff Correspondent for The Montgomery Advertiser and Birmingham News.)

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Feb. 26.—Ten strong teams remain in the running for the Girls' State High School Basketball title Friday following a day of thrills Thursday when ten games were played on the two outdoor courts of Alabama college, at Montevallo, to decide contestants for the second round of the tournament. Thursday's winners and their scores are as follows:

First Congressional District—Jones Mill 45, Barton academy 8.
Second Congressional District—Lee won on forfeit.

Fourth Congressional District—Ohatchie 22, Selma 16.

Fifth Congressional District—Wetumpka 53, Langdale 11.

Sixth Congressional District—Cuba 18, Marion 28.

Seventh Congressional District—Blount 1, Snead 42.

Eighth Congressional District—Town Creek 16, Decatur 4.

Ninth Congressional District—Mortimer Jordan 18, Bessemer 2.

Tenth Congressional District—Russellville 18, Sulligent 9.

The competition for the congressional titles was close in many cases as the above scores will indicate and in some instances the play was even closer than the score can show. Each of the teams even though some were deluged in points, fought valiantly and scrapped it out with their foes to the bitter end, win or lose.

Friday's Games.
Friday's bracket will be as follows:

At 8:30 Snead vs. Jordan on court one and at 8:30 on court two Auburn vs. Russellville.

The other six teams drew byes for the second round.

In the third round Town Creek will meet Jones Mill at 9:30 on court one while on court 2 at the same hour Ramer will play Wetumpka.

At 2:30 on court one the winner of the Snead-Jordan game will play Ohatchie, while on court 2 at the same hour the winners of the Auburn-Russellville game will play Marion.

Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock the winner of the Snead-Jordan-Ohatchie settees will meet the winner of the court one. While one hour later on the same playing ground the winner of the Auburn-Russellville-Marion contest will encounter the winner of the Ramer-Wetumpka contest. These games will constitute the semi-final round.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the finals will be played with the winners of the above listed games competing for the handsome full sized silver basketball, which was given to the tournament officials by The Birmingham News. There were no upsets in the first round of play, the favorites coming through in fine style. Mortimer Jordan, Ramer, Wetumpka and Jones Mill, the four teams now hoped to be the strongest in the tournament had little trouble disposing of their foes. The fast Atmore team probably giving Ramer more trouble than any of the others, were able to afford Jordan, Wetumpka or Jones Mill.

Ramer To Meet Wetumpka.

Unfortunately Wetumpka must play Ramer in the third round of the tournament and one or the other of these strong combinations will fall. The other three teams are slated to go to the semi-finals with Jones Mill and Mortimer Jordan meeting in the top and either Ramer or Wetumpka playing the winner of the Marion-Auburn-Russellville mix-up.

The high score of the day was set by Wetumpka when it rang up a 53 to 11 victory over Langdale. Langdale took the Booby honors when it counted, but one point, but Bessemer High of Bessemer ran a close second with two foul goals for a total of 2 points.

Miss Eugenia Tate of the Wetumpka team made the highest point total of the day when she looped 41 of her team's 53 in their game with Langdale. Miss Ruth Jones of the Jones Mill team was second with 33 points, while other expert forwards ran around the ten, and twenty mark.

Ramer representing the Montgomery county district played a style of basketball that promised to take them far towards another championship.

All the games were well handled

by Referees John Kaminsky and Ben Britnell.

SNEADS 42; BLOUNT 1

Blount county showed the poorest team in the tournament when they rang up but one point in the face of a storm of goals counted by Snead's Academy six. The Snead lassies looped the loops with regularity after they got started and flashed a style of play that may carry them much further in the tournament. The star of their attack was Louise Singleton who scored twenty-two points.

The lineup and score:
Snead (42): Singleton (22) and Hickson (16) forwards; Garner and Thomas centers; Armstrong, E. and Cunningham guards. Substitutions: Armstrong for Singleton; Osborne for Armstrong. Briscoe for Thomas.

Blount County (1) Weaver (1) and Robinett, forwards; King and Fendley centers; Mills and Pruitt, guards.

OHATCHIE 22; SELMA 16

The Ohatchie high school team pulled the lone surprise of the tournament when it defeated the Selma girl's team who won the first girl's tournament in 1923, by the score of 22 to 16. The Orange and White of the little Alabama high school flashed over and around the Selma girls despite their best efforts to stave off the attack and they went down in defeat.

Ohatchie (22): Hagan (10) and Stripling (12) forwards; Nace and Willis, centers; McCullough and Akridge, guards.

Selma (16) Powell (6) and Anchors, forwards; Powell, M., and Speed, centers; Chappell and Green guards. Substitutions: Davis (10) for Anchors.

CUBA SURRENDERS

The little town of Cuba, Ala., was conquered by proxy Thursday afternoon at the state girl's loop tournament when the brilliant Marion team defeated the girl basketweavers 28 to 18. Cuba's brave forces put up a splendid battle but the superior shooting ability of the Marionites pulled over the victory.

Marion (28): Woodfink (21) and Hurt (7) forwards; Gordon and Yarbrough, centers; Solnick and Woodfin, E., guards.

Cuba (18): Atkinson (11) and Smith (7) forwards; Glover and Tate, centers; McDonald and Long, guards.

CONSOLATION MEET

A consolation tournament will be held Friday afternoon for the losing teams of the first round. Eight of the nine teams who lost entered the consolation. A suitable prize will be given the winning team.

AFTERNOON GAMES—FIRST ROUND.

The expert Wetumpka basket tossing combination leisurely walked over the Langdale High school six by the lopsided count of 53 to 11. Eugenia Tate counted 41 of her team's total score with as keen an eye for the basket as has been seen in many a long moon in Montevallo. The Langdalers showed fight at times, but their team was not able to stop the flashing pass-work of Wetumpka.

Wetumpka (53)—Tate (41) and Collier (12), forwards; Coker and Lebow, centers; Proffet and Robinson, guards.

Langdale (11)—Lanier (4) and Reed (7), forwards; Vinson and Trammell, centers; Weldon and Williams, guards.

Elba Forfeits.

Elba High school, winner of the district honors in their section of the state failed to make an appearance on the court at the time scheduled for their game and it was forfeited to Lee County High school of Auburn. This win carried Auburn to the second round of the tournament.

Decatur High Falls.

Town Creek trimmed Decatur High school 16 to 4 in a listless game in which the better team won on its shooting skill. Decatur failed to show any attack at all and the game was easily won after a long period of drawn out play.

Town Creek (16)—Yarbrough (7) and Green (9), forwards; Bracken and Waldrip centers; Zimmerman and Green, guards. Substitutions: Streeter for Green.

Decatur (4)—Potthill and Lown (4) forwards; Davis and Hill, centers; Hill and Holesapple, guards. Substitutions: Hill for Potthill. Robertson for Hill.

MORNING ROUND

Russellville Girls Win

With a brilliant spurt in the sec

GALA WEEK IS ON AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

Many High Schools Represented in Various Contests

Montevallo, Ala., February 23.—Interest continues to grow in the several contests that are to be held at Alabama College, February 26, 27, 28. There will be twenty teams to enter the basket ball tournament to compete for the grand trophy, which is a natural size silver basket ball. The two old star teams, Selma and Ramer, will be represented. Several new teams in the preliminary contests have shown remarkable strength, and they are vieing with each other to carry off the trophy this year. They are determined that the old teams shall not win.

Among the other contests perhaps the greatest interest is being taken in Declamation. More than twenty high schools have indicated that representatives will be sent. The judges will no doubt have a hard time in selecting the winner. The prizes for the best declamations will be two scholarships at Alabama College. The Home Economics contest will be exceedingly interesting. The Birmingham schools are not competing for the prize, but will have a large exhibit to show what those excellent schools are doing. Many other schools however will compete for the bronze shield and the individual prizes that are to be given.

Quite a number of contestants will come for the music contest, in piano, voice, violin and 'cello. Three distinguished musicians in the state have been selected to act as judges. The prizes offered in each case are scholarships in music at Alabama College.

The Art contest promises to be a most attractive feature. The exhibits will be placed on display on Wednesday, February 25, so that they can be seen every day during the festival occasion. Schools in Alabama are taking more interest in art work than ever before.

Speaking of the music contest—it will be interesting to know that Alabama College is taking high rank among the various music schools of the country. This college was the first to enroll 100 per cent of its teachers and advanced pupils in the National Music Supervisor's Conference to be held in Kansas City during the month of March. Miss Mae Andrus is one of the prominent officials of that organization and is a member of the State Advisory Committee for Alabama.

State Girls Tourney February 26

ZIPP NEWMAN, SPORTS EDITOR; VINCENT TOWNSEND, ASSISTANT.

MORTIMER JORDAN GIRLS TO PLAY IN TOURNEY

Left—Capt. Guthrie, center and star player. Center—Cannts, guard. Right—Hughes, guard or forward, expert shot. Drop—Rogers, guard.

These girls are the star players of the Mortimer-Jordan High School basketball team, which won the local district tournament here two weeks ago, and on Feb. 26, 27 and 28, they will represent the eighth district, Birmingham, in the girls' state high school basketball tournament at Montevallo. They have flashed all kinds of excellent lay during the season, and they are expected to make a good showing. Last year they were runners-up in the state meet.

The team plays together well and can turn back the best of combinations when they are playing at top form. Capt. Guthrie plays well and leapt Hughes is a crack shot, while Cannts combination with several other good players make Mortimer-Jordan an excellent representative for the district.

and can turn back the best of combinations when they are playing at top form. Capt. Guthrie plays well and leapt Hughes is a crack shot, while Cannts combination with several other good players make Mortimer-Jordan an excellent representative for the district.

MONTEVALLO TOURNEY ATTRACTING INTEREST

Basket Ball Tourney Only Part Of Big Week At Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 21.—Local interest centering on the annual tournament of the Alabama Girls' High School Basket Ball Association is only a reflection of the statewide increase in attention directed toward high school athletics for girls, according to letters that have been coming in here, and other indications. Preparations are now very nearly completed for the meet, which is to be held at the Alabama College here Feb. 26, 27 and 28.

Only seven district champions have as yet been officially crowned, according to Minnie Sellers, of Ramer High School, president of the association. Bessemer High is coming from the Birmingham district, while Selma, Marbury, Jones Mill and Lee County High Schools will also be entered.

It is noteworthy that the other two entries thus far received are those of the winner and runner-up of last season's tourney. Ramer High, 1924 champions, and Mortimer Jordan, which won second place, have again come through to their division titles in rather easy fashion, and it is surmised that this pair will again be among the leading contestants for honors.

It is expected that the list of teams will be announced entirely within the next few days, among whom is Walker county, unofficially victorious in their sectional battles. The principals of the various schools that are members of the association, county managers and section chairmen have been invited to attend the tournament, and it is believed that many will accept the invitation to attend the event. These with the numerous other visitors and partisans of the entering teams will make the occasion a gala affair, and it is predicted even now that the meet will be the biggest in the history of the championship.

Officials who have been named are Paul Grist, of the Selma Y. M. C. A., G. W. Brittneil, of Albany, and Lottie Busey, of Troy High School. Brittneil and Miss Busey have served for the past two years in an official capacity, while Grist handled the whistle in many of last season's frays. It is hard to see how more capable referees could have been procured, and thus spectators and players are assured of fast-moving, fairly handled battles.

While Ramer, Mortimer Jordan and Selma, always a big factor in the tournament, appear thus far to stand out among the teams, several of the new entrants, and those who have not placed high in the past, seem to be much stronger, and it is a certainty that there will be a battle royal for the big silver basket ball, regulation size, which goes to the state champion.

Nearly every school entering the basket ball affair, and there should be 20 or more, will likewise be represented in the declamation and musical contests, scholarships in arts and sciences, and music, respectively to Montevallo, being offered the winners. The home economics and other contests will also furnish interesting sidelights to this biggest of all weeks in the year for Montevallo.

However, the oratorical and musicale will very probably hold the spotlight. Three of the most distinguished musicians in the state will act as judges, and there are departments of voice, piano, violin and cello. The prize for the home economics contest will be a large bronze shield, with other individual awards for those showing merit.

An art competition is another feature which promises to be very enjoyable. The exhibits will be placed on display Wednesday, Feb. 25, so that they can be seen every day during the event.

Views From The Girls' High School Basket Ball Meet Held Recently

No. 1, Cuba, top row, left to right: Elise Cuipepper, Elma Atkinson, Pearl McDonald, Aline Long; bottom row, Beattie Tate, Louise Tate, Eleanor G. Sawyer, Frank Willis Barnett, Claude Barnes, Myrtle Johnson; front row, left to right: Lethama Jones, Allena Blackburn, Willie Bel Simms, Ruth Jones, coach; second row, Julia Boyd, Mary Lanier, Fay Redi; third row, Hattie Lee McGarvin, Elvin Vinson and Jennie Lou Williams. No. 4, Auburn, top row, Floyd, Mary Dowell and Mable Price.

Top row—Mortimer Jordan. Top row—Kathleen Rogers, Ethel Clark, coach. Middle row—Eunice Guthrie, Chollie Hughes, Ednea Creel, Ella Counts, Virginia. Second row—Lella Green, Coralie Alder, Eva Davis. Third row—Mary Anchors, Nale Powell, Maude Collins, coach. No. 3, Snead Seminary. Back row—Evelyn Armstrong. Front row—Gladys Hixon. No. 4, Sulligent. First row—Grace Wilson, Theresa Edwards, coach, Virginia Union. Second row—Nelle Metcalf.

No. 1, Franklin county. Top row—Miss Jirsdson, coach; Martha Gresham, Lillian Hughes, Pauline Hollimon, Lillia Hughes and Louise Hardenburg. Second row—Eubanks, Madie Miles, Myrie McGill, Helen Fendley, Zella Buckner, Bottom row—Clarice Pruet, Eleanor Robinson, Elizabeth Weaver. No. 3, Barton county. Top row—Isable Morgaues, Dorothy Johnston. No. 4, Oathchie. Top row—Mrs. R. Self, coach; Maude Mae Akridge. Second row—Willis Phillips. Oval

W. No. 1, Perry County. Bottom row—left to right, Ruth Moore, Lena Solnick, Annie Yarbrough. Second row—Clara Hoover, Kendall Robinson,
—RUBY BRACKER, LUDIE ZIMMERMAN, LOUISE GREEN. Bottom row—Kathleen Lee, Jeffie Streager, Ethel
Enath Robinson. Bottom row—Ella Frances Harwell, Eugenia Tate, Luciana Collier. No. 4, Bessemer. First row—Maurine Tramel, Martha Tramel. Seco

Excellent Basket Ball Was Played By These Teams At Montevallo

Above are shown some of the 20 teams that took part in the high school girl's basket ball tournament recently held at Antevallo, Ala.

pictured are the outstanding combinations with a group picture of girls who were selected to have places on the first and second state teams.

Frank Willis Barritt, The News traveling correspondent, is shown in a picture with the Jones Mill team. He has just presented the handsome silver basket ball given by The News to the Jones girls to lead the Jones Mill team.

Good basket ball was played by all the teams in every contest.

No. 1, Decatur—Top row, Lottie Loum, Blanche Robinson, Gus Hill; sec-
 No. 2, All-State Team—Back row, left to right, Addie Gutherie, Mortimer
 Mortimer Jordan, second all-state; Evelyn Armstrong, Sneads, first all-state; Al
 Mill, first all-state; Leathamae Jones, Jones Mill, first all-state.
 No. 3, Atmore—Top row, Rosa English, Jessie Bell Harper, Vera Tidwell,

ver, Evelyn Tate and Margaret Smith, No. 2, Jones Mill, 1925 girls' state high school champions, back row, left to right: H. G. Greer, coach; Virlien Lola King, Alama McMillian and Sadie Manning, No. 3, Langdale, first row, left to right, Anna Trammell, Euile Williams, Hazel Weldon, Paul Wuckley, W. left to right, Elizabeth Mardie, Sarah Crenshaw, E. J. Tillman, coach; Mable Johnston, Maryline Cawthorn; bottom row, Lorene Kilgore, Eloise

O'Barr. Bottom row—Polly Hughes, Anne Guthrie, Annie Woodward. No. 2, Selma. Bottom row—Estell Lide, Evelyn Pruett, Annie Laura Speed, Ruby W—Virgie Taylor, Queen Cunningham, Ruth Osburn, Lelaine Briscoe, W. S. Jacks, coach. Middle row—Louise Singleton, Viola Thomas, Ruby Garner, Molly Morris, Lillian Tully. Third row—Hattie Chloe Brown, Eva Priddy, Ruth Thompson.

Second row—Ruby Lendall, Mary Jones. Third row—Irma Unrick, chaperon. Second row—Ice Blackledge, Grace Baker, Novine Hollifmon. No. 2, Blount county. Top row—Annie Willis, Louise Acker, Amy Nance. Bottom row—Emmie Striplin, Eura Haglin.

Beth Woodfin. Top row—Lois Gordon, Mr. R. K. White, Kathryn Woodfin, Bessie Jones, Minnie Hunt, Amelia McGavin. No. 2, Town Creek. First row—No. 3, Wetumpka. Top row—Garrett Rucker, Mary LaBron, Marjorie LaBron, Mary Coker. Middle row—Julian Proffitt, Elizabeth McCaskey, row—Julia Foster, Katherine Godwin, Lila Feague, Antoinette Simpson. Third row—Louise Kemp, Kathleen Gleason, Irene Vlach, Mary McLen-

Row, Emma Polhill, Elizabeth Davis, Bessie Holesapple; bottom row, Blanche Hill, Lila Sealy, coach.
 dan, second team; Kathryn Goodfin, Marlon, second all-state; Eugenia Tate, Wetumpka, second all-state. Second row, left to right, Chellie Hughes, Blackburn, Jones Mill, second all-state. Third row, Buna Mae Sellers, Ramer, first all-state; Ruby Sharpe, Ramer, first all-state; Ruth Jones, Jones
 Mill; Clara Louise Horn. Middle row, Elizabeth Long, Ola Mae Nettles, Eula Nettles, Nell Kearley. Front row, Francis Lynch, Alice Wainwright.

LOULIE COMPTON AWARDED HONORS AT MONTEVALLO

Birmingham Seminary Wins Team And Individual Prize In Art

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Loulie Compton seminary of Birmingham and individual students of the Birmingham public school system took off team and individual honors Thursday in the judging of the art exhibits, which formed a part of the big five-cornered program under way this weekend at Alabama college, Montevallo, for the high school students of the state.

Loulie Compton seminary won the ribbon for best all-around exhibit by any school, while students of the Loulie Compton seminary won first place ribbons in the object drawing and poster contests. Students of Phillips High school, Woodlawn and Paul Payne won first, second and honorable mention in a number of the various art entries.

Montevallo Ranks High

Individuals representing schools over the state won first place honors in the home economics contest, with the Montevallo High school taking the school exhibit honors. New Castle High school won second place.

The contest in music, expression and physical culture, which is represented by the basketball tournament, will continue Friday with the finals of the music and expression contests scheduled for Friday night and the basketball finals for Saturday afternoon.

Many students from the Birmingham school system and the outlying districts were represented in these contests.

List Of Entries

The entries in full with the judges for the various events are as follows:

Contestants In Piano—Jessie Clay, Sheffield, Pinehill; E. H. Harvey, Atmore; Mozelle Goodwin, Powderly; Louise Smith, Bessemer; Marie Launius, Thomasville; Ruby Nichols, Thomasville; Hattie Daniel, Thomasville; Juliette Hardy, Bessemer; Evelyn Mitcham, Bessemer.

Contestants In Voice—Annie Laurie Byron, Pinehill; Minnie Peebles Johnson, Montevallo.

Contestants In Violin—Mary Harris, Mobile; Dewie May Holmes, Enterprise; Mary McConaugh, Montevallo; Alice Lyman, Montevallo; Evelyn Mitcham, Bessemer.

Contestants In Declamation—Frances Rush, Bessemer; Catherine Allen, Ensley; Helen Albert, Ensley; Dora Brock, Enterprise; Loise Lasseter, Enterprise; Annie Leah Sowell, Brewton; Mary Frances Sowell, Brewton; Matha Allen, Wetumpka; Margaret Thomas, Wetumpka; Dorothy King, Oneonta; Edna Howard, Sylacauga; Grace Norton, Sylacauga; Florine Boen, Gadsden; Inez Burns, Gadsden; Frances Barnes, Decatur; Jessie Crum, Powderly; Eula Mae Acton, Birmingham; Blanche Lazenby, Monroeville; Leola Armstrong, Birmingham; Mitylene Yates, Birmingham; Wahwiece Oldham, Bessemer; Claire Phillips, Montgomery; Lillian Curry, Montevallo; Margaret Fullman, Montevallo.

Judges In Music—Mrs. Kate G. Hagan, Mobile; Professor Church, Athens college.

Judges In Declamation—Miss Gill, Woman's college, Montgomery; Miss Chenoweth, Selma; Mr. W. McK. Wright, principal Henly school, Birmingham; Miss Miller, transcontinental chautauqua.

Judges In Economics—Miss Josephine Eddy, Auburn; Miss Annie E. Sale, Montevallo; Miss Alberta Ross, Montevallo.

Judges In Art—Miss Mahan, Brierfield; Miss Mary E. McMillan, Montevallo.

WINNERS NAMED AT MONTEVALLO

Miss Catherine Allen Win $60 Scholarship In Contest

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 27.—(Special.)—Winners were announced here tonight in the state expression, piano, violin and voice contests.

Miss Catharine Allen won the $60 scholarship in the expression and declamation contest. Miss Rosa Lee Sloan captured the $40 scholarship in the same department.

There were 21 entrants in the piano competition. Margaret Smith of Cuba won the $50 scholarship. Miss Juliet Hardy of Brewton was runnerup.

Miss Mary Harris of Mobile was adjudged winner of the $50 offered in the violin contest. Miss Mary McConaugh of Montevallo was the other contestant in the finals.

In the voice contests, a $20 scholarship went to Miss Minnie Teebels Johnston of Montevallo. Her closet competitor was Miss Annie Laurie Burns of Pine Hill.

EXHIBITION CONCERT AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 28.—The Alabama College School of Music, whose director is Mr. Frank E. Marsh, presented its first student exhibition concert. The program was varied, the students all in good form, and the auditorium crowded.

The evening's program was as follows: Piano solo by Helen Hagoood, Chopin's "Polonaise, Op. 40, No. 1"; soprano solo by Lucile Clay, Densmore's "I Know Where a Garden Grows"; cello solo by Genevieve Tuberville, Weiss' "Vorsage Nicht"; piano solos by Marie Holliday, Chopin's "Etude, Op. 25, No. 2," Chopin's "Etude, Op. 25, No. 9," Chopin's "Etude, Op. 10, No. 12"; soprano solos by Winifred Castleman, Ronald's "Sylvan" and "A Birthday," by Woodman; piano solos by Genevieve Tuberville, Powell's "Banjo Picker" and Jonas' "Toccata"; violin solo by Anne Long, de Beriot's "Concerto No. VII, in G"; soprano solo by Minnie Peebles Johnson, Rimsky-Korsakow's "Song of India"; piano solo by Alice Wahler, Chopin's "Fantasie Impromptu"; string quartet by Mary McConaughy (violin), Alice Lyman (violin), Anne Long (viola) and Genevieve Luberville (cello); Aubert-Pochon's "Air" and Handel-Pochon's "Gavotte" and, lastly, Czechoslovak folk songs by the choral class, "Song of Bohemia," arranged by Deems Taylor, and "Wake Thee, Now, Dearest," also arranged by Taylor.

SUMMER SCHOOL PLANNED

Arrangements Made For Annual Montevallo Session

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 28.—(Special.)—The summer school bulletin for Alabama college has just come from the press. The first term will begin June 10. The courses of study are designed especially for high school graduates who desire pre-normal certificates, for teachers to secure or extend pre-normal or graduate certificates or any other type of Alabama certificate, students who desire high school or college credits, and high school teachers who desire special work in public school music, home economics, art and expression; piano teachers who desire to renew their state certificates.

Special attractions in music work will be that rendered by Walter Spry, of the Columbia School of Music of Chicago. Teachers who are working to secure state certificates may continue that work under Mr. Spry. Among the members of the faculty there appear many distinguished educators.

ERSKINE RAMSEY DORMITORY HALL TO BE COMMENCED

Cornerstone of Magnificent Building at Woman's College To Be Laid March 9.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The corner stone of the Janet Erskine Ramsay Hall, a $100,000 fire-proof dormitory, said to surpass anything in the way of dormitory construction in the South, will be formally laid at 2:30 o'clock on the afternoon of March 9 with the ceremony in charge of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Alabama, according to an announcement here by Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Alabama College. R. H. Mangum of Selma will deliver an address on that occasion.

The ceremony will be under the direction of Grand Master Duncan C. Carmichael of Dothan, while all Grand Lodge officials have signified their intentions to be present. The Masonic lodges of the state have contributed liberally to the equipment fund and many of them will send representatives. In addition all educational institutions in the state have been invited to send a delegate and acceptances have been received from a large number.

The president of the college will entertain at a luncheon for the Grand Lodge officials and the board of trustees at 12:30 on the date of the dedication.

On the evening of March 9 the students will observe what is known as "College Night." This exercise is unique at Alabama college in that no other institution so far has ever been known to have anything like it, Dr. Palmer says. It was established six years ago upon the suggestion of Miss Mary G. Stallworth, professor of mathematics, and has been regularly observed since that date. The student body is divided into two groups, the Purple and the Gold. They compete with each other in original songs, stunts, impersonations, toasts, etc., and a prize is always awarded the winning side. Mr. Erskine Ramsay has agreed to award the prize this year. The occasion is said to be one that is looked forward to with great pleasure by the entire student body.

The dormitory was made possible through a gift of $100,000 by Mr. Erskine Ramsay of Birmingham and is named in honor of his mother. It is constructed on approved modern plans and is said to be one of the finest buildings of its type in the country.

Officers of the grand lodge of Masons who are expected to be present at the ceremony are as follows: Duncan C. Carmichael, grand master, Dothan; Oliver Day Street, Guntersville; James M. Pearson, Alexander City; Robert F. Lovelady, Birmingham; John Wilson Terry, Montgomery; George A. Beauchamp, Montgomery; Oscar M. Murphy, Dothan; George Fleming Moore, Montgomery; Joseph Dixon Matlock, Ensley; Tully A. Goodwin, Florida; Lawrence E. Gellerstedt, Troy; James F. Carle, Birmingham; James W. Penn, Gadsden; Charles J. Walker, Hartselle.

In addition to the grand lodge officials, many visitors from other organizations in various parts of the state will be in attendance.

The members of the board of trustees of the college who are expected to be present are as follows:

Governor W. W. Brandon, ex-officio, Montgomery; John W. Abercrombie, ex-officio, Montgomery; William H. Taylor, state-at-large, Uniontown; L. Sevier, state-at-large, Birmingham; William J. Dancy, first district, Butler; W. T. Sheehan, second district, Montgomery; L. M. Moseley, third district, Union Springs; James B. Ellis, fourth district, Selma; Malcolm A. Graham, fifth district, Prattville; Robert B. Evans, sixth district, Birmingham; Alto V. Lee, seventh district, Gadsden; Virgil Bouldin, eighth district, Montgomery; Moses V. Joseph, ninth district, Birmingham; Mrs. W. D. Peebles, tenth district, Aliceville.

62 Montevallo Summer School Session Scheduled To Have Opening June 10

MONTEVALLO, Feb. 28.—The summer school bulletin for Alabama college has just been issued and the first term will begin June 10.

The courses of study are designed especially for high school graduates who desire pre-normal certificates, for teachers to secure or extend pre-normal or grade certificates or any other type of Alabama certificate, students who desire high school or college credits, and high school teachers who desire special work in public school music, home economics, art and expression; piano teachers who desire to renew their state certificates. Special attractions in music work will be that rendered by Walter Spry, of the Columbia School of Music of Chicago. Teachers who are working to secure state certificates may continue that work under Mr. Spry.

Home economics will be under the direction of Miss Annie E. Sale, New York, who has served eight years in the public schools of Georgia, two years in the State Normal school of Harrisburg, Va., three years in home demonstration work in Virginia, and two years at Mississippi State college at Columbia, and has been head of the department at Alabama college for two years.

Miss Annie E. Kemp, graduate of Peabody college, has served in the public school of Talladega, one year demonstration agent in Alabama, and six years in Alabama college.

Louisa J. Keys, graduate of home economics department, University of Illinois, D. Huger Bacot, B. S. and A. M. of the College of Charleston, A. M., Harvard university, Ph. D. Harvard, has served two years in the University of North Carolina, four years Temple university, Philadelphia, two years Simmons college, Boston, one year, Washington and Lee, two years in Alabama college. Hets a frequent contributor of various publications on Southern and Alabama history.

Miss Marie Lamar, first assistant in history, graduate Woman's college, one summer school graduate work at Columbia university; has been connected with high school work of the state for six years; two years Alabama college training school, and one year as first assistant in department of history.

Miss Vivian Monk, will direct the work in English for the summer. She is a graduate of Alabama college, class of 1916; A. B. University of Alabama; A. M. University of North Carolina, has done some work toward a Ph. D. at Columbia, has been a successful teacher for three years in high school work in this state and three years in teaching English in Alabama college.

Miss Mary B. Lewis, first assistant in department of English. She has an A. B. degree from Wintrop college, S. C., A. M. Cornell; studied for six months in Europe; has served for two years in high school work and three years in Alabama college.

J. L. Appleton, graduate of University of Alabama, for three years has been principal of Montevallo High school and instructor for two years in Alabama college summer school, will be in charge of the department of mathematics; has served three years in the high schools of Illinois, one year in Ohio university, one year in Louisiana Polytechnic institute, ten years in Alabama college.

Miss Corinne Neely, graduate Alabama college and George Peabody college for teachers, has served for two years as itinerant teacher trainer in vocational work in Alabama. She will be in charge of special methods for teachers who are serving the vocational schools of this state.

In the department of education H. W. James, B. S. Kansas state teachers college, Ph. D. State University of Iowa has served five years in the high school work in Colorado, one year in Kansas State Teachers college, one year in the State University of Iowa, two years in Alabama college, is head of the department of education and director of the extension work.

M. L. Orr, B. S., University of Alabama, four years principal Clarke County High school; four years, principal of Escambia County High school; three years, director training school, Alabama college.

Miss Mary Peters, graduate Alabama college, wide experience in the elementary and high schools of Alabama; teacher in Shelby County High school, Columbiana, Ala. She will have charge of the demonstration school for the department of education.

Miss Myrtle Brooks, A. B. Peabody college, A. M. Columbia university, one year's graduate work University of Chicago, six months' special study, University of Tennessee; has served six years in public schools of Georgia, four years in high school work in Louisiana, fourteen years at Alabama college. She will have charge of the psychology and sociology in the summer school.

ENSLEY GIRL WINS DECLAMATION TILT

Katharine Allen Gets Scholarship In Montevallo Contest Nearing End

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 28.—Special.—The five-fold high school girl's contest was entering its last stage here Saturday. Only one of the five points was yet to be decided, physical culture, represented by the basket ball tournament.

Contests in music and declamation were ended Friday, a large number of girls competing.

First prize in the declamation contest was won by Katherine Allen, of Ensley, who was given a $60 scholarship to Alabama College. Second prize, a $40 scholarship, was won by Rosa Lee Sloan, of Oneonta.

In the music contests, first prize for piano playing went to Margaret Smith, of Cuba, Ala., a $50 scholarship to Alabama College. In voice, Minnie Peebles Johnston, of Montevallo, and Annie Laurie Burns, of Pine Hill, each won a $20 scholarship, the judges splitting the prize.

First prize, a $50 scholarship, in violin, was captured by Mary Harris, of Mobile, with the judges giving honorable mention to Mary McConaughy, of Montevallo.

MONTEVALLO QUIET AS CONTESTS END

Alabama College Entertains 250 In Third Annual High School Meet

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Feb. 28.—Special.—Alabama College seemed very quiet Saturday night after the departure of the 250 competitors, judges and visitors brought here by the college's third interhigh school meet for high school girls of Alabama.

The last basketball game was played Saturday afternoon, prizes having already been awarded in music, art, declamation and home economics (clothing).

One hundred and twenty-five schools enrolled in the basketball tournament, all but 20 being eliminated in local contests. Two teams from each congressional district came to Montevallo for the final elimination to determine the winner of the silver cup given by The Birmingham News.

In declamation, there were 14 schools represented with 28 contestants. Six were chosen for the finals. They were Lillian Curry, Montevallo; Catherine Allen, Ensley; Florence Boen, Gadsden; Inez Burns, Gadsden; Helen Albert, Ensley, and Rosalie Sloan, Oneonta. Catherine Allen was first prize winner and Rosalie Sloan second.

Fourteen students competed for the prize in piano, Margaret Smith, Cuba, Ala., winning from Juliette Hardy, Brewton, in the finals. Miss Mary Hammett, Mobile, defeated Mary McConaughy, Montevallo, in the finals for violin playing.

Fourteen schools were represented in home economics and eight in art, both exhibits being larger than heretofore.

The judges in the declamation contest were Miss Chenoweth, Selma; Miss Billie Miller and Prof. W. McK. Wright, Birmingham. The judges in music were Mrs. Kate G. Hagan, Mobile; Prof. Church, Athens College, and Miss Lily Byron Gill, Woman's College.

The school winning the first prize in home economics was the Montevallo High School at Montevallo, New Castle winning second.

The following students won prizes consisting of $5 in cash for the best individual entry; Mino Lee Boutwell, New Castle; Lessie Mae McConatha, Montevallo; Eula Vance, Cuba; Elwynne Smeggs, New Castle; Myrtis Wallace, Montevallo; Mary Radford, Montevallo; Ruby Payne, New Castle, and Ruth Nuell, Centreville. The second and third prize winners received honorable mention. They are as follows: Rebecca Smith, Cuba; Fay Wooley, Montevallo; Elizabeth Cox, Montevallo; Una Muriel Terry, New Castle; Cora Mae Fuller, New Castle; Claudia Slade, Montevallo; Ruth Nuell, Centreville; Gladys Stallings, Cuba; Eunice Lasseter, Enterprise; Mabel Cahon, Montevallo; Ida Kachelhofer, Bessemer; Emma Lou Sucuo, Centreville; Mino Lee Boutwell, New Castle; Edith Ward Dew, Montevallo; Mary Snider, Montevallo.

The judges of the home economics exhibit were Miss Josephine Eddy, Auburn; Miss Annie E. Sale, Montevallo, and Miss Alberta Ross, Montevallo.

Eight schools competed in art, Louie Compton Seminary of Birmingham taking first prize. Individuals winning prizes were Aldyth Crane, Louie Compton; Minnie Peebles Johnston, Montevallo; Wilson Bibb Folmar, Jr., Troy; Adrienne Myer, Phillips High, Birmingham; Mary Nell Lewis, Montevallo.

Judges of the art exhibit were Adelaide E. Mahan, Brierfield; Miss Mary E. McMillan, Montevallo.

Prize in the art cases was a handsome piece of Sophia Newcomb pottery donated by The Montgomery Advertiser. Prizes in music and declamation contests were scholarships to various departments of Alabama College.

All visitors brought here by the contests were entertained free by Alabama College in the d

DR. PALMER SPEAKS ON RELIGIOUS TRAINING

A good sized audience representing all the churches in town gathered at the Baptist church in Columbiana Sunday evening for the special service at which Dr. T. W. Palmer of Montevallo was the speaker. The service was a part of a statewide campaign that is being carried on by the Alabama Council of Religious Education against religious illiteracy in Alabama.

Following a short musical program under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Longshore, Dr. Palmer was introduced and his address provided one of the most practical and helpful that has been heard in Columbiana in a long time. Reading from the Bible of how Jesus as a child "increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man," Dr. Palmer took this passage as a basis for his remarks and made an earnest and very practical appeal to his hearers that more attention be given to the training of children into the fourfold life. He urged especially that in the home more attention should be given to religious training, showing that the training received in the home must of necessity serve as a foundation for all future training and achievement.

Dr. Palmer's long experience as an educator and as a leader in every effort that has been made in the state for more intensive religious training of our people fits him very well for the role in which he appeared Sunday evening and gave emphasis to his remarks.

64
SCHOOL BULLETIN OUT

Several Special Courses To Be Offered At Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 7.—(Special.)—Summer school bulletins for the summer session of 1925 have been mailed out to the teachers of the state. Already a great many applications have been received.

In addition to the regular courses offered in the summer school, there are a number of special features, which will be of great interest to all the women of the state. Among these special features, a short course for women covering a wide field of subjects, a special course for piano teachers, enabling them to qualify for state certificates to teach piano, special work in public school music for the grade teachers and a master class in piano under nationally known artist, Walter Spry, who is the associate director and master teacher of the Columbia School of Music of Chicago.

STUDENTS STAGE PLAY

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 9.—Special.—Child welfare was the subject for discussion at the morning assembly, by the class in sociology. A paper on the history of child labor was read by Miss Mary Bradshaw, of Beattice, Ala., after which members of the class gave a dramatization written by Miss Elizabeth Horsley, of Columbiana, Ala., and Miss Willie Lee Reeves, of Montevallo. A series of characters were represented by Misses Lilou Burns, Belle Ellen, Ala.; Lucile Bell, Ashland, Ala.; Marjorie Andrews, La Fayette, Ala.; Louise Purefoy, Talladega, Ala.; Marion Grant, Comer, Ala.; Frances Smith, Wilsonville, Ala.; Agnew Hardy, Newala, Ala.; Elizabeth Horsley, Columbiana, Ala.; Mary Sparks, Columbiana, Ala.; Willie Lee Reeves, Montevallo, Ala.; Mary Easterly, Haynesville, Ala.; Mary Armstrong, Columbia, Ala.; Hettie Henson, Abbeville, Ala.; Mary Dearmon, Ward, Ala. Ann-Herald

All-State Girl Cagers

Above are the girl basketeters who were given all-state honors by newspaper writers at the tournament staged at Alabama college, Montevallo, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday a week ago.

Reading from left to right: Top row—Addie Guthrie, Mortimer-Jordan, second all-state center; Kathryn Woodfin, Marion, second all-state forward; Eugenia Tate, Wetumpka, second all-state forward.

Second row—Chollie Hughes, Mortimer-Jordan, second all-state guard; Evelyn Armstrong, Sneads seminary, first all-state guard; Aileen Blackburn, Jones Mill, second all-state guard; Lula Mae Nettles, Atmore, second all-state center.

Front row—Buna Mae Sellers, Ramer, first all-state forward; Ruby Sharp, Ramer, first all-state center; Ruth Jones, captain of Jones Mill, first all-state forward; Letha Mae Jones, Jones Mill, first all-state center.

Olivia Jones, of Ramer, first all-state guard, was not in the picture, due to the fact that she was called away from the tourney and was not in the final struggle.

These girls represent the best prep basketball talent in the state, and their play in the state tourney was phenomenal. Some of the best exhibitions ever witnessed in Alabama were pulled off by these cagers in the meet.

The Jones trio, of the first all-state, stood out prominently, with Letha Mae Jones, side-center, of Jones Mill, probably rated the best player in the entire tournament. Her passwork was sensational, while her sister, Ruth Jones, shot in excellent form. Buna Mae Sellers, forward, and Ruby Sharp, center, both of Ramer, also were star performers in every respect.

MASONS OF STATE LAY CORNERSTONE AT MONTEVALLO

Erskine Ramsay Present
At Exercises For New
$100,000 Hall

MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 9.—(Special.)—The cornerstone of Janet Erskine Ramsay hall, a $100,000 dormitory, was laid here today with the grand lodge of Masons of Alabama in charge. R. H. Mangum of Selma delivered the address of the occasion.

A number of prominent guests were present for the occasion, including Gov. W. W. Brandon, President Guy E. Snively of Birmingham-Southern college; Miss Agnes Ellen Harris, dean of women at Auburn; Dr. John W. Abercrombie and others. Prominent Masons and members of the board of trustees also attended.

Erskine Ramsay, of Birmingham, whose gift of $100,000 made the new building possible, was present. He stated that the donation was made in honor of his mother, Mrs. Janet Erskine Ramsay, for whom the structure is named.

College night was held tonight, featured by the annual contest between the "purples" and the "gold." Mr. Ramsay awarded a piano to the winning side in the contest. The piano will be placed in the rest room of the main dormitory. The judges in the contest were Lloyd Josselyn, director of the Birmingham public library; Miss Mary Elmore, Montgomery public librarian, and Miss Frances Pickett, of Woman's college library.

PUPILS OBSERVE "COLLEGE NIGHT"

Celebration at Montevallo Climax to Ramsay Hall Cornerstone Laying

MONTEVALLO, March 10.—The student body of Montevallo College Monday evening celebrated college night with befitting ceremony and entertainment which came as a climax to the unveiling of the cornerstone to Jeanette Ramsay memorial hall.

The students were divided into two grounds, the purple and the gold and the entertainment was staged in the dining hall. Toasts to Erskine Ramsay philanthropist, songs, and impersonations were included in the entertainment, each group being pitted against the other. The toasts were offered by Misses Lula Hawkins and Mary Bradshaw.

The judges were Lloyd Josselyn, director of the Birmingham public library; Miss Frances Pickett, librarian of Woman's College and Miss Laura Elmore, director of the public library of Montgomery.

ALABAMA COLLEGE CHAPEL RENOVATED

Interior of Auditorium Painted Buff and Ivory and New Seats Installed

MONTEVALLO, March 12.—The public auditorium of Alabama College, popularly known as "The Chapel," has been completely renovated in the last three weeks. The interior has been painted a beautiful buff and ivory color.

This work was done by the assistance of the college orchestra, the home economics club, home economics department, dramatic club, glee club, and the entire college faculty. The hall is now heated by two large modern jacketed stoves that furnish an even temperature at all times of the year. The old desks have been removed, and comfortable, convenient and modern chairs have been supplied.

These last two improvements were paid for by the lecture fund, under the direction of Frank E. Marsh, Jr. It is said that Alabama College has presented this year more attractive entertainments, in the way of lectures, concerts, operas, etc., than have been given in any college or city in Alabama. Those who will attend future attractions will be glad to know that they will have seats that are in every way comfortable.

This pleasure they have not enjoyed heretofore. The only difficulty with this hall now is that it is not large enough to accommodate the present student body, much less any visitors from outside. The college is greatly in need of an auditorium that will seat at least three thousand people.

ALABAMA COLLEGE ENDS QUARTER QUIZ

Special To The Register
MONTEVALLO, Ala., March 21.—The examinations for the winter quarter at Alabama College have just ended. Most of the students are taking advantage of the two days' holidays—Friday and Saturday—for shopping or visiting their homes.

Among those who have finished their courses at the end of the winter quarter are Flossie Orr, Hartselle, A. B.; Carolyn Thrash, Stanton, A. B.; Willie Lee Reaves, Montevallo, A. B.; Mrs. Joanna LaRue Sharp, Montevallo, A. B.; Allene Slade, McIntosh, two-year home economics.

The spring quarter begins Monday, March 25. A large number of new students have already enrolled for this quarter. They are largely teachers who have finished short term schools in the state and are coming to Alabama College to raise their certificates.

According to Director O. C. Carmichael the summer school for 1925 bids fair to be the largest in the history of Alabama College. From all sections of the state and outside the state have come numerous applications and inquiries regarding the courses offered. He states that the courses this year are well suited to fill the needs of every type of public school teacher in Alabama. In addition to the regular education courses for the teachers of the grades and the high school, special courses in piano normal work, public school music, home economics, art, and physical education are provided for according to the director.

Widespread interest, he states, is being manifested in all sections of the state in the master class for pianists, which is to be conducted by Mr. Walter Spry, associate director and master teacher at the Columba School of Music in Chicago. He will conduct a five weeks' class and students may secure instruction from him at exactly the same rates they would pay if they took from him in Chicago; thus Alabama College is placing within the reach of piano teachers of Alabama the best instruction at the very minimum cost. Inquiries are coming in, not only from all over Alabama, but from Mississippi, South Carolina and other southern states.

The summer school begins June 10 and closes August 25. The first half ends July 21.

The college has made arrangements with the Southern Railway for reduced fares to and from the summer school. For full information communicate with O. C. Carmichael, director of summer school.

QUARTET MAKES HIT IN ALABAMA COLLEGE

Special To The Register
ALABAMA COLLEGE, MONTICELLO, Ala., March 17.—The famous Letz quartet of New York presented a most entertaining program in the Alabama College auditorium. This delightful string quartet is composed of Hane Letz, first violin; Edwin Bachmann of Buda-Pesth, second violin; William Schubert, viola; and Horace Britt, cello.

One of the several encores offered was the well-known "Humoresque," the selection of which so delighted the audience that everyone gave an impromptu clap as soon as the opening notes were recognized, surprising themselves as much as the artists playing.

Alabama College students are in the throes of examination days, from March 16-19, and are to rest up during spring holidays, which are to last from March 19-23.

COLLEGE EDUCATORS PREPARE FOR MEET

Delegates From Montevallo Making Ready For State Association in Mobile

MONTEVALLO, March 26.—Special to The Advertiser.—A large number of teachers from Shelby county are preparing to go to the Alabama Education association meeting, in Mobile, on April 2, 3, and 4. Among those elected to membership in the assembly of delegates are President T. W. Palmer, Miss Alice Boyd, of Alabama College; Miss Mary Peters, Miss Laura Winters, and W. L. Arnett, Columbiana. Many others also will attend. Miss Mae Andrus, director of public school music, Alabama college, is leaving March 27, to attend the national meeting of public school music supervisors at Kansas City. She takes an important part in the program of that meeting, and from there she will go to Mobile to attend the A. E. A.

She is president of the music department of the Alabama Education association.

Dr. H. W. James will probably appear upon the program as often as any other person. He will address the teacher training department on the subject of "A Job Analysis of Problems Confronting Teacher Training Institutions in Alabama," to the county superintendents at dinner Wednesday night on "Administrative Problems of the County Superintendent," the department of secondary education on the topic "Teaching Combinations Found in Alabama High Schools," and the county supervisors on the subject: "Comparative Conditions of our County Educational Systems." In addition to these addresses he is to give a discussion in the meeting of extension workers on the subject: "Credit for Extension Credit."

Miss Alice Boyd, of Alabama College, is vice-president of the association, and has done much effective work in securing a large enrollment from the various colleges in the state. M. L. Orr, supervisor of the training school at Alabama College, will take a prominent part in all secondary educational meetings.

ALABAMA COLLEGE ELECTS OFFICERS

Miss Helen Davis, Fort Davis, Named President of Student Government

MONTEVALLO, ALA., March 30.—Special to The Advertiser.—Officers for the different school activities at Alabama college were elected Saturday in accordance with the state laws of Alabama governing elections of college officers. The best spirit prevailed throughout, and the following officers were elected:

Helen Davis, Ft. Davis, president student government association; Mary Hill, Benton, vice president student government association; Hazel Black, Ashland, president student senate; Anne Long, Marion, president Y. W. C. A.; Ruth Little, Mobile, secretary

Y. W. C. A.; Laura Johnson, Bessemer, treasurer Y. W. C. A.; Annie Mae Skinner, Montgomery, editor in chief Technala; Joyce Jackson, Oxford, assistant editor Technala; Patty Cole, Opp, business manager Technala; Helen Veitch, Bessemer, assistant business manager Technala; Elma O'Neal, Gainesville, editor in chief Alabamian; Theresa Conaway, Montgomery, business manager Alabamian; Helen Townsend, Russellville, president athletic association.

TREMAINE INDIAN SCOUT POET ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Visitor Delights Audience of Girls at Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, March 31.—Special to The Advertiser.—Robert Tremaine, the Indian scout poet of Western Canada was a unique and most interesting speaker at the last meeting of the college Y. W. C. A. at Alabama College. His subject was the "Poetry of Life." He is a chautauqua platform speaker and merely stopped in Montevallo to see the college and some personal friends. While here he was induced to deliver an address. His father was a Canadian Indian agent and died ten days before he was born. His mother died during the first year of his life. He was adopted and cared for by the Chippewa Indians until nineteen years of age, when he entered the service of the Canadian government. Tremaine understands Indian language, customs and religion, as thoroughly as a native Indian. After the close of his formal lecture a large group of officers, teachers and students plied him with many questions to all of which he gave most interesting replies.

Tremaine is the author of several hundred poems, of Indian, Scotch and other dialects. Those specially enjoyed by the audience at Alabama College were: The Snow Girl, Campfire Dreams, Scar Face, I'm Heading Back For You, Ol' Pal; A Song of the Brook. Tales of the Frozen Trails, Daddy Mine, Mother, A Chieftain's Lament. The Last Furrow, At the End of the Way; Pale Face, I Would Call You Brother.

JOHNSON SPEAKS ON LEGION DRIVE

State Commander Addresses Montevallo Exchange Club on Project

MONTEVALLO, March 31.—Special to The Advertiser.—The Montevallo Exchange club and the Hendrick-Hudson Legion post held a joint meeting Monday night to create interest in Montevallo and Shelby county's quota for the American Legion post fund that is now being raised all over the country.

The honor guest for the occasion was J. Fred Johnson, of Florence, state president of the Exchange club, and state commander of the Alabama Legion. After some introductory remarks by President Charleton G. Smith, president of the Montevallo Exchange club, addresses were made by Dr. Caga Head, Legion post commander, Dr. Charles T. Acker, and others.

Mr. Johnson, the guest of honor, was then introduced and responded with a most eloquent statement concerning the work of the Exchange clubs and the Legion Posts of the nation. His address was humorous and instructive. He made a strong appeal to the two organizations to work together for the upbuilding of the community, the county, the state, and the nation. In his talk those present who were willing to contribute to the fund were asked to stand. Practically every one responded and it is believed that Montevallo will go over the top in a few hours after the campaign begins for the collection of funds for the quota of this town.

President Palmer, Director Frank E. Marsh, Jr., of the music department, Dr. H. W. James, of the education department; Miss Alice Boyd, vice-president of the A. E. A., and M. L. Orr, superintendent of the city schools of Montevallo, leave today as an advance guard from Montevallo to the educational meeting in Mobile. Others will go tomorrow.

68 MONTEVALLO NAMES HONOR STUDENTS

Pupils at College Made Good Grades During Winter Quarters

MONTEVALLO, ALA., April 1.—Special to The Advertiser.—The honor roll for the winter quarter of Alabama college has just been completed. All students who have a grade of A in one-half of their subjects and a grade of B in one-half of their subjects are placed on the first honor roll. Those who have an average grade of B are placed on the second honor roll. Of those whose names are on the first honor roll two of them, Miss Fay Turner of Mobile, and Miss Marh Vinson of Roanoke, have made A in every subject.

First honor roll: Robble Andrews, Florala; Minnie Barnes, Demopolis; Lucile Bell, Ashland; Mary Bradshaw, Beatrice; Estelle Broadway, Pike Road; Lillou Burns, Eufaula; Winifred Castleman, Greensboro; Mary Evelyn Clark, Red Level; Vivian Cobb, Montgomery; Patty Cole, Opp; Celia Cumbee, Stroud; Edith Delclamps, Mobile; Miriam Gregg, Demopolis; Adie Lee, Welsh; Alice Mahler, Loxley; Lila Mae Malone, Anniston; Lucy May, Montevallo; Katherine Morrison, Selma.

Katherine Orman, Demopolis; Agnes Hardy, Newala; Eloise Harmon, Grand Bay; Sara Head, Montevallo; Berta Mae Helms, Elba; Eleanor Hooper, Selma; Virginia Kockritz, Birmingham; Alice Quarles, Mobile; Willie Lee Reeves, Montevallo; Frances Rosenblum, Gadsden; Mrs. C. G. Sharp, Montevallo; Grace Speake, Dothan; Helen Townsend, Russellville; Genevieve Turberville, Century, Fla.; Fay Turner, Mobile; Mary Vinson, Roanoke; Emma Helen Williams, Mobile; Mary Hill, Benton.

Second honor roll: Helen Allison, Springville; Marjorie Andrews, Lafayette; Mary Armstrong, Columbia; Dohery Aycock, Selma; Ruby Benton, Opp; Grace Black, Ashland; Hazel Black, Ashland; Jennie Neil Branyon, Fayette; Louise Brooks, Sampson; Nell Browder, Center; Bertha Mae Brumbelow, Roanoke; Mary Louise Bryant, Ensley; Wanda Burks, Cullman; Laura Carmichael, Hollins; Aurora Catzano, Birmingham; Joy Cawthon, Florala; Margaret Coleman, Mobile; Dorothy Crabtree, Birmingham; Frances Crum, Steele; Pauline Curry, Montevallo; Helen Davis, Ft. Davis; Ethel Drake, Benton; Phyllis Earle, Birmingham; M-

ALABAMA COLLEGE KEEPS COAL LANDS

No Action on Proposed Sale Taken at Trustees' Meet Wednesday

No definite action was taken by the board of trustees of Alabama college, at a meeting held at the capitol Wednesday, to consider the proposition of the sale of certain coal lands belonging to the college. Negotiations with reference to the proposed sale, however, are still in progress, it was announced following the session, by Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Alabama college. Dr. Palmer said offer for the lands in question has been made to the board of trustees, but was not accepted, the board in turn making a counter proposition to the bidder who took it under consideration. The name of the bidder was not given out, the entire matter still being in the formative stage.

New Dormitory Under Way.

During the meeting President Palmer made a report on progress in the building of Janet Erskine Ramsay hall, the new dormitory. Work on the third and last floor is now under way, he stated, and the roof will be put on next week. The building, a three-story brick and concrete structure, is to be fireproof throughout, the only wood used being wooden frames, door frames and doors, also wood floors in the rooms, these floors being laid on concrete. Floors in the corridors are of concrete, to be overlaid with a special rubber covering. Accommodations for 125 students will be provided by the new dormitory, which it is expected will be completed by August 1, of the present year.

Resolution was adopted, directing the president of the college, and the executive committee to provide for an exhibit representing first year at the forthcoming Southern Exposition in New York, and immediately steps will be taken by Dr. Palmer to have this done.

Closing Exercises In June.

Commencement exercises at Alabama college will begin June 5, and continue through June 8. On May 1 and 2, the music department will give a music festival, to which invitations are soon to be issued. At commencement this year, 61 girls will receive degrees. This is the first year the college has had a regular senior class. Up to the present time, total of only 30 degrees have been issued by Alabama college. Indications are, Dr. Palmer said, that next year the graduates will number over one hundred. Rooms are now being assigned for the session of 1925-26. Members of the senior class next year will occupy the greater part of the new dormitory, the remaining space being assigned to members of the junior class.

Summer Plans Made.

Assignment of rooms for the summer school session has also begun. The enrollment in the summer school promises to be very large, it is stated. Special railroad rates have already been granted by the railroads of Alabama to summer school students, it is announced.

Dr. H. W. James, head of the department of education at Alabama college, was in Montgomery Wednesday, conferring with state department of education officials concerning teacher training courses which he has mapped out, and which met with the entire approval of the state department.

Those attending the meeting, in addition to Dr. Palmer, were: Governor W. W. Brandon, chairman; Dr. John W. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education; L. Seyler, Birmingham; W. T. Sheehan, Montgomery; M. L. Moseley, Union Springs; J. B. Ellis, Selma; R. B. Evans, Greensboro; Alto V. Lee, Gadsden; Judge Virgil Bouldin, Mrs. W. W. Peebles, Aliceville, and C. L. Maroney, Montevallo, secretary of the board of trustees.

NEW HOTEL AND "ROOSTER" AGREEMENT WITH MONTEVALLO STAND AFTER DERBY'S PARTY

—Photos by Hammonds' Studio of Meridian, Miss.

The old McConnell Hotel on the Dixie Highway, York, Ala., as it appeared Thursday, being made ready for Frank Derby's farewell party to Mayor J. H. Wallace, is shown in the upper picture. The lobby, hall and dining room were perfect in their finish and appointments. The effect in natural pine with hard oil finish created much comment. The hotel has been christened by Mr. Derby "The Mule Hide Inn" and will be completely made over and modernized. Below is pictured Frank I. Derby, of York, Ala., and his daughter, Miss Mary. Picture taken in the lobby of the rejuvenated "Mule Hide Inn" at York. Derby's visit home was one of the most expensive on record. Her father professed to raise the money for a new building on the Montevallo campus if the school authorities would let her off to come on the party. He will put the building at Montevallo as promised.

Bridge-BUILDER Gets Action As York Bids Mayor Godspeed

BY GARRARD HARRIS

Frank I. Derby, the man who built the "Rooster Bridge" across the river near York, put his town on the map again last Thursday. In fact, there were three things he did, any one of which was "first page stuff" as the newspaper men say.

First, he decided to give a party to his boyhood friend, Mayor J. H. Wallace, who is leaving York and going to West Palm Beach, Fla., as a general agent of the Protective Life Insurance Company of Birmingham. In order to see that Mayor Wallace had a proper send off, Derby pitched in to help give him an additional big record as a writer of insurance. The result was over $200,000 of new business in and around York in less than a week by Mr. Wallace.

Next, Frank Derby decided to give Wallace a party. They had been little shavers together, and friends always. There wasn't any place that exactly suited Derby's ideas, so he bought an old colonial hotel that has been vacant for about 10 years. He went out on his place and picked some very fine slash pine trees, had them cut down, smoke dried the lumber cut in a hurry, and the most beautiful pine flooring, paneling and other woodwork to be found in Alabama was in place in just three weeks from the time the first axe bit into those stately forest monarchs.

The hotel is being remodeled all over, repainted, modernized, finished in natural pine with hard oil finish, and is very beautiful. And the dining room and lobby of the "Mule Hide Inn" as Derby has christened the rejuvenated hostelry were perfect on Thursday night, April 2.

They might have been finished a month, so far as appearances indicated. Yet at 6 o'clock the place was all cluttered up with workmen. At 7:45 the banquet table, perfect in its appointments, and the beautiful dining room, were in use by the hundred guests. It was a most astounding example of efficiency and quick work.

The Most Expensive Visit On Record

Frank Derby is given to sudden impulses—and then carrying them through. That celebrated "Rooster Bridge" was the result of one of them—yet he had Woodrow Wilson, Clemenceau, Lloyd George, Marshal Poch, Marshal Joffre, Gen. Pershing and other notables buying roosters and donating them to be auctioned off to obtain funds with which to build a bridge down in Sumter county, Alabama!

Derby yet treasures the $10 check Woodrow Wilson gave for his rooster. It was never cashed. The rooster now is Woodrow Wilson finally brought to the bridge.

So, Mr. Derby wanted his child and young daughter, Miss Mary, to go and help Mrs. Derby. Derby's daughter then deeded Deaner there at preparations, and help entrance ph Carmichael guests. Miss Mary was over the collone. vallo, at school. He wrote that he had repeated Dean Carmichael to let her and all that said to Miss for the party. The deeds to that—but nothing thuse at all. In fact he had more steneral effect. think the occasion of the big boyately and mel- to interrupt her studieo wrestle with educationaly of course, disappointed here, Derby the language. Derby got the newshhe incarnation," said Derby. terminated to have hnd energy, "a of pep, direct all hazards. He ca my party and've got to have over the long dive to get up at that's flat. Even The dean of me over there bunch of roosters to her father whn 'em off and to Montevallo and Mary. Sorry—ut another bulkralse enough money doing, or wor you."

Only very n. Well, if you'll do lifluous, gently insinuated that, she can come," are wont. ul chuckle. he dean with a hope-

"Now, . . . It's a go. You her home. I'll se're traded with. Start ing."

And so Miss added just a lo Mary came home and ing her mother, to the party by help-young ladies—and helping the other Bettie Campbell, Miss Mary Hodges, Miss Miss Virginia, Miss Laura Campbell, Carrie Derby, May Allison and Mi-be nice to t—wait on the table, a lace's farewe guests at Mayor W party. And anybody knows Miss Mary knows that a new building for a two day visit wasn't a bit too big a price to pay for that visit. In fact it was very reasonable.

The debt is going to be paid, Frank Derby said he was going to do it and it is going to be done. Down in Sumter county if Frank Derby said he was going to make York the capital of the state of Alabama those folks would believe it implicitly, for he never has fallen down on making good on any promise he has ever made. Montevallo is as good as got that new building. It is going to be delivered.

And "The Mule Hide Inn" Also!

Derby don't believe in doing things half way. He got out most overwhelming engraved invitations to the farewell party he gave Mayor Wallace. But folks rubbed their eyes and looked again. "Requests the honor of your presence at a dinner to Mayor Wallace at Mule Hide Inn." That's exactly the way the invitations read.

"Mule Hide Inn! What a name!" exclaimed one charming York lady. "Can that be the old McConnell hotel? I have heard he bought?" It was just that. And being asked how on earth he gave his new property such a name he replied with a twinkle in his eye:

"That's a good name, isn't it? Friend of mine sells a roofing named 'Mule Hide' and I'm putting it on the hotel. It's sort of odd, as a name for a hotel, too, so I thought it would make folks remember it. So, Mule Hide Inn, it is, and Mule Hide it is going to stay named. It's right here on the Dixie highway. It is going to be the prettiest, most modern, most attractive inn in the whole South when I get through with it.

"I never owned a hotel before, but I had to buy the darned thing to give this party in and now I am sort of interested to see what I can do with it. Got a Birmingham landscaper to landscape around and about here. Putting in plenty of fireproof garages for cars belonging to tourists. Going to have lots of grass and flowers and shade and fried chicken and Brunswick stew and a 12-acre lake and 18-hole golf links—and—and everything." He waved his hand expressively and widely. "Now, I'm into it I am going to make Mule Hide Inn something for those tourists to talk about.

"Why shouldn't they come to York to rest and recuperate and absorb Brunswick stew and fried chicken and golf and so on? We've got a sight better climate than Southern Pines, N. C. and bigger and better pines and more of."

not, indeed?

00,000

ing

wife on birth the atin the herMonte-

to tell an dne home

said dn't enofficlerhe didn't

Miss it gravity and when Frank

Miss Carmichael

the collone.

vallo, at school. He wrote that he had repeated Dean Carmichael to let her and all that said to Miss for the party. The deeds to that—but nothing thuse at all. In fact he had more steneral effect. think the occasion of the big boyately and mel-

New Student Government Officers At Alabama College Installed

MONTEVALLO, ALA., April 14.—Special to The Advertiser.—The recently elected officers of the student government board were regularly installed in office on Monday evening, April 13, at Alabama College. The old student government board appeared in their new royal robes, lined with gold, and were seated on the front row on the platform. These robes were designed and made by the members of the home economics class. Miss Lillian Prout, Demopolis, president of the retiring board presided, and after a few introductory remarks, congratulating the new officers upon their election and appealing to the student body to give their loyal support during the coming year, presented Hazel Black, Ashland, with a purple and gold robe to receive from President Palmer the oath of office as president of the college senate for the coming year.

The senate is a new feature in the student government association and is composed of sixty members elected from the various classes of the college. Miss Black is the first president of this new body. Its object shall be to develop a proper college spirit among the students of the institution.

The next in order was the presentation of the two members of the student board from the in-coming sophomore class, by the retiring members of the old sophomore class. These two new members are Edith Delcham, Mobile, and Kate Derby, York, the retiring members surrendering their robes to the new members. The next was the presentation of the three new junior members, Carolyn Edwards, Enterprise, Mary Hill, Benton, and Ibbie Jones, Daleville, and next the four new senior members, Nina Fay Bonner Lineville, Allene LeCroy, Rockford, Mary Nette Loflin, Enterprise, and Mary E. Riley, Sylacauga, were invested with the robes of office and were duly administered the oath by President Palmer. Finally Lillian Prout introduced the new president, Helen Davis of Fort Davis, surrendering her own official robe to the incoming president.

After receiving the oath of office, Hazel Black, president of the senate, spoke in a very feeling manner to the student body. "The student senate is a new organization but it hopes to meet a need that is very old," said

Miss Black. "It is always hard to establish a precedent and we the ones you have elected to lead you, realize this fact. This inspires us to work all the harder so that in after years we will be very proud to be remembered that we were at Montevallo when the student senate began its efforts toward the advancement to the higher ideals for which any college should strive."

The concluding remarks of the exercises were made by Helen Davis, new president of the student government association. "It is with a feeling of deep appreciation and true humility that I assume the duties of president of the student government association of Alabama College," said Miss Davis. "I deem it an honor to be your leader. Such a position at any time in the history of the school would have been a privilege, but at this time it is an unusual one for are we not a year older in experience and should we not, therefore, be more capable of making the 'honor system' work? To fill the place of such an efficient leader as our retiring president makes the responsibility doubly great. She came in with the determination to strengthen student government. She has been untiring in her efforts and faithful to her trust."

ALABAMA COLLEGE TO HAVE EXHIBIT AT BIG EXPOSITION

Register
Date of Commencement Fixed for June 5-8 With 61 Students
Securing Degrees.

STATE CAPITAL BUREAU
THE MOBILE REGISTER
Montgomery, Ala., April 15.—The board of trustees of Alabama college, Montevallo, at a meeting here today authorized President T. W. Palmer to enter an exhibit from the college at the Southern Exposition, to be held in New York in May. President Palmer announced that the exhibit will include a display of work of the students in home economics, art, education, physical and health education, music and school publications.

The board also considered an offer of a Birmingham concern seeking to purchase certain coal lands belonging to the institution. The offer was not accepted, and a counter-proposition was made by the board, which is now under negotiation.

President Palmer reported on progress of construction of Janet Erskine Ramsey dormitory. The building will be ready to be delivered to the college August 1. It will be strictly modern and fireproof throughout and will accommodate 125 students.

Dates of commencement have been fixed at June 5-8, inclusive. President Palmer announced after the meeting. Sixty-one students will receive degrees.

The board of trustees will hold their annual meeting at noon of June 5.

On the evening of June 5 President and Mrs. Palmer will give a reception to Governor and Mrs. Brandon and the graduating class, this being considered the great social event of commencement.

The morning of June 6 will be alumni day with the meeting of alumni to be followed by class day exercises, and on the evening of that date a play will be presented by the Alabama Players, students of the dramatic department.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday, June 7, by Dr. Charles A. Stakely, pastor of the First Baptist church, Montgomery. Sunday evening there will be an address by Miss Kathleen Mallory, second secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist convention. Graduating exercises will be held Monday, June 8, when an address will be delivered by Dr. Theodore H. Jack, dean of the graduate department of Emory university, Atlanta, with presentation of diplomas by the president.

President Palmer also announced today that a grand music festival will be given by the music department of the college May 1-2.

STATE COLLEGE PLANS DISPLAY

Montevallo Board Approves Exhibit At Southern Show

City Herald
(State Capital Bureau)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 15.—The board of trustees of Alabama college, Montevallo, at a meeting here today authorized President T. W. Palmer to enter an exhibit from the college at the Southern Exposition, to be held in New York in May. President Palmer announced that the exhibit will include a display of work of the students in home economics, art, education, physical and health education, music and school publications.

The board also considered an offer of a Birmingham concern seeking to purchase certain coal lands belonging to the institution. The offer was not accepted, and a counter-proposition was made by the board, which now is under negotiation. It was announced that several months probably will elapse before any decision will be reached. Name of the concern making the offer and other details were not made public.

President Palmer reported on progress of construction of Janet Erskine Ramsey dormitory. Builders are now at work on the third floor and will begin with the roof next week. The building will be ready to be delivered to the college August 1. It will be strictly modern and fire-proof throughout and will accommodate 125 students. The first and second floors will be occupied by seniors, and the third floor by juniors.

Dates of commencement have been fixed at June 5-8, inclusive. President Palmer announced after the meeting.

TO GATHER FACTS

received 'negatives'

SCHOOLS, HEALTH, TO BE EMPHASIZED IN NEW YORK SHOW

Birmingham Educational Exhibit Underwritten For Exposition ap 18

MONTEVALLO ALSO IS ASSURED OF PLACE

Additional Space Is Taken By Many Cities And Corporations Of Alabama

BY W. J. BOLES

Education and health will be emphasized in the Alabama exhibit in the Southern Exposition to be held in Grand Central Palace, New York City,
May 11-23, according to plans now being made by the committee of which Theodore Swann is chairman.

Subscriptions of the Alabama Power Company and the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company made possible creditable exhibits by the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, and the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa.

Saturday a number of Birmingham individuals and corporations agreed to underwrite a sum sufficient to insure representation in the Alabama section of the exposition for the Alabama Woman's College of Montevallo and the public schools of Birmingham.

The University of Alabama will make an exhibit of Alabama minerals including iron ore, coal, limestone, marble, graphite, clay, and the numerous other minerals deposited in the state, while the Alabama Polytechnic Institute will send on an exhibit of farm and orchard products, soils and their analyses, charts and other matter explanatory of dairying and farm activities generally.

"The central thought of the Auburn exhibit will be that featuring the large number of agricultural products produced in this state and stress at the same time agricultural opportunities," L. T. Wells, who is getting up the Auburn exhibit, states. "A strenuous effort is being made to collect exhibits of as many products as possible which were grown on one farm. We are already assured of the cooperation of the farmers who have such products at hand, and we expect to obtain others during the next few days. It will be shown that agricultural opportunities in Alabama are second to no other state."

Miss Agnes Ellen Harris, dean of women and home demonstration agents, is chairman of the committee which is preparing the Auburn exhibit. Under her direction, home products, largely of the home demonstration women and girls, will be displayed in an effective way, it is stated by those in touch with the situation. The county home demonstration agents throughout the state have been requested to send in their products.

To Ship Early

The display of agricultural and home products will be assembled the latter part of this week or the early part of the next and shipped to New York to be ready for placing when called for.

In addition to the 500 square feet of space subscribed for by the Alabama Power Company for Auburn, the chamber of commerce of Montgomery took 200 additional square feet for that institution, thus giving it a total of 700 square feet.

With the assurance that provision would be made for the Birmingham public schools to make an exhibit at the Southern Exposition plans were started Saturday to get up an assort-

Continued on Page 2, First Column.

SCHOOLS, HEALTH, TO BE EMPHASIZED IN NEW YORK SHOW

Continued From Page 1.

ment of charts, records, data and other material which will convey to the visitors to the exposition something of the magnitude and efficiency of the Birmingham school system, which has been placed among the best in the country by leading educators who have made surveys in most of the important cities in the United States.

Three weeks only intervene between the present and the opening date of the Southern Exposition and Mr. Swann and other members of the Alabama committee say that all who expect to make exhibits there should get in touch with the committee at once. They say no time is to be lost if Birmingham and the state are to have representation at the exposition in keeping with their commercial, industrial, and agricultural importance.

Information from Sheffield is to the effect that the Muscle Shoals district will be well represented at the exposition. Charts showing Wilson dam, the power house, nitrate plant and other features of that district are being prepared, and these with a number of products of Sheffield, Tuscumbia and Florence will be placed in the Alabama section of the exposition.

Secretary-Manager Clifford of the Sheffield-Tuscumbia chamber of commerce is quoted as saying that minerals and woods of Franklin county, which adjoins Colbert on the south, will be included in the Muscle Shoals exhibit, a number of citizens of Russellville interesting themselves in this matter and promising to get up the specimens to be forwarded to New York.

Mobile, it is reported, will include fruits, vegetables, lumber and manufactured products in her display.

The committee representing the Birmingham Real Estate Board is working hard on the proposition to make the Birmingham exhibit representative of virtually everything made in Birmingham and the Birmingham district.
There are more than 1,600 different commercial articles mined or manufactured in the district and the organization that put over "Know Birmingham Week" with such signal success is determined to make the Birmingham exhibit at New York equally as successful if it is in their power to do so.

MONTEVALLO PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Daughters of Confederacy to Hold Exercises April 26 in New Chapel

MONTEVALLO, ALA., April 18.—At the last meeting of the Josiah Gorgas chapter of the U. D. C. it was decided to hold the memorial exercises on April 26 at the cemetery where the citizens of the town have recently erected a new chapel and made many other improvements on the grounds. The following program was arranged to be given at 2:30 o'clock Sunday, April 26:

Music, "How Firm a Foundation."

Prayer by Rev. G. E. Driskill.

Reading of the prize essay and presentation of the medal for this essay by E. H. Wills, professor of history,
Alabama College.

Music by male quartet, under directorship of Miss May Andrus.

Dedication of the cemetery chapel.

Prayer by Rev. P. H. Carmichael, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Presentation of chapel to town by C. G. Smith, president Montevallo Exchange club.

Reception of chapel, by Mayor R. A.
Reid.

Music, Dixie, by public school.

Benediction by Rev. J. R. Curry, pastor of Baptist church.

Mayor Head of the American Legion post, will be master of ceremonies and Charles Perryman will act as marshal for the day.

TRAVELER SPEAKS

Official of Student Volunteers Talks
To Montevallo Girls

MONTEVALLO, ALA., April 15.—
Special to The Advertiser.—E. W.
Lentz, Jr., traveling secretary to the Student Volunteer movement of America made two interesting addresses at Alabama college on Tuesday, April 14.
Large audiences greeted him on both occasions and the students were enthusiastic in their reception of him.

Mr. Lentz is a graduate of Ursinus college and Central Theological Seminary. He was active in college as an athlete, being a member of the football team. He was a leader in student religious work, and was president of the Southern Ohio Volunteer council. He was a member of the editorial board of "Student Volunteer Bulletin." He is under appointment as missionary to Bagdad, but will spend one year in traveling in the United States for this cause before going to the foreign fields.

MRS. FAULKNER TO SPEAK

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 25.—(Special.)—Miss Minnie Sellers, president of the Alumnae association, announces that Mrs. Edwina Faulkner of the class of 1913, has accepted the invitation to deliver the alumnae address on June 6, 1925, at Alabama college. Mrs. Faulkner is now the assistant attorney general of Alabama. She is the first woman who has held such a prominent position.

LIFE SAVING TAUGHT AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

New Year Book Presents Much Improved Appearance.

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, April 25. Captain Yates, Red Cross representative, is spending four days at Alabama College, demonstrating the improvements in the different life-saving courses and also giving tests to those girls who are eligible for instructors' badges. Captain Yates has given several talks in the gym, and is giving instruction and practice work at the swimming-pool several hours each day. The swimming-pool has been undergoing repairs, and was only opened a week ago. During that period, many of those holding senior life-saving badges have practiced in order to qualify for the instructor's test. The instructor's badge entitles its owner to conduct courses in swimming, and to give various swimming and life-saving tests as prescribed by the Red Cross, such as the beginners; intermediate, junior life-saving and senior life-saving tests.

The Technola, as the Alabama College year book is called, is just out, finer than ever, and dedicated this year to Miss Anna Ervin, college dietitian and food director.

The book has been given the novel form this year, the various divisions being presented as the outlines of a fairy tale, with margin sketches and paraphrases of famous fairy tales at the beginning of each of the five sections. The index, or "order of tales," is thus: Tale one—The Campus; tale two—the classes; tale three—Organization; tale four—Athletics; tale five—Feature.

Under the head of feature comes the beauty section, and who's who. The beauty section consists of the following: True Marble, freshmen, as the Greek type; Dorothy Maltby, freshman, as the Egyptian type; Aileen Elzey, sophomore, as the type of Revolutionary days; Mary Bradshaw, senior, as the Puritan type; Rose Perry, freshman, as the Spanish type; and Elizabeth Graves, freshman, as the modern American type.

Under the heading of Who's Who, the Technola includes appropriate pictures of the following: most beautiful, Mary Bradshaw; most popular, Anne Jones; most representative, Lillian Prout; cutest, Kathleen Leath; neatest, Florence London; biggest eater, Alice Barganier; best dancer, Marion Hanna; biggest bluff, Agnes Hardy; best athlete, Gad Martin; smartest, most capable, most original, best actress, Hazel Black; Alice Mahler; most in love; most stylish, Helen Gray McNeil; biggest flirt, Nell Syus; wittiest, Sara Gangemiller; best cook, Jessie Hobbs Morrison; best musician, Mamie Holliday; friendliest, Lula Hawkins; perfect flapper, Mary Noble.

Then, each of the four classes has a section for photos of all its members, with separate snaps for its hikers, life-savers, and basketball teams. Each of the 23 organizations and clubs has its section for photos both formal and informal.

SISTERS BATTLE FOR NET TITLE

Gladys Martin Defeats Norine
In Montevallo Contest

MONTEVALLO, Ala., April 26. (Special)—One of the most thrilling tennis games ever witnessed at Alabama college was played by Gladys (alias Tade) Martin of the Senior class, and Norine (alias Tope) Martin, of the Sophomore class. These girls are sisters and hail from Enterprise. The contest among a large number of tennis players has been in progress for a week. "Tad" and "Tope" are distant leaders in all athletic games. One by one all the contestants were eliminated in the tournament and the two sisters were left for the final game. Great rivalry existed between the Seniors and Sophomores, each rooting for its respective representative. The fact that they were sisters added to the interest and general excitement. Such a contest has perhaps never been seen before in Alabama.

The game was fast and characterized by accurate returns. At the end of the first set the score stood six to four in "Tope's" favor. The second and third sets were won by "Tad", the score being 6 to 4 and 6 to 3.

MONTEVALLO OPENS FINE NEW CHAPEL

Dedication Held as Part of Memorial Day Exercises on Sunday Afternoon

MONTEVALLO, ALA., April 27.—Special to The Advertiser.—Memorial exercises were held for the first time at the cemetery on Sunday afternoon, April 26, the occasion being the dedication of the new chapel and its presentation to the city. For several years the United Daughters of the Confederacy have been working to improve the grounds and erect a chapel and at last their efforts have been crowned with success.

To stimulate interest in southern history, Mrs. Palmer, president of the U. D. C., offered a prize of $5 in gold to be awarded to a pupil of the fifth and sixth grades for the best essay on General Lee. This prize Mrs. Palmer will give annually and it is to be known as the Palmer prize. Afterwards Dr. J. I. Reid offered a second prize of $2.50. When the papers were examined it was found that a girl of the sixth grade and a boy of the fifth grade tied for the first prize, whereupon the Brotherhood Sunday school class offered another prize, so that each of these students could have a first prize.

Miss Ernestine Robinson read the prize essay of the sixth grade. E. H. Wills, before awarding the prizes highly complimented the winners, stating that these papers were written in the true historic spirit. "The South," said Mr. Wills, "has produced in the past, in proportion to population, a large per cent of the great men of the country. It is a duty to study their lives, in order that we may continue to make such a record in the future." He then presented the prizes, the Palmer prize to Myra Horn of the sixth grade; the Brotherhood prize to Milton Orr of the fifth grade, and the second prize to Reba June Reid of the sixth grade.

The dedication address of C. G. Smith president of the Exchange club, was replete with lofty patriotic sentiments. He warmly eulogized the Confederate soldier and the boys of the world war. He paid a high compliment to the U. D. C., and especially Mrs. J. M. Reynolds, chairman of the committee that raised the funds for the chapel and other improvements at the cemetery. He then formally presented the chapel to the town through its mayor, R. A. Reid, who responded in a most graceful manner. Mrs. Reynolds was so overcome by the talks that were made that she called upon Mrs. Palmer to respond for her, who replied by telling of the great work done by Mrs. Reynolds and extended to her the thanks of the U. D. C., and of the town generally. She also warmly thanked the citizens for the hearty co-operation given, and especially to the building committee, consisting of J. R. Johnson, W. B. Reynolds, M. P. Jeter and Mayor R. A. Reid.

ALABAMA COLLEGE STUDENTS PRESENT PLAY IN FRENCH

Unique Program Presented at Chapel
Period by Girls

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 1.—Special to The Advertiser.—One of the most unique chapel programs of the year was given Thursday morning, April 30, when the French class presented "Barle Bleu," a three-act play. The scenery and costumes represented the age of Louis XIV. Although the play was given in French the actions of the players revealed to the audience the familiar story of "Blue Beard and His Seven Wives."

The cast included: Barbe Bleu, Mildred Gilchrist, Brantley; Marie, his wife, Caroline Edwards, Enterprise; La Comtesse, Aurora Catzazo, Birmingham; Anne, Sara Head, Montevallo; Charles, Louise Brooks, Samson; Louis, Caroline Hooper, Huntsville; Le Page, Norene Martin, Enterprise; Irene, Matilda Lykes, Birmingham; Adelaide, Helen Veitch, Bessemer; Ida, Robbie Andrews, Florala; Ghosts, members of freshman class.

Fitzgerald's "The Great Gatsby"

First Annual Event at Montevallo
Pronounced Complete Success

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 2.—Special to The Advertiser.—The first annual music festival of Alabama College Friday was ushered in with much enthusiasm. Groups of students and members of the faculty were busy the greater part of the day getting everything in readiness for the three public exercises. Friday night at 8 o'clock "The Wild Rose" an operetta by Rhys Herbert, was presented by the college glee club assisted by the college orchestra under the leadership of Frank E. Marsh, Jr., music director. Lucyle Hook, dramatic director and Polly Gibbs, pianist.

The cast of characters were: Rose McCloud, a popular young society belle; Winifred Castleman, Greensboro; Mary Forsythe, her secretary and friend; Anny Mae Skinner, Montgomery; Mrs. Fussy, her housekeeper, Madge Jacobs, Florala; Lady Grey, an eccentric playwright, Joy Caython, Florala; Misses Writemup and Putemdown, reporters; Helen Bishop, Guntersville and Mary Riley, Fulton; Dora, Lucille Clay, Fulton; Flora, Molly and Polly, debutantes; Genevieve Turberville, Century, Fla.; Sarah Binion, Evergreen; Helen Gray McNeill, Talladega; Miss Talkalot, Eleanor Hooper, Selma; Miss Doingood, a charity worker, Anne Jones, Lineville; Madame Feathertop, a milliner, Verna Brasher, Carbon Hill; Madame Sewseams, a dressmaker, Marie Turner, St. Stephens; Madame Smellsweet, a perfumer, Ethel Thompson, Bessemer and Bobbie, the buttons, Alice Mahler, Loxley; with a chorus of maids.

Every feature of the program was most artistically rendered and spoke well for the training that the participants have received. The costumes were pronounced by every one in the vast audience as being most beautiful.

They were all made by students of Mrs. T. W. Palmer Will Have Strong Support For Office—

Mrs. T. W. Palmer of Montevallo, who is one of the outstanding women of the Alabama Division, U. D. C., is being prominently spoken of to succeed Mrs. Charles S. McDowell as president.

Mrs. McDowell's term of office expired at the convention which will convene in Woodlawn on Tuesday, with the R. D. Jackson chapter hostess.

Mrs. Palmer is the wife of Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of the Alabama College for Women. She has been closely identified with the work of the U. D. C. division since its organization, having filled several of its high offices and has been chairman of many important committees.

There is a strong movement on foot in Montgomery in support of Mrs. Palmer for the office and local U. D. C. members state that there can be no candidate put forward who will be more deserving of the honor, or more capable of filling the high office. She is certain of loyal support of faithful workers, to help in a successful administration.

A disastrous fire, which destroyed her home at the time of the meeting in convention of the state division four years ago, called Mrs. Palmer back to Montevallo, and caused her to withdraw her name and prevented her nomination for president at that time.

A prominent member of the Sophie Bibb chapter announced Saturday that the nomination awaits Mrs. Palmer at the approaching convention, and that her friends think it probable that she will have no opposition for election to the office of president. Many strong local women will work for the nomination.

FAITHFUL NEGRO EMPLOYEE OF ALABAMA COLLEGE DIES

"Mammy Lou" Wynne Dead From Effects of Fall

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 2.—Special to The Advertiser.—"Mammy Lou" Wynne, 65, a faithful employee of the kitchen at Alabama college, since the establishment of the institution in 1896, died Friday, May 1. She had been ill only two weeks, having suffered from a fall. Friday morning in attempting to walk again she fell a second time and from this she never recovered. She will be buried on Sunday, May 3, funeral services to be conducted at the negro Methodist church, of which she was a life-long member. Many of the teachers and pupils of the college, will attend the funeral.

FESTIVAL USHERED IN

Miss Lucy May Appears As Montevallo Queen Of May

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 4.—(Special.)—The second performance of the May music festival was ushered in by the appearance, upon the court in front of the dormitory, of the May queen, Miss Lucy May of Montevallo, in her chariot of roses, attended by the president of the senate, heralds, flower girls, princesses and five hundred students. The queen was escorted to her throne, which was indeed a bower of roses, and duly crowned by the president, Miss Hazel Black, Ashland; Ala., of the college senate.

At each corner of the large court was Princess Mildred, of the house of Walker, with the senior class; Princess Hattie, of the house of Lyman, and the junior class; Princess Ibbie, of the house of Jones, and the sophomore class; Princess Elizabeth, of the house of Graves, and the freshman class. The heralds were Katherine Leath, Gadsden, Ala., and Gertrude Broadway, Selma; the pages were Norine Martin, Enterprise, and Mabelle Connor, Andalusia.

MISS MONK'S FATHER DIES

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 4.—(Special.)—Alabama college and Montevallo were grieved when a telegram from Miss Vivian Monk announced the death of her father, M. T. Monk, at her home in Cherokee, Ala. While he had been in feeble health for some time he was seriously ill only a few days. Miss Monk is head of the English department in the college.

CONCERT AT MONTEVALLO

New York Singers Assist Choral Society
In Putting On Musicals

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 4.—(Special.)—The Alabama College Choral society gave a concert in the college auditorium Saturday evening. The assisting artists were Mary Melissa Snyder, soprano; Rebecca D. Stoy, mezzo-contralto; Elizabeth Blair Chamberlain, pianist, all of the college musical faculty, and Jerome Swinford, of New York City.

The college choral society with Mr. Swinford, Miss Snyder and Miss Stoy also sang the "Prayer of the Children," by Humperdinck, and "Every Flower" from Madame Butterfly. Mr. Swinford was heard in two solo groups.

State College Girls Visit Court

may 7 - Age Herald
AN INTERESTING group of young women from the Woman's college at Montevallo is in Birmingham this week, assisting the officials of the juvenile court in giving mental tests to the children.

These girls are here under the supervision of Miss Katherine Vickery, the assistant psychologist of the college, and are Miss Nina McDuffy, of Gadsden; Miss Gladys ("Ted") Martin, of Empire; Miss Elizabeth Cogswell, of Pell City, and Miss Agnes Grimsby, of Atmore.

They arrived in the city Sunday afternoon, and are the guests of Mrs. John B. Reid, the efficient superintendent of the juvenile court.

The girls are all seniors at the Alabama college and two of them, Miss McDuffy and Miss Cogswell are student-instructors at the college. They are giving the Binet test, which is considered practically infallible, and the results are most interesting.

Most of the children tested by the visitors, according to Miss Vickery, are subnormal, and some are borderline cases. The children with the least intelligence, it is said, are least inclined to give trouble.

At times, it appears, the "brighter" they are, the more apt they are to get into mischief.

Miss Vickery said that the girls with her were all unusual students, and are well grounded in the study of psychology. Before being allowed to make these tests they are fully equipped to give a thorough examination of mental cases.

No attempt is made to do aught but make the Binet test, and when pathological tendencies are noted no classification is attempted. As Miss Vickery declared, the sole aim of the work is to ascertain the mental age of each case, which is, of course, of value to those who handle the children.

The juvenile court averages 75 children all the time. Of course these are transients, the court being a stop-off place until final decision is rendered as to what shall be done with them. Boys up to the age of 16 and girls to the age of 18 are admitted, and every care is given them.

Miss Vickery declared that the tests proved that the white boys rank the highest mentally among those examined out at the court. The average rating of the girls is low indeed. This, of course, is explained by the fact that parents will make every effort to keep the girls at home, and only the most incorrigible are sent to the court.

"We are not attempting anything new, and we are not vocationalist, nor anything of the kind. We simply test the children by the Binet standard, which for fifteen years has been recognized, and we are able to tell the exact mental age of each child after the test."

The young women will return to Montevallo today, after a highly successful trip here. They found one youngster, James Boyd, who was the "superior" type. The boy shows remarkable promise and it is hoped that he will be placed where he may develop.

Miss Vickery said that the Montevallo college gave each student of psychology the most thorough training, and when each girl is graduated she is a splendid psychologist.

Judging from the capable way the girls handled the children during the tests at the juvenile court this is easy to believe.

ALABAMA U. D. C. ELECTS OFFICERS

may 7 - Age Herald
Mrs. T. W. Palmer, Montevallo, New President; Eufaula Gets '26 Meeting

Mrs. T. W. Palmer of Montevallo, Ala., was elected president of the Alabama United Daughters of the Confederacy at the last meeting of the annual convention Friday at the Woodlawn Methodist Church.

The 1926 convention of the association will be at Eufaula, Ala., beginning the first Monday in May.

Mrs. R. B. Broyles, of Birmingham, was elected first vice president; Mrs. J. Q. Adams, of Ozark, second vice president; Mrs. C. B. Hamilton, Greenville, recording secretary; Mrs. J. M. Burke, Opelika, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. W. Daugette, Jacksonville, treasurer; Mrs. E. L. Huey, Bessemer, historian; Mrs. H. L. Halsey, Tusculumbia, state registrar; Mrs. W. C. Miles, Oneonta, recorder of crosses; Mrs. Augusta Mertins, Montgomery, director Children of the Confederacy, and Mrs. C. R. Maxwell, Tusculumbia, chaplain.

MRS. T. W. PALMER NEW U. D. C. HEAD

Age Herald - may 9/26
Montevallo Woman Made President In Closing Session Here

Mrs. T. W. Palmer of Montevallo, Friday was elected president of the Alabama U. D. C., and it was voted to hold the next annual convention in Eufaula.

Other officers elected Friday were: Vice president, Mrs. R. B. Broyles of Woodlawn; second vice president, Mrs. J. Q. Adams; recording secretary, Mrs. C. E. Hamilton of Greenville; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. M. Burke of Opelika; treasurer, Mrs. T. W. Daugette of Jacksonville; historian, Mrs. E. L. Huey of Bessemer; recorder of crosses, Mrs. W. C. Miles of Oneonta; Children of the Confederacy, Mrs. Justice Mertins of Montgomery; chaplain, Mrs. Charles Maxwell of Tuscaloosa.

Officers who have served during the past year are Mrs. Electra Semmes Colston, Mobile, honorary life president; Mrs. Ellen Peter-Bryce, Tuscaloosa, honorary life president; Mrs. J. N. Thompson, Tusculumbia, honorary life president; Mrs. Charles S. McDowell, Jr., Eufaula, president; Mrs. Joe McClendon, Dadeville, first vice president; Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Ozark, second vice president; Mrs. Hugh Merrill, Anniston, recording secretary; Mrs. T. M. Brannon, Eufaula, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. W. Daugette, Jacksonville, treasurer; Mrs. E. L. Huey, Bessemer, historian; Mrs. H. L. Halsey, Tusculumbia, registrar; Mrs. R. B. Broyles, Woodlawn, recorder of crosses; Mrs. E. Louis Crew, Goodwater, director of C. of C.; Mrs. John A. Lusk, Gunterville, chaplain; Mrs. Roy W. McKinney, Paducah, Ky., honorary life member; Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler, New York, honorary life member.

The election Friday brought to a close a three-day session in Woodlawn, marked by lavish entertainment and brilliant social events.

MRS. T. W. PALMER ELECTED TO HEAD U. D. C. OF ALABAMA

Montevallo Woman Named President at Closing Session of State Convention in Birmingham

EUFULA IS CHOSEN FOR NEXT YEAR'S CONVENTION

Mrs. Gustave Mertins is Given Office; Reports Show Progress

mont. ad.
BIRMINGHAM, ALA., May 8. —Special to The Advertiser.

Mrs. Thomas W. Palmer, of Montevallo, is president of the Alabama Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, for the next year. Her election came at the close of the annual session which has been meeting at the Woodlawn Methodist church here for the last three days.

The next convention of the state U. D. C. will be held at Eufaula, the home of the retiring president, Mrs. Charles S. McDowell, who extended the invitation on behalf of her city. Invitations were also made by Huntsville, Dothan and Ensley, but Eufaula was an easy winner.

Other officers for the coming year are: Mrs. R. B. Broyles of Birmingham, president of the R. D. Jackson chapter, hostess at this year's convention, who was elected first vice-president; Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Ozark, second vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Hamilton, Greenville, recording secretary; Mrs. J. M. Burt, Opelika, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. W. Daugette, Jacksonville, treasurer; Mrs. E. L. Huey, Bessemer, historian; Mrs. W. C. Miles, Oneonta, secretary of crosses; Mrs. Gustave Mertins, Montgomery, director Children of the Confederacy, and Mrs. Charles Maxwell, Tuscaloosa, chaplain. All were new officers with the exception of Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Daugette and Mrs. Huey who were re-elected.

Mrs. Palmer, the new president, is the wife of the president of Alabama College. She has long been interested in U. D. C. work.

The 1926 meeting will open the first Monday in May.

The session closed Friday at noon with a luncheon given by the hostess chapter. A few reports from minor officers were made Friday and showed progress in the work of the organization.

Mrs. Palmer Given Fine Welcome at Montevallo—

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 12.—Mrs. T. W. Palmer, who was elected president of the Alabama Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in Birmingham last week, returned to Montevallo today, and was warmly welcomed by her many friends in town and college. As she entered the large college dining room the students and faculty rose to their feet and gave three cheers in her honor. Mrs. Palmer has long been an active member of the U. D. C.

She was a member of the R. E. Rhodes chapter of Tuscaloosa for about twenty years. When she moved to Montevallo in 1907 she took steps at once to have a chapter organized there. It was named the General Josiah Gorgas chapter, in honor of the great Confederate ordnance chieftan, whose headquarters were at Brierfield, Alabama. She has been president of this chapter, with the exception of one year, since its organization.

MRS. PALMER RESIGNS

Ovation Given New President of U. D. C.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 16.—Quite an ovation was given to Mrs. T. W. Palmer on Thursday by the General Josiah Gorgas chapter of the U. D. C. at its first meeting after her election as president of the Alabama division at Woodlawn, last week. Mrs. Palmer has been president of the local chapter for eighteen years. In tendering her resignation as president she warmly thanked the chapter for their kindnesses and courtesies to her. Her resignation was accepted and on motion she was unanimously elected honorary life president. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Miss Fannie McMath, president; Mrs. C. H. McHaffey, first vice president; Mrs. L. C. Horn, second vice president; Miss Bessie McCrary, recording secretary; Mrs. R. B. Dawson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. L. Meroney, treasurer; Mrs. F. W. Roger, historian; Mrs. J. W. Heatfield, registrar.

Mrs. J. F. Ford, of Hartford gave an interesting account of the work of her chapter. A vocal solo was beautifully rendered by Miss Frances Loftin, of Dothan, and a piano solo by Mrs. Charles H. Mahaffey, Jr., of Montevallo. The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Head and Mrs. Mahaffey. Ice cream and cake were served.

College Announces Course Of Artists

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 16.—Special.—Alabama College announces its annual artist and lecture course for 1925-26 as follows:

Oct. 31, 1925—Syud Hossain, the Orient's most brilliant and eloquent representative in America. Subject, "The Moslem World and Western Civilization."

Nov. 7, 1925—Kathryn Meisle, leading contralto, Chicago Civic Opera company.

Dec. 5, 1925—Mr. and Mrs. Michitaro Ongawa, presenting the drama, the music, the dance and the legends of the Far East.

Jan. 9, 1926—Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Pelletier and their Elizabethan players, presenting Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew."

Jan. 16, 1926—Renee Chemet, famous French violiniste.

Feb. 6, 1926—The Elshuco trio of New York.

Feb. 20, 1926—Edward T. DeVine, Ph. D., LL. D., of New York city, one of the foremost personalities in social work in America. Subject, "The Social Aim of Education."

March 1, 1926—Olga Samaroff, famous American pianist.

March 20, 1926—Felix Salmond, famous English cellist.

April 17, 1926—Edward Howard Griggs, L. H. D., LL. D., of New York city, one of the most popular and forcible lecturers on the American platform today. Subject, "Lights and Shadows of the Present Age."

CHANGE IN RULING AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 18.—From now on the method of rating the honor rolls for high school class students will be a little different, and a few more students can be included on the honor roll. Heretofore only those making no grade below A could get on the first honor roll; but now a student making an average of A is on the roll. In the same way anyone making an average of B, now, is on the second honor roll.

For the second quarter, the following girls made first honor roll: Robbie Andrews, Minnie Barnes, Lucille Bell, Mary Bradshaw, Estelle Broadway, Winifred Castleman, Mary Evelyn Clark, Vivian Cobb, Patty Cole, Celia Cumbee, Edith Delchamps, Miriam Gregg, Eloise Harmon, Addie Lee, Alice Mahler, Ina Mae Malone, Lucy May, Katherine Morrison, Katherine Ortman, Alice Quarles, Willie Lee Reaves, Frances Rosenbaum, Mrs. Shay, Grace Sparks, Helen Townsend, Genevieve Tuberville, Fay Turner, Mary Vinson and Emma Williams.

The following girls made second honor roll: Helen Allison, Marjorie Andrews, Mary Armstrong, Dorothy Aycock, Ruby Benton, Grace Black, Hazel Black, Jimmie Nell Branyon, Louise Brooks, Nell Browder, Bertha Mae Brumbeve, Mary Bryant, Wanda Burks, Lillian Burne, Laura Carmichael, Amora Catanzano, Joy Cawthon, Margaret Coleman, Dorothy Crabtree, Frances Crump, Pauline Curry, Helen Davis, Ethel Drake, Phyllis Earle, Miriam Ernest, Lauretta Fortner, Una Franklin, Gertrude Gaines, Helen George, Mildred Gilchrist, Lauryn Godbold, Martha Grantham, Margaret Grayson, Melba Griffin, Agnes Grimeley, Allene Lecroy, Frances Lofton, Florence London, Anne Long, Gladys Lumpkin, Gladys Martin, Margaret Neil, Bertha Northrey, Flossie Orr, Mildred Orr, Myrtle Plant, Sadie Pauncey, Susie Powers, Lillian Prout, Frances Plaffort, Evaline Singleton, Inez Ray, Collie Roan, Ernestine Robinson, Ethel Rogers, Ruby Sanders, Fannie Joe Scott, Frances Selden, Lucile Snelgrove, Gertrude Snyder, Mary Ellen Sjesks, Joyce Stayler, Lucy Stevens, Agnes Stewart, Verdie Mae Strickland, Katherine Thomas, Carrie B. Thraeton, Julia Tuberville, Margaret Springer, Salora Wheat, Dorothy Williams and Annie Laurie Woods.

ENROLLMENT GROWS

1,309 Take Training At Alabama College During Year

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 19.—(Special)—Proof sheets of the Alabama college catalogue show a gratifying increase in the number of college students in the last two years when the institution was first put on the full college basis. The enrollment of college students for 1923, 1924 and 1925 is as follows:

	1923	1924	1925
Regular session college students	355	562	660
Extension students, college grade	138	236	389
Summer school, college grade	143	252	260

To..... 636 1,050 1,309

In the training school, below college grade, there are this year 344 students, making a grand total of session of 1924-25 of 1,653 students. It will be noted that the increase in college students for the regular session in two years is 86 per cent and in the grand total 110 per cent, a larger percentage perhaps than than shown by any other college.

The advanced enrollment for the 1925 summer school is today 28 more than it was the day before summer school opened last year. It is three weeks yet before the summer term will begin.

CARMICHAEL IN DEMAND

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 22.—(Special)—Dean O. C. Carmichael, of Alabama college, has been much in demand for commencement addresses at high schools. He has spoken at Vernon, Piper, Centerville, and Dothan and next week will appear at Castleberry. Dr. James, of the education department, speaks at Green Pond on May 22.

"How are the graduating classes at the various schools?" was asked Dean Carmichael. "Larger than ever in the history of the schools and the classes of 1926 will in all probability be larger than they are now."

Students Of Alabama College Pay Tribute To Dr. Palmer, President

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 23.—"I have found it hard to catch a man. Oh, I mean a busy man for a birthday party," said Helen Davis of Fort Davis, president of the student government executive board of Alabama College. "Yesterday May 19, was the birthday of one who is highly respected, esteemed and loved by every student in this college. We wanted him for a party on that day. He was called away on important business, but we have him today, May 20, the nearest day on which we could catch him." She then paid tribute to the work of President Palmer, for the great service he has rendered in the cause of education, stating that probably more boys and girls, more men and women of today had come under his influence than that of any other man in Alabama. "Every student in the college wishes to be represented in this party," said Miss Davis. She then called on Mary Bradshaw of Beatrice, to speak for the seniors, who responded in language that was thrilling and poetic, voicing the opinion of her class of President Palmer, under whom they had served so pleasantly and profitably for four years. Genevieve Turberville of Century, Fla., was asked to tell in music for the junior class and she rendered with great artistic affect a beautiful cello solo. Miss Anne Jones, Lineville, in behalf of the sophomore class, sang an exquisite Indian love song. Miss Helen Veitch, Bessemer, for the freshman class, read two selections with piano accompaniment that were highly appreciated by the great audience. Hazel Black, Ashland, president of the college senate, in behalf of the juniors, spoke of the great vision President Palmer had always had for this college. Just then she was interrupted by the appearance of the great college chef, holding high an immense birthday cake, with 18 lighted candles, one for each year that he has served as president of Alabama College. "These lights," said Miss Black, "typify the greater educational lights that are being prepared for the future and the cake the excellent flavor that goes with all instruction that is given within these walls. What a happy idea it was for our president to have his birthday at this joyous season." President Palmer, evidently much embarrassed by this unexpected and whole-hearted expression of good will from the entire student body, replied by quoting from the well known saying of a girl of former days. "This is all so sudden I know not what to say." However in a moment he rallied and thanked the students for this party and for the many kind expressions. He was glad to be able to report that plans were now being considered to submit to the trustees for a great advance in all departments for next year. The new catalog showed there was a net enrollment of college students for 1924-25 of 1,309 and including the training school students, 1,650. However he did not boast of numbers. "That is the least and poorest feature for judging a college," said President Palmer. "The excellent work, fine spirit and high standards of excellence as set by the faculty and students are the points to be considered. In this respect Alabama College ranks first in the land." He called attention to the reference to the splendid time for a birthday. "May," he said in conclusion, "is the most beautiful month in the year. At what other time could one find such a scene as this? Look around at the flowers displayed here this evening. The girls in their fetching spring costumes, each contributing to the joy of every other. Fortunately is the one who selects a good time to be born. I have found the 19th of May the happiest day in the year. It has never been a rainy or a gloomy day during my life time but always a bright, sunshiny day, giving joy to all the world. I feel sorry for one who did not select this day. I compiled a register of students of the University of Alabama some years ago covering a period of 75 years. Only one other student had the good judgment to select the 19th of May. I have much for which to be thankful in my choice of a day." Afterwards Mrs. Palmer rose and said she wanted to know how many in the audience shared this wonderful day with the president, whereupon three students and one teacher arose. The three students were then asked to come forward, make a wish and blow out the candles. Miss Elizabeth Granberry of Dothan and Miss Mildred Gilchrist of Brantley, a cousin of Mrs. Palmer's blew out all the candles but one, while Miss Nan Nell Frederick of Opelika, blew out every one.

MISS ANNIE ROBERTSON RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

Former Montevallo Student to Go to Cincinnati University
MONTEVALLO, May 26.—Announcement has just been made that Miss Annie Laurie Robertson, now teaching at Ramer, Ala., who was a graduate of Alabama College in 1924, with the bachelor of arts degree, has been given appointment of the fifth year teaching scholarship at the University of Cincinnati and that she will begin her work in that institution in September. While teaching there she will pursue a course leading to the degree of master of arts. Miss Robertson made a high record at Alabama College and her friends are confident that she will maintain an equally high standard at the University of Cincinnati.

HOME ECONOMICS TEACHERS GATHER

Miss Ival Spafford is in Charge of Montevallo
Meeting

MONTEVALLO, ALA., May 27.—Special to The Advertiser.—The teachers of vocational home economics of Alabama assembled at Montevallo on Tuesday for a two weeks' conference and school of instruction. Miss Ival Spafford, state supervisor of home economics, is in charge and is assisted by Miss Corinne Neely, itinerant teacher trainer of Alabama college. Other members of the college faculty will appear on the program from time to time. Miss MacMillan, on Tuesday, gave a lecture on "Art as Related to Home Economics." Home projects, and Field Problems were ably handled by Miss Spafford.

On Wednesday Miss Ross and Miss Weimer discussed the general subject of art in relation to dress and household furnishings. "Every dress and every piece of furniture should bear the stamp of an artist," said Miss Ross. "It is not costly materials but those selected and arranged with artistic effect that give real pleasure in the home," said Miss Weimer.

Those attending the conference are Misses Janie Samford, Albertville; Lillian Cox, Hamilton; Lucretia Hope, Hamilton; Claudia Parker, Daviston; Katherine Forney, Montgomery; Elizabeth Dillard, Evergreen; Dorothy Schmidt, Marbury; Leacy Newell, Blue Springs; Craig Shelton, Millport; Lillie Burleson, Berry; Evelyn Lovelace, Tallassee; Lillian Bell, Blountsville; Kathleen Arnold, Lineville; Lillian Stewart-Jackson; Ruby Simpson, Sylacauga; Margaret Stowell, Cuba; Ruth Richardson, Athens; Elizabeth Gallard, Foley; Mary Owen Murfree, Ramer. Members of the present senior class, about twenty in number, who expect to teach in vocational schools, are also attending the conference.

SOPHOMORES WIN MONTEVALLO CUP

Trophy Awarded To Class For Highest Athletic Score

MONTEVALLO, Ala., May 31.—(Special)—At the opening of the session in September a beautiful loving cup was offered as a reward to the class that would make the highest score in athletics. The competition has been keen and spirited during the entire year. The highest score in basketball, swimming and tennis was made by the sophomore class. Helen Townsend of Russellville, in an appropriate and timely speech, congratulated the class upon their success and presented the cup to Anne Jones, Lineville, representative of the class. She graciously received the beautiful trophy and gave warning to the other students that the sophomore class would win it again. Under the rules a class must win in two successive years to retain the cup.

Conclave Of Writers Section Scheduled

MONTEVALLO, June 1.—Special.—The conclave of the writers section of the Federated Women's Clubs of Alabama will hold its meeting at Alabama College Aug. 31 to Sept. 9, inclusive. The first meeting was held in Montevallo in 1923. In 1924 the second session was held at Florence, Ala. The writers are therefore coming back to their regular Alabama home for the 1925 meeting. There will be representatives from every county in the state and much interest will no doubt be awakened among the writers of this commonwealth.

The Alabama College Library has recently formed a section of publications by Alabama writers. It is no doubt surprising to many to know how many books have been written in this state. The conclave of this year will no doubt add materially to that number.

PRESIDENT PALMER TALKS

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 2.—Special.—At the Saturday morning assembly President Palmer spoke of the Stone Mountain Memorial coins and urged all connected with the college to purchase one or more of them. A regular canvas will be made in the college and in the town for Montevallo to go over the top in its quota.

76 "Keep Faith" Motto Of Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 2.—Special.—"Keep Faith" has been chosen as Alabama College's motto.

The matter of selecting a motto in keeping with the ideals of the institution was brought up several weeks ago. Subsequently a large number were submitted. From them, three were chosen as the most suitable and a ballot taken upon the trio. It required two elections to select "Keep Faith" which was suggested by Miss Lillian Prout, of Demopolis.

ALABAMA'S ALUMNAE DAY.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 2.—According to a long established custom, Saturday preceding commencement Sunday, June 6 this year, will be observed by Alabama college as alumnae day. All former students are most cordially invited to come back for that day and also for the other commencement exercises.

At 9:30 on June 6 the annual business meeting will be held and at 11 a. m. an open meeting to which all are invited will be in the college auditorium. The chief feature of this meeting will be an address by Mrs. Edwina Falkner, a Montevallo graduate.

At 2 p. m. the annual banquet in honor of the seniors will be given in the college dining room. All faculty members and officers as well as the graduating class will be guests on this occasion. A special program is planned in addition to the formal welcoming of the seniors.

MRS. SHAWHAN TO HOLD PARLIAMENTARY DRILL

State Writer And Church Leader is On Institute Program.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 2.—Special to The Advertiser.—Mrs. Shawhan of Mobile, will be in charge of the drill in parliamentary law and usage at the club institute which will be held at Montevallo June 23 to July 3, under the auspices of the State Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Shawhan is well known in the state as a writer and a worker particularly among the religious organizations, as well. She is a member of the noted Tayloe family of Alabama, also of the Maupin family of Mississippi. She is also nationally known as an expert in parliamentary law. The club women will look forward with interest to this phase of the program.

MONTEVALLO GIRLS GO TO BLUE RIDGE MEET

Alabama College Receives Three Appointments For "Y" Course

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 2.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Hazel Black, Ashland, Miss Anne Long, Marion and Miss Helen Hagood, Evergreen, leave Tuesday for Blue Ridge, North Carolina, where they will take a 12 weeks course in Y. W. C. A. work. They have appointments covering the twelve weeks' course, Alabama College is the only other college that succeeded in getting three appointments, as there were several hundred applying for those positions. Others who will attend the course are Misses Laura Johnson, Goodwater, Alice Quarles, Mobile, Fannie Morton, Bessemer, Ruby Benton, Opp, and Louise Ward, Prattville.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Sol Bloch and Montevallo.

To the Editor of The Register:

The original meaning of Montevallo from the Italian language is, "valley surrounded by hills." Truly this is the modern meaning also when we consider that to one man, the hills surround all that was dearest to him, save his family.

On your entrance into the main building there looks down on you the face of this man, done in oil, life size, put there by the trustees of Alabama College and seeming to welcome you as a collaborer in his work, and you but look around you and see the fruits of his work.

It was his dream in early manhood that he could do nothing better for his state than to look to the establishing of an industrial school for girls, those coming mostly from the rural sections of the state where finances for education were limited. So while a member of the state legislature and senate, and in the year 1896, he put through those bodies a bill providing for the erection of such a college at Montevallo. He was elected its first trustee, and during the young life of the school, spent no little time, as well as much of his personal means, claiming no compensation or remuneration for his services.

The name of Colonel Sol Bloch will ever be associated with Montevallo College. During his twenty years as trustee of Alabama College, he was always present at commencements as well as the opening exercises in the fall. He gave yearly a banquet to the departing student bodies and another to those returning to his home county, Wilcox. He was so much wrapped up in his girls that his friends in greeting him always asked, "Well how is Montevallo?" He died almost with the words "Alabama College" on his lips, for only a few moments before death he remarked to those about him that he must get ready and go to a meeting of the board at Montevallo.

Mobile can do nothing grander or higher than to claim Colonel Bloch as her own. Mobile knew the man in him. She knew his innermost secrets and ideals.

The writer did not know Colonel Bloch, but knows of him and of his work at Alabama College. He is now in Mobile, trying to carry forward to greater heights the ideals of Colonel Bloch.

A. J. Paxton, Jr.,
Campaign Mgr. for Montevallo.
Mobile, Ala., Dec. 4, 1924.

ALABAMA COLLEGE TRUSTEES ADOPT PALMER'S REPORT

Option of $10,000 on Land Accepted; Legislature Will Be Asked to Increase Appropriation $50,000

NEED FOR NEW BUILDINGS STRESSED BY PRESIDENT

Reception to Governor and Mrs. Brandon and Graduating Class Held

By THOMAS HALL
Staff Correspondent.

MONTEVALLO, June 5.—

Adoption of the report of Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Alabama College, and acceptance of an option for $10,000 on 9,000 acres of land at $25 per acre, featured the meeting of the college board of trustees Friday afternoon which marked the opening of the 29th annual commencement. In adopting the report the board also agreed to ask the next legislature for an increase of $50,000 a year to the state's appropriation.

Dr. Palmer showed an increase of 86 per cent in enrollment at the college, in addition to the enlargement at the preparatory school. Dr. Palmer said the total enrollment for the term just closing was 1,678. The completion of Ramsey Hall will provide room for about 120 more in the regular session and a corresponding number in the summer school.

In the report a plea was made for more dormitories, as more students could enroll, if room could be provided. Dr. Palmer said that however great is the need for dormitories, the need for teaching and recreational facilities is greater.

Governor and Mrs. William W. Brandon and members of the graduating class were entertained tonight at a reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Palmer. The reception was given in the main building on the campus.

In submitting his report, Dr. Palmer requested that three wings of the main building be named in appreciation of former teachers at Alabama college. In the future they will carry the names of Mary Goode Stallworth, Anne Kennedy and Elizabeth Haley Moore.

Miss Stallworth, at present in Chicago, was elected a member of the faculty the second term of Alabama college. She is connected at present with the University of Chicago, but will return here next fall as head of the art department.

The late Miss Anne Kennedy was the first officer ever elected at this college, and devoted considerable time to the college.

Mrs. Elizabeth Haley Moore served this college a number of years. She is the wife of James Alex Moore, at present superintendent of education in Walker county.

The public auditorium was named in honor of the late Henry Clay Reynolds, who served as the first president of Alabama college. It was through his efforts that this college many years ago received 25,000 acres of land from the federal government, which now

ALABAMA COLLEGE TRUSTEES ADOPT PALMER'S REPORT

(Continued from Page One.)

Meets the college $21,000 annually. Only four members of the board were missing when the annual session was called to order by Dr. T. W. Palmer. The missing members were William H. Tayloe, Uniontown; Malcolm A. Graham, Prattville; Robert B. Evins, Greensboro, and Alto V. Lee, Gadsden. The other members of the board are: L. Sevier, Birmingham; William J. Dansby, Butler; William T. Sheehan, Montgomery; L. M. Mosley, Union Springs; James B. Ellis, Selma; Virgil Bouldin, Scottsboro; Moses V. Joseph, Birmingham; Mrs. W. B. Peebles, Aliceville; C. L. Meroney, E. S. Lyman, Governor William W. Brandon, president, ex-officio, and John W. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education.

GRADUATION OPENS AT MONTEVALLO

Annual Commencement Starts With Meeting Of Board Of Trustees

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 5.—Special.—The twenty-ninth annual commencement of Alabama College opened Friday afternoon with a meeting of the board of trustees.

For the first time in the history of the college there is an organized senior class, 59 young women receiving degrees and 45 two-year certificates.

The 1925 exercise mark the third commencement for students receiving degrees for four years' work.

President and Mrs. Z. W. Palmer's reception to Gov. and Mrs. Brandon and the senior class will be held Friday night.

Class day exercises of the Montevallo high school were held Friday morning. T. L. Head, assistant superintendent of education, Montgomery county, was the principal speaker. He compared every person's life to a path with straight or crooked marks indicating character. He stressed the need of a good foundation when building a life and told the class their work and life would be what each made it.

Diplomas were awarded 26 girls and five boys by Director M. L. Orr.

Saturday will be alumnae day to begin with a business meeting in the morning. On account of illness Mrs. Edwina Falkner, assistant attorney general of Alabama, will be unable to address the alumnae association. The banquet will be held in the college dining room at 2 o'clock.

The senior class will hold class day exercises Saturday afternoon.

The baccalaureate sermon Sunday will be preached by Rev. Charles A. Stakely, First Baptist Church, Montgomery, and the commencement address at the commencement exercises Monday will be delivered by Theodore Henley Jack, dean of graduate school, Emory University, Georgia.

Ramsay Hall Praised

The new Janet Erskine Ramsay hall as yet unfinished is eliciting much praise from visitors to the campus. According to Dean A. C. Carmichael. The building will be completed before the fall term and will accommodate 120 girls. Dr. Palmer in his annual report, pointed out further needs of the college and the board of trustees Friday recommended that the state increase its annual appropriation to the college.

Upon the recommendation of Dr. Palmer the same faculty for next year has been renamed.

A report of the Montevallo equipment fund made by Dean Carmichael showed that a total of $467,815.15 was obtained in cash and pledges. Of this amount, Jefferson county including the $100,000 gift of Erskine Ramsay pledged $207,413.79.

MRS. CORRY WILL HEAD ALUMNAE OF ALABAMA COLLEGE

Officers Named; Class Day Exercises Held; Sevier of Birmingham Named on Executive Committee

DR. STAKELY TO PREACH
BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Commencement Closes Monday
When Diplomas Will Be Awarded to Large Class

BY THOMAS HALL
Staff Correspondent

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 6.—Mrs. Mary Lou Reed Corry, Birmingham, was elected president of Alabama College alumnae at a meeting held here this morning. Mrs. Corry succeeds Miss Minnie Sellers, who has served for the past year. Mrs. Corry is a graduate of the class of 1915. Other officers elected were as follows, Mrs. Lucy Lenior Parnell, Maplesville, class of 1906, first vice-president; Mrs. T. E. Hubbard, Opp, second vice-president; Mrs. Gregory Spings, 1915, Ensley, secretary; Mrs. Eulette Parker Francis, 1911, treasurer and Miss Lucy May, 1925, Montevallo, historian.

Mrs. J. D. Garren, 1905, of Decatur, acted as president of the meeting, the alumnae president, Miss Sellers, being unable to attend. The regular routine work was carried on during the meeting. In the afternoon at two o'clock alumnae banquet was given in the college dining room.

Class day exercises were held in the college auditorium, with the class president, Agnes Hardy Newala presiding. At the conclusion of the exercises in the auditorium, the senior class with the audience, marched to the library, where the senior gift, a large hanging clock was presented to the college. The gift was accepted with a few remarks by the college librarian, Miss Fanny Tabor.

The following program was carried out at the class exercises:

College song, senior class; welcome address, Agnes Hardy, president; class prophecy, Mary Bradshaw; class history, Lula Hawkins; class poem, Winifred Castleman; class will, Frances Selden; presentation of senior memory book to junior class, Agnes Hardy; acceptance of memory book, Hattie Lyman, president senior class of 1926; senior class song, by Florence London, senior class; march to library; presentation of senior gift, Agnes Hardy and acceptance of gift, Miss Fanny Tabor, librarian.

Before a large and appreciative audience, the Alabama College players presented "Prunella" Saturday night on the campus of the college. The play closed the second day's events of the commencement exercises at the college. It was given under the direction of the players.

(Continued On Page Three)

MRS. CORRY WILL HEAD ALUMNAE OF ALABAMA COLLEGE

(Continued from Page One.)

tion of Miss Lucyle Hook who deserves considerable credit for the splendid manner in which the play was carried out.

The play was written by Laurence Housman and Granville Barker and was in three acts. The program follows:

Pierrot, Annie Jones; Scaramel, his servant, Marianna Thomas; Hawk, Louise Brooks; Kennel, Lillou Burns, Callow, Nina Dantzler, Mouth, Mildred Gilchrist, Doll, Frances Loftin, Romp, Lucille Clay, Tawdry, Lula Hawkins, Coquette, Katherine Leath, mummies; Prunella, Alice Mahler; Prim, Marjory Andrews, Prude, Loree Ingram, Privacy, Joy Cawthon, her aunts; Queer, Nell Burns and Quaint, Ruth Jones, their servants; First Gardner, Nina McDuffie; Second Gardner, Lucille Bell; Third Gardner, Gladys Huey Boy, Gladys Waldrop and Love, a statue, Hettie Hinson; Lenor, Lucille Clay.

Act I—The garden of the aunts of Prunella. Time: Near noon.

Act II—The same scene. That night.

Act III—The same scene. Three years have elapsed. Sunset.

Sevier on Committee

Appointment of L. Sevier of Birmingham as a member of the executive committee of the board of trustees, with the naming of James B. Ellis of Selma as chairman, were announced by Gov. W. W. Brandon today. Mr. Ellis succeeds W. T. Sheehan, who has served as chairman for the past year, while Mr. Sevier will serve his first year as a member of the executive board.

A new chairman is named every year. Robert B. Evins, attorney of Birmingham, is the third member of the board. Dr. Thomas W. Palmer is permanent secretary of the board.

Dr. Charles A. Stakely of the First Baptist church of Montgomery, and widely known throughout this state, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in the college auditorium at 11 o'clock. Although he has received a number of invitations to deliver the commencement sermon at the local college, the appearance of Dr. Stakely here Sunday will be the first time in the history of the local institution. Dr. Stakely arrived early today and announced his subject would be "The Supreme Law."

The following program has been arranged for the services Sunday morning:

Processional.
Hymn, "Stand up for Jesus."
Invocation.
"Cello Solo, "Ave Maria," Bach-Gounod, Miss Louise Glover.
Scripture reading.

Prayer.
Contralto Solo, "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own," Miss Rebecca D. Stoy.

Hymn, "Faith of our Fathers."
Sermon, Reverend Charles A. Stakely, D. D., L. L. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, Montgomery.

Hymn, "Jesus Calls Us, O'er the Tumult."
Doxology and Benediction.

One hundred and five girls compose the graduating class this year at the college, this being one of the largest classes in recent years. The senior class at the services Sunday will enter the auditorium led by Agnes Hardy, Newala, president of the class.

Previous to this year only thirty-one degrees had been granted. At the closing of commencement Monday morning fifty-nine degrees will be conferred. Of this number twenty-six will receive Bachelor of Arts; twenty-seven Bachelor of Science and six Bachelor of Music.

Vesper Services Announced.

Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock Y. W. C. A., Vesper services will be held in the assembly hall, this meeting being featured by an address by Miss Kathleen Mallory, corresponding secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union, Southern Baptist convention. Miss Mallory is well known in Alabama, and her appearance at the local exercises has been looked forward to with interest.

The following program will be carried out during the vesper services:

Hymn, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."
Prayer.

Song, "Follow the Gleam"
Address by Mrs. Kathleen Mallory "The 137 Psalm (A Sacred Cantata) Franz Liszt," the Senior class.

Miss Mary Melissa Snyder, soprano Miss Mildred Vause, violiniste, and Miss Katherine Van Deusen, pianiste

A small vase made by pupils of the department of Alabama college was given to Governor and Mrs. W. W. Brandon at the reception given the executive and wife by Dr. and Mrs. Palmer here Friday night. The vase was presented by Miss Katherine Neuweisinger, head of this department.

Governor Brandon expressed his appreciation of the gift, and said that after his inspection of the pottery department of this college, predicted a great future in this line of work for this college. The executive added laughter and applause to the crowd when he said, "This is the first time I have ever wanted to go back to clay."

The past year is the first time in several years the pottery department has been conducted, but was highly successful, according to Dr. T. W. Palmer. In the past year one hundred and five students took up this work and indications point to an increase next year. With an excellent grade of clay being found at Wilton, a mile south of this college, in addition to clay on the college campus, indications point to this department taking a leading part in the college work.

Approximately six hundred students have enrolled for the first six weeks summer school term, according to announcement made here this morning by Oliver C. Carmichael, dean of Alabama college. This number doubles that of last year's summer school pupils. The first summer school will get under way June 10th.

This number includes many of the pupils at the last term, in addition to pupils coming here from all parts of the south.

Dr. Palmer's Eighteenth Year As President.

Dr. Thomas Waverly Palmer, president of Alabama college has just completed his eighteenth year as president of this institution, according to announcement made here today. Dr. Palmer entered the local institution in the fall of 1907 and has remained as its president since that time. When Dr. Palmer took charge of this school, it was rated as a high school, but today it carries a college grade, and is rated as one of the finest institutions in the south.

Dr. Palmer received his prep school education at Furman, Alabama, and later entered Howard college at Marion, where he graduated. He later entered the University of Alabama, where he graduated and served this college as assistant professor and dean. Dr. Palmer has served as president of the Alabama State Sunday School association and held this office with the Alabama Educational association.

ALABAMA COLLEGE MUSIC HEAD QUILTS

Frank E. Marsh To Continue Studies In New York

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 6.—Special.—Frank E. Marsh, Jr., has tendered his resignation as director of the school of music of Alabama College, and with his resignation comes a great disappointment to the student body. Mr. Marsh has resigned in order to pursue his musical studies in New York next year, and to be able to be with his father there.

He has been affiliated with Alabama College as head of the school of music for several years, and has contributed much to the upbuilding of the college.

He will be greatly missed in the institution next year if his resignation is accepted by the authorities and the school will assuredly feel his loss most keenly. He has ever been an aggressive and progressive member of the faculty and has had the best interests of the college at heart.

The music school has grown rapidly and steadily under his direction and has taken its place as one of the best in the South. His plans for its future are ever developing and he has put more into the growth of the department than most of the people connected with the college have yet realized.

He has been chiefly instrumental in bringing here the best performance that have been here, and has sought to bring the best entertainments, performers and lecturers available.

He has directed a number of student performances, his operettas every year being one of the most eagerly looked forward to entertainments of the entire year. The things he puts on are always of the very highest standard, truly artistic, well directed, well staged and well received.

He has been loyal in assisting with other performances than those in which he has a direct musical interest, and has proved a constant friend to those who try to "do" things here.

Mr. Marsh will be sadly missed at Montevallo, but the entire student body wishes him the best of good fortune in his new locality, and his work, and wishes to assure him that they all realize and appreciate what he has meant to Alabama College. He has accomplished here what few anywhere have done, and the hearts of all are with him.

Miss Martin To Teach.
Gladys "Tad" Martin, a member of the graduating class at Alabama college, has been signed as a member of the faculty at Hayneville High school, according to announcement made here today. Miss Martin due to her athletic abilities has won recognition throughout Alabama, and for the past four years has been the mainstay of the local college in all branches of athletics.

Miss Martin hails from Enterprise, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin.

Two sisters fought for tennis supremacy at Montevallo this year, such an event being the first on record at the local institution. Gladys "Tad" and Norine "Tope" Martin met on the campus in court singles.

In the first set, the younger sister, "Tope," won. In the second and third sets "Tad" rallied and won, 6-4, 6-4. The two fought hard throughout, and it was only through the smashing plays of "Tad" that brought victories. By winning the two sets, Gladys Martin is the champion tennis player at Alabama college. The new champion is a member of the graduating class, while her sister has just completed her sophomore year.

Miss Irene Smith, Vincent, Alabama, will be among the graduates at Alabama college, having completed a two-year course, and has established one of the highest records at the college. Miss Smith is blind, but despite this handicap, has a record in this college that will probably stand for years to come.

In completing her work, Dr. T. W. Palmer, president, said Miss Smith had made a record that could hardly be approached, and was loud in her praise. Miss Smith carries on her writing with a typewriter, and is only aided with a person to act as her reader.

Miss Smith has been offered a position with the blind institute at Talladega, but has not accepted.

ALABAMA COLLEGE SENIORS ARE GIVEN DIPLOMAS MONDAY

Birmingham Benefactors Of The College Among Visitors At Close

BY EDNA KROMAN
Staff Correspondent The Birmingham News.
MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 8.—Special.—Announcement of the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Hanson, Erskine Ramsey, Mrs. C. J. Sharp and Frank Willis Barnett as guests of the college for commencement exercises Monday was greeted with applause from the student body in the college auditorium.

The guests were introduced by President Palmer who told of the scholarships given by Mr. and Mrs. Hanson and the gift of Mr. Ramsey. Mrs. Sharpe was the first speaker called upon by Dr. Palmer who pointed out that she is chairman of a trust fund institution.

recently started by friends of the institution. Mrs. Sharpe said that she spoke only as the chairman of the fund and that equal credit for it must be given Mrs. Maude Pruitt Bennett who gave the first $1,000, and to Mr. Morgan, of Shelby county, who is working for the fund. The money is to be loaned to the girls who have done two year's work if they find they are unable to complete without financial assistance.

The $500 yearly given to four students of Alabama College by Mr. Hanson is, Dr. Palmer stated, perhaps the greatest of all donations to the cause of education at the college.

Mr. Hanson said that he was delighted with the results of the scholarships given by The Birmingham News, and the record of the students receiving them. Out of 20 students attending colleges under The Birmingham News scholarships, 17 have made unusually fine records, Mr. Hanson said. He praised what Mr. Ramsey is doing for education, saying that the state needed more men willing to give back to it part of what it had given them.

Mrs. Hanson has also given a scholarship, Dr. Palmer said, known as the Wenona Hanson music scholarship, and the first graduate to obtain a degree under this is Miss Cary Love Jones, of Rockford, who received her diploma Monday.

Mrs. Hanson expressed her gratification at the beautiful reception given them and said it was a pleasure to indulge her interest in music to such a splendid end.

Ramsay Talks

The many nice things said about him Mr. Ramsay told the audience made him wonder if it were possible for him to live up to them.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure," he said, "to have been able to make the contribution and I am tremendously impressed on this, my first visit, with this beautiful institution and its beautiful girls."

After the commencement exercises Dr. Palmer took Mr. Ramsay and Mr. Hanson to inspect the Janet Erskine Ramsey Hall which Mr. Ramsey's contribution made possible. The hall will be completed for the fall term of school. Mr. Ramsay expressed his gratification at the building.

The address by Dr. Theodore Henley Jack, dean of graduate school of Emory College, urged the graduates to look upon their commencement as a beginning and not a finish.

Alumnae Banquet

The alumnae banquet at noon Saturday marked the welcome into the ranks of the alumnae of the seniors of 1925. Mrs. Mary Lou Corry, of Birmingham, newly elected president of the association presided and was the toastmaster.

Dr. Palmer made the address of welcome to the alumnae and Dean Carmichael spoke to the mon the value of an active alumnae association.

Unique was the presentation by the Alabama Players of the college dramatic society of "Prunella," the play by Laurence Housman and Granville Barker. The store was built outdoors, with two huge oak trees forming a natural setting for the scenes of the play. The porch, all that is left of the president's home which burnt down several years ago, had been transformed by the property man, Mr. W. N. Robinson, to resemble an entrance into the garden.

An innovation of commencement week was instituted by the 1925 graduates with the planting of ivy to climb the walls of the library building. The class marched from the assembly hall to the library building, singing an original song of loyalty to their alma mater, set to the tune of "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes." A stone tablet, with the words, "Class of 1925" carved thereon, was placed to mark the event.

STAKELY SPEAKS TO GRADUATES AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

"Supreme Law" is Theme of Montgomery Pastor in Baccalaureate Sermon at Monte-vallo Sunday Morning

MISS KATHLEEN MALLORY
MAKES VESPER ADDRESS

Dr. T. H. Jack Will Lecture at Final Commencement Exercises Monday Morning

By THOMAS HALL
Staff Correspondent

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 7.—Before an audience that taxed the seating capacity of the college auditorium, Dr. Charles A. Stakely, pastor of the First Baptist church of Montgomery, delivered the baccalaureate sermon for the Alabama College graduates here this morning. The students receiving degrees wore their academic caps and gowns, while those receiving certificates, were dressed in white, and entered the main auditorium promptly at 11 o'clock.

Dr. Stakely's subject was "The Supreme Law," and the speaker selected Luke, chapter 10, verse 27, "And he answering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and love thy neighbor as thyself."

"All the care that we put on ourselves, all the educational and disciplinary attention we pay ourselves, in equipping ourselves for the functions of life, is a tribute to the philosophy of religion," said Dr. Stakely at the start of the sermon. "And the same may be said of every effort of a state or of a church body, or of a private corporation, to provide educational facilities for the people. A state of course cannot administer religion, and should not, but in helping you and me by educational process, to appreciate and develop our faculties in order to be worthy and efficient citizens, it plays into the hands of the Supreme Law. That law under which morally we live and move and have our being. No church can ever put too much money into education. Ignorance is a curse and can help no good cause under heaven. All the best interests of the world are the best in the hands of intelligence. Education properly administered is the handmaid of religion and true science and true religion can never conflict."

Dr. Stakely's Address

Dr. Stakely's address follows:
"Just who it was that first took a verse from Deuteronomy and a verse from Leviticus and put them together to form this well known summary of the moral law of God cannot be determined. In one of the inter-Biblical books, the one entitled 'The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs,' it is suggested that it was already in existence by 106 B. C. In any event, the one that did it must rank among the great unknowns of history, for, whoever he was, by this one act he impressed his genius for good on all succeeding generations. He did his work with so consummate insights and skill that the Founder of the Christian religion took it up into His own teaching and, filling it with a larger meaning, made it a part of Christianity forever: 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.'"

"It is one of the merits of the great passage that while it carries on its face high and holy doctrines, it takes religion out of the category of the merely theoretical and makes it the most intensely practical thing in the world. After all, what are doctrines worth to us if they cannot be transmuted into character and life? Another of its merits is, that, knowing that we are affectional beings, it puts our obligations to the law in terms of affection, thus making it all most complimentary to ourselves and calling out from us the noblest that is in us. Not from the spirit of terror or fear are we to respond, nor from the sordid motives of policy, but from the divine principle of love. Where love is the directing, controlling principle, even law must be sweet. Its yoke is easy and its burden light. Such indeed is the Supreme Law. If faith is the appropriating principle of the Christian life and hope that faculty or impulse which projects it into the future and keeps its eyes on the glittering reward, love is its directing, controlling propelling passion."

"Let us note (1) our love Godward, 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind'; (2) our love selfward, 'As thyself'; and (3) our love neighborward, 'And thy neighbor as thyself.'"

Our Love Godward

Nowhere in the Bible is there any attempt to prove the existence of God. God is assumed. It is the fool that hath said in his heart, 'There is no God.' But if God is, He is our Creator, our Preserver, our Redeemer, all-holy all-wise, all-powerful all-good all-glorious; and having any claim whatever upon us, He has the right of way. In the nature of the case He can have no rival. If rivalry here were allowable idolatry would be right.

(Continued on Page Seven)

Dr. Charles A. Stakely Sermon To M

(Continued From Page One)

Probably we can grasp it better if we take the mind alone, or the heart alone, and then uniting the two, note that if God can get both, He can easily carry the rest of the life. O, the glory of the supreme devotion of the intellect of God! That was a spectacle which must have been felt in the presence of the angels of God, when Sir Isaac Newton, the scientist, or John Milton, the poet, representing human culture at its highest, brought his greatest intellect with all its wonderful achievements and laid it down at the feet of the Lord Christ. And the glory of the supreme devotion of the human heart to God. The world of the emotions, if not larger, is much more intense than the world of the intellect and carries much more of the life.

"If I were asked to name the Antichrist of this generation I would answer, materialism. And this materialism is showing itself conspicuously in three forms: such a worship of the spirit of the physical sciences that God Almighty is shut out of His own universe; such a prostration before the spirit of commercialism that all values are read in terms of dollars and cents, thus making wealth the criterion of success in life; and such a frenzied and slavish pursuit of sensuous pleasure that all spirituality is frozen out of the soul. The worst calamity that can befall us in life is to lose a sense of God. Against such a stifled and degraded existence the Supreme Law enveighs with all the force that God can give it."

Our Love Selfward

"It should not be regarded as remarkable that the Supreme Law directs attention to ourselves. There is a self-love which lies at the foundation of ethics. 'As thyself' assumes that in us the standard of morals is fixed before we pass on to our neighbor. The law calls on us to recognize, in all modesty to be sure, but still really and truly, the constitution of our own being and the faculties with which we have been endowed. All these are God-given, and no one of them is to be despised. We are to walk humbly before God and our fellowmen, and are constantly under the discipline of self-denial, but nowhere are we called to self-destruction or self mutilation or self neglect. It does sometimes happen that we are to make sacrifices, yea, we should be ready to make the great sacrifice if that should be necessary, but the value of sacrifice turns ever on the quality of the offering. We can do our best when we are at our best."

"Your mind and mine, your heart and mine, your life and mine, must be properly regarded, must be taken care of, must be educated, and disciplined and cultured, for the common purposes of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, the effective service of the world in which we live, and the noblest possible worship of the Lord our God."

Our Love Neighborward

"But what an anomalous religion ours would have been if it had been charged with no love but love for God and love for ourselves. It would have left us unrelated morally to the millions of our own kind who are round about us in the world and physically and psychologically a part of us in life. And so the Supreme Law advanced naturally to the third step: 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' All limitations that had been on the word 'neighbor' among the Jewish teachers and among the Greeks were entirely removed by Jesus Christ. In His immortal parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus made neighbor synonymous with mankind. By one sublime stroke He extended the cords of neighborly love to all the children of men. To use the motto of a well known woman's organization, He would have us to 'Girdle the world with friendliness.'"

"The founder of Christianity himself went about doing good, entering palaces and hovels to heal hearts and speak peace, showing no partiality and seeking no recompense in the distribution of his favors. On the US Over the Tumult; Doxology and benediction, Dr. Charles A. Stakely.

Miss Mallory Speaks

Young Women's Christian association vesper services were held here tonight in the assembly hall, and was largely attended. This meeting was featured with an interesting appreciative address by Miss Kathleen Mallory, corresponding secretary Woman's Missionary Union, Southern Baptist convention. Miss Mallory is a graduate of Goucher college in Baltimore, and is widely known in southern circles. Miss Mallory's subject was "Lightened to Lighten."

Taking as her text: "There shall be a Light to the Gentiles," the speaker invoked the young graduates of the college to be a light unto others and instructed them in some of the ways this could be done.

She told them of the necessity of possessing faith, hope and love and urged that they be so surcharged with the spirit of helpfulness that it might be said of them: They go about doing good. The five-word description of Christ, "He went about doing good," she spoke of as one of the masterpieces of the world.

Miss Mallory particularly pointed out that the graduates going into the world can help the educational system in their state, by aiding its attainment of a better trained teaching force, more reasonable school terms and more adequate physical equipment. Here, she took occasion to speak a tribute for the work of the late Miss Sarah Luther against illiteracy in Alabama.

Another way of being "a light," she told them, was by going as missionaries to the Chinese, who have no missionary workers among them. She described something of the Chinese setting which she has seen, and talked of the work of two Alabama missionaries, Miss Cynthia Miller, of Montgomery, and Miss Alice Huey, of Birmingham.

In concluding her talk, Miss Mallory pointed out that the words radiant, radium and radio have the identical root and interpreted the verse from the psalm: "They looked unto him and were radiant," to mean as radiant as light, as healing as radium, as far reaching as radio, urging that the graduates be all these things.

The vesper service included opening prayer and benediction, and music which included a sacred cantata, the 137th Psalm, by the senior class.

Visitors Present

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kennedy, of Centerville, were among those present at the baccalaureate sermon today, having made the visit here, to pay their respects and thanks to the college for having named a section of a building here, "Anne Kennedy." The late Anne Kennedy was the first faculty member of this college, and devoted considerable time and work to the college. She was a sister of J. P.

SUMMER TERM AT MONTEVALLO OPEN

Expectation Is For 350 Students As Registration Starts Wednesday

BY EDNA KROMAN

Summer school at Alabama College, Montevallo, opened Wednesday with the expectation that more than 350 students will have registered for the first term, from June 10 to July 21, before the day is over.

The constant increase in the number of students attending summer school at Alabama College is exceedingly gratifying to the faculty, Dean Oliver C. Carmichael, director of the summer school, said.

Every effort has been made to have the curriculum as complete as possible, according to the dean, and this term two courses of great interest are being offered.

Unique in many ways is a 10-day institute for club women to be held from June 23 to July 3.

"This course was suggested," Dean Carmichael said, "by Mrs. Belle Taylor, president of the state confederation, and has been worked out in line with the program of the confederation of clubs. Mrs. Catherine Hopkins Chapman, Alabama's well known author and club woman, in conjunction with Miss Myrtle Brooke of our faculty and myself, planned the outline, which is divided into four divisions—citizenship, fine arts, applied education and public welfare.

Course Is Innovation

"This course is a complete innovation in the subjects offered in any other Alabama college, and is designed to meet not only the needs of club-women, but of those busy women interested in club work, but whose other duties prevent their taking an active part. It offers an opportunity for the busy mother to acquaint herself with subjects of vital interest and at the same time enjoy a vacation from home duties at a comparatively small expense and in unusually congenial surroundings."

Dean Carmichael pointed out that this course offers mothers an opportunity to attend college and see for themselves the conditions under which their daughters go to school, and to hear the modern ideas and conditions with which their girls are acquainted. The mutual interests accruing between mother and daughter when they both study the same subjects, the dean believes, is sure to strengthen the bond of sympathy and understanding between them.

The speakers will include such well known authorities as W. B. Mitchell, vice president of the Alabama Power Company, on how the club women of Alabama can help Alabama conserve its resources; Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman, on the modern trend in poetry, fiction and art; Dean Carmichael on the customs of India; W. T. Warren, of Warren, Knight and Davis, architects, Birmingham, on landscape gardening; the contribution of the Smith-Hughes work in home economics to Alabama, by Miss Iva Spafford, supervisor home economics, state department of education, and the work of the juvenile court by Judge Murphy, of Birmingham.

The course will offer, in addition, lectures on club ethics and parliamentary drill. There will be both morning and afternoon sessions, with entertainments in the evenings. The work has been patterned on the work being done by the federation of clubs, and the subjects to be studied are citizenship, fine arts, applied education and public welfare.

Interest also centers around the master class in music to be given by Walter Spry, the distinguished American pianist and teacher, which is bringing within the reach of music students, it is said, a rare opportunity.

Frank E. Marsh, Jr., is director of the school. The master class under Mr. Spry begins June 17, it is announced.

Right: Miss Rose Wallace Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brittain Turner, recently elected the prettiest girl in the sophomore class of Tuscaloosa High School.

Below: Miss Hattie Lyman, junior princess, and her attendants, Misses Emma Louise Marriott, Mamye Kroell, Mary Nettie Loflin, Kathleen McCormick and May Lyman Wood, at the recent May Day exercises at Alabama College for Women at Montevallo.

—Yeager Photo.

Blount News, June 14, 1925

Right: Miss Mildred Walker, senior princess, and her attendants, Misses Elizabeth Horsley, Agnes Hardy, Mary Crossley and Carrie Love Jones, and Master Jack Innes, at the recent May Day exercises held at Alabama College for Women at Montevallo. The exercises produced many beautiful tableaux.

—Yeager Photo.

Below: Miss Hattie Lyman, junior princess, and her attendants, Misses Emma Louise Marriott, Mamye Kroell, Mary Nettie Loflin, Kathleen McCormick and May Lyman Wood, at the recent May Day exercises at Alabama College for Women at Montevallo.

—Yeager Photo.

82 TWO GIRLS SHOUING OUT ANNUAL OF GETTLDER WORK

To Miss Annie May Skinner, of Montgomery, Ala., (left), and Miss Patty Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cole, Opp, Ala., (right), fell the honor of being elected editor-in-chief and business manager, respectively, of the Alabama College annual, The Technala, by their class-mates. Both are clever members of the class of '26, and are expected to make the next publication of The Technala, which is an expression of the various activities of the college, the most complete yet attempted.

TIDWELL TO SPEAK AT MONTEVALLO

Club Institute Program at Alabama College Will Start on June 23

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 16.—The program of the Club Institute, given at Alabama College, under the auspices of the Alabama Federation of Women's clubs will begin June 23 and extend to July 3. The first meeting will be presided over by Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman, of Selma. The address of welcome will be delivered by Dean O. C. Carmichael, director of the summer school and response will be by Mrs. T. D. Park, Birmingham, president of the state federation of clubs. She will outline the general purpose of this institute. The main address of the occasion will be delivered by Dr. R. E. Tidwell of the State department of education on the need of an educational publicity campaign in Alabama—"Can We Help and How?" After Dr. Tidwell the general subject of music will be discussed by Miss Rebecca Stoy, professor of voice, Alabama College, after which President Palmer will present the members of the club institute to the summer school.

At the afternoon meeting Mrs. C. S. Shawhan, Mobile, will preside and conduct a parliamentary drill. Mrs. Shawhan has written an excellent book on parliamentary law. Her presentation of this subject will be most interesting to the club women. Mrs. L. J. Haley, Birmingham, Alabama, will address the meeting on the organization program "How to Spread the Club Idea." Interesting addresses will be made on successive days by Mrs. Shawhan, Mobile, Mrs. S. P. Hearn, Tuskegee, Miss Agnes Ellen Harris, Dean of Women, Auburn, Mrs. J. W. King, Birmingham, Mr. L. Orr, Alabama College, Miss Tullye Borden, Rural School Supervisor, Marshall county, member of Alabama College faculty for summer school, and Miss Mary E. Mac Millan. On June 25, the general subject for discussion will be the home.

This meeting will be presided over by Mrs. T. W. Palmer. The speakers will be Mrs. Shawhan, Mobile, W. T. Warren, of the firm, Warren, Knight and Davis, architects Birmingham, Miss Polly Gibbs, Alabama College, Miss Anne E. Sale, Alabama College. In the evening an artists concert will be given by Mr. Walter B. Spry, Chicago master musician teachers course of Alabama College for the summer school.

CARMICHAEL IS ELECTED HEAD MONTEVALLO CLUB

Succeeds C. G. Smith, Who Is Named To State Office.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 16.—Dean O. C. Carmichael of Alabama College, was today elected president of the Montevallo Exchange club, succeeding C. G. Smith who has served as president for three terms. The latter was recently elected to the office of Sentries at the state meeting of Associated Exchange clubs, in Tuscaloosa. J. C. Slone, cashier or the Merchant's and Planter's Bank of Montevallo, was elected vice-president. J. L. Appleton, principal of the Montevallo high school, secretary, and P. J. Kroell, a leading merchant of Montevallo, treasurer.

President Carmichael was called on for a speech. He responded briefly, outlining his policies for the club for

SPRY ARRIVES AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

Chicago Music Teacher Will Give Master Course at Summer School

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 16.—Walter Spry, master teacher and associate director of the Columbia School of Music in Chicago, has just arrived in Alabama. He is giving a five weeks' master class at Alabama College beginning June 17. His pupils are drawn from Alabama, Mississippi and other southern states and include some of the prominent musicians of the South.

The first assembly of the summer school students of Alabama College was held in the auditorium on Tuesday, June 16. O. C. Carmichael, director of the summer school, announced the largest enrollment in the history of Alabama College Summer school. More than four hundred and twenty-five enrolled by noon on Tuesday, which is an increase of ninety per cent over last year. A striking fact about the summer school students, according to Mr. Carmichael, is that there is a large number of advanced students. Many normal school graduates and former graduates of Alabama College under the two-year course, are enrolled pursuing work for their degrees. Each department is well organized and running on full schedule.

Alabama College faculty and summer school is looking forward to the opening of the club institute held at the request of the Alabama Federation of Women's clubs on June 23 to July 3. The opening date is next Tuesday.

Mrs. T. D. Parke, Birmingham, newly elected president at the state federation, will be present at the opening meeting and will preside over the chapel program which will be conducted on next Tuesday by the club women of the state.

The program of the club institute given at Alabama College by request of the Alabama Federation of Women's clubs, has just come from the press. Among the special features noted on this program for the first week, which begins Tuesday, June 23, is an address by Mrs. T. D. Parke, on the purpose of the club institute; parliamentary drill by Mrs. Narcissa T. Shawhan of Mobile, an address by Mrs. L. J. Haley of Birmingham, on "How to Spread the Club Idea." Other speakers on the first week's program are Dean Agnes Ellen Harris of Auburn, M. L. Orr, Alabama College; Miss Mary E. MacMillan, Miss Tullye Borden, Miss Annie E. Sale, and Dr. Sarah M. Ritter of the Alabama College Summer school faculty.

Of special interest to club women of the state is the address by Dr. Edward S. Sledge, Inge-Bondurant Sanatorium, Mobile, which will be given Friday, June 26. The subject of his address is "Some of the Pitfalls in Training Children, and How to Avoid Them."

ALABAMA COLLEGE GETS NEW TEACHER

Montevallo, Alabama, June 16, 1925. (Special) Alabama College announce the addition of Miss Marion H. Studley to the faculty as head of the English Department. Miss Studley is a woman of very superior training, having received her Ph. D. degree from the University of Michigan in 1923. She has been serving as Professor of English in Middlebury College, Middleton, Conn., for the past few years. She is a woman of excellent scholarship and comes most highly recommended both as a teacher and as a scholar. Alabama College feels particularly fortunate in being able to secure one so well prepared for the most important position—Head of the English Department.

next term. Vice-President Slone suggested opening up a play ground for the children of the town near the Big Springs, belonging to the college. Their remarks were enthusiastically received. There was every indication of a prosperous new year for the Montevallo Exchange club.

TYPING PIN AWARDED

Miss Lelah Brownfield, At Montevallo, Receives Distinction.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 18.—Special to The Advertiser.—The Underwood Typewriter company is offering this year a beautiful pin for excellence in typewriting. One of these pins has just been awarded to Miss Lelah Brownfield, Alabama college, because of her very superior service in teaching this work. It is an expert teacher's silver medal emblem, and is highly appreciated by Miss Brownfield and also by her friends at Alabama college.

Montevallo Summer School Sets Record

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 20.—Special.—The first assembly of summer school students of Alabama College was held in the auditorium Tuesday. O. C. Carmichael, director of the summer school, announced the largest enrollment in the history of the Alabama College summer school. More than 425 had enrolled at that time. This is an increase of almost 10 per cent over last year. According to Mr. Carmichael, there is an unusually large number of advanced students. Many normal school graduates and former graduates of Alabama College under the two-year course are doing work for their degrees.

64 APPLICATIONS FOR SCHOLARSHIPS ALREADY RECEIVED

University Of Alabama Leading; Montevallo Is Running Second In List

Sixty-four applications for The Birmingham News scholarships have been filed, the total being divided as follows: University of Alabama, 22.

Alabama College at Montevallo, 15. Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, 11. Birmingham-Southern College, Birmingham, 9. Howard College, East Lake, Birmingham, 7.

The time for filing applications for the 1925-1926 scholarships of The Birmingham News does not expire until midnight, July 14. Meanwhile requests for full details of procedure in filing applications indicate that at least 200 additional applications will be received before the time limit expires.

The following applications have been received so far:

University (22)—Russell J. Beason, Heflin; John C. Saunders, Camp Hill; David S. Satterwhite, Wedowee; Ernest E. Parker, Boaz; Harwell E. Coale, Jackson; M. C. Dunn, Jr., Repton; W. M. Curry, Daleville; Alice Strickland, Millport; Edgar Young, 1220 Jackson St., Albany; Billie Hollis, Lanett; M. Clemans, Hartselle; Anthony Mitchell, Haleyville; James Brown McLondon, Route 1, Pinson; Herman C. Braswell, Smyer, Ala.; Carl V. Synce, Florida; Dewey Bynum Moulton; Pete Weed, Arlton; Miss Lee Hubbard, Jasper; Gerald D. Walts, Route 2, Buffalo; Anthony Mitchell, Haleyville; Horace E. Stancil, Jasper; Josephine Harris, Plantersville.

Montevallo (15)—Ethel Hitchcock, Midway; Mary Martin, Greensboro; Jessie LeNoir, Butler; Louise Burnham, Lothan; Louise Hitchcock, Midway; Kate Slaughter, Buffalo; Alice Lowery, 1619 South Eleventh Street, Gadsden; Katie Belle Moore, Marion Junction; Elizabeth Stein, 1706½ Avenue G, Ensley; Elizabeth Ledbetter, 726 Luttrell Street, Oxford; Mary Frances Sowell, Brewton; Mildred Patton, Route 2, Adger; Rose Carter, Linden; Lorena Higgins, Five Points; E. V. Harney, Atmore.

Howard (7)—Fanny Sides, Florence; Earle Johnson, Tallassee; John R. Rushing, Dothan; Margie Hill, Sulligent; John Garrett, Albertville; John V. Dickinson, Jr., Uniontown; Clyde Dotson, East Florence.

Birmingham-Southern (9)—Thomas L. Hand, Wedowee; Louise Rowland, Ensley; David Hutto, Lincoln; W. F. Floyd, Jr., Lisman; V. Buren Taunton, Lanett; W. Hufford McKinney, Gurley, Ala.; Robert Worley, South Leighton Avenue, Anniston; Myrtle Whitson, 705 Cherry Avenue, Pratt City; Jack Wise, III, Bessemer.

Auburn (11)—Hugh M. Ashhurst, East Tallassee; Claude Thompson, 3410 Eleventh Avenue, Birmingham; Hattie Brown, Route 2, Roanoke; Charles Raymond de Arman, 904 Georgia Avenue, South, Birmingham; Howard Mullin, Auburn; Clarence D. Thomas, Blountsville; Walter Mills, 207 East Fifth Street, Montgomery; Elmer Horne, Clayton; Hobart Grace, Oakman; Walter Mills, 207 East Fifth Street, Montgomery; Edwin Bryan Ford, Gadsden.

The Birmingham News gives annually five free scholarships, one each to Auburn, the University, Montevallo, Howard and Birmingham-Southern.

Each of these scholarships provides all necessary expenses up to a maximum of $500 per year for four years. Under necessary expenses are included board and laundry, tuition and fees, books and supplies.

This is the fifth year of the plan. The first graduate was Alfred Lusk, of Jacksonville, who completed his course at Birmingham-Southern in three years and graduated last year. This month George R. Saxon, of Albertville, was graduated at Howard; Miss Ellen Bates, of Jasper, at Montevallo; Miss Georgia Thomas, of Cullman, at Auburn, and Reginald Thomas, of Birmingham, at the University. Mr. Thomas, who is a Phi Beta Kappa, got his master's degree this month, having been doing graduate work this year.

Continued on Page 2, First Column

64 APPLICATIONS FOR SCHOLARSHIPS ALREADY RECEIVED

Continued from Page 1.

The scholarships are open to graduates of accredited high schools in Alabama, who will be unable to attend college without outside aid.

The following is a full statement of the conditions under which the scholarships are awarded and how application should be made.

The plan of awarding the scholarships this year is much the same as it has been the past four years. The president of the college in each case will select the winner at his school by such method as he sees fit to adopt, and he will make the selection from the applications filed with the scholarship editor of The Birmingham News. Applicants and their friends are urged not to attempt to get in touch directly with the college presidents. Any effort to bring outside pressure to bear on the college presidents is likely to defeat the purpose of those who attempt it. It is the intention of The News as the donor of these scholarships, that merit alone shall govern the choice of the winners and that any influence the applicant may be able to bring to bear shall not affect the result. The News and the presidents of the colleges join in requesting the applicants to confine their efforts to collecting the strongest possible endorsements and recommendations and filing these with their applications. Personal letters to the college presidents will not influence the decision.

All applications must be filed with the scholarship editor of The Birmingham News not later than July 14. On July 15 all applications for each school will be turned over to the president of that school. The winners will be announced in The News not later than Aug. 15.

Who are eligible to apply for News scholarships?

Graduates of accredited Alabama high schools who have not previously attended college, and who are unable to go to college without outside help. Attendance on a college summer school will not be interpreted as having attended college, but any boy or girl who has been a regular matriculate at a college is not eligible to receive a News scholarship.

All five scholarships are open to girls and all except that to Montevallo are open to boys.

Application may be made to only one college.

Applications must be filed with the scholarship editor of The News not later than July 14. There are no application blanks to be filled out, but the required papers must be included in one package and must include the following:

1 A letter addressed to the scholarship editor of The News, stating applicant's name, address, age, the high school from which graduated, in what year graduated, the college to which application is being made, a clear statement of applicant's inability to go to college without help.

2 A statement from the family physician or other doctor that applicant's general health is good and that, barring the unforeseen, applicant should be able to do college work without impairment of health.

3 A detailed statement of high school record. This statement, to be complete, should contain the averages of high school work, but if such is not available readily, a statement from high school officials covering general average or general character of work, as well as any other pertinent details about the applicant's high school work will be deemed to have covered this requirement.

4 A letter of recommendation from the principal of high school that applicant attended. This letter should be a frank statement of applicant's scholarship, character, deportment, integrity, qualities of leadership and general fitness for college work, in so far as these points are known to the principal. Any facts the principal may know regarding the inability of the applicant to obtain a college education without outside help should be included also. This letter must be in a sealed envelope included with the other papers. It is desired that the principal be absolutely free, without embarrassment, to make a frank statement that will be of real assistance to the college president in determining his selection of the winner.

5 A letter of recommendation from the county or city superintendent of education, covering in a general way the point suggested above for the high school principal's letter. There is no reason why the same high school principal or city or county superintendent may not write letters for as many applicants as he desires, or conscientiously can.

6 Other letters of recommendation. There must be at least two of these, and they must cover the points outlined under No. 4 above, in so far as the person writing the letter can testify from his or her own personal knowledge. It is very important that these letters shall be convincing as to character of applicant, inability to get a college education without outside help and qualities of leadership in high school or in the community. The applicant may submit as many such letters of this kind as he or she thinks desirable. Only two are required, but others may be submitted if desired.

7 It is suggested to the applicant that all papers submitted be arranged neatly and clipped together compactly, filed all together in one package or envelope and sent to the scholarship editor of The News. The name and address of the applicant, with the name of the college to which application is being made, should be written plainly on the outside in the upper left-hand corner of the envelope or package in which the papers are mailed or delivered. This will enable the scholarship editor to list the application without being obliged to open the package or envelope. Lists of applicants will be printed from time to time in The News, and if your name has not been printed within 10 days after you have forwarded your application, it is suggested that you write the scholarship editor to learn whether the application has been received. While there is no benefit to be gained by filing your application early, it is suggested that it is better not to wait until too near the closing date, because your application may be delayed in the mails, or may be misplaced, leaving you little time in which to make sure that it has been properly received.

8 Make it clear to each person who has agreed to give you a letter that such a letter is not to be sent to the college or to The News, but is to be given to you to file with your other papers.

These requirements are simple and clear. They are intended for one purpose only; namely, to give the president of the college to which the application is made full data on each applicant so that he may make an intelligent choice of the winner at his college.

For any boy or girl to win one of these scholarships, the president of the college must be convinced beyond doubt that the applicant will not be able to go to college unless he or she obtains outside help from some source; that the applicant is sound in body and mind; that the applicant has made a good record both for scholarship and deportment in high school; that the applicant is fitted to undertake college work and derive the maximum benefit from college life.

When the applicant has the required papers in such shape as would be likely to convince the president of a college on these points, he or she should bundle them together in a compact package and bring, mail or send them to the scholarship editor of The News. Be sure to include all required papers in the one package, with name, address and college written plainly on the outside.

84 CLUBWOMEN MEET AT MONTEVALLO

First Institute Held In Town Becoming "Central" For Gatherings

BY FRANK WILLIS BARNETT
Staff Correspondent The Birmingham News

Montevallo is always opening its doors to some fraternal, religious or civic society. It is rapidly becoming "central" for the women activities of the state. The writer has for years been interested in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, attending quite a few of their state meetings as well as the local gatherings; but he had never registered at one of the club institutes in Alabama until this week for the simple reason that it was the first to be held in the state.

He has long since found out that if one wishes to keep up with the best thought of the day it is necessary to keep in touch with the federation, as it is made up of the best posted and most forward-looking women in the commonwealth. The day has gone when one can ignore the work being done by this organization which touches nearly every worthwhile activity in the state.

The writer knew that the program would be carefully prepared and well carried out, and while he wanted to hear the talks and addresses, he was yet more anxious to have the privilege of enjoying the society of the "elect women" of Alabama. Many pleasant groups formed after the exercises each day and night and the hours at table were always a feature, not merely on account of the tempting and palatable food and the way it was served by the students, but on account of the charm and sparkle of the table talk.

"The General Federation of Women's Clubs took up the work of the club institute a little more than three years ago," said Mrs. T. D. Parke. "Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, of California, who is honorary vice president of the general federation, prepared the first club institute outline. The institutes have been adopted in only a few of the states.

"Mississippi has had a most successful one this year. South Carolina has held a club institute at the State College for Women in Rock Hill for several years. The attendance at Rock Hill exceeds 200. The club institute bids fair to become a permanent institution.

"In a general way, I would say that the purpose of conducting a club institute is to enable our women to gain a more sympathetic understanding of the aims and ideals of our own state, a more accurate knowledge of its methods and system, a more enthusiastic acceptance of its laws and spirit, a more detailed study of its departments, divisions and committees, a realization of how much more efficient our efforts might be with knowledge and familiarity with purposes and the system of the federation. We feel that the club institutes are contributing much toward this enlarged consciousness."

The program of the club institute which is in session at Alabama College embraces four divisions of the state federation; applied education, better homes, health, and child welfare. Dr. R. E. Tidwell, assistant superintendent of education, took part in the first meeting Tuesday, June 23, and discussed the need of an educational publicity campaign in Alabama and how the club women can help in this campaign. Miss Agnes Ellen Harris, dean of women, Auburn, spoke on the following day on the contribution of the Smith-Lever work in home economics in Alabama.

Burford Hobdy, director of vocational bureau of the state department of education, spoke Monday, June 29, on the "Contribution of the Smith-Hughes Work in Home Economics in Alabama." Miss Tully Borden, rural school visor, Marshall county, discussed the problem of rural schools and the relation of the federated clubs to them, on the afternoon of June 24. These discussions have been alive and most interesting to the club women and to the members of the summer school stu-

Speakers Listed
The speakers were: Mrs. T. D. Parke, Birmingham; Mrs. L. J. Haley, Birmingham; Miss Annie E. Sale, Montevallo; Mrs. C. C. Adams, Birmingham; Mrs. Charles Henderson, Troy; Mrs. C. S. Shawn, Mobile, and Mrs. Katharine Hopkins Chapman, Selma.

It is impossible to even give paragraphs out of the many splendid addresses by the men as well as the women on the program as each one had a worth while message of his own; but the writer will be pardoned for singling out one feature in the talk of Dr. Frederick Losey, in which he held up for reprobation the way in which the church and the Sunday school was being invaded with so much doggerel set to jazz tunes. He was most effective in his exhortation of the growing evil, when it was possible on account of some of the modern tunes to "shimmy" down the aisles if one wished to be in perfect rhythm with the music.

Dr. T. W. Palmer who is taking an enforced rest, because as some one said, "his heart has been enlarged on account of its beating in sympathy with thousands of girls who have passed through Montevallo," asked the writer to give wide publicity to Dr. Losey's stricture on the growing degradation of church music in many of our Protestant churches. Dr. Palmer's friends will be glad to know that he is resting easy and suffering no discomfort save from having to undergo the rest cure when there are so many things needing attention; but Dean Carmichael and the rest of the faculty are looking after the situation so well that there is no need for the president to worry, and so he is just having a quiet time.

"The world do move" and this is the era of woman. Of all the charming and cultured women who were at the institute none was more noted or got greater pleasure out of it than did Mrs. W. D. Fluker, Mrs. W. D. Harmon, Mrs. R. Dena Sears and Mrs. Colin McDonald who came in an automobile from Grand Bay. Last Sunday they drove up and took in the "Magic City." It was a great outing for the quartet.

The first meeting of the board under the presidency of Mrs. T. D. Parke was held at Montevallo and Mrs. Charles Henderson was elected auditor.

Health On Program

The health program has included Miss Jessie Mariner, director of the bureau of child hygiene; Dr. Edward S. Sledge, of the Inge-Bondurant hospital, at Mobile, and Dr. S. W. Welch, chief of the state department of health, at the chapel period on Thursday, July 2, on the next step in the state program for children.

Miss Weaver, probation officer of Covington county, has been a guest of the college for several days and has spoken to the classes in education and sociology on her work.

Mrs. Shawhan, of Mobile, conducted during the first six days of the institute. Daily an organization program which dealt with some theme vital to club women was given. The leading club women of the state have led these discussions which have been participated in by members of the club institute.

Thursday, June 25, the program centered around the home. Mrs. T. W. Palmer, president of the local federated club, the Studiosis, presided. A paper on landscape gardening was read by W. H. Kessler. On the afternoon of June 25, Miss Sale, head of the department of home economics, Alabama College, discussed the uses of color in the home and led a round-table.

The music for the open meetings has been furnished by members of the music faculty of Alabama College, Miss Rebecca Stoy, acting director of music; Mrs. Guy Chamberlin, Miss Polly Gibbs assisted by students of the department. Walter S. Spry, master teacher of Columbia School of Music, Chicago, who is conducting a master class at Alabama College, this summer, gave a concert on the evening of June 25.

On Monday, June 29, the local Exchange Club was invited to lunch by the college to meet John Rogers, director of the highway commission, who spoke to the members of the club institute and the summer school students

CLUB INSTITUTE TO BEGIN WORK TODAY

Plans Complete For Program at Alabama College; Mrs.
Chapman to Preside

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 22.—Plans are all set for the opening of the club institute at Alabama College Tuesday according to Miss Myrtle Brooke, chairman of the local committee.

The first meeting will be presided over by Mrs. Katharine Hopkins Chapman of Selma and many distinguished guests are expected to take part on the program during the ten days of the institute. Mrs. T. D. Parke, state president of the federation, Mrs. L. J. Haley of Birmingham, Mrs. Narcissa T. Shawhan of Mobile, R. E. Tidwell, assistant superintendent of education have a part on the first day's program. Mrs. Charles Henderson, wife of ex-Governor Henderson of Troy, Ala., has just notified the committee that she plans to be at the institute and to take part on the program Wednesday, July 1. Her charming personality and gift as a public speaker will add greatly to the program which has been worked out.

The committee reported Saturday that W. H. Kessler had just notified them that he would speak on Thursday, June 25 at 9:15 on "Landscape Gardening." William T. Warren of Warren, Knight and Davis will be on the program for the 11:30 hour. Dr. S. W. Welch also notified the committee that he would be present on Wednesday, July 1.

Mrs. C. C. Adams of Birmingham, who is scheduled to speak on scholarships, Thursday, July 2, has agreed to give her address on Friday, June 26.

A great many visitors are expected at Alabama college during the institute, which is the first of its kind ever given in Alabama.

or "Good Roads and How to Get Them."

The following club women presided at the different meetings: Mrs. J. W. King, Birmingham; Mrs. C. S. Shawn, Mobile; Mrs. T. W. Palmer, Montevallo; Mrs. Colin McDonald, Grand Bay; Mrs. Seale Harris, Birmingham; Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, Evergreen; Mrs. Charles Henderson, Troy, and Mrs. R. M. Ingram, Anniston.

MONTEVALLO GIRLS MAKE UNUSUALLY HIGH MARKS DURING THIRD QUARTER

Reports Being Mailed Out Disclose Extraordinary Number on Honor Roll

MONTEVALLO, ALA., June 22.—Special to The Advertiser.—The reports for the third quarter are being mailed out to Alabama college students. An unusually high record was maintained during the third quarter that has just closed. The honor roll has been made out consisting of those who made all A's, those who averaged A, and those who averaged B. The following is a list of the honor roll students:

Those making all A's: Edith Delchamps, Mobile; Melba Griffin, Montevallo; Mayme Kroell, Montevallo; Fannie Jo Scott, Verbena; Foy Turner, of Mobile.

Those averaging A, thereby making first honor roll: Marjorie Andrews, LaFayette; Doherty Aycock, Selma; Dorothy Baer, Calera; Minnie Barnes, Demopolis; Lucile Bell, Ashland; Mary Bradshaw, Beatrice; Estelle Broadway; Cecile; Louise Brookes, Samson; Ethel Brown, Lisman; Lillou Burns, Belle Ellen; Joy Cawthon, Florida; Vivian Cobb, Montgomery; Patty Cole, Opp; Dorothy Crabtree, Birmingham; Frances Crump, Steele; Pauline Curry, Montevallo; Carolyn Edwards, Enterprise; Miriam Ernst, Rapid City, S. D.

Miriam Gregg, Demopolis; Agnes Hardy, Newala; Sarah Head, Montevallo; Mary Hill, Benton; Ruth Hillman, Norris; Eleanor Hooper, Selma; Lorene Hughes, Birmingham; Carrie Love Jones, Rockford; Virginia Kockritz, Birmingham; Allen LeCroy, Rockford; Florence London, Greenville; Annie Long, Marion; Lucy McCalley, Birmingham; Alice Mahler, Loxley; Lucy May, Montevallo; Katherine Morrison, Selma; Gage Morton, Bessemer; Graco Mozley, Florida; Margaret Neill, Huntsville.

Bertha Northrup, Attmore, Margaret Pollard, Sylacauga; Lillian Prout, Demopolis; Alice Quarles, Mobile; Colie Roan, Thomasville; Frances Rosenblum, Gadsden; Irene Smith, Vincent; Grace Speaker, Dothan; Joyce Stapler, Mobile; Helen Townsend, Russellville; Genevieve Turberville, Century, Florida; Mary Vinson, Roanoke; Salina Wheat, Cortelyou; Ruby Worthy, Alexander City.

Students Averaging B.

Those averaging B, thereby making second honor roll: Edith Adams, Crandell, Miss.; Robbie Andrews, Florida; Mary Armstrong, Columbia; Lucy Wood Baughman, Dothan; Ruby Benton, Opp; Grace Black, Ashland; Hazel Black, Ashland; Dorothy Boller, Foley; Stella Bowline, Selma; Jimmie Nell Branyon, Fayette; Elizabeth Braswell, Fitzpatrick; Nell Browder, Center; Bertha Brumeloe, Roanoke; Wanda Burks Cullman; Ruth Burns, Talladega; Laura Carmichael, Hollins; Essie Carson, Magnolia Springs; Winifred Castleman, Greensboro; Mary Evelyn Clark, Red Level; Margaret Coleman, Mobile; Maybelle Conner, Andalusia; Faye Cotney, Lineville; Celia Cumbee, Stroud; Helen Davis, Ft. Davis; Irene Denson, Bessemer; Johnnie Dodson, Fayette; Ethel Drake, Benton; Reba Dunklin, Selma; Phyllis Earle, Birmingham; Mary Sasterly, Hayneville; Gladys Elrod, Baileytown; Lydia Finklea, Hixon; Loretta Fortner, Sweetwater; Mae Foster, Roanoke; Frances Fox, Thomaston.

Frances Freeland, Selma; Ruth Freeman, Alexander City; Elizabeth Galliard, Perdue Hill; Gertrude Gaines, Haynes; Eudora Gates, Mt. Willing; Helen George, Mobile; Mildred Gilchrist, Brantley; Lauryn Godbold, Pine Hill; Lorene Gray, Jasper; Margaret Grayson, Birmingham; Loraine Greathouse, Montevallo; Claire Griffin, Montevallo; Agnes Grimsley, Attmore; Ellen Hagood, Selma; Helen Haygood, Evergreen; Eloise Harmon, Grand Bay; Ruth Harrison, Enterprise; Miriam Harvey, Attmore; Lula Hawkins, Birmingham; Annie Hayes, Aldrich; Carrie Head, Montevallo; Vivian Heath, Gold Hill; Vicie Hicks, Montevallo; Dorothy Hixon, Gallion; Thelma Holmes, Murray Cross; Lucy B. Holt, Butler; Amy Hooper, Fruithurst; Elizabeth Horsley, Columbiana; Mary House, Porter; Juanita Houston, Clayton; Mary Hungerford, Selma.

Hazel Jackson, Glenwood, Madge Jacobs, Goodwater; Jewel Jeffrey, Lower Peach Tree; Beatrice Jones, Keener; Laura Johnson, Bessemer; Ruth Jones, Dadeville; Anita King, Opp; Sara Frances Kirkland, Ft. Davis; Mary Nettle Loflin, Enterprise; Margaret Randle, Birmingham; Frances Rapoport, Gadsden; Margaret Reaves, Montevallo; Lois Reynolds, Clio; Mary Allen Rhodes, Linden; Ethel Rogers, Sprott; Ruby Sanders, Troy; Nancy Savage, Gordo; Frances Selden, Greensboro; Evalie Singleton, Putnam; Inez Smith, Anniston; Lucile Snellgrove, Boaz; Gertrude Snyder, Vandergrift, Pa.; Lucy Stevens, Birmingham.

Agnes Stewart, Weogufka; Verdie Strickland, Lineville; Katherine Thomas, Ashby; Mariana Thomas, Patton; Louise Tucker, Jones Mill; Margaret Virginia Tucker, Union Springs; Julia Tuberville, Century, Florida; Marguerite Tysinger, Bessemer; Mildred Walker, Newburn; Mary Watson, Montevallo; Dorothy Williams, Uniontown; Emma Helen Williams, Mobile; Mary Katherine Willingham, Lineville; Annie Laurie Woods, Piedmont; Mary Wyley, Thompson.

CLUB GIRLS GIVEN SPECIAL TRAINING IN SHORT COURSE

Camp in Conecuh County Proves Source of Rare Recreation And Instruction.

Special To The Register

MONTEVALLO, Ala., June 27.—On Tuesday, June 23, Mrs. T. D. Parke, president of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs, gave a most delightful address before the club institute and Alabama College summer school on the history and purpose of club institutes which are being fostered by state federations throughout the country. She mentioned Mississippi and South Carolina as two southern states that had most successful institutes this year.

Mrs. Parke said: "This is a historic day in Alabama—the opening day of the first club institute ever held in the state, because the movement is fraught with such unlimited possibilities. It will enable us to hear Alabama better through our music and poetry; see Alabama better through our conservation; help Alabama better through our community service, co-operation with war veterans, illiteracy and scholarships; know Alabama better through our citizenship and home demonstration committees; guard Alabama better through our legislation; make other states know Alabama better through our publicity; love Alabama better through our women's clubs loyalty."

She was most warmly received by members of Alabama College summer school and visiting delegates of the club institute.

One of the delightful features of the club institute, which is being held at Alabama College, is the parliamentary drill conducted by Mrs. Narcissa T. Shawhan, who is widely known as an expert parliamentarian. She has written several booklets on the subject of parliamentary law and has the unusual capacity of making a dry subject most fascinating to her listeners. She is rendering a most valuable service to the club institute and the Alabama College summer school through her lectures on parliamentary law and the delightful drills which she conducts. Her enthusiasm for the subject is contagious and through her efforts a new interest in parliamentary procedure is being created at Alabama college.

Walter Spry, master teacher and associate director of the Columbia School of Music, Chicago, rendered a most delightful program Thursday evening in the Alabama College auditorium. He was most enthusiastically received by the summer school students and the delegates to the club institute, which is being given at Alabama College from June 23 to July 3. Mr. Spry is conducting a master class for the music students of Alabama College during the summer school. His students are most enthusiastic about him and from the enthusiasm which greeted his playing there will likely be a great demand for him to return next summer for another master class.

GLEE TO MONTEVALLO

Birmingham-Southern Singers Will Visit College Before Starting Tour

The Birmingham-Southern Glee Club will appear at Montevallo in its final concert before the transcontinental tour Thursday night, July 2. The club, which made such a splendid name for itself and the college through the West last season, bids fair to add to the many successes they have already enjoyed.

Montevallo is enjoying one of the best and largest summer sessions ever held at the Alabama College, and with this stellar attraction appearing just before such an extended tour the boys will no doubt be greeted with a capacity house.

The Birmingham-Southern Glee Club is no longer presenting the program of the old school but has an entertainment which might well be called a musical extravaganza, with scenery, lighting effects and costumes to give it a setting of real proportions.

Members of the club have been notified by O. Gordon Erickson, director, to report in Birmingham July 1 for final preparations for the trip, and it is during the time of these rehearsals that they will make the trip for the concert at the Alabama College.

The club will appear in the following cities on its Western trip: University of Denver, Denver, Colo.; also broadcasting over KOA at Denver; Colorado Chautauqua, Boulder, Colo.; Colorado State Teachers College, Greeley, Colo.; University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyo.; Greater Theater Corporation, Seattle, Wash.; Chateau Lake Louise and Banff Springs hotel, Canada; State Teachers College, Valley City, N. D.; Parkway theater, Madison, Wis.; Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.; broadcasting, WEBH, Edgewater Beach hotel, Chicago; Central Illinois Chautauqua, Pontiac, Ill.

MASTER INSTRUCTOR TEACHES MUSIC AT
ALABAMA COLLEGE

WALTER SPRY

Walter Spry, master teacher and associate director, of the Columbia School of Music, Chicago, is conducting a master class for the music students of Alabama College during the summer school.

Number Of Prizes Are Offered
For Efforts Along
Various Lines

BY DOLLY DALRYMPLE

Alabama's Conclave of Writers, which includes in the personnel the outstanding talent of the state, never wanders very far away from its birthplace—Montevallo—and on August 31 the annual meeting will be held there—at Montevallo where the first meeting three years ago made history for Alabama literature, as well as for the literature of the world at large.

Last year, Florence entertained the conclave most hospitably, the occasion being successful from every angle, the wide scope and purpose of the conclave being more indelibly impressed than ever before upon the hearts and minds of those who feel a pride in their fellow citizens in the world of literature and art.

Mrs. Scudder Ryall, always enthusiastic and loyal in her work in behalf of Alabama, the heritage from her wonderful mother, Mrs. John B. Reid, being always dominant when it comes to love of the grand old state in which they and their family have played so important a part, being hers by divine right, has graciously taken over the publicity for the conclave and bids us say that the women writers of Alabama are already enthusiastically anticipating the conclave and there is every evidence that the meeting at Montevallo will be the most elaborate ever held.

"This organization of brilliant women, although young in point of years, is not so inexperienced," said Mrs. Ryall, as she chatted about the forthcoming conclave, "for many of its members are already widely known in literary circles, where they have done honor to themselves as well as to their state."

"Many of the women writers of Alabama have achieved enviable fame and are pointed to with pride as among Alabama's greatest assets—assets which are as valuable as the coal and iron of the industrial fields and other angles of Alabama's progress."

Successful

"The conclave, which was organized with the idea in view of bringing Alabama writers into closer touch with each other and affording an exchange of ideas, as well as social features," said Mrs. Ryall, "saw the light of day at Montevallo three years ago and has proven of untold value to the members. It has been inspirational, as well as otherwise, and promoting as it does literary pursuits and the exchange of ideas, the conclave is the nucleus around which literary efforts center in Alabama."

The new officers of the Alabama Conclave of Writers are headed by that splendid personality, Miss Maude Lindsay, of Sheffield, one of the most zealous members always with the success of literary effort in this state at heart.

The program committee chairman is Mrs. W. F. Shillito, who is well known for her capable and dependable work, and the chairman of the prize committee is the lovely Mrs. C. B. Jaynes, whose work with the league of voters has been an outstanding testament to her ingenuity, her ability and her gracious charm.

"The program at Montevallo this year," Mrs. Ryall resumed, "will be varied and interesting and the prizes offered are numerous, coming from many different sources which are an inspiration."

"Just here, it is well to emphasize the fact that the prizes offered to the Alabama Conclave of Writers has no connection with the prizes offered by the Alabama Federation of Clubs, and whether one is a member of the state federation or not makes no difference, whatsoever, in regard to the conclave prizes. I mention this because some people have been inclined to associate the prizes offered by the conclave with the federation prizes and this should be made very clear, I think."

"There will be prizes for all sorts of literary work, and some of them are very worth while. The amount as far as dollars and cents go, may seem small, but the honor of receiving them is inestimable—so great is its value."

"That the interest in the conclave is paramount is substantiated by the fact that never before have we had so many inquiries about the meeting as this year, about the prizes, about the program and everything connected with the conclave."

Prizes

"It is very important that those sending in work, should know that all literary compositions must be in the hands of Mrs. C. B. Jaynes, chairman of prizes by Aug. 1, except the song poems which must be in by July 15."

"All musical compositions must be sent either to Mr. Oliver Chalifoux or Mr. Ferdinand Dunkley. Those desiring further information regarding the prizes and other features about the conclave can obtain the same from Mrs. Jaynes who will be happy to supply any data desired."

One of the outstanding prizes offered to the Conclave is The Birmingham News' prize of $50 for the best 2,000-word story dealing with Southern literature. The Shakespeare Club offers $10 for the best one-act play. The rules governing this award are open to any Alabama woman who is a member of a federated club and has never received remuneration for her writings. There must be at least six contestants.

The Press and Authors Club of Montgomery, through Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen, offers two prizes of $10 each, one for the best dialect poem and the other for the best metrical poem.

Mr. Bill Levi offers $15 for the best story on the subject of "The Harmonious Influence of Radio in the Home," and Mrs. Charles J. Sharp offers $10 for a one-act play and in this only those whose previous work has been accepted for publication can compete.

"Mr. Phil Painter, of the Southern Magazine, offers $25 for the best feature story on the 'Industrial Possibilities of Alabama,' and Mrs. Arlie Barber offers $10 for the best 'Devotional.' The Birmingham Post offers a prize of $15, the subject to be 'What Feature of Your Paper Do You Like Best?'"

Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen offers $10 for the best one-act play, dealing with Alabama history and the Eufaula Writers Club offers $5 for the best short story.

"Daisy W. Rowley, director of the Academy of Music, offers two prizes, the first, her book entitled Nine Hundred Model Lessons for Piano Teachers, (value $10). This book will be given for the best essay on 'Birmingham's Educational Advantages for the Music Student.'"

The second prize Miss Rowley offers is a scholarship for the normal training course in the Academy of Music, (value $100), this prize to be awarded for the best stanza of eight lines for a lullaby. Both prizes are transferable Miss Rowley stipulates.

The Plotters Club offers a prize of $10 to student writers for the best short story of from 2,000 to 4,000 words. The writer must be a member of a federated club and one who has never won a federation prize or sold a short story. There must be at least six contestants. The Music Study Club offers a prize of $15 for the best musical setting for the prize song poem. Mrs. Herbert J. Ward offers $10 for the best song poem and Mrs. Shillito offers $10 for the best folklore story of not more than 1,500 words. The Tri-Cities Daily, of North Alabama, offers $10 for the best feature article on "Muscle Shoals." This article to be published.

"So the game is worth the candle after all," said Mrs. Ryall, "and the ambitious and persevering writers of the state have before them substantial reward for their work and honor galore."

APPLICANTS FOR SCHOLARSHIPS
REACH

More Than
main In V
May

A total of 93 Birmingham News School of Journalism applications does not of July 14. These are distributed among follows: Alabama College, 25; University of Alabama-Southern College, 14; Alabama College, 14; Auburn, 13.

The complete list have so far filed:

University (25)—Heflin; John C. Satterwhit; David S. Satterwhit; E. Parker; Boaz; Jackson; M. C. Du; M. Curry; Daleville; Millport; Edgar Y. St.; Albany; Bill; M. Clemans; Hartse; Haleyville; James; Route 1, Pinson; E. Smyer; Ala.; Carl; Dewey Bynum; M. Arlton; Miss; Lee; Gerald D. Waits; Horace E. Stancil; Harris; Plantersville; Thomaston; Hugh; Tom Beasley; Clay; ton, Columbiana.

Montevallo (25)—Midway; Mary Mart; sie LeNoir; Butler; Lothan; Louise; Kate Slaughter; Bu; 1019 South Eleventh; Katie Belle Moore; Elizabeth Stein, 170; ley; Elizabeth Led; Street, Oxford; Ma; Brewton; Mildred; Adger; Rose Cart; Higgins, Five Poin; Atmore; Frances; J; Helen C. Ayres; J; Kennedy; Clio; Je; Rubye Lee Beard; S; Cook; Alpine; Ruth; Stella Norine Holl; Eloise Malone; C; Veazey; Dadeville.

Auburn (13)—Hug; Tallassee; Claude; T; outh Avenue; B; Brown, Route 2, Ro; mond de Arman, 9; South, Birmingham; Auburn; Clarence; D; ville; Walter; Mills; Street, Montgomer; Clayton; Hobart Gra; Bryan Ford, Gadsde; Three Notch; Lew; Marvin Acton, 933 S; Birmingham.

Birmingham-South; Hand, Wedowee; L; ley; David Hutto, L; Jr.; Lisman; V. Bur; W. Hufford McKi; Robert Worley, Sout; Anniston; Myrtle V; Avenue, Pratt City; Bessemer; Camillus; Springs; Marion Ho; George M. Luther, P; tower, Andalusia; V; lins, Hackleburg; F; Tusculumbia; Mary F.

Howard (14)—Fad; Earle Johnson, T; Rushing, Dothan; gent; John Garrett; Dickinson, Jr., Uni; son, East Florence; Scottsboro; Earl; Street, Montgomery; son, Decatur; Thel; oke; Samuel A. Har; Isdell, Albertville; Y; Russellville.

The Birmingham ly five free scholars Auburn, the Univ; Howard and Birm;

Each of these sch all necessary expen; mum of $500 per y; Under necessary ex; board and laundry; books and supplies.

This is the fifth y first graduate was Jacksonville, who ce at Birmingham-Sout and graduated last; George R. Saxon, c; graduated at Howa; Bates, of Jasper, e; Georgia Thomas, o; burn, and Reginal; mingham, at the Un; as, who is a Phi B; master's degree this; doing graduate wor;

The scholarships uates of accredited Alabama, who will college without out;

The following is the conditions under ships are awarded a should be made.

The plan of awa ships this year is. It has been the pas president of the co will select the winn such method as he and he will make th applications filed w editor of The Birm; plicants and their fr to attempt to get with the college pr to bring outside pre college presidents is purpose of those w is the intention of donor of these scho alone shall govern winners and that ap plicant may be abl shall not affect the and the presidents in requesting the a their efforts to col est possible endor; mendations and fil; applications. Pers college presidents w decision.

Continued on Page

APPLICATION LIST FOR SCHOLARSHIPS REACHES 93 TOTAL

More Than Two Weeks Remain In Which Papers
May Be Filed

A total of 93 applications for Birmingham News Scholarships have been received, though the time limit on applications does not expire until midnight of July 14. These applications are distributed among the various colleges as follows: Alabama College, Montevallo, 25; University of Alabama, 25; Birmingham-Southern College, 16; Howard College, 14; Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, 13.

The complete list of applicants who have so far filed their papers follows:

University (25)—Russell T. Beason, Heflin; John C. Saunders, Camp Hill; David S. Satterwhite, Wedowee; Ernest E. Parker, Doak; Harwell E. Coale, Jackson; M. C. Dunn, Jr., Repton; W. M. Curry, Daleville; Alice Strickland, Millport; Edgar Young, 1220 Jackson St., Albany; Billie Hollis, Lanett; M. Clemans, Hartselle; Anthony Mitchell, Haleyville; James E. Erown, McLendon, Route 1, Pinson; Herman C. Braswell, Smyer, Ala.; Carl V. Synce, Florala; Dewey Bynum, Moulton; Pete Weed, Arlton; Miss Lee Hubbard, Jasper; Gerald D. Waits, Route 2, Buffalo; Horace E. Stancil, Jasper; Josephine Harris, Plantersville; Lucille Griffith, Thomaston; Hugh Linder, Ironaton; Tom Beasley, Clayton; Ezra L. Crumpton, Columbiana.

Montevallo (25) — Ethel Hitchcock, Midway; Mary Martin, Greensboro; Jessie LeNoir, Butler; Louise Burnham, Lothan; Louise Hitchcock, Midway; Kate Slaughter, Buffalo; Alice Lowery, 1019 South Eleventh Street, Gadsden; Katie Belle Moore, Marion Junction; Elizabeth Stein, 1706½ Avenue G, Ensley; Elizabeth Ledbetter, 726 Luttrell Street, Oxford; Mary Frances Sowell, Brewton; Mildred Patton, Route 2, Adger; Rose Carter, Linden; Lorena Higgins, Five Points; E. V. Harney, Atmore; Frances Johnson, Pike Road; Helen C. Ayres, Newbern; Eva Mae Kennedy, Clio; Jennie Baxter, Clio; Ruby Lee Beard, Scottsboro; Elizabeth Cook, Alpine; Ruth Wilson, Greensboro; Stella Norine Hollimon, Spruce Pine; Eloise Malone, Carbon Hill; Olga Veazey, Dadeville.

Auburn (13)—Hugh M. Ashhurst, East Tallassee; Claude Thompson, 3410 Eleventh Avenue, Birmingham; Hattie Brown, Route 2, Roanoke; Charles Raymond de Arman, 904 Georgia Avenue, South, Birmingham; Howard Mullin, Auburn; Clarence D. Thomas, Blountsville; Walter Mills, 207 East Fifth Street, Montgomery; Elmer Horne, Clayton; Hobart Grace, Oakman; Edwin Bryan Ford, Gadsden; James L. Penick, Three Notch; Lewis Bobo, Kennedy; Marvin Acton, 333 Seventh Street, West, Birmingham.

Birmingham-Southern (16)—Thomas L. Hand, Wedowee; Louise Rowland, Ensley; David Hutto, Lincoln; W. F. Floyd, Jr., Lisman; V. Buren Taunton, Lanett; W. Hufferd McKinney, Gurley, Ala.; Robert Worley, South Leighton Avenue, Anniston; Myrtle Whitson, 705 Cherry Avenue, Pratt City; Jac. Wise, III., Bessemer; Camillus J. Dismukes, Union Springs; Marion Holloway, Monroeville; George M. L. Ther, Prattville; Ted Hightower, Andalusia; William Elbert Sulins, Hackleburg; Paul M. Weatherby, Tusculumbia; Mary Farrow, Dadeville.

Howard (14)—Fanny Sides, Florence; Earle Johnson, Tallassee; John R. Rushing, Dothan; Margie Hill, Sulligent; John Garrett, Albertville; John V. Dickinson, Jr., Uniontown; Clyde Dotson, East Florence; Lucille Chandler, Scottsboro; Earl Stiver, 118 Mobile Street, Montgomery; Bernard R. Beason, Decatur; Thelma Holliday, Roanoke; Samuel A. Hart, Florala; Clarabel Isdell, Albertville; Yula Willis, Route 2, Russellville.

The Birmingham News gives annually five free scholarships, one each to Auburn, the University, Montevallo, Howard and Birmingham-Southern.

Each of these scholarships provides all necessary expenses up to a maximum of $500 per year for four years. Under necessary expenses are included board and laundry, tuition and fees, books and supplies.

This is the fifth year of the plan. The first graduate was Alfred Lusk, of Jacksonville, who completed his course at Birmingham-Southern in three years and graduated last year. This month George R. Saxon, of Albertville, was graduated at Howard; Miss Ellen Bates, of Jasper, at Montevallo; Miss Georgia Thomas, of Cullman, at Auburn, and Reginald Thomas, of Birmingham, at the University. Mr. Thomas, who is a Phi Beta Kappa, got his master's degree this month, having been doing graduate work this year.

The scholarships are open to graduates of accredited high schools in Alabama, who will be unable to attend college without outside aid.

The following is a full statement of the conditions under which the scholarships are awarded and how application should be made.

The plan of awarding the scholarships this year is much the same as it has been the past four years. The president of the college in each case will select the winner at his school by such method as he sees fit to adopt, and he will make the selection from the applications filed with the scholarship editor of The Birmingham News. Applicants and their friends are urged not to attempt to get in touch directly with the college presidents. Any effort to bring outside pressure to bear on the college presidents is likely to defeat the purpose of those who attempt it. It is the intention of The News as the donor of these scholarships, that merit alone shall govern the choice of the winners and that any influence the applicant may be able to bring to bear shall not affect the result. The News and the presidents of the colleges join in requesting the applicants to confine their efforts to collecting the strongest possible endorsements and recommendations and filing these with their applications. Personal letters to the college presidents will not influence the decision.

Continued on Page 2, Second Column

APPLICATION LIST FOR SCHOLARSHIPS REACHES 93 TOTAL

Continued From Page 1

All applications must be filed with the scholarship editor of The Birmingham News not later than July 14. On July 15 all applications for each school will be turned over to the president of that school. The winners will be announced in The News not later than Aug. 15.

Who are eligible to apply for News scholarships?

Graduates of accredited Alabama high schools who have not previously attended college, and who are unable to go to college without outside help. Attendance on a college summer school will not be interpreted as having attended college, but any boy or girl who has been a regular matriculate at a college is not eligible to receive a News scholarship.

All five scholarships are open to girls and all except that to Montevallo are open to boys.

Application may be made to only one college.

Applications must be filed with the scholarship editor of The News not later than July 14. There are no application blanks to be filled out, but the required papers must be included in one package and must include the following:

1 A letter addressed to the scholarship editor of The News, stating applicant's name, address, age, the high school from which graduated, in what year graduated, the college to which application is being made, a clear statement of applicant's inability to go to college without help.

2 A statement from the family physician or other doctor that applicant's general health is good and that, barring the unforeseen, applicant should be able to do college work without impairment of health.

3 A detailed statement of high school record. This statement, to be complete, should contain the averages of high school work, but if such is not available readily, a statement from high school officials covering general average or general character of work, as well as any other pertinent details about the applicant's high school work will be deemed to have covered this requirement.

4 A letter of recommendation from the principal of high school that applicant attended. This letter should be a frank statement of applicant's scholarship, character, deportment, integrity, qualities of leadership and general fitness for college work, in so far as these points are known to the principal. Any facts the principal may know regarding the inability of the applicant to obtain a college education without outside help should be included also. This letter must be in a sealed envelope included with the other papers. It is desired that the principal be absolutely free, without embarrassment, to make a frank statement that will be of real assistance to the college president in determining his selection of the winner.

5 A letter of recommendation from the county or city superintendent of education, covering in a general way the point suggested above for the high school principal's letter. There is no reason why the same high school principal or city or county superintendent may not write letters for as many applicants as he desires, or conscientiously can.

6 Other letters of recommendation. There must be at least two of these, and they must cover the points outlined under No. 4 above, in so far as the person writing the letter can testify from his or her own personal knowledge. It is very important that these letters shall be convincing as to character of applicant, inability to get a college education without outside help and qualities of leadership in high school or in the community. The applicant may submit as many such letters of this kind as he or she thinks desirable. Only two are required, but others may be submitted if desired.

7 It is suggested to the applicant that all papers submitted be arranged neatly and clipped together compactly, filed all together in one package or envelope and sent to the scholarship editor of The News. The name and address of the applicant, with the name of the college to which application is being made, should be written plainly on the outside in the upper left-hand corner of the envelope or package in which the papers are mailed or delivered. This will enable the scholarship editor to list the application without being obliged to open the package or envelope. Lists of applicants will be printed from time to time in The News, and if your name has not been printed within 10 days after you have forwarded your application, it is suggested that you write the scholarship editor to learn whether the application has been received. While there is no benefit to be gained by filing your application early, it is suggested that it is better not to wait until too near the closing date, because your application may be delayed in the mails, or may be misplaced, leaving you little time in which to make sure that it has been properly received.

8 Make it clear to each person who

PIANIST HEARD AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

Large Audience Greeted Walter Spry On Evening Of

June 25
Bham News

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 11.—Special.—Walter Spry, pianist and associate director of the Columbia School of Music, of Chicago, appeared on Thursday evening, June 25, before the largest audience as yet assembled during the summer school at Alabama College, Montevallo, where Mr. Spry is conducting a master class.

The following program was rendered:

I.
Sonata quasi una Fantasia, Op. 27, No. 2 (Beethoven). Adagio sostenuto. Allegretto. Presto agitato.

II.
Two Songs Without Words—F Major, A Major (Mendelssohn). Mazurka, Op. 7, No. 1. Nocturne, Op. 9, No. 2. Ballade, Op. 47 (Chopin).

III.
Air de Ballet (Moszkowski). Romance in E. Flat (Rubinstein). Petit Carnaval (Walter Spry). Transcription: Blue Danube Waltzes (Strauss-Mills).

As the master class is largely composed of teachers it will readily be seen what an advantage it is to them to hear such popular teaching material as the Moonlight Sonata of Beethoven, the Spring Song of Mendelssohn and the A flat Ballade of Chopin given an authoritative reading.

One feels that Mr. Spry's technical equipment has been acquired by analytical and comprehensive study, but the technique is only used to interpret the mind of the composers and Mr. Spry is said to excel in tonal work, and has as many shades of tone as a painter and paints his tone pictures with rare colors. It rarely happens that a popular and successful teacher plays with the technical freedom and the tonal richness which Mr. Spry disclosed, it is pointed out.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

News Reaches College President of Another Grandson

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 19.—Special to The Advertiser.—President and Mrs. Palmer have received the announcement of the birth of another grandson who arrived at Jackson Heights, N. Y., on July 4. He is named James Meehan Palmer in honor of his maternal grandfather. It is said that judging from his vigorous use of his voice and lungs he is destined to become a great Fourth of July orator.

PALMER HAS VISITORS

Dr. Graham Interested in Features of
Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 19.—Special to The Advertiser.—Dr. and Mrs. John Y. Graham, of the University of Alabama are spending the week-end at Alabama college as the guests of President and Mrs. Palmer. They are much interested in many features of the college, especially in that of music. They have frequently visited Montevallo. This trip was made specially to confer with Mr. Spry of Chicago, who is the teacher of the master class in music in the summer school.

has agreed to give you a letter that such a letter is not to be sent to the college or to The News, but is to be given to you to file with your other papers.

These requirements are simple and clear. They are intended for one purpose only; namely, to give the president of the college to which the application is made full data on each applicant so that he may make an intelligent choice of the winner at his college.

For any boy or girl to win one of these scholarships, the president of the college must be convinced beyond doubt that the applicant will not be able to go to college unless he or she obtains outside help from some source; that the applicant is sound in body and mind; that the applicant has made a good record both for scholarship and deportment in high school; that the applicant is fitted to undertake college work and derive the maximum benefit from college life.

When the applicant has the required papers in such shape as would be likely to convince the president of a college on these points, he or she should bundle them together in a compact package and bring, mail or send them to the scholarship editor of The News. Be sure to include all required papers in the one package, with name, address and college written plainly on the outside.

ALABAMA COLLEGE GETS NEW TEACHERS

Montevallo, Alabama, July 18.—President Palmer of Alabama College, has announced the appointment of the following teachers for next year:

Colin B. Richmond, at present assistant director of music at Pennsylvania State College, director of music for Alabama College school of music. He is a distinguished graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, which institution commends him in the highest terms as a musician, lecturer, director, college man of great ability, and also an able performer. In addition to his teaching experience in the great music school of Pennsylvania he has served as director of music for five years in the state of Tennessee.

Dr. Esther Marguerite Hall, at present associate professor of History in the University of Wisconsin, head of the department of history. She is an A. B. graduate of Franklin College, Indiana, and has the degree of Master of Arts and doctor of philosophy from the University of Wisconsin. She comes from a celebrated family of educators.

Dr. Marion H. Studley, head of the English department. She is a A. B. graduate of Wesselynn College and has the degree of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Michigan. She has traveled and studied extensively in England and Scotland.

Miss Ellen Gould, of California, head of the Expression department. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Coe College and a Master of Arts degree from Occidental College, one of the large California institutions. She has served as instructor in the University of Oregon. Her students have been often accepted as readers by the greatest lyceum bureaus of the country. She has a broad, general education, which serves as a fitting background for the especial work of instructor of speech.

Miss Dorothy Early, Philadelphia, first assistant in the Physical Education department. She is an A. B. graduate from Muskingum College and has a Master of Arts degree from Columbia University, New York. This is probably the first time in the history of the state that a teacher of physical education has an academic degree of Master of Arts. This is in conformity with the regulations of the Southern Association of Secondary schools and colleges. Alabama College is the first college in Alabama and one of the first in the South to offer a degree with physical education as the major subject.

Palmer Left

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 18.—The college president left for his home in Pennsylvania this morning. He had been in the state for several days, during which he had visited the various departments of the college and had conferred with the faculty and the board of trustees. He had also held a number of public sessions, during which he had discussed the various questions of the college and had received the suggestions and criticisms of the public. He had also held a number of private sessions, during which he had discussed the various questions of the college and had received the suggestions and criticisms of the faculty and the board of trustees. He had also held a number of public sessions, during which he had discussed the various questions of the college and had received the suggestions and criticisms of the public. He had also held a number of private sessions, during which he had discussed the various questions of the college and had received the suggestions and criticisms of the faculty and the board of trustees.

Palmer Asks Help For Girls Who Get Left Out In News Scholarship Awards

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 20.—Special.—The announcement that 265 students had applied for The Birmingham News scholarships for 1925 has attracted wide attention among the faculty, students and citizens of Montevallo. Of the 265 applicants there appear to be 115 girls and 150 boys, raising the question of whether boys are more eager for a college education than girls or whether they are better able to pay their own expenses.

Of the 115 girls, applicants to the five colleges are as follows:

Alabama College	59
Birmingham-Southern	19
Howard College	17
University of Alabama	13
Auburn	7

Four girls have held News scholarships at Alabama College, according to President T. W. Palmer. The first was Miss Ellen Bates, of Jasper, who was there four years and was graduated in June with the degree of bachelor of arts. The second was Miss Dorothy Williams, of Uniontown, who has one more year at college. The third was Miss Mildred Keahey, of Plantersville, who has completed her sophomore year, and the fourth is Miss Allene Morris, of Bessemer, who was selected in 1924. The four scholarships have been made continuous. There is now a vacancy, caused by the graduation of Miss Bates. This scholarship will soon be awarded to one of the 59 applicants.

"These girls have made excellent records," said Dr. Palmer. "They have stood among the highest in college. They have not only done well in studies, but have been active participants in various college activities, such as Y. W. C. A. work, athletics, literary and debating societies, in fact in contests of all kinds. Their department has been grade A, and each has striven to contribute her part towards developing the true college spirit and a higher ideal for college life.

Scholarship Sufficient

"The scholarship has been sufficient to defray all college expenses," Dr. Palmer continued. "The total expenses of the four girls for 1924-25 amounted to $1,527.14. This included music for one summer school in addition to the regular session for another. The summer school was attended because that girl desired the extra studies offered in the summer and not given in the regular session. The highest expenditure by any girl for the session was $425.70 (including music), and the lowest was $325.85.

"The scholarship covers all college charges, including room, board, laundry, general fees covering tuition, lectures, college activities, physician, hospital, nurse and laboratory fees. Also books, tablets, pen and ink, theme tablets, other writing paper, all materials of any kind prescribed by any teacher, all public exercises directed by the college for which a charge is made, diploma and cap and gown fee—in fact every legitimate expense required by the college.

"We apprehend considerable difficulty in awarding the new scholarship. In former years, we have found practically every applicant deserved a scholarship. We were compelled to select only one. Before beginning the work of examining the papers, I feel that we shall be overwhelmed with a desire to secure help for the 58 disappointed ones. Here will be a fine opportunity for public-spirited and philanthropic citizens to invest some money in the education of worthy students. The conditions prescribed by The News for all applicants is a guarantee that only those who really need and deserve help ever apply.

Others Have Contributed

"Other persons have made contributions to aid the disappointed ones in past years. Quite a number have given from $50 to $250 to aid some girl. Others have given larger amounts without asking her permission. I take the liberty in stating that Mrs. Morris Bush, of Birmingham, in 1924 generously gave $500 for two scholarships of $250 each and she has renewed this amount for the session of 1925-26. The two beneficiaries of Mrs. Bush's noble gift are Miss Eleanor Hooper, of Selma, and Miss Vivian Cobb, of Linden, Marengo county. These girls, by securing some work around the college, are getting the full benefit of a college course.

"Another girl was graduated this year who applied four years ago with Miss Ellen Bates. Shelby S. Fletcher, of Huntsville, a former student of mine, upon being told of the large number of disappointed girls, generously offered $250 a year for four years to aid one from Madison or an adjoining county. There was no applicant from Madison, so the award was made to Miss Eunice Matthews, of Scottsboro. She has thus been enabled to complete a college course. During the present summer she is serving as supply nurse for the college infirmary.

"It probably takes less to send a girl to Alabama College than to any other college. This is demonstrated by the amount expended by the scholarship holders. Many others have contributed, but this will suffice."

President Palmer appeals to the friends of education to help these ambitious young women to prepare themselves for more efficient service to the world.

There were for Alabama College alone 58 who presented the proper credentials proving that they are ready, but must be turned away unless public spirited citizens come to the rescue, he said. "An untrained girl has, as a rule, little earning capacity. Very often she is a liability. Help her to get an education. She will then become a valuable asset to society."

SPRY AND GRAHAM CLUB SPEAKERS

Former Discusses Work at College and Latter Talks on Evolution

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 22.—At the weekly meeting of the Montevallo Exchange club Walter Spry, master teacher of piano at Alabama college for the summer and Dr. John Y. Graham, head of the department of biology of the University of Alabama were two distinguished guests. Mr. Spry was introduced to the club and made a short but very happy response, concerning his work at the college during the summer, stating that he had found Montevallo one of the most delightful places he had ever seen for spending the summer and for teaching. He was in every way thoroughly delighted with the south and with Montevallo in particular.

Dr. Graham gave a most interesting address on the subject of evolution. He is a devout churchman and an enthusiastic proponent of evolution. "When the opportunity offers I consider it my duty, first as a Christian and second as a scientist to discuss the relation of evolution and religion." He showed that evolution is not likely to undermine religion, since evolution has been taught at least since 400 B. C., and that it had never yet in any way undermined religion, or the hearts and minds of the people of the world. Evolution and religion have existed side by side throughout all of these ages and it will continue to exist. The world is more deeply religious now than ever before, he said, and he insists that evolution should be a hand-maiden to religion.

He was very bitter against materialism, saying that there was a reason behind everything. His address was enthusiastically received by the members of the club. The ministers of the town present expressed their high appreciation of his remarks, and so did all of the other members, most of whom are earnest and devout churchmen. Dr. Graham is a recognized authority in this state on science. He believes thoroughly in the development of science, but does not believe that there can be any conflict between real Christians and real scientists. He pointed out that evolution is an established fact, only the methods and development is the question in doubt. Much conflict of the public mind is the result. Materialism and rationalism should be confounded with evolution. They are separate and distinct. The differences among people come only from the methods and theories that have not been fully established. Necessarily scientists must announce many theories and no scientists claim that a theory is a fact until it has been proven. As long as people who are both scientists and Christians work together seriously on the subject there will never be any differences of opinions.

GOES TO MONTEVALLO

12th Kam News Fe. 22, '25
Prof. J. B. Beard To Teach Biology In Summit School

J. B. Beard, Birmingham-Southern graduate of 1924, has been appointed professor of biology for the second term of the summer school at Alabama College, Montevallo, according to Prof. W. A. Whiting, head of the biology department at Birmingham-Southern. Prof. Beard having commenced work with the opening of the second summer school term Monday.

Since leaving Birmingham-Southern, Prof. Beard has spent a year in graduate work at Tulane University where he specialized in biology. "The recognition received by Mr. Beard is a high one for so recent a graduate," Prof. Whiting declared, "and the biology department at Birmingham-Southern is well pleased to be able to make such announcement."

College Visitors

Montevallo, Alabama, July 18.—Dr. and Mrs. John Y. Graham, of the University of Alabama, are spending the week end at Alabama College as the guests of President and Mrs. Palmer. They are much interested in many features of the college, especially in that of music. They have frequently visited Montevallo. This trip was made especially to confer with Mr. Spry of Chicago, who is teacher of the Master Class in Music in the summer school.

President and Mrs. Palmer have received the announcement of the birth of another grandson who arrived at Jackson Heights, New York, on July 4. He is named James Meehan Palmer in honor of his maternal grandfather.

the major subject.

NEW TEACHERS FOR ALABAMA COLLEGE

Dr. Marion Studley To Head English Department; Other Professors Named

Pharm News 1925
MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 11.—Special.—Dr. Marion H. Studley, of Middlebury, Vt., has recently been elected head of the English department of Alabama College. She was graduated at Wellesley College in 1907, taught in high schools for four years and then was educational secretary for the Red Cross for four years. She then entered the University of Michigan, from which institution she received the master's degree, and two years later the degree of doctor of philosophy. Dr. Studley has traveled extensively in England and Scotland.

One of the leading college professors of the country said of her: "She is a rare woman, rare in her training and varied experience, and rarer still in her personality. I haven't any doubt at all that she has technical fitness to teach college English more especially in the field of literature. But she is more than technically proficient. She is a human woman who has lived and felt what literature is supposed to express, and she has the dramatic imagination and powers of expression that will enable her to make others feel and live what she gets out of literature. If all literature teachers were as human and creative as she is, the English work in colleges and high schools would not be such a sterile thing as it often is." She has been a frequent contributor to many of the best magazines of the country. She will be quite an addition to the educational forces of any state.

Miss Ellen H. Gould, of California, has been elected associate professor of speech and dramatics at Alabama College. She received the A. B. degree from Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; a B. O. degree from Northwestern University, and A. M. from Occidental College, Los Angeles, Calif., and has had extensive correspondence courses from Columbia and Berkely Universities. Miss Gould is highly educated in English, literature, foreign languages, history, psychology, sociology and science, which has given her a fitting background for her special subject. She has had a wide experience as a teacher of expression in high schools and as a special instructor of speech and dramatics in Northwestern University and State College of Washington.

Miss Vivian Monk, of Cherokee, who was acting head of the dramatic department during the past year will remain. She is a graduate of Alabama College, the University of Alabama, and received her master of arts degree from the University of North Carolina in 1923. She has already done work toward her doctor's degree at Columbia.

Miss Marguerite Cope, who was an assistant in the department of English during 1924-25 will return next fall. She is an M. A. graduate of the University of Alabama, having received her bachelor's degree from the State College for Women, Tallahassee, Fla.

In the department of history Dr. Esther Marguerite Hall has been made dean. She is an A. B. graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Ind., receiving her master's and Ph. D. degrees from the University of Wisconsin. She has had high school experience and as an assistant professor in Franklin College and the University of Wisconsin.

The first assistant in the department of history will be Miss Lorraine Peters, of Boothton, Ala. She is a graduate of one of the leading colleges of Wisconsin and of Columbia University. She has taught for some years in Birmingham, Ala., and has been a frequent visitor to Alabama College in the past

PALMER NAMES NEW TEACHERS

Colin B. Richmond Heads Montevallo Music Department

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 18.—(Special.)—President Palmer announces the appointment of several more teachers for Alabama college. In the music department Colin Beckett Richmond, professor of music and lecture, and assistant director of music of the State college of Pennsylvania, has accepted the position of director of music at Alabama college, succeeding Frank E. Marsh, Jr., recently resigned. Mr. Richmond has been thoroughly trained in the best grammar and high schools, colleges and conservatories of America and by travel and study in England, was graduated with high honors at the New England conservatory in 1916 and afterwards completed a graduate course there in 1922. He has also done two years of special work in fine arts and English literature at Harvard university.

Miss Alberta Potter of the University of Oregon school of music, will be at the head of the violin department. She has the degree of B. M., from Oregon, has studied one year under Kneisel in New York, and has had further graduate study for three years in Oregon. She has also served as assistant teacher of violin for four years in her state university.

Miss Katherine Hemmeyer of Cleveland, Ohio, has accepted the position of first assistant in the voice department. She has completed the full four-year course with honors as voice teacher in the New England Conservatory of Music. She has taught public school music in Ohio one year, voice two years in the normal department of the New England conservatory, and one year in private studio. Has served as soloist for one year in one of the largest churches in Boston and for a shorter time in churches in other cities. She has a high soprano voice and gives great delight to audiences wherever she appears.

Alabama college is the only college in Alabama that gives the bachelor or science degree with physical education as a major. Miss Rebecca Funk, who has served at the head of this department for 18 years, has agreed to continue with the college for one more year. Miss Dorothy Earley of Philadelphia has accepted the position as first assistant for the session 1925-1926. She is an A. B. graduate of Muskingum College, Ohio, and an A. M. graduate of Columbia University.

Mill Lillou Burns of Belle Ellen, Ala., who was a student assistant for the session of 1924-1925, has been elected instructor in the department of English. She is now at the University of Chicago working for her Master's degree in English.

Miss Margaret Scoggins of Centre, Ala., who was graduated under the old system of three and a half years of college work in 1924, has been elected student-assistant theme reader in English for next session. She will return to Alabama college and by working one-half time can complete her course for an A. B. degree.

ALABAMA COLLEGE WILL CLOSE TERM

Total of 275 Students Enrolled For Second Session; Many Others Expected

MONTEVALLO, July 19.—Special to The Advertiser.—The first term of the summer session closes July 21. Already 275 students have enrolled for the second half and many others are coming in before the new term begins. Practically all of the students are taking a regular college course.

The following students will be graduated on Tuesday, July 21st:

Bachelor of Arts: Mary Bradshaw, Beatrice; Carrie Head, Montevallo; Verta Mae Helms, Elba.

Bachelor of Science: Annie C. Broughton, East Tallassee; Virginia Edwards, Enterprise; Mary Keller, Birmingham; Jessie Hobbs Morrison, Selma; Mrs. Mozelle B. Smith, Rockford; Grace Waters, Birmingham; Blanche Williamson, Midway.

Two-year Course in Education: Helen Allison, Springville; Edith Arnold, Albertville; Grace Donald, Pineapple; Irene Grace, Oakman; Katie Katz, Monroeville; Frances Rapoport, Gadsden.

Two-year course in Home Economics: Mabel Ruby Long, Eldridge; Lucy McCalley, Birmingham; Ethel Fuller, Spott.

Tablet or Liquid Sold Everywhere

Her letter reads: "I have used Pe-ru-na for several years and it has helped me in many ways. It is good for colds, stomach trouble and to improve the appetite when taken three times a day. I am 78." Used intelligently for catarrh and diseases of a catarrhal nature, Pe-ru-na seldom fails of the desired results. Coughs, colds, nasal catarrh, stomach and bowel disorders are among the commoner diseases for which Pe-ru-na has proved its value. Careful housewives and mothers make a practice of keeping a bottle of Pe-ru-na in the home for emergencies.

Mrs. C. Gates, Mesick, Mich.

ALABAMA COLLEGE GETS NEW TEACHERS

Montevallo, Alabama, July 18.—President Palmer of Alabama College, has announced the appointment of the following teachers for the first term of the session 1925-1926, and one of the first in the South to of W. C. EVANS, University Ala.

Palmer Asks Help For Girls Who Get Left Out In News Scholarship Awards

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 20.—Special.—The announcement that 265 students had applied for The Birmingham News scholarships for 1925 has attracted wide attention among the faculty, students and citizens of Montevallo. Of the 265 applicants there appear to be 115 girls and 150 boys, raising the question of whether boys are more eager for a college education than girls or whether they are better able to pay their own expenses.

Of the 115 girls, applicants to the five colleges are as follows:

Alabama College	59
Birmingham-Southern	19
Howard College	17
University of Alabama	13
Auburn	7

Four girls have held News scholarships at Alabama College, according to President T. W. Palmer. The first was Miss Ellen Bates, of Jasper, who was there four years and was graduated in June with the degree of bachelor of arts. The second was Miss Dorothy Williams, of Uniontown, who has one more year at college. The third was Miss Mildred Keahey, of Plantersville, who has completed her sophomore year, and the fourth is Miss Allene Morris, of Bessemer, who was selected in 1924. The four scholarships have been made continuous. There is now a vacancy, caused by the graduation of Miss Bates. This scholarship will soon be awarded to one of the 59 applicants.

"These girls have made excellent records," said Dr. Palmer. "They have stood among the highest in college. They have not only done well in studies, but have been active participants in various college activities, such as Y. W. C. A. work, athletics, literary and debating societies, in fact in contests of all kinds. Their department has been grade A, and each has striven to contribute her part towards developing the true college spirit and a higher ideal for college life.

Scholarship Sufficient

"The scholarship has been sufficient to defray all college expenses," Dr. Palmer continued. "The total expenses of the four girls for 1924-25 amounted to $1,527.14. This included music for one summer school in addition to the regular session for another. The summer school was attended because that girl desired the extra studies offered in the summer and not given in the regular session. The highest expenditure by any girl for the session was $425.70 (including music), and the lowest was $325.35.

"The scholarship covers all college charges, including room, board, laundry, general fees covering tuition, lectures, college activities, physician, hospital, nurse and laboratory fees. Also books, tablets, pen and pink, theme tablets, other writing paper, all materials of any kind prescribed by any teacher, all public exercises directed by the college for which a charge is made, diploma and cap and gown fee—in fact every legitimate expense required by the college.

"We apprehend considerable difficulty in awarding the new scholarship. In former years, we have found practically every applicant deserved a scholarship. We were compelled to select only one. Before beginning the work of examining the papers, I feel that we shall be overwhelmed with a desire to secure help for the 58 disappointed ones. Here will be a fine opportunity for public-spirited and philanthropic citizens to invest some money in the education of worthy students. The conditions prescribed by The News for all applicants is a guarantee that only those who really need and deserve help ever apply.

Others Have Contributed

"Other persons have made contributions to aid the disappointed ones in past years. Quite a number have given from $50 to $250 to aid some girl. Others have given larger amounts without asking her permission. I take the liberty in stating that Mrs. Morris Bush, of Birmingham, in 1924 generously gave $500 for two scholarships of $250 each and she has renewed this amount for the session of 1925-26. The two beneficiaries of Mrs. Bush's noble gift are Miss Eleanor Hooper, of Selma, and Miss Vivian Cobb, of Linden, Marengo county. These girls, by securing some work around the college, are getting the full benefit of a college course.

"Another girl was graduated this year who applied four years ago with Miss Ellen Bates. Shelby S. Fletcher, of Huntsville, a former student of mine, upon being told of the large number of disappointed girls, generously offered $250 a year for four years to aid one from Madison or an adjoining county. There was no applicant from Madison, so the award was made to Miss Eunice Matthews, of Scottsboro. She has thus been enabled to complete a college course. During the present summer she is serving as supply nurse for the college infirmary.

"It probably takes less to send a girl to Alabama College than to any other college. This is demonstrated by the amount expended by the scholarship holders. Many others have contributed, but this will suffice."

President Palmer appeals to the friends of education to help these ambitious young women to prepare themselves for more efficient service to the world.

There were for Alabama College alone 58 who presented the proper credentials proving that they are ready, but must be turned away unless public spirited citizens come to the rescue, he said. "An untrained girl has, as a rule, little earning capacity. Very often she is a liability. Help her to get an education. She will then become a valuable asset to society."

SPRY AND GRAHAM CLUB SPEAKERS

Former Discusses Work at College and Latter Talks on Evolution

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 22.—At the weekly meeting of the Montevallo Exchange club Walter Spry, master teacher of piano at Alabama college for the summer and Dr. John Y. Graham, head of the department of biology of the University of Alabama were two distinguished guests. Mr. Spry was introduced to the club and made a short but very happy response, concerning his work at the college during the summer, stating that he had found Montevallo one of the most delightful places he had ever seen for spending the summer and for teaching. He was in every way thoroughly delighted with the south and with Montevallo in particular.

Dr. Graham gave a most interesting address on the subject of evolution. He is a devout churchman and an enthusiastic proponent of evolution. "When the opportunity offers I consider it my duty, first as a Christian and second as a scientist to discuss the relation of evolution and religion." He showed that evolution is not likely to undermine religion, since evolution has been taught at least since 400 B. C., and that it had never yet in any way undermined religion, or the hearts and minds of the people of the world. Evolution and religion have existed side by side throughout all of these ages and it will continue to exist. The world is more deeply religious now than ever before, he said, and he insists that evolution should be a hand-maiden to religion.

He was very bitter against materialism, saying that there was a reason behind everything. His address was enthusiastically received by the members of the club. The ministers of the town present expressed their high appreciation of his remarks, and so did all of the other members, most of whom are earnest and devout churchmen. Dr. Graham is a recognized authority in this state on science. He believes thoroughly in the development of science, but does not believe that there can be any conflict between real Christians and real scientists. He pointed out that evolution is an established fact, only the methods and development is the question in doubt. Much conflict of the public mind is the result. Materialism and rationalism should be confounded with evolution. They are separate and distinct. The differences among people come only from the methods and theories that have not been fully established. Necessarily scientists must announce many theories and no scientists claim that a theory is a fact until it has been proven. As long as people who are both scientists and Christians work together seriously on the subject there will never be any differences of opinions.

GOES TO MONTEVALLO

12' Kamm, J. B. Beard To Teach Biology In Summit School
J. B. Beard, Birmingham-Southern graduate of 1924, has been appointed professor of biology for the second term of the summer school at Alabama College, Montevallo, according to Prof. W. A. Whiting, head of the biology department at Birmingham-Southern. Prof. Beard having commenced work with the opening of the second summer school term Monday.

Since leaving Birmingham-Southern, Prof. Beard has spent a year in graduate work at Tulane University where he specialized in biology. "The recognition received by Mr. Beard is a high one for so recent a graduate," Prof. Whiting declared, "and the biology department at Birmingham-Southern is well pleased to be able to make such announcement."

College Visitors

Montevallo, Alabama, July 18.—Dr. and Mrs. John Y. Graham, of the University of Alabama, are spending the week end at Alabama College as the guests of President and Mrs. Palmer. They are much interested in many features of the college, especially in that of music. They have frequently visited Montevallo. This trip was made especially to confer with Mr. Spry of Chicago, who is teacher of the Master Class in Music in the summer school.

President and Mrs. Palmer have received the announcement of the birth of another grandson who arrived at Jackson Heights, New York, on July 4. He is named James Meehan Palmer in honor of his maternal grandfather.

20 First Session Summer Students of Alabama College Standing Exams

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 22.—Special to The Advertiser.—The students of the first session of summer school of Alabama College are standing final examinations today and will leave this afternoon or tomorrow morning for their homes. One of the most striking features of this summer school has been the master class in music, conducted by Walter Spry, associate director of the Columbia school of music Chicago and the normal class, led by Miss Elizabeth Frances Young, of the music department of Alabama College. These two classes marked a distinct advance in the teaching of music in Alabama. The members of the two classes held a meeting today and adopted resolutions concerning their work. The master class students passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, the first master class at Alabama College conducted by Mr. Walter Spry associate director of the Columbia school of music of Chicago, is a forward step in Alabama; and whereas it means much to Alabama to have artist-teachers of the first rank brought to us in summer school; for not only the teachers and students, who are studying music but all the hundreds of girls here are thus brought into contact with the best in music, and hear the concerts and talks which aid the development of music appreciation; and whereas on the financial side, being a state college the fees for musical instruction can be made less than you would pay the same teachers if you went to them in their own studios in the large cities, and excellent board can be offered at less expense than in your own home, be it resolved by the music teachers attending the first master class in summer school at Alabama College that if the high standards set in this class be maintained, Alabama College is placing wonderful opportunities within the reach of our music teachers and we hope the teachers of the state will support and encourage the college in this new undertaking.

The normal class students, composed entirely of teachers who have had a wide experience adopted the following: Whereas the music department of Alabama College is the only one in the South to maintain a separate normal training school for music teachers, which is at once comprehensive of the course of study, is arranged in a logical and practical form is thorough in its principles and in the practice of teaching both individual pupils and classes, whereas the students of the normal classes of both the first and second year courses are united in the opinion that the courses adequately meet the needs of students preparing to teach, and of those experienced teachers who wish to improve their methods and to keep step with the advance in the methods of studying and teaching of the subject, and whereas the students feel that they are especially fortunate in having such advantages within the state and at a reasonable cost under comfortable living conditions, and whereas the students are agreed that the Supervisor is an expert in the subject and possessed of unlimited interest and enthusiasm in the art of teaching, therefore Be It Resolved that we, the undersigned heartily endorse the pianoforte normal department and the work of the supervisor as being a great educational, artistic, and practical value.

Among the music pupils who have been in attendance there are some who have taken a high standing in musical instruction in this state. Miss Stella Harris, of Tuscaloosa has been a distinguished leader among the music to teachers for a number of years. She organized the first music study club in this state. Among the members of this music study club were Dr. John Y. Graham of the University of Alabama, Mrs. J. C. Perkins, Tuscaloosa and Dr. and Mrs. Palmer of Montevallo. These four, with the president of the club, held a very pleasant reunion a few days ago at the residence of President and Mrs. Palmer. Miss Harris also was the real organizer of the first music teachers association of this state, but at that time it did not flourish very long, because the music teachers of the state, did not realize the necessity of such an organization. About five years ago this society was reorganized at Montevallo. Miss Harris was present at the reorganization. Last year she was elected president of the association and is planning a great program for the coming year.

Mrs. J. C. Perkins, of Tuscaloosa, is another most interesting pupil who has done splendid work here during the summer. The part taken by she and Miss Harris at the final concert attracted wide attention. Miss Daisy Gillis is probably one of the most finished concert performers in Alabama. This is the second time she has attended the summer music school. She has been one of the foremost pupils under the direction of Walter Spry in the master class. She is now engaged in Birmingham teaching. Miss Janie Mae Eppes is another teacher, from Fairfield, who has been prominent in the master class, as well as in the normal class work. Otis C. Fincher, of Wadley, Alabama is a blind musician. He has been one of the most enthusiastic pupils of the summer school and certainly shows great ability in his chosen profession. Miss Amand McGiffort of Tuscaloosa, is one of the stronger young music teachers of the state. Her performance in the master class concert showed that she is now entitled to be ranked among the professionals, and the same statement may be made concerning the work of Miss Jewell Harris of Dothan.

EVALUATION SUPPORTED

Alabama Biologist Sees No Conflict With Bible

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 23.—(Special.)—At the weekly meeting of the Montevallo Exchange club Walter Spry, master teacher of piano at Alabama college for the summer, and Dr. John Y. Graham, head of the department of biology of the University of Alabama, were two distinguished guests. Dr. John Y. Graham gave a most interesting address on the subject of evolution. He is a devout churchman and an enthusiastic proponent of evolution.

"When the opportunity offers I consider," said Dr. Graham, "it is my duty, first as a Christian and second as a scientist to discuss the relation of evolution and religion." He showed that evolution is not likely to undermine religion, since evolution has been taught at least since 400 B. C., and that it has never yet in any way undermined religion, or the hearts and minds of the people of the world. Evolution and religion have existed side by side throughout all of these ages and it will continue to exist. The world is more deeply religious now than ever before, he said, and he insists that evolution should be a hand-maiden to religion. He was very bitter against materialism, saying that there was a reason behind everything. His address was enthusiastically received by the members of the club.

BIRMINGHAM WOMAN TO ASSIST AT MONTEVALLO

Miss Nellie Kent Assistant Physical Culture Teacher

MONTEVALLO, ALA., July 23.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Nellie Kent, director of the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. of Birmingham has been elected assistant teacher of the physical education department in Alabama College. She is a graduate of the state college for women at Columbus, Miss., and has had wide experience in physical education work. Mrs. J. D. Stradley, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Birmingham, says of her, "Her work here was very good indeed and it is with much regret that we are letting her leave and we are only doing so for the reason that the physical education department is being closed, because of the probability of new quarters, which do not include a gymnasium." The subject of physical education has been made a major subject with a degree at Alabama College. The faculty for that department has been secured that will satisfy the demands of the southern association.

Only one or two colleges in the South are granting a degree in this subject.

First Session At Montevallo Closes

MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 24.—Special.—The students of the first session of the summer school of Alabama College have stood final examinations and have left for their homes. One of the most striking features of this summer school has been the master class in music, conducted by Walter Spry, associate director of the Columbia School of Music, Chicago, and the normal class, led by Miss Elizabeth Frances Young, of the music department of Alabama College. These two classes marked a distinct advance in the teaching of music in Alabama.

The members of the two classes held a meeting today and adopted resolutions concerning their work.

MISS ANN JONES, OF LINEVILLE, IS SPENDING SUMMER AT GRANDVIEW

MISS ANN JONES attended Alabama College, during the past term, where she was voted the most popular student. She has many friends in Montgomery, where she has visited Miss Pauline Jones, a former member of the faculty of Woman's College. Miss Jones is at present director of singing at Camp Grandview.

TEACHERS LEAVE

Montevallo Instructors Take Short

Age-Headed 125
MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 30.—(Special.)—The teachers of Alabama college are going away for a short vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin will spend part of the summer term camping near Boothton. Rev. P. H. Carmichael, professor of Bible studies, is taking the month of August for his vacation. He will spend part of his time with his parents in Coosa county. Dean O. C. Carmichael and family and Dr. H. W. James and family will spend a week or two at Battle's wharf on the coast near Mobile. M. L. Orr, superintendent of the training school of Alabama college, will serve as director of the summer school for the next two weeks.

NEW HALL ABOUT FINISHED

The Janet Erskine Ramsay hall is to be completed in a few days and is pronounced by all who have seen it as the climax of dormitory construction in Alabama. This dormitory is the result of the munificent gift of Erskine Ramsay of Birmingham.

Age-Headed 125
MRS. O. B. STALLWORTH DIES
Was Mother Of The Senior Professor Of Alabama College
MONTEVALLO, Ala., July 27.—(Special.)—News has just reached Montevallo of the death of Mrs. Olivia Stallworth, of Beatrice, Ala., mother of Miss Mary Goode Stallworth, senior professor of Alabama college. Mrs. Stallworth was the widow of Dr. Goode Garland Stallworth, who was a pioneer citizen of Monroe county. She is survived by her seven daughters, Miss Mary Goode Stallworth, Alabama college; Mrs. Annie Forehand, Fort Deposit; Mrs. Genevieve Talley, Beatrice; Mrs. Ida Capell, Pensacola, Fla.; Mrs. H. N. Lee, Opp; Mrs. William Kemp, Mobile, and Mrs. Garland Scott, Indianapolis, Ind.

WRITERS TO MEET AUG. 31 TO SEPT. 4

Members Of Alabama Conclave Will Gather In

Montevallo

Phang July 28, 1925
Suitable music is still wanted for Eugenia Bragg Smith's prize song-poem, "Oh, Come With Me," and the time for submitting this music has been extended to Aug. 15, according to announcement of Claudia Waddell Roberts, publicity chairman of the Alabama Writers Conclave.

The Alabama conclave will meet in Montevallo Aug. 31-Sept. 4. Offerings for all literary contests must be in by Aug. 1, according to instructions. Contestants must state on the outside of the large envelope in which matter is mailed, name of contest for which they are entered. They must also include a small sealed envelope containing name and address of author and name of prize for which they are trying. These envelopes will not be opened until the conclave and not even the judges will know the names of the winners until they are selected. All letters not conforming to these rules will be thrown out.

Dean A. C. Carmichael, of Alabama College announces that the cost for the conclave will be reasonable for the four days, including room and board. All who can are urged to bring pillows and sheets as before but the college will be able to provide for those who cannot.

The swimming pool will be open morning, afternoon and night and three tennis courts will be available. The college would be glad to have all who plan to attend the conclave, make reservations early, it is announced.

SEALE HARRIS TO SPEAK Age-Headed 125 Will Deliver Three Addresses At Montevallo

MONTEVALLO, Ala., August 1.—Dr. Seale Harris, of Birmingham, has accepted the invitation to deliver three addresses in Montevallo on Sunday, August 2. The topic for his address before the Men's Bible class is "Toxins." This class is composed of 100 men, probably the largest Bible class in any state in a town the size of Montevallo, which has only 500 white population. Before the Y. W. C. A. of Alabama college he will speak on "Work and Worry." At the union meeting at the evening service in town he will discuss "Food Values and Vitamins." Dr. Harris was invited to talk, he said, "a very large proportion of illness is due to improper eating habits and I believe it is the duty of physicians to aid in educating the public on some of the simple facts regarding diet and nutrition." The people of Montevallo and of the college are anxious to hear Dr. Harris.

Plans For Writer's Conclave Meeting In Montevallo

News of the Alabama Writers Conclave which will be in session from Aug. 31 to Sept. 4 at Montevallo, is completed by Claudin Waddell Roberts in the appended form.

Each morning there will be a short devotional led by a member of the conclave. This will be followed by addresses given by prominent writers and professors of the state. There will be each morning a round table to which every one present is asked to contribute. "After all," says Mrs. W. F. Shillito, chairman of the program committee, "it is mutual help and inspiration, and not simply exploitation and oratory that the conclave hopes to accomplish."

At the opening meeting Monday morning there will be a "Who's Who at the Conclave," at which time every one will be asked to take part by telling who he or she is, where from, and what particular phase of writing he or she is most interested in. This will give an opportunity for everybody to know who everybody else is, and serve to break the ice generally.

The afternoon meetings will be departmental—those interested in various phases of writing meeting in groups at the same time. The subjects and discussions will grow out of the needs of each group. Inspiring leaders will preside over these group conferences and much information and help will be derived from such a plan, it is thought.

The evening meetings will be more formal and more in the nature of concerts and entertainments. On the first evening the prizes will be awarded, this being one of the outstanding features of the conclave. The sealed envelopes containing names of winners will be broken on the stage in the presence of the assembled audience. Several of the state's most gifted musicians will render programs of their own compositions. A number of noted singers will be heard. Representatives from several of our state colleges will deliver addresses. Several one-act plays will be presented. Newspaper men and women who are particularly successful in this line of endeavor will be heard in helpful talks.

The personnel of the program is soon to be announced. Mrs. W. F. Shillito promises this, and sent in the statement given above.

Mrs. Susan K. Vaughn, chairman of the college committee, sends in the results of the contest between the colleges of Alabama for the best work among their students. The story, "Jazz and Dawn," by Virginia Drewry, won the $10 prize offered by the Blue Pencil Club of the Tri-Cities. Miss Drewry is a student of Woman's College.

The poem, "The Man in the Moon," by Joyce Larkin, of Woman's College, won the $5 prize offered by Miss Lindsay.

"Refuge," a story from Alabama history, written by Pauline Faith Curry, won the $5 prize offered by Mrs. Chapman.

In the opinion of the judges, no play of sufficient merit to receive the prize offered by Mrs. Vaughn has been offered. Mrs. Vaughn regrets this very much.

The prize winners may attend the meeting of the conclave at Montevallo, and have the opportunity of knowing members of that body.

I am instructed by Mrs. Katharine Hopkins Chapman to state that a registration fee of $1 is required of each person attending the conclave, whether for the week or a day. This modest sum is all the conclave has to operate upon—postage, telephone calls, etc.

MISS CARLTON WILL JOIN MUSIC FACULTY AT COLLEGE

North Carolina Woman To Teach At Montevallo.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 15.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Clare Carlton, of Arden, North Carolina, a daughter of the well known English bass oratorio singer and teacher, Carlton, is the latest addition to the music faculty of Alabama college. She has had six years' training in Boston, two in New York and eight in London, England. In addition to these superior musical opportunities, she has had the very best general educational advantages. Besides teaching, she has sung in New York oratorio and concert and has done choral training and conducting of music festivals with Arthur L. Manchester.

She is said to have a beautiful contralto voice very like that of Madame Louise Homer in richness and depth, unusual range, clarity of tone, well pointed diction, together with artistic interpretation. She will be quite an addition to the music circles in Alabama.

MONTEVALLO CLUB ADOPTS PROGRAMS

Development Agricultural Resources In Shelby County
Theme of Week's Meeting

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 18.—Special to The Advertiser.—The Montevallo Exchange club at its regular monthly meeting adopted a program for every meeting until January 4. At this meeting J. C. Stone, cashier of the Merchants and Planters bank, spoke on "Resources and Possibilities of Shelby County." He reviewed at some length the great resources of the state of Alabama, and closed his address with an account of what Shelby county has done and can do. From statistical notes he stated that this county is a large producer of cotton, corn, peas, grain, hay, and potatoes. In fact, this county is producing all crops that are listed for the southern states except citrus fruits and rice. Probably no other county in the state has such a wide variety. The deposits of coal and iron are inexhaustible. The Montevallo coal ranks first in the union as a bituminous grate coal. Marble, granite and limestone are found in great commercial quantities. He concluded by urging the people of Montevallo to make this town a great commercial and industrial center as well as an educational one.

The meeting on September 7 is to be known as "Farmer's Day." The farmers of the county are invited to attend the meeting. They will be addressed by L. N. Duncan and Frank Boyd of Auburn, and A. A. Lauderdale, county agent.

At the meeting on September 21, Dr. C. T. Acker, just returned from New York, will speak on "The Latest in Medicine."

On October 5, W. K. McAdory will make an address on "Law Enforcement." Other distinguished speakers are engaged for every meeting.

O. Cummings, of Stewart, Ala. Miss Cummings was one of the most popular students at Alabama College for Women, at Montevallo, last season, and one of the most attractive girls who attended the college.

Montevallo Given Health Inspection By State Officers

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 7.—Special to The Advertiser.—At the request of the authorities of the college, C. A. Abele, health engineer, and H. J. Thrasher, inspector from the state health department at Montgomery, visited Alabama College Monday and Tuesday and made a thorough inspection of the dairy and all sanitary features of the institution. They reported that, as a rule, they found everything in good condition, only a few minor changes are needed to perfect the system. These will be promptly made. It is the purpose of the college to maintain a dairy of the highest standard and to enforce rigidly all of the state's sanitary regulations.

Will Teach Voice

Miss Augusta Hardin of Eclectic, Ala., has accepted the position of voice teacher at Alabama College. She has been trained under private instructors in Montgomery and New York City, and is a distinguished graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, from which institution she is most highly recommended. She has taught piano and voice in Eclectic, Florida and Andalusia, Lucy Cobb Institute in Georgia, Mississippi College for Women at Columbus and the Florida state college for women. At the latter institution she was offered the position again for next year, but declined to accept the offer at Montevallo. She has strong testimonials from all of the schools and colleges she has served.

Name Piano Teacher

Miss Hazel Swisshelm, teacher of music from Ohio Wesleyan College and a graduate student at Cincinnati Conservatory 1924-25, has been appointed teacher of piano in the music school of Alabama College. She has taught four years in Limestone College, S. C., and for two years in a private studio. She is highly recommended by directors of music with whom she has been associated.

Three Cows At Montevallo College Show High Milk And Butter Record

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 18.—Special to The Advertiser.—A leading New York daily recently commented favorably upon an extract from an address delivered by a distinguished Georgia congressman, which referred to two high producing cows of Georgia. The first was "Plain Gertie," a four-year old Jersey from Thomasville. This cow was said to be at the head of her age class in the 305-day test. During that time she produced 12,778 pounds of milk, 4.27 per cent butter fat. The second cow was Florham's Favorite Queen, in a 365-day test produced 12,959.7 pounds of milk with 5.5 per cent butter fat. This cow was a four year old Guernsey.

These statements were shown to W. J. Bailey, dairyman for Alabama College, and he was asked if he had any cows that would compare favorably with the two celebrated cows of Georgia. He at once displayed the daily and yearly record sheets for the college dairy. Cosma, a four year old registered Jersey, produced 11,854 pounds milk in 365 days butter fat 5 per cent. Oxford another four year old registered Jersey, produced 10,105 pounds of milk with butter fat 7 per cent. Wiggins, a three-quarter grade Jersey, produced 7,560 pounds of milk with the remarkable record of 9 per cent butter fat. The two registered Jerseys were purchased when calves from the noted Jemison and Prater Jersey herd at Trussville. The grade Jersey came from a Montevallo farm.

The dairyman also showed the records of quite a number of excellent registered Holstein cows, some of which nearly doubled these Jersey records one showing 4 per cent butter fat for the year. As milk and butter producers, the records give the advantage to the Holstein cows. The college has never owned any Guernseys. The best Holstein cows were reared on the college grounds. The original stock came from the George Peabody College, of Nashville, Tenn. However, one of the best was purchased from the G. C. Waite herd of Easonville. George Peabody College bought its original stock from the northwest.

Arrangements have now been made to exchange bulls with the Tuskegee Institute, whose original stock came from New York. Gradually Alabama College is bringing into its herd the best strain of Jersey and Holsteins that can be found in the country. The dairy has been placed under the strict supervision of the state's dairy inspectors.

Conclave Plans Being Made For Visitors

IN RESPONSE to many inquiries, a few points of general interest to those who are expecting to attend the annual gathering of writers to be held at Montevallo, August 31 to September 4, are being printed.

Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of Montevallo college, requests that all guests send bed linen, pillows and towels by parcel post, addressed to themselves in care of Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, who will have rooms ready for occupancy.

Montevallo is reached by the Southern via Wilton and the Louisville and Nashville via Calera. Many guests are planning to motor to the conclave. The road from Birmingham, with the exception of one or two detours, is paved and the new road between Calera and Montevallo has just been completed and is said to be in excellent condition for driving.

As has been previously stated, registration fee will be $1 and rates at the college will be $1.50 per day.

According to Dean Carmichael more than fifty have already written for reservations. Others wishing to attend are asked to write to Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, social director, stating when they expect to arrive and how long they intend to remain.

For the convenience of those who expect to attend the "authors' breakfast" given on Thursday morning in honor of the national president, League of American Pen women, the hour for that event has been set for 11 o'clock. The order of the daily program has been changed on this date. The departmental conferences will be held on Thursday from 9 until 10:20 o'clock, to be followed by the "authors' breakfast" which will take the place of the usual noon day meal and afternoon program. Miss Frances Youngblood is the capable chairman of the event in honor of Mrs. Edna M. Colman, of Washington, D. C., and her plans are full of promise for a delightful affair.

Word has been received that "Aunt Betsy" Hamilton is really coming to the conclave, and her presence is sure to add much pleasure to the gathering. Mr. W. Paul Pim, of "Baby Mine" fame, will also be present on Wednesday, and will give an informal "chalk talk" for which he is noted. Dr. John C. Dawson, of Howard college, will give a word of greeting to the writers on Wednesday.

The personnel of leaders for the departmental conferences and musicians and composers on the evening programs will soon be announced with other interesting details.

Conclave Week Features A Breakfast

ONE OF THE most brilliant events of Conclave Week will be the "author's breakfast," which will be given by the League of American Pen Women in honor of the national president, Mrs. Edna M. Colman of Washington, D. C. This event is set for Thursday morning, September 3, at 11 o'clock at the Alabama college and all writers, artists, musicians and others interested in the fine arts are invited to be present. Reservations should be made with the college in advance.

Many Birmingham people are planning to motor down to Montevallo while others will take advantage of the splendid train connections that allow one to leave Birmingham on Thursday morning and arrive in time for the breakfast.

Miss Frances Youngblood, chairman of the author's breakfast has appointed several young ladies in the sub-debante coterie to act as pages. Miss Fay Miles Benton will be page to the national president, Mrs. Colman; Miss Alice Lyman, page to the state president, Mrs. Hopkins; Miss Hattie Lyman, page to Birmingham president, Mrs. Penny, and Miss Mary McCououghy, page to the Mobile president, Mrs. Ray.

Among the prominent Birmingham writers, who are members of the League of American Pen Women are Mrs. John D. Elliott, Mrs. Alex Garber, Mrs. Rose Carrington Hood, Miss Emily C. McBride, Mrs. Mittie Owen McDavid, Mrs. W. L. Murdock, Mrs. J. E. Penny, Mrs. R. B. Tarpley, Miss Daisy Rowley and Misses Dorothy and Frances Youngblood.

23

ALABAMA WRITERS CONCLAVE IS SET FOR MONTEVALLO

Foremost Penmen of State Will Feature Most Excellent
Program.

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Aug. 22.—(A.P.)—Many of the foremost authors and writers of the state will assemble here on Monday, August 31, to attend the annual Alabama Writers' conclave. The conclave will continue through Friday, September 4.

Writers of short stories, essays, poems and newspaper features are expected at the conclave, which will be featured by a program including talks by authorities of state and national fame. N. M. Henderson of the Birmingham office of the Associated Press, will speak on the press service of which he is a part.

Dr. John C. Dawson of Howard College, Paul Pim, the cartoonist, and "Aunt Betsy" Hamilton, dialect artist, are expected to attend some of the sessions of the conclave.

The program has been announced as follows:

Monday evening 8 o'clock: Miss Maud Lindsay, presiding. Invocation, Dr. Carmichael, of Montevallo; violin numbers, Miss Alice Lyman; address of welcome, Dr. T. W. Palmer; response, Mrs. Maud Harris Hudson; musical program, Ferdinand Dunkley and artists; presentation of prizes, Mrs. C. B. Jaynes and Herbert Ward; prize song and informal reception.

Tuesday morning, 9 o'clock: Mrs. J. A. Olin, presiding. Devotional, "Who's Who at the Conclave, Everybody," "The Brain in High Gear," Mrs. Scottie McKenzie Frazier; "The Writers' Hygiene, Mental, Spiritual, Physical," Mrs. J. N. Cornelius; "Selling the Reader," Prof. Allen G. Locher (Birmingham-Southern) round table, announcements.

Tuesday afternoon, 2-3, departmental conferences.

Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock: Mrs. Jessie Wright, presiding. Original musical compositions, Lawrence Meteyard; reading, one-act play, "Before Breakfast" (Edwin Dial Torgerson), Mrs. Edwina Wood Whiteside; original numbers, Miss Mildred White Wallace; reading of prize poems.

Wednesday morning, 9 o'clock: Miss Alma Rittenberry presiding. Devotional; Market Exchange, everybody; "Collaboration," Mrs. W. T. Sheehan and Mrs. Bob Roberts; "Securing the Emotional Content," Mary Tarver Carroll; "Some Problems of Southern Writers," Prof. J. R. Rutland (Auburn); "The Southern Exposition," Mrs. Carolyn P. Engstfeld (Birmingham Public Library); open forum.

Wednesday afternoon, 2-3, departmental conferences.

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Marvin Woodall, presiding: Musicales, Miss Daisy W. Rowley, assisted by an orchestra and group of singers; Cycle of Poems, Alabama Poets.

Thursday morning, authors breakfast, honoring Mrs. Edna M. Colman, national president of League of American Pen Women, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Katharine H. Chapman, state president L. A. P. W., presiding; Miss Frances Youngblood, chairman of arrangements. (Details to be announced later).

Thursday afternoon, 2-3, departmental conferences.

Thursday evening, 8 o'clock (Confederate evening), Mrs. Eugenia Bragg Smith presiding; Group of southern songs, Mrs. O. C. Carmichael; Cycle of Southern Poems, Alabama poets; presentation of one-act play, "A Quilt for a Battleship," (Katharine H. Chapman), directed by Miss Stacy Arline Roberts.

Friday morning, 9 o'clock, Mrs. W. J. Marshall presiding: Devotional; "The Feature Story," Miss Pearl Sparks (Florence Normal); "The Essay," Mrs. J. N. Henley; "Newspaper Ethics," Mrs. Scudder Ryall; "The Associated Press," E. M. Henderson.

Friday afternoon, 2-3, annual business session, Miss Maud Lindsey presiding. Adjournment.

Friday evening, annual writers' banquet, Dean O. C. Carmichael, toastmaster.

J. D. McCREADY SPEAKS

Theological Seminary Representatives Address Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., August 19.—(Special)—J. D. McCready, representative of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., made an interesting talk to the summer school students of Alabama college. His subject was "Alphabetic School Habits." He has found upon study and investigation that there were five habits to be acquired, each beginning with a vowel:

1. Appreciation—learn to appreciate nature, art, music, good literature, and, above all, people. Many quotations were made from Shakespeare.
2. Energy—do things with a vim and strength.

3. Initiative—originate, create, carry out something. Get acquainted with people who have done something and learn of them.

4. Opening—open the day with the reading of the Bible; begin with the Psalms and not with Genesis. Open up opportunities for yourself while in college. Find something to do and do it.

5. Use—use good English. You have studied grammar and rhetoric. Use this knowledge at all times. Make daily use of all the good things that are taught in college. They are no good to you or to any other person unless used.

The talk was interspersed with much good humor throughout, and the closest attention was given by the large audience.

Alabama Writers' Conclave

President Is Remarkable And Charming Woman

THERE are many charming women who will come to the Alabama Writers' conclave in Montevallo, but there are none more worthy of the admiration accorded them than Miss Maud Lindsay of Sheffield, president. She is the author of many beautiful children's stories, and is internationally known, several of her books being used as textbooks in England.

Miss Lindsay has grown up with the Muscle Shoals district. When she was quite young she engaged in private kindergarten work in Tusculum, but a welfare worker in Florence interested her in the industrial section and she accepted the position of teacher in the first free kindergarten in Alabama, in 1897, in East Florence.

In these 28 years Miss Lindsay's influence has been incalculable. She realized the need for stories and literature to be used in connection with her work and teaching, and so conceived the idea of writing her own stories. The enrollment was so large last year that two sessions a day were taught. The necessity for this will be overcome at the next session by an enlargement of the school.

"Such a fluent writer did Miss Lindsay become," says the Florence Times, "and so vivid is her style, that she easily acquired a place of note among our living writers and is an authority in her work, not only in the south, but in various sections of the country. Miss Lindsay's first stories were published in the Kindergarten magazine. Her first book, 'Mother Stories,' was published in 1899 and in 1905 she published another, 'More Mother Stories.' Later, in 1913, another book appeared called, 'A Story Garden for Little Children,' which was from the first a favorite. This is equally true of her 'Story-Teller for Little Children,' which came out in 1925.

"Bobby and the Big Road," one of her most successful books was published in 1920. Miss Lindsay told me that about the time this book was published several things were needed at the kindergarten that the club could not afford to supply, so with much joy she let 'Bobby' give them to the children and they would point with pride to the things 'Bobby' gave them. Others have whispered to me that part of the royalties of most of her publications has found its way into her beloved work.

Two books, 'The Joyous Travelers' and 'The Joyous Guests,' were written in collaboration with Emille Poulsson, a noted kindergarten teacher of Boston, who with her sister edited the Kindergarten Magazine. Miss Lindsay has been spending part of the summer with Miss Poulsson.

"Little Missy," a story of a little girl in ante-bellum days, and "Silver Foot," the story of a horse by that name, are the latest books written by Miss Lindsay, the latter coming from the press just before Christmas. Both stories are woven around real happenings on the family plantation before and during the "War Between the States."

The people of north Alabama used to live in constant dread of losing Miss Lindsay to a larger school, but they know now that she will not leave them, for she has had many offers, some in normal colleges, from all parts of the country; some flattering from chautauqua circuits; and she has been offered the position of head of various kindergarten departments, but she has chosen to remain in the free school in East Florence, spending her time among people who need her, and love her.

The Exchange club of Florence has a book of Golden Deeds, in which Miss Lindsay's name has been inscribed, beneath which is written: "Miss Lindsay was chosen for a position in the Book of Golden Deeds because of the beauty and purity of her character and because of her consecration of unselfish service."

E. H. WILLS RETURNS

Business Manager Of Alabama College Receives Master's Degree

MONTEVALLO, Ala., August 25.—(Special)—E. H. Wills, business manager and associate professor of history, Alabama college, has returned from Cornell university, where he received the degree of master of arts in history at the close of the summer session.

TO RETURN FROM LEAVE

Miss Mary G. Stallworth, head of the art department, who has been on a leave of absence for 12 months doing graduate work at the University of Chicago, is expected to return early in September in time for the opening of the new session.

TO BE AWAY

C. G. Sharp, head of the biology department, is on a leave of absence working for the doctor's degree at the University of Chicago. He will not return until April 1, 1926. Mrs. Sharp is also in Chicago studying for the master's degree with French as her major subject.

IS APPOINTED HOUSEKEEPER

Mrs. J. K. Harris of Dothan, Ala., has been appointed housekeeper for Alabama college and will enter upon her duties August 31, at the time of the opening of the conclave of Alabama writers.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE ON IN MONTEVALLO

New Homes, Business Houses and School Equipment Assets to Town

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 31.—Special to The Advertiser.—Many improvements are being made in the town of Montevallo as well as on the college grounds. P. J. Knoell is having erected a large brick and galvanized iron warehouse on Middle street near its intersection with Main street. This will enable him to carry much larger stocks of goods for his general merchandise store than formerly.

At the corner of Middle and Main streets stands the old historic residence that was built a 100 years ago. It was for a long time occupied by former Gov. Rufus C. Cobb and is sometimes called the governor's mansion, of Montevallo. For a number of years it has been used for a beef market and shoe shop. It will soon be torn down and on the site P. J. Knoell will have a large two story brick store and bank building erected.

W. H. Mitchell of Talladega Springs is having erected an elegant store on the only vacant lot of the principal business block on Main street.

Guy L. Chamberlin is building a ten room residence on North Highland Miss Myrtle Brooke, head of the psychology and sociology department of Alabama college has nearly completed a six room cottage on North Highlands. Both of these residences will be ready for use before the opening of the college term.

Calvin B. Richmond, director of music, Alabama College, has rented the Carrie Brown residence on Walnut street near the St. George hotel. His family will be an addition to the music and social world of this community.

Furniture for the new Janet Ramsay hall is arriving daily and all will be in readiness for the use of the seniors and a part of the juniors for the coming session. This magnificent building is the gift of Erskine Ramsay of Birmingham to Alabama college.

A department of vocational home economics has been established for the secondary training school of Alabama college. Eight rooms of the "Exchange cottage" are being fitted up for cooking and sewing laboratories. Miss Batjer, a graduate of the University of Arkansas, will be in charge of the department. Heretofore vocational home economics has been presented only at the Shelby county high school. The large number of college young women wishing to take teacher training in this course could not be accommodated at Columbiana, hence the necessity for another vocational home economics school.

FURNISH DORMITORY

Equipment Arrives For New Hall At Alabama College

MONTEVALLO, Ala., August 26.—(Special)—Furniture for the new Janet Erskine Ramsay hall is arriving daily, and all will be in readiness for the use of the seniors and a part of the juniors for the coming session. This magnificent building is the gift of Erskine Ramsay of Birmingham to Alabama college.

A department of vocational home economics has been established for the secondary training school of Alabama college. Eight rooms of the "Exchange college" are being fitted up for cooking and sewing laboratories. Miss Batjer, a graduate of the University of Arkansas, will be in charge of the department. Heretofore vocational home economics has been presented only at

Alabama College Notes

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Aug. 24.—Special.—E. H. Wills, business manager and associate professor of history, Alabama College, has returned from Cornell University where he received the degree of master of arts in history at the close of the summer session. Mrs. Wills and two children, Phebe Ann and Diadama, will remain with her mother, Mrs. Gibson, at Waterloo, New York, until Oct. 1 before returning.

Miss Mary G. Stallworth, head of the art department, has been on a leave of absence for 12 months doing graduate work at the University of Chicago. She is expected to return early in September in time for the opening of the new session.

C. G. Sharp, head of the biology department, has been on a leave of absence since April 1 working for the doctor's degree at the University of Chicago. He will not return until April 1, 1926. Mrs. Sharp is also in Chicago studying for the masters degree with French as her major subject.

Mrs. J. K. Harris, of Dothan, Ala., has been appointed housekeeper for Alabama College and will enter upon her duties Aug. 31 at the time of the opening of the Conclave of Alabama Writers.

J. V. Harrison and family, of Dothan, are the week-end guests of his brother-in-law, M. L. Orr, superintendent of training school, Alabama College. Mr. Harrison is the Dothan representative of the Lincoln and Ford automobiles. He has been making an extensive tour through central and south Alabama north Florida and west Georgia.

Prof. J. Skillman Ward has been in Berlin, Germany, doing special research work for his doctors degree which he expects to complete at Columbia University, New York, in 1926. He will return to Montevallo early in September. During his absence, Mrs. Ward and children have been visiting her parents in Texas.

Mrs. Luella Grissom, former secretary of Athens College, has accepted a similar position with Alabama College and has entered upon the discharge of her duties. She is a graduate of Clinton College, Kentucky, and of the Bowling Green Business University, Kentucky. Her daughter, Miss Lucile, a recent graduate of Athens College, is spending two weeks with her before the opening of the Athens High School, where she will teach mathematics next session.

MONTEVALLO COMMITTEE AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

Seven Young Women Secure College Loans.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 24.—Special to The Advertiser.—The trustees for the Opportunity Scholarship Fund, founded by Mrs. Maude Preuit Fennel, of Leighton, Alabama, at Alabama college, announces the scholarship holders for the session 1925-26. Annis Holt Young, Oneonta; Bess Williams, Montgomery; Gertrude Robbe, Birmingham; Joy Cawthon, Florida; Ethel Drake, Benton; Helen George, Mobile; Sue Broadus Finklea, Hixon.

The fund is available only to juniors and seniors and of the number two are seniors and five juniors. Each scholarship is valued at $200 and is issued in the form of a loan. The trustees, through Mrs. C. J. Sharp, Birmingham, president, and Mr. C. M. Mauldin, Wilsonville, treasurer, make an appeal for additional funds to help other worthy students who have made good at college but who cannot finish without help. Any friend may send such contributions to Alabama college in care of Opportunity Scholarship Fund and will be assured that the money will be properly distributed and collected again for redistribution as the students graduate and become able to make payment.

the Shelby county high school. The large number of college young women wishing to take teacher training in this course could not be accommodated at Columbia, hence the necessity for another vocational home economics school.

Chairman Of Prizes For Conclave Announces More Than 200 Entries

MRS. C. B. JAYNES

Mrs. Jaynes Optimistic Over Outlook For Meeting At Montevallo

BY DOLLY DALRYMPLE

There isn't a woman in Alabama today who has emblazoned opposite her name the word "unselfish" in larger letters than the lovely Mrs. C. B. Jaynes, of Birmingham.

Always working for the good of others, losing sight of self in the world's great struggle, always gentle, amiable and kindly disposed toward her fellow-men, Mrs. Jaynes is one of the really big assets to the Magic City in every line of endeavor she enters.

Her fine spirit of unselfishness in the beautiful social affairs she was chairman of last year in the League of Women Voters, the many splendid things that she has done for the Writers Club as vice president, and the dozen and one other angles of her work in the Axis Club, Allied Arts Club, W. C. T. U. Little Theater and other organizations laid a precedent which she now follows as chairman of prizes in the Writers Conclave which will meet Aug. 31 in Montevallo.

Mrs. Jaynes, in accepting this position, took upon her shoulders a world of work for there have already been more than 200 entries, the largest number in the conclave's history.

And so in passing we doff our little summer bonnet to this lovely woman who devoted much of her time to an ideal—the ideal of helping others—and while it may be unworthy to look toward, yet it is only human to desire recognition, and so she having earned it right royally, shall be given her "place in the sun"—a very lovely place it is, too, that she has made for herself.

And so we freely donate the bit of praise she deserves at the moment of merit; a word of cheer; a token of appreciation; and the flowers we give to the living with rare beauty bloom in the garden of the spirit, making richly fragrant the wafting winds of remembrance.

Again we advocate—"flowers for the living"—for we can't enjoy them when we're dead.

All Manuscripts Intact

Mrs. Jaynes, as chairman of prizes for the conclave, announces that all manuscripts are intact and that none have been discarded, and everything is quite ready for the annual meeting on Aug. 31.

"I want to make it very clear," said Mrs. Jaynes, "that no manuscripts have been discarded. Where the names of writers appeared on the manuscripts in a sealed envelope was enclosed, I have erased the name of the writer and supplied the envelope before sending the same to the judges, each bearing a number to correspond with the number on the manuscript. Entries closed on Aug. 1 for manuscripts, except for musical manuscripts, which were closed Aug. 15.

"I mention these matters and emphasize them because rules were overlooked in many cases, the contestants being away on summer vacations and evidently did not see the announcements as carried by the various newspapers. Also, please let me say that all manuscripts will be returned after the conclave if addressed envelopes are received by the chairman; otherwise they will be discarded.

"The responses have been splendid, far exceeding those of former years, there being as many as 70 manuscripts entered for one single prize. In some classes only two manuscripts have been received; in others, a dozen or more, the total amounting to more than 200 manuscripts, all told.

"The prizes will be awarded the first evening of the meeting of the conclave at Montevallo, Monday, Aug. 31 and I am happy to have as my assistant for that occasion and in this work Mrs. Herbert J. Ward, who is so capable and efficient in every way. There will be absolutely no one who will know anything about the prize winners, until the evening the prizes are awarded, and the occasion will undoubtedly be a very exciting one for those women and men who have been working so hard for the past few months to achieve the honor."

The Judges

Mrs. Jaynes is very proud of the personnel of the judges for the conclave, many well-known and prominent men and women being included, among them Dr. John C. Dawson and Prof. P. P. Burns, of Howard College; Mrs. C. P. Orr, four members of The Birmingham News, Mrs. C. F. Markell, Garrard Harris, Battle Beale and Edgar Valentine Smith, an O. Henry prize winner; Dr. Oscar DeWolfe Randolph, Mrs. Oscar DeWolfe Randolph, C. M. Stanley, of The Age-Herald, Ferdinand Dunkley, president of the Allied Arts Club; Oliver Chalifour, Edwin Dial Torgerson, Mrs. Edwin Dial Torgerson, Artemus Calloway, Prof. Allen G. Loehr, of Birmingham-Southern College.

"The conclave, both socially and otherwise at Montevallo this year promises to be a very notable occasion," said Mrs. Jaynes. "Many guests have planned to motor down, the roads being in fine condition, to spend the day and return after the evening sessions.

"Dr. Palmer's address of welcome will be one of the outstanding features of the program and the response by Mrs. Maude Harris Hudson will also be a notable feature, the informal reception to follow, allowing everybody to become acquainted and exchange greetings.

"According to Mrs. W. F. Shillito, chairman of programs, this year's plans are the most interesting ever before made, and will surpass all other meetings.

"The conclave will be a congregation of the best minds in the state, as well as of many distinguished guests from other states. Among the prominent figures will be Mrs. Edna M. Colman, president of the National Penwomen's Club, who will come from Washington for the conclave.

"And in conclusion let me say a word about the excellent work of our president, Miss Maude Lindsay. Miss Lindsay is not only one of the foremost writers in Alabama, her stories for children being acknowledged to be among the outstanding books of the day, but her personality is very ingratiating and she is very much beloved by every member of the conclave."

Among the Birmingham women who will go to Montevallo next week to attend the Writers' conclave are: Mrs. W. D. Nesbitt, Mrs. W. F. Shillito, Miss Frances Youngblood, Mrs. C. J. Sharp, Mrs. R. B. Broyles, Mrs. W. L. Murdock, Mrs. Arlie Barber, Miss Daisy Rowley and a number of others.

MONTEVALLO HAS INTERESTING COTERIE OF VISITORS

MONTEVALLO, Ala., August 26.—(Special.)—Rev. W. D. Ogletree, pastor of the First Baptist church of Hawkinsville, Ga., and Mrs. Ogletree, were welcome visitors to Montevallo for several days, being the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Reid. Mr. Ogletree was pastor of the Montevallo church for several years. On leaving here Monday afternoon they visited relatives in Lincoln and Sylacauga.

Mrs. Edna Irvin, former social director of Alabama college, after spending one year at Columbia university working for a master's degree, has accepted the position as social director in Western Reserve university, Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Lulu Palmer, after spending a few days in Little Rock, Ark., with her sister, Mrs. H. G. Hotz, returned to Montevallo on Monday to be present at the conclave of Alabama writers from August 31 to September 4. After the conclave she will enter Columbia university, New York City, to continue her premedical studies. She has been appointed chairman of the pages for the conclave.

Mrs. Martha L. Shillito of Birmingham motored to Montevallo on Monday to confer with President and Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, Dean O. C. Carmichael and others about the details concerning the conclave. Many new names have been enrolled in the last ten days for this meeting. The special breakfast complimentary to Mrs. Coleman, president of the National Association of American Pen Women is attracting wide attention throughout the state. Miss Frances Youngblood, chairman of the Writers committee on arrangements for this breakfast, has extended a cordial invitation to the executive board of the United Daughters of the Confederacy to attend this breakfast. Mrs. Palmer, president of the state U. D. C., is sending a special request to the board to come Wednesday afternoon, September 2, in order to be here in time for the breakfast and also to go with the members of the conclave to view the Confederate ruins at old Brierfield Thursday afternoon.

MONTEVALLO ENDS SUMMER SESSION

Successful Term Ends At Alabama College With Many Graduating

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Aug. 26.—Special.—The second session of the Alabama College summer school closed Tuesday, Aug. 25. This has been the largest and by far the most successful summer school ever held in Montevallo.

Practically all of the students have taken college work leading to a degree, thus making the summer session a regular quarter in the college program. The following were graduated with the B. A. degree:

Mary Bradshaw, Beatrice, Ala.; Carrie Head, Montevallo, Ala.; Verta Mae Helms, Tiba, Ala.; Marion Hinton, Autaugaville, Ala.; Mary Margaret Newtong, Ala.; Minnie Jewel Rice, Cov, Ala.; The following with the B. S. degree: Annie C. Broughton, East Tallassee, Ala.; Virginia Edwards, Enterprise, Ala.; Mary Keller, Birmingham; Jessie Hobbs Morrison, Selma; Mrs. Mozelle B. Smith, Rockford, Ala.; Grace Waters, Birmingham; Blanche Williamson, Midway, Ala.

The following graduated with two-year course with education: Helen Allison, Springville, Ala.; Edith Arnold, Albertville, Ala.; Grace Donald, Pine Apple, Ala.; Irene Grace, Oakman, Ala.; Mary Willie Graves, Waverly, Ala.; Willie Mae Ivey, Dothan, Ala.; Katie Katz, Monroeville, Ala.; Gladys Maxwell, McWilliams, Ala.; Frances Rappart, Gadsden, Ala.

The following graduated with the two-year course with home economics: Ethel Fuller, Sprott, Ala.; Luraine Greathouse, Montevallo, Ala.; Mabel Ruby Long, Eldridge, Ala.; Lucy McCally, Birmingham; Elizabeth North, Birmingham; Mrs. Carrie D. Threaton, Hammond, La.

Mrs. Palmer And U. D.C. Board At The Authors Breakfast

Miss Frances Youngblood, chairman of the Authors breakfast, to be given Thursday of next week, during the Writers Conclave in Montevallo, has received a communication from Mrs. T. W. Palmer, wife of the president of the Alabama College, where the sessions are to be held, accepting an invitation for this fastal affair.

Mrs. Palmer, president of the Alabama division, Daughters of the Confederacy, and members of the board, a number of past presidents and heads of standing committees, will be among the guests at the breakfast; at least to the number of 16 this organization will be represented.

Mrs. Palmer has called a meeting of her executive board for Sept. 3, which will make the double arrangements so very satisfactory, and a number of Birmingham folk will be in attendance, among whom may be mentioned Mrs. Chappell Cory, Mrs. C. J. Sharp, Mrs. R. B. Broyles, who have served the Daughters as state president, and Mrs. E. L. Huey, of Bessemer, while Mrs. J. B. Stanley, of Greenville, another past executive, is expected to attend the gathering.

Mrs. Palmer plans to outline the work of the coming year, and to discuss many matters of importance; and assembling at the same time as do so many women prominent in the field of literature the meeting will be of unusual significance.

Members of the executive board include: Mrs. Palmer, president; Mrs. R. D. Broyles, of Birmingham, first vice president; Mrs. J. Q. Adams, of Ozark, second vice president; Mrs. Claude Hamilton, of Greenville, recording secretary; Mrs. J. M. Burt, of Opelika, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. W. Daugette, of Jacksonville, treasurer; Mrs. E. L. Huey, of Bessemer, historian; Mrs. W. C. Miles, of Oneonta, recorder of crosses; Mrs. Gustave Mertins, of Montgomery, director of C. of C.; Mrs. C. W. Maxwell, of Tuscaloosa, chaplain.

Chairmen of standing committees who will attend as ex-officio members include Mrs. J. H. Crenshaw, of Montgomery; Mrs. L. M. Bashinsky, of Troy; Mrs. C. J. Sharp, of Birmingham; Mrs. Lewis Crew, of Goodwater; Mrs. C. F. McDowell, of Anniston; Mrs. B. B. Ross, of Auburn; Mrs. Allie Garner, of Ozark, and Mrs. John Bradford, of Montgomery. Mrs. Bradford has recently been appointed editor-in-chief of the organization. She is president of the Cradle of the Confederacy in Montgomery, and is foremost in the work of the U. D. C. in Alabama. Mrs. Bradford succeeds Mrs. Belle Allen Ross, who served efficiently as editor of the division, and who has recently resigned the office.

NAMES BEING ADDED TO LIST FOR CONCLAVE

Many Delegates Are Enrolling By Mail. Aug. 28, 1925

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Aug. 27.—Special to The Advertiser.—The following additional names have been enrolled in the last two or three days for the Conclave of Alabama Writers which meets at Alabama college Monday, Aug. 31. Miss Annie Wheeler, Wheeler, Ala.; Mrs. Mildred Wallace Columbian, Ala.; Mrs. Marvin Woodall, Birmingham; Mrs. Jesse Wright, Mrs. Herbert Ward, 200 Grady, Birmingham; Mrs. Edwina Wood Whiteside; Miss Frances Youngblood, Birmingham News, Birmingham; Willie Hughes Tarpley, Birmingham; Mrs. W. S. Terry, Birmingham. There are now about 70 who have enrolled and many other persons have stated that they are coming. No doubt a large number will come on Thursday morning September 3, to attend the 11 o'clock "breakfast" given in honor of Mrs. Coleman, president of the National Organization of American Pen Women.

MONTEVALLO HAS WRITERS' CONCLAVE

Much Detail in Preparation For Entertainment of Interesting Body

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 20.—Special to The Advertiser.—The conclave of Alabama writers will assemble in Montevallo on August 31 for a five-day session. Much interest is being taken in the coming of this distinguished body of men and women. A reception by the college faculty will be given on the evening of August 31. The Exchange club of Montevallo, of which Dean O. C. Carmichael is president, will give an auto ride on Wednesday to old Brierfield, where General Josiah Gorgas, head of the ordnance department of the Confederate States government, had his headquarters. On Thursday morning at 11 o'clock a special breakfast will be given in the college dining room in honor of Mrs. Edna M. Colman, national president of the League of American Pen Women, Washington, D. C. A large number of distinguished men and women of Birmingham, Montgomery, Selma and other places will come by auto Thursday morning for this breakfast. On Thursday evening a special Confederate prize play written by Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman will be presented by a number of the visitors. On Friday evening the exercises will be closed with a great banquet in the college dining hall.

Many have already enrolled. Others wishing to secure rooms should send their names at once to Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, social director Alabama college. As the ladies must furnish their own bed linen, pillow and towels, it would be advisable for them to send these articles by parcel post two or three days in advance, addressed to themselves in care of Mrs. Reynolds.

The following have already secured rooms: Miss Maud Lindsay, Sheffield, president of the conclave; Mrs. Scottie McKenzie Frasier, Dothan; Mrs. E. D. Thomas, Tuscaloosa; Mrs. John Rogers, Selma; Mrs. G. H. Davis, Birmingham, president of the Federation of Music clubs; Mrs. Juliet C. Olin, Montgomery; Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman, Selma, state president of Pen Women; Miss Margaret F. Thomas, Selma; Mrs. J. R. Moore, Woman's College, Montgomery; Mrs. J. B. Cornelius and daughter, Birmingham; Mrs. J. N. Henley, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Birmingham; Mrs. Mary Tarver Carroll, Ozark; Mrs. J. W. Marshall, Eufaula; Mrs. Herbert Ward, Birmingham; Mrs. Carolyn Prowell Engsfeldt, Birmingham; Miss Annie Wheeler, Wheeler; Mrs. Martha Lyman Shillito, Birmingham, chairman of the program committee; Mrs. C. B. Jaynes and daughter, Birmingham; Professor Allen G. Loehr, wife and two children, Birmingham; Southern college; Professor J. H. Rutland and wife, Alabama Polytechnic Institute; Mrs. John Lewis, Birmingham; Miss Pearl Sparks, Florence; Mrs. Edna M. Colman, national president of the League of American Pen Women, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. I. N. Moore (Aunt Betsy Hamilton), Talladega; Mrs. Marvin Woodall, Birmingham; Mrs. Arlie Barber, Birmingham; Mrs. Claudia Waddell Roberts, Clayton; Mrs. Mildred White Wallace, Columbiana; Mrs. Scudder Ryall, Birmingham; Ferdinanda Dunkley, Birmingham; Mrs. Charles Allen, 3404 Willow avenue, Ensley; Mrs. Alice Allison Lide, Selma; Mrs. Frances Durham, Mobile; Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen, Montgomery; Mrs. Maud Harris, Hudson, Selma; Mrs. Jessie Wright, Mrs. Edwina Wood Whiteside; Miss Alma Rittenberry; Mrs. B. C. Stewart Opp; Mrs. A. A. Couric, Eufaula; Mrs. C. M. Thompson, Eufaula; Miss Daisy Woodruff Rowley, Birmingham; Mrs. Eugenia Bragg Smith, Montgomery; Miss Stacey Arline Roberts.

MANY INQUIRE ABOUT CONCLAVE

More Than 70 Reservations Made For Meeting At Montevallo

(By Associated Press.)

MONTEVALLO, Ala., August 28.—Plans for the annual conclave of Alabama Writers which is to open here Monday and continue through Friday are rapidly maturing. Many inquiries in regard to the conclave have been received, and in response to these inquiries, a few points of interest are given.

Montevallo is reached on the Southern via Wilton and the Louisville and Nashville via Calera. Persons planning to motor to the conclave will find the road from Birmingham to Montevallo paved all the way with the exception of one or two detours. The section of road between Calera and Montevallo has just been completed, and is said to be in excellent condition for driving.

More than seventy reservations have already been received, Dean Carmichael reports. Others wishing to attend the conclave are requested to write Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, social director, stating when they expect to arrive, and how long they intend to remain.

For the convenience of those who wish to attend the Authors' breakfast, to be given Thursday morning in honor of the president of the League of Pen Women, the hour for this event has been set at 11 o'clock. The order of the daily program for this date has been changed so that the departmental conferences will be held from 9 until 10:30 o'clock, to be followed by the breakfast, which is to take the place of the noon day meal and afternoon program. Miss Frances Youngblood is chairwoman of the committee in charge of this event.

Word has been received that "Aunt Betsy" Hamilton is coming to the conclave and that Paul Pim, cartoonist, will be present on Wednesday to give a chalk talk. Other details are to be announced later.

Alabama College Board Has Meeting

MONTEVALLO, Ala., Aug. 28.—Special.—The executive board of the alumnae association of Alabama College met Tuesday, Aug. 25, at the college to discuss plans for the work of this association in promoting the welfare of the college. Among those present were Mrs. R. T. Corry, president, Birmingham; Mrs. C. N. Parnell, Maplesville; Miss Ella Peters, Birmingham, and Mrs. J. W. Spinks, Birmingham.

WRITERS TO MEET

State Conclave At Montevallo Set For August 31

MONTEVALLO, Ala., August 22.—(Special)—The conclave of Alabama writers will assemble in Montevallo on August 31 for a five-day session. Much interest is being taken in the coming of this distinguished body of men and women. A reception by the college faculty will be given on the evening of August 31. The Exchange club of Montevallo, of which Dean O. C. Carmichael is president, will give an auto ride on Wednesday to old Brierfield, where General Josiah Gorgas, head of the ordnance department of the Confederate States government, had his headquarters. On Thursday morning at 11 o'clock a special breakfast will be given in the college dining room in honor of Mrs. Edna M. Colman, national president of the League of American Pen Women, Washington, D. C. A large number of distinguished men and women of Birmingham, Montgomery, Selma and other places will come by auto Thursday morning for this breakfast. On Thursday evening a special Confederate prize play written by Mrs. Katherine Hopkins Chapman will be presented by a number of visitors. On Friday evening the exercises will be closed with a great banquet in the college dining hall.

MODERN LANGUAGES STRONG AT MONTEVALLO

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 29.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Marion F. Hall, B. S., Northwestern University, has accepted the position of instructor in French and Spanish in Alabama College. She has pursued graduate work extensively abroad and has a good speaking knowledge of French and Spanish; is in Paris now, but will return in time for the opening of college. She has had three years' experience in teaching, the last year being in Miami, Fla.

Professor J. S. Ward, head of the department of modern languages, returns in a few days from Germany, where he has been doing research work for the completion of his thesis for the doctor's degree at Columbia University. He speaks the German language with considerable fluency.

Miss Mary McAllister, of Porto Rico, will conduct conversational classes in Spanish at Alabama college. She is a native of Porto Rico, but is the daughter of an American missionary from one of the southern states. She speaks English and Spanish fluently. For several years she has taught oral English to Spanish students and now will give oral Spanish to Alabama students. The department of modern language has three teachers possessing a good speaking knowledge of German, Spanish and French.

MISS ANDREWS GETS LOAN

Floralia Girl Member 1926 Class Good Student

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Aug. 29.—Special to The Advertiser.—Miss Robbie Andrews, Floralia, has been awarded a $200 opportunity loan scholarship for the coming session at Alabama college. These scholarships are founded by Mrs. Maud Fruit Fennel, of Leighton, Ala., through C. M. Mauldin, Wilsonville. Miss Andrews is a member of the graduating class of 1926. She has been president of the student government association during the summer term of 1924 and 1925. She has been a student assistant in the library for two years. Her record in the college is one of the highest in the large student body.

See next volume for further information with regard to the Writers' Conclave.

S NTEVALLO

g. 29.—Spe-
ss Marion F.
University.
of instructor
Alabama Coladuate work has a good
French and
but will re-sing of col-years' ex-ast year bed of the deges, returns ywhere he rk for the
or the doc-University.
guage with Porto Rico,
l classes in
e. She is a the daughonary from
She speaks
y. For sev-ral English
w will give dents. The guage has good speak-Spanish and

S LOAN

Class Good
g. 29.—Spe-
iss Robbie n awarded larship for ma college.
ed by Mrs.
hton, Ala., Wilsonville.
r of the e has been overnment er term of a student two years.
one of the body.

th melave.

State Federation of Clubs, 2, 14, 22,
25, 84, 85
Student Government, 26, 67, 69
Student Volunteers, 1, 70
Studley, Dr. Marion H. 88
Stunt Night, 26
Summer School, 16, 24, 38, 61, 62,
64, 80, 83, 90, 95
Taylor, Mrs. Mabel Powers, 40
Technala, 82
Tennis, 71
Tidwell, Dr. R. E. 82
Tremaine, Robert, 67
Trustees of College, 16, 24, 27, 41,
68, 76, 77, 96
Vacations of Teachers, 91
Van Guard, 1
Varnish Tree, 33
Vause, Mildred, 34
Visitors, 95
"Who's Who", 45
Writers Conclave, 75, 86, 91, 92, 93,
94, 95, 96
Y.W.C.W. 2, 16, 25, 35, 76

